Letter to Shareholders

April 10, 2024

Dear Shareholder:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of TC Energy Corporation, we are pleased to invite you to our Annual and Special Meeting of common shareholders on June 4, 2024, at 8 a.m. (MDT). The meeting will be held virtually, using a live audio webcast available at <https://web.lumiagm.com/423961867>, password “tc2024” (case sensitive). At the meeting, you will be asked to consider matters related to our usual annual business, as well as the important proposal to spin off our Liquids Pipelines business.

The virtual-only meeting format provides all shareholders an equal opportunity to participate at the meeting regardless of their geographic location or any particular constraints or circumstances they may face relating to attendance at an in-person event. It also is a more cost-efficient and environmentally friendly way to engage with shareholders. At this virtual meeting, shareholders who attend online will have the opportunity to participate, ask questions and vote in real-time, provided they comply with the applicable procedures set out in the accompanying management information circular.

Creation of South Bow

As announced on July 27, 2023, the Board of Directors approved the proposed plan to separate TC Energy into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies:

1. TC Energy Corporation: A low-risk, diversified, growth-oriented natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions company, uniquely positioned to meet growing industry and consumer demand for reliable, lower-carbon energy and lower emitting energy sources, including natural gas.
2. South Bow Corporation: A critical infrastructure company, with an unrivalled market position to connect resilient, safe and secure liquids supply to the highest demand markets with incremental growth and value creation opportunities.

TC Energy’s Board of Directors and management team are confident the proposed separation will enhance long-term value for TC Energy shareholders by creating two highly focused, premium energy infrastructure companies. Each company will be structured to reflect distinct value propositions and the ability to pursue and achieve greater success than a combined entity by executing tailored strategies targeted to distinct customer sets.

As the world renews its focus on energy security, TC Energy’s Liquids Pipelines business has experienced increased customer demand – presenting immediate opportunities that require more financial flexibility to maintain its notable competitive advantage. Spinning off the Liquids Pipelines business will allow the new entity to better focus and fully capture the incremental value that exists within the company’s unique opportunity set.

South Bow will be a low-risk, liquids transportation and storage business focused on enhancing the value of its unrivalled asset base. As a standalone entity with a distinct capital allocation strategy, South Bow will have greater flexibility to invest in strategic opportunities to expand, extend and unlock the full potential of its competitive corridor connecting WCSB crude oil to the U.S. Midwest and Gulf Coast. South Bow is expected to obtain an investment-grade rating. As a result, it will have the agility needed to quickly respond to market shifts, while delivering value back to shareholders in the form of a compelling dividend and enhanced capital allocation optionality.

TC Energy will maintain its regulated, low-risk and utility-like portfolio of natural gas infrastructure and power businesses with a balance of income and growth that continues to deliver strong shareholder returns. Focused on long-term energy fundamentals and capital discipline, TC Energy’s established and highly differentiated natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions portfolio is expected to offer competitive services that meet growing energy demand; generate sustainable cash flow; and provide runway to capitalize on large-scale opportunities as they arise. Guided by its conservative risk preferences, TC Energy will continue to make strategic investments to enhance its industry-leading position while enabling it to effectively navigate a shifting energy landscape.

Throughout its more than 70 years of success, TC Energy has established a strong track record of delivering results by maximizing the value of its assets. This continues today. The separation is expected to enhance the strategic and financial focus of each company and improve TC Energy’s and South Bow’s abilities to pursue independent and disciplined growth opportunities to better serve key demand markets. As two distinct infrastructure companies, the long-term shareholder value we expect to generate exceeds what is replicable as a single entity.

Board Updates

Delivering on his commitment to align with TC Energy's revised governance guidelines regarding board commitments as outlined in the 2023 management information circular, Mr. Vanaselja stepped down as Board chair of TC Energy effective December 31, 2023 and Mr. John E. Lowe was appointed as his successor effective January 1, 2024. Mr. Vanaselja continues to serve as a valued member of the Board.

Your vote is important to us. For the proposed separation to become effective, it must be approved by our shareholders. The attached management information circular includes important information about the meeting and how to vote. Please take some time to read the document and remember to vote. You can find more information about TC Energy in our 2023 Annual Report and on our website.

Voting

WHO CAN VOTE

Shareholders of record on April 16, 2024 are entitled to receive notice of the meeting and vote their shares at the meeting. Our Board set this date to comply with legal requirements and allow enough time for shareholders to receive and review the materials, make their voting decisions and send in their voting instructions before the deadline.

As of April 10, 2024, we had 1,037,487,829 common shares outstanding. Each common share carries the right to one vote on any item of business that properly comes before the meeting and any meeting that is reconvened if the meeting is adjourned. Subject to any further order of the Court, in order to pass, the Arrangement Resolution must be approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting. Subject to our Majority Voting Policy for director elections (see Governance – Governance philosophy – Majority voting), a simple majority of votes (50 per cent plus one vote) is required for each other item to be approved by shareholders.

As of April 10, 2024, TC Energy had nine series of preferred shares outstanding. The holders of these shares do not have voting rights at the meeting.

Registered shareholders

You are a registered shareholder if you have a share certificate or DRS Advice in your name.

We will prepare a list of the registered shareholders as of April 16, 2024, showing the names of all shareholders who are entitled to vote at the meeting and the number of shares each owns. Our transfer agent, Computershare, will have a copy of the list at their Calgary office if you want to check it during regular business hours. If you would like to view this list, please call 403-267-6800 to set up an appointment. Computershare is located at Suite 800, 324 8th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 2Z2.

Non-registered (beneficial) shareholders

You are a beneficial shareholder if your securities broker, financial institution, clearing agency, trustee or custodian (your nominee) holds your shares for you in a nominee account.

Principal shareholders

Our directors and executives are not aware of any person or corporation that beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, or exercises control or direction over, more than ten per cent of our outstanding shares.

HOW TO VOTE

You have two ways to vote:

- by proxy, or
- by virtually attending the meeting and voting.

Voting by proxy

Voting by proxy means you are giving someone else the authority to attend the meeting and vote for you (your proxyholder).

Registered shareholders

We mail the Notice directly to you, and your package includes a proxy form.

You may request a paper copy of this Circular and the TC Energy Annual Report by following the instructions in the Notice that was mailed to you.

If you are a registered shareholder, you must return your signed proxy form in order to vote by proxy.

The securities represented by your proxy will be voted or withheld from voting in accordance with the instructions provided in your proxy on any ballot that may be called for. If you appoint the TC Energy representatives named in the proxy form and specify your voting instructions, your shares will be voted, or withheld from voting, accordingly. If you do not specify how you want to vote your shares, your shares will be voted for you as follows:

- for the nominated directors listed on the proxy form and in this Circular,
- for the appointment of KPMG LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants (KPMG) as TC Energy's auditor, and authorizing the directors to fix their remuneration,
- for the approval of the Arrangement Resolution,
- for the approval of the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution,
- for our approach to executive compensation, as described in this Circular, and
- against the shareholder proposal set forth in Schedule M of this Circular.

If you appoint someone else as your proxyholder, but do not specify how you want them to vote your shares, the person can vote as they see fit.

If there are any amendments to the items of business or any other matters that properly come before the meeting (including where the meeting will be reconvened if it was adjourned), your proxyholder has the discretion to vote as they see fit, in each instance, to the extent permitted by law whether the amendment or other matter of business that properly comes before the meeting is routine or contested.

Late proxies may be accepted or rejected by the chair of the meeting at their discretion and the chair of the meeting is under no obligation to accept or reject any particular late proxy. The chair of the meeting may waive or extend the proxy cut-off without notice.

You can choose anyone to be your proxyholder – the person does not need to be a TC Energy shareholder or the TC Energy representatives named in the proxy form. You must write the person's name on your proxy form, and return the signed proxy form to Computershare to appoint someone as your proxyholder. In addition, you must go to <https://www.computershare.com/TCEnergyAGM> and provide Computershare with the name and email address of your appointee so that Computershare may provide the appointee with a username via email to log into the meeting.

You should tell this person that you have appointed them as your proxyholder and that they need to attend the meeting and vote on your behalf. Your proxyholder must vote your shares according to your instructions. Your shares will not be voted if your proxyholder does not attend the meeting to vote for you.

If you have returned your signed proxy form and you do not appoint anyone to be your proxyholder, John E. Lowe, Chair of the Board, François L. Poirier, President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or Christine R. Johnston, Vice-President, Law and Corporate Secretary (TC Energy Proxyholders) will be appointed to act as your proxyholder to vote your shares at the meeting according to your instructions.

Appointing a proxyholder

You can appoint the TC Energy Proxyholders named on the proxy form to vote your shares at the meeting according to your instructions. If you appoint them, but do not indicate your voting instructions on the form, your shares will be voted as indicated on page 10.

You can decide to appoint someone else to represent you and vote your shares at the meeting. Print the name of that person in the blank space on the proxy form. If you do not specify how to vote your shares, your proxyholder can vote as they see fit.

Take some time to read about the items of business (see pages 36-40, as well as the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this Circular, including the schedules hereto, concerning the Arrangement and the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan), then complete the proxy form mailed to you, sign and date it, and mail it in the envelope provided. Computershare must receive the completed form by 10 a.m. (EDT) on Friday, May 31, 2024 (or, if the meeting is adjourned or postponed, 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays in the Province of Alberta, prior to the commencement of the reconvened meeting).

If your package is missing an envelope, use a blank one and address it to:

Computershare Investor Services, Inc.
Stock Transfer Services
100 University Avenue, 8th Floor
Toronto, ON, Canada M5J 2Y1

If you want to submit your voting instructions by phone or on the internet, you must do so by 10 a.m. (EDT) on Friday, May 31, 2024 (or, if the meeting is adjourned or postponed, 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays in the Province of Alberta, prior to the commencement of the reconvened meeting). See the instructions on your proxy form.

Participating in the meeting and voting

If you want to attend the meeting and vote, do not complete the proxy form. Just log into the meeting using the instructions provided on page 8 and vote online at the meeting.

Non-registered (beneficial) shareholders

Your broker, its agent or its nominee can only vote your shares if they have received proper voting instructions from you. If you are a beneficial shareholder, your package includes a voting instruction form. Complete the form and follow the return instructions on the form.

The voting instruction form is similar to a proxy form, however, it can only instruct the registered shareholder how to vote your shares. You cannot use the form to vote your shares directly.

Your broker is required by law to receive voting instructions from you before voting your shares. Every broker has their own mailing procedures and instructions for returning the completed voting instruction form, so be sure to follow the instructions provided on the form which may require you to take action earlier than the deadline for voting by proxy.

Most brokers delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from their clients to Broadridge Investor Communications Corporation (Broadridge). Broadridge, or any other intermediary, as applicable, mails the proxy materials and voting instruction form to beneficial shareholders, at our expense.

The voting instruction form will name the same TC Energy representatives listed on page 11 to act as TC Energy Proxyholders.

You may request a paper copy of this Circular and TC Energy Annual Report by following the instructions in the Notice that was mailed to you.

Participating in the meeting and voting

You can attend the meeting and vote, or you can appoint someone else to attend the meeting and give them your voting instructions. In order to do so, print your name (if you wish to attend the meeting), or the name of the person you are appointing (if you wish for such person to attend and vote on your behalf at the meeting), in the blank space provided on the voting instruction form. Complete the rest of the form and then mail it to Broadridge (or to your broker, as instructed on your voting instruction form) as soon as possible. Your package also includes instructions for submitting your voting instructions by phone or on the internet if you prefer either of these methods. You, or your appointee, must then follow the instructions on page 8 of this Circular in order to attend the meeting.

Broadridge tabulates the results of all the instructions it receives from beneficial shareholders, and provides appropriate voting instructions to our transfer agent.

If you are not sure if you are a registered shareholder or beneficial shareholder, please contact our shareholder advisor and proxy solicitation agent: Morrow Sodali, by telephone at 1-888-999-2944 or by email at assistance@morrowsodali.com.

CHANGING YOUR VOTE

Registered shareholders

If you change your mind and want to revoke your proxy, you may revoke it by:

- completing and signing a proxy bearing a later date (see page 10) and delivering such proxy to Computershare by 10 a.m. (EDT) on Friday, May 31, 2024 (or, if the meeting is adjourned or postponed, 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays in the Province of Alberta, prior to the commencement of the reconvened meeting);
- sending a signed written statement (or have your attorney sign a statement with your written authorization) to:

Corporate Secretary
TC Energy Corporation
450 – 1 Street S.W. Calgary, AB
Canada T2P 5H1
corporate_secretary@tcenergy.com

We must receive your written statement prior to 5 p.m. MDT on Monday, June 3, 2024 or 5 p.m. MDT on the last business day prior to the day the meeting is reconvened if it is adjourned; or - any other manner permitted by law.

If you have followed the instructions for attending and voting at the meeting, voting at the meeting will revoke any previous proxy.

Non-registered (beneficial) shareholders

If you change your mind, contact your broker or nominee.

HOW THE VOTES ARE COUNTED

As transfer agent, Computershare counts and tabulates the votes on our behalf to ensure the votes are kept confidential. They only show us the ballot or proxy form if:

- it is required by law,
- there is a proxy contest, or
- there are written comments on the proxy form.

Information for U.S. Shareholders

THE ARRANGEMENT AND THE SECURITIES TO BE ISSUED IN CONNECTION WITH THE ARRANGEMENT HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR SECURITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITIES IN ANY STATE IN THE UNITED STATES, NOR HAS THE U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR THE SECURITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITIES OF ANY STATE IN THE UNITED STATES PASSED UPON THE FAIRNESS OR MERITS OF THE ARRANGEMENT OR UPON THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THIS CIRCULAR. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

The securities to be issued to shareholders and holders of TC Energy incentive securities pursuant to the Arrangement described in this Circular have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or any U.S. state securities laws, and are being issued and distributed, respectively, in reliance on the exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act set forth in Section 3(a)(10) thereof and exemptions provided under the securities laws of any state of the United States in which the shareholders reside. Section 3(a)(10) of the U.S. Securities Act provides an exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act for offers and sales of securities issued in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities where the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of such securities have been approved by a court authorized to grant such approval after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange at which all persons to whom the securities will be issued have the right to appear.

The securities of TC Energy and South Bow to be issued to shareholders and holders of TC Energy incentive securities pursuant to the Arrangement will generally not be subject to resale restrictions under U.S. federal securities laws, except by persons who are “affiliates” (as such term is understood under U.S. securities laws) of TC Energy or South Bow after the Effective Date, or were “affiliates” of TC Energy or South Bow within 90 days prior to the Effective Date. Persons who may be deemed to be “affiliates” of an issuer include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, the issuer, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise, and generally include executive officers and directors of the issuer as well as principal shareholders of the issuer. Any resale of such securities by such an affiliate (or former affiliate) may be subject to the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, absent an exemption therefrom. See Certain Securities Law Matters – U.S. Securities Laws.

The solicitation of proxies for the meeting made pursuant to this Circular is not subject to the requirements applicable to proxy statements under the U.S. Exchange Act by virtue of an exemption applicable to “foreign private issuers” (as defined in Rule 3b-4 under the U.S. Exchange Act). Accordingly, the solicitations and transactions contemplated in this Circular are made in the United States for securities of a Canadian issuer in accordance with Canadian corporate and securities laws, and this Circular has been prepared solely in accordance with disclosure requirements applicable in Canada. Shareholders in the United States should be aware that such requirements are different from those of the United States applicable to registration statements under the U.S. Securities Act and proxy statements under the U.S. Exchange Act.

The enforcement by investors of civil liabilities under U.S. securities laws may be adversely affected by the fact that TC Energy and South Bow and certain of their respective subsidiaries are organized under the laws of jurisdictions outside the United States, that certain of their officers and directors are residents of countries other than the United States, that the experts named in this Circular are residents of countries other than the United States and that a significant portion of the assets of TC Energy, and substantially all of the assets of certain such persons are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult or impossible for shareholders in the United States to effect service of process within the United States upon TC Energy or South Bow, their respective officers or directors or the experts named herein, or to realize against them upon judgments of courts of the United States predicated upon civil liabilities under the federal securities laws of the United States or “blue sky” laws of any state within the United States. In addition, shareholders in the United States should not assume that the courts of Canada: (a) would enforce judgments of U.S. courts obtained in actions against such persons predicated upon civil liabilities under the federal securities laws of the United States or “blue sky” laws of any state within the United States; or (b) would enforce, in original actions, liabilities against such persons predicated upon civil liabilities under the federal securities laws of the United States or “blue sky” laws of any state within the United States.

Non-GAAP Measures

This Circular references comparable EBITDA and comparable EPS, which are non-GAAP measures. It also contains references to debt-to-EBITDA, a non-GAAP ratio, which is calculated using adjusted debt and adjusted comparable EBITDA, each of which is a non-GAAP measure. These measures do not have any standardized meaning as prescribed by GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other entities. These non-GAAP measures are calculated by adjusting certain GAAP measures for specific items we believe are significant but not reflective of our underlying operations in the period. These comparable measures are calculated on a consistent basis from period to period and are adjusted for specific items in each period, as applicable, except as otherwise described in the TC Energy Annual Financial Statements and the TC Energy Annual MD&A.

Comparable EBITDA represents segmented earnings (losses) adjusted for certain specific items, excluding charges for depreciation and amortization. Refer to the Financial results section for each business segment in the TC Energy Annual MD&A for a reconciliation to segmented earnings (losses).

Comparable earnings represents earnings attributable to common shareholders on a consolidated basis, adjusted for specific items. Refer to the Financial highlights section in the TC Energy Annual MD&A for a reconciliation to Net income (loss) per common share.

Refer to the About this document – Non-GAAP measures section of the TC Energy Annual MD&A for more information about the non-GAAP measures we use. The TC Energy Annual MD&A is incorporated by reference into this Circular and is available under TC Energy's profile on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca).

With respect to non-GAAP measures used in the calculation of debt-to-EBITDA, adjusted debt is defined as the sum of Reported Total debt, including Notes payable, Long-term debt, Current portion of long-term debt and Junior subordinated notes, as reported on our Consolidated balance sheet as well as Operating lease liabilities recognized on our Consolidated balance sheet and 50 per cent of Preferred shares as reported on our Consolidated balance sheet due to the debt-like nature of their contractual and financial obligations, less Cash and cash equivalents as reported on our Consolidated balance sheet and 50 per cent of Junior subordinated notes as reported on our Consolidated balance sheet due to the equity-like nature of their contractual and financial obligations. Adjusted comparable EBITDA is calculated as comparable EBITDA excluding operating lease costs recorded in Plant operating costs and other in our Consolidated statement of income and adjusted for Distributions received in excess of (income) loss from equity investments as reported in our Consolidated statement of cash flows which we believe is more reflective of the cash flows available to TC Energy to service our debt and other long-term commitments. We believe that debt-to-EBITDA provides investors with useful information as it reflects our ability to service our debt and other long-term commitments. The following is a reconciliation of adjusted debt and adjusted comparable EBITDA for the year ended December 31, 2023:

Reported total debt	63,201
Management adjustments:
Debt treatment of preferred shares ¹	1,250
Equity treatment of junior subordinated notes ²	(5,144)
Cash and cash equivalents	(3,678)
Operating lease liabilities	459
Adjusted debt	56,088
Comparable EBITDA	10,988
Operating lease cost	118
Distributions received in excess of (income) loss from equity investments	(123)
Adjusted Comparable EBITDA	10,983
Adjusted Debt/Adjusted Comparable EBITDA³	5.1

Note

- 1 50 per cent debt treatment on $2.5 billion of preferred shares as of December 31, 2023.
- 2 50 per cent equity treatment on $10.3 billion of junior subordinated notes as of December 31, 2023. U.S. dollar-denominated notes translated at December 31, 2023, U.S./Canada foreign exchange rate of 1.32.
- 3 Adjusted debt and adjusted comparable EBITDA are non-GAAP financial measures. Management methodology. Individual rating agency calculations will differ.

THE ARRANGEMENT

The Arrangement

The purpose of the Arrangement and the related transactions is to separate TC Energy into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies: (a) TC Energy, a low-risk, diversified, growth-oriented natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions company, uniquely positioned to meet growing industry and consumer demand for reliable, lower-carbon energy and lower emitting energy sources, including natural gas; and (b) South Bow, a critical infrastructure company, with an unrivalled market position to connect resilient, safe and secure liquids supply to the highest demand markets with incremental growth and value creation opportunities. As described in greater detail under the heading The Arrangement – Details of the Arrangement, the Arrangement effects a series of transactions resulting in the transfer of the assets and liabilities comprising the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy to South Bow and the distribution to shareholders of all of the South Bow Common Shares. If you are a shareholder as of the Distribution Record Date you will receive, in exchange for each TC Energy share you hold on the Distribution Record Date, one New TC Energy Common Share and 0.2 of a South Bow Common Share. Accordingly, immediately after giving effect to the Arrangement, those persons who were shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date will hold all of the outstanding New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares. For a summary of the steps of the Arrangement and related transactions, see The Arrangement – Details of the Arrangement.

The Board recommends you vote for the Arrangement Resolution.

Reasons for the Arrangement

In recommending that shareholders vote for the Arrangement Resolution, the Board took into consideration, among other things, the following:

Comprehensive Review of Alternatives

The Arrangement is the result of a rigorous, two-year strategic review and analysis of potential alternatives for the Liquids Pipelines business conducted by the Board, management, and financial, tax and legal advisors. The Board considered a variety of transaction alternatives to address the long-term future of the Liquids Pipelines business having regard to TC Energy's strategy, operating portfolio, capital requirements and capacity, growth opportunities and ongoing energy transition considerations, including, among other possibilities: (a) the full or partial spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business; (b) a sale to a strategic or private equity buyer; (c) a joint venture with a strategic partner; (d) a minority stake sale; and (e) the status quo. Following this extensive review and analysis, the Board determined the Arrangement to be the best available option for TC Energy and the Liquids Pipelines business going forward. See The Arrangement – Background to the Arrangement.

Independent and Unique Growth Opportunities

The Arrangement is expected to result in two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies positioned to fully capture opportunities presented by long-term fundamentals driving demand for energy security, affordability and sustainability.

TC Energy and South Bow will each be a premium energy infrastructure company with vast and distinct opportunities for both organic and inorganic expansion through strategic growth projects and acquisitions. Separating the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy will enable each of TC Energy and South Bow to pursue independent growth strategies and, in particular, provide the Liquids Pipelines business with a capital structure to fund growth opportunities that may not be available to it as part of TC Energy's consolidated business.

TC Energy will be a growth-oriented, unified natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions business focused on its natural gas pipelines, storage and power businesses, with a regulated, low-risk and utility-like portfolio, that delivers approximately 30 per cent of North American natural gas demand. TC Energy will continue to develop its industry-leading approximately $31 billion¹ secured capital program with expected annual sanctioned net capital expenditures of $6-7 billion beyond 2024. South Bow will have an irreplaceable operational footprint comprising critical and strategic North American infrastructure delivering long-life, low decline WCSB and U.S. domestic supply to North America's largest oil refining and export markets. With a 4,900-km (3,045-miles) liquids pipeline network supported by investment-grade counterparties and unique long-term, committed contracts, South Bow is expected to provide stable and robust cash flows.

Independent Capital Allocation

As independent companies, TC Energy and South Bow will have independent balance sheets, which will provide them with independent access to capital markets. Each company will have the ability to align its capital allocation strategies, driven by its unique opportunity sets, with its internally generated cash flows, leverage targets and dividend commitments. TC Energy will have a capital allocation strategy that balances sustainable dividend growth – expected to be three to five per cent annually – with reinvestment in its secured capital program in alignment with deleveraging targets. South Bow is expected to have an initial capital structure that supports investment grade credit ratings, with significant expected cash flows supporting a strong and stable base dividend that is expected to grow over time and optionality to accelerate deleveraging or share buybacks.

Incremental Shareholder Value

The Arrangement is expected to maximize shareholder value by allowing TC Energy and South Bow to independently pursue disciplined growth through their distinct opportunity sets. TC Energy will increase the weight of its rate regulated business and will focus on natural gas, driven by strong long-term fundamentals and power and energy solutions, driven by nuclear, pumped hydro storage and new energy opportunities. South Bow will capitalize on its best-in-class contracting framework and will focus on enhancing value through capacity optimizations and in-corridor strategic investments to maintain and capture additional market share. Further, by offering investors two unique, independently compelling value propositions, it is expected that TC Energy and South Bow will collectively attract a wider set of investors relative to TC Energy prior to the Arrangement. Accordingly, we believe that the separate companies will, in the aggregate, achieve a higher valuation compared to the valuation accorded to TC Energy prior to the Arrangement.

Management Focus and Alignment of Equity-Based Employee Compensation

The Arrangement would result in dedicated executive leadership teams for both TC Energy and South Bow and would insulate each company from any volatility associated with the other. Further, the Arrangement is expected to improve the ability of TC Energy and South Bow to align their respective equity-based employee compensation programs with the performance of their businesses.

Investment Alternatives

The Arrangement will provide shareholders with two unique investment opportunities in TC Energy and South Bow and will allow them to initially retain ownership in both companies. TC Energy is expected to deliver long-term cash flow growth that is commensurate with its three to five per cent dividend growth rate with its portfolio of diversified utility-like natural gas infrastructure and power and energy solutions businesses, and South Bow, through its industry-leading competitive position, is expected to deliver long-term contracted cash flows with its ownership of critical and strategic liquids infrastructure.

Approvals and Procedural Fairness

The Board's recommendation that shareholders vote in favour of the Arrangement Resolution is the result of a thorough process that was conducted with the input and guidance of the Special Committee and with the advice and assistance of the Board's financial, legal, accounting and tax advisors and management. Among other things, the Arrangement is subject to the following procedural mechanisms:

- the Arrangement will become effective only after receiving approval from at least two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting;
- this Circular has been prepared and delivered to shareholders in accordance with applicable securities laws in order to provide sufficient information to permit shareholders to make an informed voting decision concerning the Arrangement; and
- the Arrangement must be approved by the Court, which will consider, among other things, the fairness of the Arrangement to the persons affected thereby, both from a substantive and procedural perspective.

Fairness Opinion

The Board has received the Fairness Opinion to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the various factors, assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the consideration to be received by shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to shareholders. See The Arrangement – Fairness Opinion.

Tax Treatment

The Arrangement will generally occur on a tax-free basis for a Resident Shareholder who holds its TC Energy shares as capital property. A summary of potential material Canadian federal income tax consequences to Resident Shareholders arising from and relating to the Arrangement is provided under the heading Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations.

The deemed distribution resulting from the Arrangement is generally intended to be tax-free to shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares. A summary of potential material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders arising from and relating to the Arrangement is provided under the heading Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations.

Consistent with Reasonable Expectations of Stakeholders

The Board has considered the reasonable expectations of all of TC Energy's stakeholders and believes the terms of the Arrangement are consistent with those expectations.

See The Arrangement – Reasons for the Arrangement.

Recommendation of the Board

The Board has, acting with the input and guidance of the Special Committee, and with the advice and assistance of its financial, legal, accounting and tax advisors and management, having undertaken a thorough review of, and having carefully considered, among other things: (a) information concerning TC Energy; (b) the Arrangement and its impact on TC Energy and all relevant stakeholders; (c) the alternatives to the Arrangement available to TC Energy, including the status quo; (d) the Fairness Opinion; and (e) such other matters it considered necessary or appropriate, including the factors and risks set out elsewhere in this Circular: (a) determined that the Arrangement is in the best interests of TC Energy; (b) approved the Arrangement, the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; and (c) directed that the Arrangement be submitted to shareholders for approval and recommended that shareholders vote for the Arrangement Resolution and for the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution.

Fairness Opinion

Evercore has delivered to the Board a written opinion, dated April 10, 2024, to the effect that, as of such date, based upon and subject to the various factors, assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the consideration to be received by shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to shareholders.

The full text of the Fairness Opinion, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and any limitations on the Fairness Opinion and the review undertaken in connection therewith, is contained in Schedule D to this Circular. The summary of the Fairness Opinion set forth in this Circular is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion and shareholders are urged to read the Fairness Opinion carefully and in its entirety.

The Fairness Opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the resolutions to be considered by shareholders at the meeting or any other matter. The Fairness Opinion does not address any other aspect of the Arrangement or any related transaction, including any legal, tax or regulatory aspects of the Arrangement that may be relevant to TC Energy or shareholders, and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Arrangement in comparison to other strategic alternatives that may be available to TC Energy. The Fairness Opinion is only one factor that was taken into consideration by the Board in making its determination to recommend that shareholders vote in favour of the Arrangement Resolution. For further details, see The Arrangement – Fairness Opinion.

Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings

The obligation of TC Energy to complete the Arrangement is subject to fulfillment, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of certain conditions, including the following:

- (b) the Arrangement Resolution shall have been approved by the requisite number of votes cast by shareholders at the meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Interim Order and applicable laws;
- (c) the Final Order shall have been obtained and shall not have been set aside;
- (d) all material consents, orders, rulings, approvals, opinions and assurances, including regulatory, judicial, third party and advisor opinions, approvals and orders, required or necessary, in the sole discretion of TC Energy, for the completion of the Pre-Arrangement Transactions, the Arrangement, the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement and the Tax Rulings shall have been obtained or received from the persons having jurisdiction in the circumstances and all will be in full force and effect, and none of such consents, orders, rulings, approvals, opinions or assurances shall contain terms or conditions or require undertakings or security that are considered unsatisfactory or unacceptable by TC Energy, in its sole discretion;
- (e) no action shall have been instituted and be continuing on the Effective Date for an injunction to restrain, a declaratory judgment in respect of, or damages on account of or relating to, the Arrangement and there shall not be in force any order or decree restraining or enjoining the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, the Tax Rulings or the Rulings Applications and no cease trading or similar order with respect to any securities of TC Energy, South Bow or SBPL shall have been issued and remain outstanding;
- (f) no law, regulation or policy shall have been proposed, enacted, promulgated or applied that interferes or is inconsistent with the completion of the Pre-Arrangement Transactions, the Arrangement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement or the Tax Rulings or the effective application of the Tax Rulings to the Arrangement, including any material change to the income tax laws of Canada or the United States, or any province, state or territory thereof;
- (g) the Tax Rulings, having been issued by the CRA and IRS, respectively, shall remain in full force and effect and all of the transactions referred to in such Tax Rulings as occurring on or prior to the Effective Time will have occurred and all conditions or terms of such Tax Rulings shall have been satisfied;
- (h) TC Energy will have received an opinion from White & Case LLP, satisfactory to the Board, regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters relating to the Arrangement;
- (i) the TSX will have conditionally approved the listing thereon of the TC Energy Special Shares and TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan, in each case, prior to the Effective Time and subject only to compliance with the usual requirements of the TSX;
- (j) the NYSE will have approved, subject to notice of issuance, the listing thereon of the TC Energy Special Shares and TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan, in each case, prior to the Effective Time;

- (l) TC Energy and South Bow shall each have been assigned an Investment Grade Rating by any two of S&P, Moody's and Fitch and such ratings shall remain in effect as of the Effective Time;
- (m) there shall not have occurred a Material Adverse Effect of TC Energy, South Bow or SBPL; and
- (n) the Arrangement Agreement will not have been terminated pursuant to the provisions thereof.

If any of the conditions set forth in the Arrangement Agreement are not fulfilled or performed, on or prior to the Effective Time, TC Energy may terminate the Arrangement or waive, in its discretion, the applicable condition in whole or in part; provided, however, that the conditions described above in paragraphs (b), (c), (f), as it relates to the Tax Rulings, (g), (i), (j), and (l) may not be waived by TC Energy.

The Canadian Tax Ruling received from the CRA contains income tax rulings binding on the CRA which confirm that the transfer of the Transferred Property may be accomplished on a tax-free basis, and certain other tax matters related to the Arrangement, provided that the material facts presented are accurately stated, the transfer is implemented as disclosed to the CRA and certain other conditions are satisfied. This requires, among other things, that the Arrangement complies with all requirements of the public company “butterfly” rules in Section 55 of the Tax Act.

The Arrangement is structured to comply with these rules. However, there are certain requirements of these rules that may depend on events occurring after the Arrangement is completed or that may not be within the control of TC Energy and/or South Bow. For example, under Section 55 of the Tax Act, TC Energy and/or South Bow will recognize a taxable gain on the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property if: (a) a “specified shareholder” were to exist and such “specified shareholder” disposes of TC Energy or South Bow shares (or property that derives 10 per cent or more of its fair market value from such shares or property substituted therefor) to an unrelated person or to a partnership as part of the series of transactions which includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property; (b) there is an acquisition of control of TC Energy or of South Bow that is part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property; (c) a person unrelated to South Bow acquires in the aggregate (generally otherwise than in the ordinary course of operations of South Bow), as part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property, property acquired on the transfer by TC Energy that has a fair market value greater than 10 per cent of the fair market value of all property received by South Bow in the Arrangement; (d) a person unrelated to TC Energy acquires in the aggregate (generally otherwise than in the ordinary course of operations of TC Energy), as part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property, property retained by TC Energy on the Arrangement that has a fair market value greater than 10 per cent of the fair market value of all property retained by TC Energy in the Arrangement; or (e) certain persons acquire shares of TC Energy (other than in specified permitted transactions) in contemplation of, and as part of the series of transactions that includes, the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property. If any of the above events were to occur and to cause the Arrangement to be taxable to TC Energy or to South Bow under Section 55 of the Tax Act, TC Energy or South Bow, as applicable, and in some cases, both TC Energy and South Bow, would be liable for a substantial amount of tax. In addition, if such an event were due to an act of TC Energy or South Bow (or one of their respective Affiliates), or an omission by one of them to act, TC Energy or South Bow, as applicable, would generally be required to indemnify the other party for taxes under the Tax Matters Agreement.

TC Energy has received the U.S. Tax Ruling from the IRS on certain issues relating to the qualification of the Arrangement as generally tax-free under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355(a), and related provisions of the U.S. Code. In addition, it is a condition to the Arrangement that TC Energy receive an opinion from White & Case LLP, satisfactory to the Board, regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters relating to the Arrangement.

The opinion of White & Case LLP will be conditioned upon the continuing validity of the U.S. Tax Ruling. In addition, the U.S. Tax Ruling is, and the opinion of White & Case LLP will be, based upon and rely on, among other things, various facts and assumptions, as well as certain representations, statements and undertakings of TC Energy and South Bow (including those relating to the past and future conduct of TC Energy and South Bow). If any of these representations, statements or undertakings is, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, or if TC Energy or South Bow breach any of their respective representations or covenants contained in any of the separation-related agreements and documents or in any documents relating to the U.S. Tax Ruling and/or the opinion of White & Case LLP, the U.S. Tax Ruling and/or such opinion may be invalid and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. In addition, to the extent that certain additional transactions are entered into and/or executed by TC Energy or South Bow that are not fully disclosed in the U.S. Tax Ruling, the IRS can, to the extent such deviations from the disclosed facts, assumptions or undertakings impact the tax treatment of the transaction, retroactively revoke or require modification of the U.S. Tax Ruling.

Accordingly, notwithstanding the U.S. Tax Ruling or the opinion of White & Case LLP, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to one or more of the conclusions in the U.S. Tax Ruling or such opinion. In addition, neither the U.S. Tax Ruling nor the opinion of White & Case LLP address or will address all of the issues that are relevant to determining whether the Arrangement, together with certain related transactions, qualifies as a transaction that is generally tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares. An opinion of a tax advisor represents the judgment of such tax advisor and is not binding on the IRS or any court, and the IRS or a court may disagree with the conclusions in the opinion(s) of such tax advisor. Thus, TC Energy cannot provide assurances that the intended U.S. tax treatment will be achieved, or that U.S. Holders will not incur substantial U.S. federal income tax liabilities in connection with the Arrangement and certain related transactions. For a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the Arrangement to U.S. Holders, see Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Arrangement.

To preserve the intended tax treatment of the Arrangement, for a period of time following the Arrangement, TC Energy and South Bow may be prohibited, except in specific circumstances, from taking or failing to take certain actions under the Tax Matters Agreement. The foregoing restrictions may limit, for a period of time, the ability of TC Energy and/or South Bow to pursue certain strategic transactions or other transactions that either company believes to be in the best interests of its shareholders or that might increase the value of its business. For a discussion of the risk factors relating to the preservation of the intended tax treatment of the Arrangement, see The Arrangement – Risk Factors Relating to the Arrangement.

See also The Arrangement – Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings.

Court Approval

An arrangement of a corporation under the CBCA requires court approval. On April 9, 2024, TC Energy obtained the Interim Order authorizing the calling and holding of the meeting and providing for certain other procedural matters. The Interim Order is attached as Schedule E to this Circular. If shareholders approve the Arrangement Resolution at the meeting in the manner set forth in the Interim Order, TC Energy will apply to the Court to obtain the Final Order approving the Arrangement. The hearing of the application for the Final Order is scheduled to take place at the Calgary Courts Centre, 601 – 5th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, on June 4, 2024 at 3:30 p.m. (MDT) or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard. Any shareholder or any other interested party desiring to appear and make submissions at the application for the Final Order may do so, provided that they comply with the applicable procedural requirements set forth in the Interim Order and the Notice of Application. The Court, when hearing the application for the Final Order, will consider, among other things, the fairness of the Arrangement, both from a substantive and a procedural perspective, to the shareholders and any other interested party as the Court determines appropriate. The Court may approve the Arrangement in any manner it may direct and determine appropriate.

See The Arrangement – Court Approval of the Arrangement.

Shareholder Approval

In order to pass:

- subject to any further order of the Court, the Arrangement Resolution must be approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting; and
- the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution must be approved by at least a simple majority of the votes cast by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting.

See The Arrangement – Shareholder Approval of the Arrangement and Related Matters.

You will also vote on authorizing the directors to fix the auditor’s remuneration.

The Board recommends you vote for appointing KPMG as auditor of TC Energy and authorizing the directors to fix their remuneration:

RESOLVE to appoint KPMG as auditor of TC Energy until the close of our next annual meeting of shareholders, and authorize the directors to fix their remuneration.

Through the processes described in the Auditor Independence section we have confirmed KPMG is independent with respect to TC Energy within the meaning of the relevant rules and related interpretations prescribed by all relevant professional bodies in Canada and applicable legal requirements and also that they are independent accountants with respect to TC Energy under all relevant U.S. professional and regulatory standards.

Representatives of KPMG will attend the meeting, have an opportunity to make a statement and respond to any questions.

Stakeholder engagement

In response to receiving a 75.33 per cent vote in favour of the appointment of KPMG as TC Energy’s auditor at our 2022 annual meeting, TC Energy undertook an extensive stakeholder engagement strategy through late 2022 and 2023, which included engagement with certain investors who voted against the appointment of KPMG and those whose voting policies identified the KPMG appointment as an area of concern. At our 2023 annual meeting, the vote in favour of the appointment of KPMG as TC Energy's auditor increased to 89.00 per cent (613,576,171 votes in favour and 75,802,855 votes withheld).

TC Energy remains committed to engaging with stakeholders on the topic of auditor independence and tenure. In 2023, TC Energy's CEO, CFO, other members of management and Investor Relations participated in approximately 550 meetings with shareholders and bondholders, including over 60 meetings on ESG-specific topics, some focused on how the Audit Committee satisfies itself of ongoing auditor independence and tenure considerations.

For more information on TC Energy's overall shareholder engagement strategy, please see page 121 and for more information on the comprehensive review of the external auditor, please see page 39.

Auditor fees

The table below shows the services KPMG provided during the last two fiscal years and the fees they invoiced us:

($ millions)	2023	2022
Audit fees	18.5	14.2
• audit of the annual consolidated financial statements
• services related to statutory and regulatory filings or engagements
• review of interim consolidated financial statements and information contained in various prospectuses and other securities offering documents
Audit-related fees	0.9	0.3
• services related to the audit of the financial statements of TC Energy pipeline abandonment trusts, certain post-retirement plans, and certain special purpose audits
• French and Spanish translation services
Tax fees	1.5	0.8
• Canadian and international tax planning and tax compliance matters, including the review of income tax returns and other tax filings
All other fees	0.2	0.2
• Fees for other products and services provided by the auditors not described above, which included fees related to advice and assistance with ESG services
Total fees	21.1	15.5

Note

- 2023 total fees are higher than 2022 due to increased audit work related to (i) the sale of a 40 per cent non-controlling equity interest in Columbia Gas and Columbia Gulf to GIP; (ii) the Arrangement and additional securities work.

Pre-Approval Policy for Audit and Non-Audit Services

The Audit Committee maintains a Pre-Approval Policy with respect to permitted non-audit services and audit services. For non-audit service engagements of up to $250,000, approval of the Audit Committee chair is required, and the Audit Committee is to be informed of the engagement at the next scheduled Audit Committee meeting. For all non-audit service engagements of $250,000 or more, pre-approval of the Audit Committee is required.

As required under professional standards, KPMG is required to have any proposed non-audit services pre-approved by the Audit Committee or the Chair of the Audit Committee. The pre-approval process for non-audit services requires that KPMG provide a written description of the service, an assessment of the independence considerations related to the service and a description of the nature and magnitude of the proposed fees. Prior to pre-approving any non-audit services, the Audit Committee and/or Audit Committee Chair considers the following factors:

- the independence assessment provided by KPMG,
- the process under which management has assessed that KPMG is best suited to perform the non-audit services, and
- the magnitude of the fees relative to total fees paid to KPMG.

Auditor independence

TC Energy recognizes that auditor independence is critical to the integrity of our financial information. As such, TC Energy's auditor selection process is designed to maintain auditor independence while balancing a need for continuity of knowledge in order to ensure a high-quality audit provided by an audit firm with the depth and breadth of experience to effectively and efficiently audit a multi-national company with complex operations.

The Audit Committee continuously assesses the external auditor and, on an annual basis, reviews audit quality, auditor tenure and appropriateness of audit fees, including the benefits and risks of having a long-tenured auditor and the controls and processes that ensure their independence. This assessment also considers the nature, extent and permissibility of any proposed non-audit services and adherence to the mandatory partner rotation requirements.

Below are additional details regarding factors the Audit Committee considered when assessing independence.

Audit Committee expertise and independence reviews

All members of the Audit Committee are independent and financially literate. One member of the Audit Committee is a designated financial expert under NYSE rules.

As part of its annual assessment on independence, the Audit Committee receives and reviews the auditor's reports regarding independence. The committee also considers whether any factors are present that may impair the independence of the auditor at each meeting of the committee. The auditor maintains an open and direct line of communication with both the Chair of the Audit Committee and the Audit Committee.

The TC Energy AIF includes more information about the Audit Committee, including the committee charter, beginning on page 34 of the TC Energy AIF. The TC Energy AIF is available on our website (www.tcenergy.com) and on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca).

Fee magnitude and objectivity considerations

The Audit Committee understands that the magnitude of fees paid to an auditor could negatively impact auditor independence if a financial interest will inappropriately influence an auditor's judgment or behaviour. In reaching the conclusion to recommend the re-appointment of KPMG as our external auditor, the Audit Committee considered the magnitude of the fees that TC Energy pays to KPMG Calgary and KPMG Houston in context of the size of their respective firms. For 2023, KPMG has confirmed to the Audit Committee that the fees payable to KPMG are not material to KPMG LLP (Canada) or KPMG LLP (US).

Similarly, there is a threat to independence if an auditor will be deterred from acting objectively because of actual or perceived pressures. We consider safeguards that KPMG has implemented to manage this threat as an important element of our assessment of audit quality. The safeguards against this risk include:

- the assignment of an engagement quality control review partner to the audit engagement by a risk management partner,
- the involvement of experienced national office professionals outside of the engagement team when dealing with complex or judgmental matters,
- the structure of the respective firms, and
- compensation policies in place.

Given the Audit Committee's understanding of the relative magnitude of fees paid to each respective firm, as well as the Audit Committee's observations of safeguards that have been implemented by KPMG, the Audit Committee is satisfied these threats to auditor independence have been appropriately managed.

Canadian and U.S. partner rotations and partner qualifications

As part of the annual review of auditor independence, the Audit Committee assesses KPMG's ongoing compliance with mandatory rotation requirements. This means that the lead audit partner and quality control review partner may serve a maximum of five years, followed by a five-year period without any involvement in the TC Energy audit, before they can be re-considered for a partner role. For other audit partners of KPMG involved in the TC Energy audit, which includes the lead partner and quality control review partner from KPMG's Houston team, the mandatory rotation occurs after a maximum of seven years of service followed by a two-year period without any involvement in the TC Energy audit. This rotation helps ensure auditor independence is maintained by changing the key personnel working on TC Energy's audits after a set period of time.

In addition to the partner rotations described above, all lead partners and quality control review partners must satisfy the following minimum requirements:

- Chartered Professional Accountant, in good standing,
- industry-specific experience,
- completion of relevant professional development and accreditation training,
- knowledge of, and experience with, the applicable financial reporting framework and auditing standards, and

- knowledge of, and experience with, the SEC rules and regulations.

The Audit Committee is satisfied with KPMG's ongoing compliance with the regulatory mandated rotation requirements (five and seven years as applicable in the circumstances) as well as the transition plans that have been followed to on-board qualified engagement partners who are new to providing audit services to TC Energy.

2015 Request for proposal

In 2015, it was determined that a request for proposal (RFP) process would further strengthen the external audit process and auditor independence. The Audit Committee oversaw this RFP for TC Energy's external audit engagement and conducted a detailed assessment of the submissions from large multi-national firms, including interviews with each firm. A limited number of potential audit firms had the breadth of capabilities required to provide high-quality, independent audit services to a company of TC Energy's scope, geographic presence and complexity of operations.

Requirements and factors which determined the successful candidate included:

- the experience, qualifications and ability to audit a large-scale, energy-focused, public company, headquartered in Canada with significant operations in the U.S. and Mexico,
- familiarity with complex rate-regulated accounting,
- no conflicts with TC Energy through existing non-audit services provided to TC Energy nor close relationships with competitor companies in the industry,
- availability of resources and local access to U.S. GAAP expertise,
- audit quality and auditor tenure, and
- appropriateness of fees.

Based on the results of this process, the Audit Committee and Board recommended KPMG continue as TC Energy's external auditor, subject to its annual review of auditor performance, including audit quality and independence considerations. The Audit Committee made its recommendation based on KPMG's qualifications, experience and other decision criteria, including KPMG's ability to provide a quality audit that met the requirements of TC Energy and its shareholders, taking into account the scope, geographic presence and complexity of TC Energy's business.

Periodic comprehensive review of auditor

In order to further enhance the governance processes relating to assessing auditor independence and audit quality, in November 2022, the Audit Committee approved amendments to the Audit Committee's charter to mandate the completion of a comprehensive review of the external auditor at least every five years. Such a review is contained as a recommendation of the Enhancing Audit Quality initiative of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Public Accountability Board and the Institute of Corporate Directors. The comprehensive review is intended to enhance audit quality through a deeper and broader analysis of the external auditor than in the annual assessment.

This fulsome and detailed review is intended to provide the Audit Committee data on three indicia of audit quality:

- independence, objectivity and professional skepticism,
- quality of engagement team, and
- quality of communications and interactions with the external auditor.

The Audit Committee reviews the results of the comprehensive review and uses it to assess whether a fulsome request for proposal process is required.

This comprehensive review was completed in 2023 and supported the recommendation to appoint KPMG as TC Energy's external auditor.

Audit Committee independence recommendation

In reaching the conclusion to recommend KPMG as external auditor to serve for the 2024 financial year, the Audit Committee reviewed the above factors relating to auditor independence and confirmed it was satisfied that KPMG is independent within the meaning of applicable Canadian and U.S. securities rules.

THE ARRANGEMENT RESOLUTION

You will be asked to vote on the Arrangement Resolution, the full text of which is attached as Schedule A to this Circular. ADVISORY VOTE ON OUR APPROACH TO EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

You will have an opportunity to have a say on pay by participating in the advisory vote on our approach to executive compensation. The Board believes the vote is beneficial because it holds directors accountable to shareholders for their decisions on executive compensation and provides valuable feedback.

While the vote is non-binding, the Board will take the results into consideration when it considers compensation policies, procedures and decisions in the future. We will disclose the results of the advisory vote in our report on voting results for the meeting, which will be posted on our website (www.tcenergy.com) and on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca).

Since 2010, we have held annual say on pay votes at our annual shareholder meetings. Over the last three years, these advisory votes were approved by a significant majority of shareholders to accept our approach to executive compensation.

Year	Votes in favour	Votes against
2023	634,750,021 (94.20%)	39,104,279 (5.80%)
2022	675,474,620 (97.70%)	15,918,656 (2.30%)
2021	625,013,275 (94.81%)	34,189,827 (5.19%)

The Board recommends you vote for our approach to executive compensation:

RESOLVE on an advisory basis, without diminishing the role and responsibilities of TC Energy’s Board, that the shareholders accept the approach to executive compensation disclosed in TC Energy’s Circular dated April 10, 2024.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL

We received two shareholder proposals, one from the British Columbia Investment Management Corporation (BCI) and the other from the Salal Foundation. Following a series of meetings with BCI at which we listened to their concerns and explained the extent of our efforts to build a foundation toward increasingly rigorous levels of Scope 1 and 2 GHG assurance, focus on methane and differences between assurance over midstream industry operations versus the peers that BCI listed, as well as the impact of their proposal to our near-term strategic priorities, BCI has withdrawn their proposal. In response to their concerns, we have agreed that, by the end of July 2025, we will publish a Roadmap to Reasonable Assurance on GHG Reporting and reassess Oil & Gas Methane Partnership 2.0 membership and publish a summary of our reassessment. We have also agreed to include BCI’s proposal and supporting statement in Schedule M to this Circular; however, it will not be voted upon by shareholders.

Accordingly, shareholders are being asked to vote only on the shareholder proposal from the Salal Foundation. Please refer to Schedule M for such shareholder proposal, supporting statement and our response.

The Board recommends you vote against this shareholder proposal.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board and management are not aware of any other items to be properly brought before the meeting.

Election of Directors

Our articles currently state that the Board must have a minimum of eight and a maximum of 15 directors. The Board has determined that 13 directors will be elected at the meeting.

The Board believes this size is appropriate based on the scope of our business, the skills and experience of the nominated directors and the four standing committees and to achieve effective decision-making. It believes that all of the nominated directors are well qualified to serve on the Board.

Twelve of the 13 nominated directors (92 per cent) are independent within the meaning of Canadian and applicable U.S. securities laws, regulations and policies and the applicable rules of the TSX and NYSE. The only exception is Mr. Poirier because of his role as President and CEO.

The profiles on the following pages show each director’s holdings in TC Energy shares at March 31, 2023 and as of the date of this Circular. TC Energy DSUs are calculated on the basis of retainer fees paid in 2023 and dividend equivalents credited up to March 31, 2023 and March 28, 2024. The profiles also indicate the year the director joined the Board and has continually served as a director of TC Energy.

All of the nominated directors are Canadian residents except for Ms. Campbell, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Lowe, Ms. Salomone, Mr. Vandal and Mr. Verma who are U.S. residents. Mr. Vandal also holds Canadian citizenship.

We have share ownership requirements for our directors and executives to align their interests with those of our shareholders.

As of the date of this Circular, all of our directors are in compliance with our director Share Ownership Policy or are not yet required to meet the requirements given the length of their tenure on the Board, see Director Compensation Discussion and Analysis on page 139 for more information.

The at-risk investment reflects the total market value of the director’s TC Energy shares and TC Energy DSUs based on the closing share price on the TSX of $50.83 on April 10, 2024. See At-Risk Investment on pages 144 and 145 for more information.

Each nominated director has expressed their willingness to serve on our Board until our next annual meeting of shareholders.

If elected, they will also serve on the Board of TCPL, our main operating subsidiary.

SERVING TOGETHER ON OTHER BOARDS

While the Board does not prohibit directors having common membership on other boards, the Board reviews potential common membership on other boards as they arise to determine whether it affects the ability of those directors to exercise independent judgment as members of TC Energy's Board.

Currently, none of our directors serve together on another board. There are no board interlocks.

We also place limits on the number of public company boards that our directors may serve on. See Governance – Serving on other boards on page 101.

MEETING ATTENDANCE

We expect our directors to demonstrate a strong commitment to their roles and responsibilities while serving on our Board. The table below shows each director's 2023 attendance record, which averaged 97 per cent for all Board and Committee meetings. The table reflects attendance at all meetings, including four special meetings which were called on relatively short notice. The Board also held its annual strategic planning session, along with and two in-depth educational sessions in 2023.

The Arrangement

The following contains only a summary of the Plan of Arrangement, the Arrangement and the Arrangement Agreement and certain related agreements and matters. Shareholders are urged to read the more detailed information included elsewhere in, or incorporated by reference into, this Circular, including the Plan of Arrangement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to Schedule C to this Circular, Section 192 of the CBCA and the Arrangement Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Schedule C to this Circular.

SUMMARY OF THE ARRANGEMENT

The purpose of the Arrangement and the related transactions is to separate TC Energy into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies: (a) TC Energy, a low-risk, diversified, growth-oriented natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions company, uniquely positioned to meet growing industry and consumer demand for reliable, lower-carbon energy and lower emitting energy sources, including natural gas; and (b) South Bow, a critical infrastructure company, with an unrivalled market position to connect resilient, safe and secure liquids supply to the highest demand markets with incremental growth and value creation opportunities. As described in greater detail under the heading The Arrangement – Details of the Arrangement, the Arrangement effects a series of transactions resulting in the transfer of the assets and liabilities comprising the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy to South Bow and the distribution to shareholders of all of the South Bow Common Shares. If you are a shareholder as of the Distribution Record Date, you will receive, in exchange for each TC Energy share you hold on the Distribution Record Date, one New TC Energy Common Share and 0.2 of a South Bow Common Share. Accordingly, immediately after giving effect to the Arrangement, those persons who were shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date will hold all of the outstanding New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares.

BACKGROUND TO THE ARRANGEMENT

TC Energy continually reviews options available to optimize its portfolio of assets and corresponding capital structure in order to enhance long-term shareholder value. The Arrangement is a result of a series of comprehensive reviews of the Liquids Pipelines business by TC Energy's management and the Board.

The following is a summary of the strategic assessments, options evaluated, and opportunities pursued, which ultimately led to the decision to execute a separation of the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy's Natural Gas Pipelines business and Power and Energy Solutions (the Natural Gas Pipelines business and Power and Energy Solutions will collectively comprise TC Energy following the completion of the Arrangement) through a generally tax-free spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business to TC Energy's shareholders. Over the course of this process, the Board has consulted with management, and with financial, legal and tax advisors in order to assist in evaluating the merits of the various alternatives.

In November 2020, management initiated a review of strategic alternatives for the Liquids Pipelines business for the Board under scenarios with and without Keystone XL, which included: (a) growing and re-investing in the business; (b) optimizing the business and harvesting the cash flows; and (c) exiting the business. At the time, the Liquids Pipelines business had the opportunity to meaningfully grow, after having sanctioned and secured funding for Keystone XL, through a strategic partnership with the Government of Alberta. After this initial strategic review and transaction, management continued to monitor key signposts to inform potential preferred future alternatives and timing.

In January 2021, President Biden revoked the presidential permit for Keystone XL, and the project was subsequently terminated by TC Energy in June of 2021. With the inability to execute on a strategic and transformational project such as Keystone XL, TC Energy initiated a comprehensive strategic review of the Liquids Pipelines business; this time with the support of financial advisors.

These financial advisors subsequently completed and presented their analysis to the Board in the following three parts:

- On February 18, 2021, they presented an analysis of the macro environment and industry outlook, as it related to market fundamentals, energy transition, and the potential impacts these would have on TC Energy's long-term portfolio and investment strategy.
- On May 6, 2021, they issued their review and assessment of TC Energy's strategic outlook for its diversified portfolio, including capital markets positioning and segmented valuation of the various business lines.
- On July 28, 2021, they shared the rationale for a Liquids Pipelines business separation compared to the rationale for maintaining status quo. The analysis performed by such advisors included potential financial and strategic implications, market positioning, peer benchmarking and comparable trading valuations. The materials also included overviews of other successful energy industry spin off transactions and potential strategic and private capital buyers. The discussion identified a divestiture of the Following this comprehensive review, it was concluded that a separation of the Liquids Pipelines business was a potential path forward for the Liquids Pipelines business to continue to grow; however, management recommended deferral of the decision to a later point in time and established several conditions precedent in order to pursue a separation, which included (a) neutral to positive credit impacts and alignment with target ratings; (b) pro-forma cash flow profiles supportive of dividend commitments; (c) proven cash flow growth from Natural Gas Pipelines business and Power and Energy Solutions; (d) growth opportunities for the Liquids Pipelines business beyond TC Energy capital allocation capacity; and (e) external investment appetite sufficient to support the transaction. In the meantime, the Liquids Pipelines business would be retained and would continue to focus on creating value by optimizing latent pipeline capacity and by investing in capital light growth opportunities within its established footprint.

Concurrently, while the strategic review was in progress, in June 2021, TC Energy and another North American midstream company (the JV Partner) began evaluating potential joint-venture structures. The parties ultimately determined to review and assess a structure where each company would contribute liquids assets to a newly formed entity. If pursued, the joint venture would hold the assets, issue holding company debt and redistribute proceeds back to the parent companies. Both parties held several remote and in-person meetings to discuss the transaction perimeter, commercial and operational synergies and guiding principles of the potential partnership. The potential transaction was formally socialized with the Board on November 4, 2021, after which management continued to advance the joint venture opportunity.

Further information and diligence materials were exchanged, including detailed asset level financial forecasts, potential growth projects and preliminary cost estimates required to realize the identified areas of value creation. An in-person management presentation was held on February 22, 2022, in the JV Partner's headquarters, where senior management and financial advisors of each party were present. On March 17, 2022, management sent a term sheet to the JV Partner outlining a valuation proposal and key partnership terms. The parties subsequently held additional follow up discussions, but ultimately an agreement in principle was not reached, and the joint venture transaction was not further pursued.

Given the significant synergy potential of an asset combination between TC Energy and the JV Partner, with the support of financial advisors, management evaluated the outright acquisition of the potential JV Partner's comparable liquids assets, previously under consideration for contribution to the joint venture. On April 28, 2022, management presented the acquisition proposal to the Board, which authorized management to proceed with a non-binding indicative proposal (the Indicative Proposal). On May 4, 2022, TC Energy sent the Indicative Proposal to the JV Partner. On May 16, 2022, management received feedback that while the offer represented a fair value for the business, the JV Partner was not contemplating an outright sale of these assets and, consequently, the parties terminated further strategic discussions.

On November 9, 2022, TC Energy publicly announced plans to raise $5+ billion in 2023 through asset divestitures to support funding of TC Energy's $30+ billion capital project backlog and reduce leverage. A full or partial sale of the Liquids Pipelines business was one of the candidates identified to achieve the divestiture target. Management, with the support of financial advisors, developed the marketing materials necessary to solicit interest from prospective buyers. Subsequently, personnel from management, the Liquids Pipelines business and the Corporate Development team held initial conversations with potential counterparties.

Between December 2022 and February 2023, confidentiality agreements were signed by interested counterparties and management presentations were held in the TC Energy Houston, Texas office during this timeframe. Financial models, questions and answers and other information were exchanged with counterparties. After considering, among other things, preliminary investor interest and a combination of valuation indications and tax leakage derived from a potential transaction, management determined an outright or partial sale of the Liquids Pipelines business would not maximize value to shareholders, and it would be expected to be dilutive on an EPS and DCF basis. This view was supported by a detailed analysis provided by financial advisors of the financial impacts of a full or partial sale of the Liquids Pipelines business. The materials from the financial advisors also included an updated analysis of the financial impacts of a potential spin off transaction. During the February 14, 2023 Board meeting, management provided feedback on the outreach to potential acquirers of the Liquids Pipelines business and communicated that a full or partial sale of the business was unlikely to materialize as a viable alternative. Management presented the spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business as an actionable strategic transaction to optimize and maximize the value of TC Energy's portfolio. The Board provided direction to evaluate a potential spin off transaction in more detail.

Before the end of February 2023, initial pre-emptive stages of the Arrangement process had formally been initiated with financial advisors to further assess the strategic rationale, financial impacts, equity capital markets' reaction and valuation benchmarking for South Bow and TC Energy post-Arrangement. Management (including internal personnel from TC Energy's legal and tax groups) engaged further advisors from Deloitte LLP (tax), Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP (legal) and White & Case LLP (legal) to provide advice on transaction structuring as well as to perform preliminary due diligence activities. Bain & Company, a consulting firm, was also engaged to provide the initial organizational design for South Bow along with impacts to TC Energy from an organizational and cost perspective.

On April 10, 2023, the financial advisors presented refreshed strategic rationales, detailed financial impacts, capital markets analysis and key valuation assumptions supporting the viability of the Arrangement to François Poirier, Chief Executive Officer, Bevin Wirzba, Executive Vice-President and Group Executive, Canadian Natural Gas and Liquids Pipelines, and other senior management members of the Liquids Pipelines business.

Concurrently with the Arrangement evaluation process, in early 2023 another North American midstream company proposed evaluating a potential liquids joint venture. A confidentiality agreement was executed on January 17, 2023, and a “whiteboarding session” was held in the TC Energy Houston, Texas office on January 17, 2023, with commercial and corporate development professionals from both companies. Senior management members of the Liquids Pipelines business held meetings with the counterparty’s Executive Vice President & Chief Commercial Officer on February 9, 2023, and February 23, 2023, respectively. A further meeting was held at the TC Energy Houston, Texas office on March 21, 2023, with commercial and corporate development professionals from both companies. Incremental information and high-level data were exchanged, but no material discussions or detailed transaction structures were discussed, nor did the series of interactions lead to substantive future developments. TC Energy determined this joint venture transaction would not improve the value of its Liquids Pipelines business and the business risk of the potential pro forma entity was not aligned with TC Energy’s risk preferences.

On April 27, 2023, management provided an update regarding strategic alternatives for the Liquids Pipelines business to the Board. After having explored joint ventures and, more recently, a full or partial sale of the business, management communicated to the Board that a spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business provided the most optimal path forward for the business to maximize shareholder value. The overall rationale for the spinoff was underpinned by: (a) the potential shareholder value uplift driven by South Bow’s ability to grow long-term with its own access to capital, not available today given that TC Energy’s capital program was focused on its Natural Gas Pipelines business and Power and Energy Solutions; and (b) the ability of TC Energy and South Bow to focus on their distinctive opportunity sets and investment propositions following the spinoff.

The detailed analysis provided to the Board during the meeting included the following key topics: (a) value proposition of each entity on a standalone basis; (b) equity capital markets valuation and peer comparison of two separately traded securities, presented by financial advisors; (c) financial impacts on an EPS and DCF basis and credit metrics (including potential dis-synergies); (d) evaluation of Canadian versus U.S. domiciling; and (e) key process governance considerations presented by Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP. The key assumptions of the financial analysis included: (a) current dividend re-allocated between TC Energy and South Bow being unchanged on a combined basis; (b) South Bow being appropriately capitalized to be investment grade rated; and (c) the ability to spin off the Liquids Pipelines business to existing shareholders on a generally tax-free basis. The Board supported advancing the spin off by, among other things, confirming underlying assumptions and completing due diligence with a view towards a potential announcement at the end of July 2023.

On May 23, 2023, the Board approved the formation of a special committee (the Special Committee) comprised entirely of independent Board members: Bill Johnson, Susan Jones, John Lowe, Una Power and Dheeraj Verma. The mandate of the Special Committee was to assist the Board in providing input, advice and assistance in respect of the structure and key determinations, aspects and other matters relating to a potential spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business.

During the June 7, 2023 Board meeting, management shared an update on key Arrangement workstreams: structuring, tax, legal due diligence, and cost analysis, which were continuing to progress with no major issues identified at that time. Strategic rationale, valuation and peer benchmarking were also reviewed. Financial and valuation metrics presented included consideration of TC Energy’s $5+ billion divestiture plan. The discussion was focused on South Bow’s and TC Energy’s equity stories and investment thesis that would be communicated to investors and capital markets following a potential transaction announcement. The Board directed management to continue to progress the Arrangement with a target announcement after the next Board meeting, on July 27, 2023.

In June 2023, management contacted Evercore, a financial advisor not previously engaged by TC Energy nor involved in any prior financial or transaction structuring analysis regarding a spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business, regarding the potential for Evercore to provide a fairness opinion to the Board regarding the Arrangement. Evercore was formally retained on July 26, 2023.

At the July 27, 2023 Board meeting, management provided a comprehensive package with an overview of the Arrangement. During the meeting, management reinforced the strategic rationale for the Arrangement, which was also supported by analysis from J.P. Morgan and RBC Capital Markets. To complete the financial analysis of the Arrangement, the Board received a preliminary verbal fairness opinion from Evercore. Management also presented potential transaction risks and corresponding mitigants.

Following the overview of the Arrangement, management provided an update on the following key workstreams required to be completed prior to the announcement of the Arrangement: (a) generally tax-free structure of the transaction validated, or to be validated, by opinions as to certain tax matters from Deloitte LLP (Canada and U.S.), White & Case LLP (U.S.) and Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP (Canada); (b) expected investment grade ratings from two of Moody's, S&P, and Fitch; (c) legal due diligence completed with no material issues; (d) South Bow and TC Energy initial organizational design and dis-synergies impacts, which were immaterial; and (e) detailed internal and external communication plans and engagement.

The materials presented to the Board also substantiated the following conditions precedent after the comprehensive review performed by the financial advisors: (a) neutral to positive credit impacts for TC Energy following completion of the Arrangement, including 2024 leverage target of 4.75x debt / EBITDA, and South Bow expected to be investment grade; (b) dividend allocation between TC Energy and South Bow providing each entity with excess cash flow to underpin financial and strategic flexibility for capital reinvestment, debt repayment or return of capital to shareholders; (c) TC Energy's secured capital program providing meaningful comparable EBITDA growth that aligns with its long-term dividend growth outlook; (d) TC Energy's Q2 2023 $30+ billion secured capital program focused on the Natural Gas Pipelines business and Power and Energy Solutions, without allocation for growth of the Liquids Pipelines business; and (e) energy security concerns and mild pace of energy transition effects necessitating continued need for critical liquids infrastructure to support global oil and refined products markets.

Following the presentation and discussion regarding the Arrangement, the Board determined that proceeding with the Arrangement is in the best interests of TC Energy and authorized the company to proceed with the Arrangement. On July 27, 2023, TC Energy publicly announced the Arrangement.

Between May 31, 2023 and February 5, 2024, the Special Committee met on nine occasions to review and provide guidance on various matters related to the Arrangement, including the key terms of the principal agreements relating to the Arrangement, the status of the Tax Rulings, treatment of TC Energy incentive securities and other employee benefits, composition of management and the board of directors of South Bow, activities relating to the execution plan for the separation of the Liquids Pipelines business, and the communications plan for the Arrangement.

On March 20, 2024, the Special Committee and the Board held a joint meeting with their legal and financial advisors and members of management to receive an update on the Arrangement. Management summarized recent developments on key workstreams. Each of RBC Capital Markets and J.P. Morgan updated the Special Committee and the Board regarding their ongoing analysis in respect of the Arrangement. The Special Committee and the Board discussed with management and Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP an initial draft of the Circular that was circulated in advance of the meeting. Following the presentations and discussion, the Board resolved to hold the meeting on June 4, 2024 and set April 16, 2024 as the record date for the meeting.

On April 10, 2024, the Board held a special meeting to consider the Arrangement. The Audit Committee met with management and representatives from KPMG prior to the Board meeting to review the financial statements included in this Circular, which the Audit Committee then recommended to the Board for approval. During the Board meeting, management provided a detailed overview of the business case for, and the terms and conditions of, the Arrangement. Following management's presentation, Evercore orally delivered its opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion and subject to the various factors, assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the consideration to be received by shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to shareholders. Following the presentations and discussion, the Board: (a) determined that the Arrangement is in the best interests of TC Energy; (b) approved the Arrangement, the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; and (c) directed that the Arrangement be submitted to shareholders for approval and recommended that shareholders vote for the Arrangement Resolution and the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution.

REASONS FOR THE ARRANGEMENT

In recommending that shareholders vote for the Arrangement Resolution, the Board took into consideration, among other things, the following:

Comprehensive Review of Alternatives

The Arrangement is the result of a rigorous, two-year strategic review and analysis of potential alternatives for the Liquids Pipelines business conducted by the Board, management, and financial, tax and legal advisors. The Board considered a variety of transaction alternatives to address the long-term future of the Liquids Pipelines business having regard to TC Energy's strategy, operating portfolio, capital requirements and capacity, growth opportunities and ongoing energy transition considerations, including, among other possibilities: (a) the full or partial spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business; (b) a sale to a strategic or private equity buyer; (c) a joint venture with a strategic partner; (d) a minority stake sale; and (e) the status quo. Following this extensive review and analysis, the Board determined the Arrangement to be the best available option for TC Energy and the Liquids Pipelines business going forward. See The Arrangement – Background to the Arrangement.

Independent and Unique Growth Opportunities

The Arrangement is expected to result in two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies positioned to fully capture opportunities presented by long-term fundamentals driving demand for energy security, affordability and sustainability.

TC Energy and South Bow will each be a premium energy infrastructure company with vast and distinct opportunities for both organic and inorganic expansion through strategic growth projects and acquisitions. Separating the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy will enable each of TC Energy and South Bow to pursue independent growth strategies and, in particular, provide the Liquids Pipelines business with a capital structure to fund growth opportunities that may not be available to it as part of TC Energy's consolidated business.

TC Energy will be a growth-oriented, unified natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions business focused on its natural gas pipelines, storage and power businesses, with a regulated, low-risk and utility-like portfolio, that delivers approximately 30 per cent of North American natural gas demand. TC Energy will continue to develop its industry-leading approximately $31 billion¹ secured capital program with expected annual sanctioned net capital expenditures of $6-7 billion beyond 2024. South Bow will have an irreplaceable operational footprint comprising critical and strategic North American infrastructure delivering long-life, low decline WCSB and U.S. domestic supply to North America's largest oil refining and export markets. With a 4,900-km (3,045-miles) liquids pipeline network supported by investment-grade counterparties and unique long-term, committed contracts, South Bow is expected to provide stable and robust cash flows.

Independent Capital Allocation

As independent companies, TC Energy and South Bow will have independent balance sheets, which will provide them with independent access to capital markets. Each company will have the ability to align its capital allocation strategies, driven by its unique opportunity sets, with its internally generated cash flows, leverage targets and dividend commitments. TC Energy will have a capital allocation strategy that balances sustainable dividend growth – expected to be three to five per cent annually – with reinvestment in its secured capital program in alignment with deleveraging targets. South Bow is expected to have an initial capital structure that supports investment grade credit ratings, with significant expected cash flows supporting a strong and stable base dividend that is expected to grow over time and optionality to accelerate deleveraging or share buybacks.

Incremental Shareholder Value

The Arrangement is expected to maximize shareholder value by allowing TC Energy and South Bow to independently pursue disciplined growth through their distinct opportunity sets. TC Energy will increase the weight of its rate regulated business and will focus on natural gas infrastructure, driven by strong long-term fundamentals and power and energy solutions, driven by nuclear, pumped hydro storage and new energy opportunities. South Bow will capitalize on its best-in-class contracting framework and will focus on enhancing value through capacity optimizations and in-corridor strategic investments to maintain and capture additional market share. Further, by offering investors two unique, independently compelling value propositions, it is expected that TC Energy and South Bow will collectively attract a wider set of investors relative to TC Energy prior to the Arrangement. Accordingly, we believe that the separate companies will, in the aggregate, achieve a higher valuation compared to the valuation accorded to TC Energy prior to the Arrangement.

Management Focus and Alignment of Equity-Based Employee Compensation

The Arrangement would result in dedicated executive leadership teams for both TC Energy and South Bow and would insulate each company from any volatility associated with the other. Further, the Arrangement is expected to improve the ability of TC Energy and South Bow to align their respective equity-based employee compensation programs with the performance of their businesses.

Investment Alternatives

The Arrangement will provide shareholders with two unique investment opportunities in TC Energy and South Bow and will allow them to initially retain ownership in both companies. TC Energy is expected to deliver long-term cash flow growth that is commensurate with its three to five per cent dividend growth rate with its portfolio of diversified utility-like natural gas infrastructure and power and energy solutions businesses, and South Bow, through its industry-leading competitive position, is expected to deliver long-term contracted cash flows with its ownership of critical and strategic liquids infrastructure.

Approvals and Procedural Fairness

The Board's recommendation that shareholders vote in favour of the Arrangement Resolution is the result of a thorough process that was conducted with the input and guidance of the Special Committee and with the advice and assistance of the Board's financial, legal, accounting and tax advisors and management. Among other things, the Arrangement is subject to the following procedural mechanisms:

- the Arrangement will become effective only after receiving approval from at least two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting;
- this Circular has been prepared and delivered to shareholders in accordance with applicable securities laws in order to provide sufficient information to permit shareholders to make an informed voting decision concerning the Arrangement; and
- the Arrangement must be approved by the Court, which will consider, among other things, the fairness of the Arrangement to the persons affected thereby, both from a substantive and procedural perspective.

Fairness Opinion

The Board has received the Fairness Opinion to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the various factors, assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the consideration to be received by shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to shareholders. See The Arrangement – Fairness Opinion.

Tax Treatment

The Arrangement will generally occur on a tax-free basis for a Resident Shareholder who holds its TC Energy shares as capital property. A summary of potential material Canadian federal income tax consequences to Resident Shareholders arising from and relating to the Arrangement is provided under the heading Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations.

The deemed distribution resulting from the Arrangement is generally intended to be tax-free to shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares. A summary of potential material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders arising from and relating to the Arrangement is provided under the heading Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations.

Consistent with Reasonable Expectations of Stakeholders

The Board has considered the reasonable expectations of all of TC Energy's stakeholders and believes the terms of the Arrangement are consistent with those expectations.

The foregoing are the material factors considered by the Board in its review and evaluation of the Arrangement, but this discussion is not intended to be exhaustive. The potential factors and benefits described above are subject to a number of risks that could cause some or all of these factors and benefits to not be realized, in whole or in part. See the section entitled The Arrangement – Risk Factors Relating to the Arrangement. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Board, and the complexity of these matters, the Board did not find it practicable to, and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the foregoing factors. In addition, individual members of the Board may have assigned different weights to various factors.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

The Board has, acting with the input and guidance of the Special Committee, and with the advice and assistance of its financial, legal, accounting and tax advisors and management, having undertaken a thorough review of, and having carefully considered, among other things: (a) information concerning TC Energy; (b) the Arrangement and its impact on TC Energy and all relevant stakeholders; (c) the alternatives to the Arrangement available to TC Energy, including the status quo; (d) the Fairness Opinion; and (e) such other matters it considered necessary or appropriate, including the factors and risks set out elsewhere in this Circular: (a) determined that the Arrangement is in the best interests of TC Energy; (b) approved the Arrangement, the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; and (c) directed that the Arrangement be submitted to shareholders for approval and recommended that shareholders vote for the Arrangement Resolution and for the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ARRANGEMENT RESOLUTION AND THE SOUTH BOW SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN RESOLUTION.

None of the fees payable to Evercore in connection with its engagement are contingent on the completion of the Arrangement or any other transaction.

The Fairness Opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the resolutions to be considered by shareholders at the meeting or any other matter. The Fairness Opinion does not address any other aspect of the Arrangement or any related transaction, including any legal, tax or regulatory aspects of the Arrangement that may be relevant to TC Energy or shareholders, and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Arrangement in comparison to other strategic alternatives that may be available to TC Energy. Evercore has not prepared a formal valuation or appraisal of TC Energy or any of its securities or assets, and the Fairness Opinion should not be construed as such. - (i) each Transferred Employee who holds TC Energy PSUs shall dispose of such TC Energy PSUs and South Bow shall grant to such Transferred Employee a number of South Bow PSUs equal to the number of TC Energy PSUs so disposed of, multiplied by the Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio (rounded down to the nearest whole number), and the TC Energy PSUs so disposed of will be cancelled;

The Plan of Arrangement provides for a number of other actions, including the appointment of the directors of South Bow identified under the heading Directors and Executive Officers in Schedule F to this Circular. The following diagram sets out an abbreviated organizational structure of TC Energy and South Bow immediately prior to the implementation of the Arrangement:

The following diagram sets out an abbreviated organizational structure of TC Energy and South Bow immediately following the completion of the Arrangement:

DISTRIBUTION OF SHARES

To facilitate the distribution and transfer of the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares to shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date, TC Energy will execute and deliver to Computershare an irrevocable power of attorney at or prior to the Effective Time, authorizing Computershare to distribute and transfer the New TC Energy Common Shares to the applicable shareholders and South Bow will deliver to Computershare a treasury order or such other direction as may be requested by Computershare to effect the issuance of the South Bow Common Shares. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Computershare will deliver to each registered shareholder as of the Distribution Record Date a DRS Advice representing the South Bow Common Shares such holder is entitled to receive pursuant to the Arrangement. Following the completion of the Arrangement, certificates and DRS Advices representing TC Energy shares will be deemed for all purposes to be certificates or DRS Advices, as applicable, representing New TC Energy Common Shares and accordingly no new certificates or DRS Advices will be issued in respect of New TC Energy Common Shares.

TREATMENT OF FRACTIONAL SHARES

No certificates or DRS Advices representing fractional South Bow Common Shares arising from the Arrangement shall be issued to shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement and no dividend, stock split or other change in the capital structure of South Bow shall relate to any such fractional security and such fractional interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to exercise any rights as a security holder of South Bow. South Bow will deposit with Computershare the fractional South Bow Common Shares issuable pursuant to the Arrangement for the benefit of the holders of such fractional South Bow Common Shares. Each person otherwise entitled to a fractional interest in a South Bow Common Share will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to such person's pro rata allocation of the net proceeds, after brokerage commissions and expenses, received by Computershare upon the sale, on behalf of all such persons, of whole South Bow Common Shares representing an accumulation of all such fractional interests in South Bow Common Shares, without any interest thereon. Computershare will facilitate the sale of such South Bow Common Shares on the TSX as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date. The aggregate net proceeds, after brokerage commissions and expenses, of such sale will be distributed by Computershare, pro rata in relation to their respective fractions, among persons otherwise entitled to receive fractional interests in South Bow Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement, without any interest thereon. In effecting the sale of any such South Bow Common Shares, Computershare will exercise its sole judgment as to the timing and manner of sale and will not be obligated to seek or obtain a minimum price. TC Energy, South Bow and Computershare will not be liable for any loss arising out of any such sale of South Bow Common Shares.

ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Arrangement Agreement that is important to shareholders and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Arrangement Agreement, which is attached to this Circular as Schedule C. Shareholders are urged to read the Arrangement Agreement in its entirety.

TC Energy, South Bow and SBPL have entered into the Arrangement Agreement, which provides for, among other things, the terms of the Plan of Arrangement, the conditions to its completion, actions to be taken prior to and after the Effective Date and other matters, the substance of which is summarized below or elsewhere in this Circular.

Covenants

The Arrangement Agreement contains certain customary covenants of the parties that they will, among other things, subject to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement: (a) use their respective commercially reasonable efforts and do all things reasonably required to cause the Pre-Arrangement Transactions, the Arrangement and the Post-Arrangement Transactions to become effective on such dates as TC Energy may determine; (b) do and perform all such acts and things, and execute and deliver all such agreements, assurances, notices and other documents and instruments, as may be reasonably required to facilitate the carrying out of the intent and purpose of the Arrangement Agreement; (c) cooperate with and assist each other in dealing with transitional and other matters relating to or arising from the Pre-Arrangement Transactions, the Arrangement, the Post-Arrangement Transactions or the Arrangement Agreement; (d) not perform any act or enter into any transaction that could interfere or be inconsistent with the completion of any Pre-Arrangement Transaction, the Arrangement or any Post-Arrangement Transaction or the effective application of the Tax Rulings to the Arrangement; and (e) use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to satisfy the conditions precedent to the completion of the Arrangement.

The parties further agreed to assist and cooperate in the preparation and filing with all applicable securities regulatory authorities in Canada and the United States of all necessary applications to seek exemptions, if required, from the prospectus, registration and other requirements of applicable securities laws in Canada and the United States for the issue by TC Energy and South Bow of the securities to be issued in the Pre-Arrangement Transactions, the Arrangement and the Post-Arrangement Transactions, and other exemptions that are necessary or desirable in connection with the Pre-Arrangement Transactions, the Arrangement and the Post-Arrangement Transactions.

TC Energy also agreed to: (a) apply to list on the TSX and the NYSE the TC Energy Special Shares and the TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares issuable pursuant to the Arrangement; and (b) make a joint application with South Bow to list on the TSX and the NYSE the South Bow Common Shares issuable pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan, in each case, prior to the Effective Date.

South Bow and SBPL agreed to cooperate in amending the Rulings Applications, applying for such amendments or supplements to, or replacements of, the Tax Rulings, and agreed to make such amendments to the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, as may be reasonably necessary to give effect to the Tax Rulings or to undertake any transaction contemplated therein or to implement the Plan of Arrangement, or as may be determined by TC Energy, in its sole discretion, to be reasonably necessary to enable TC Energy (or any Affiliate) to carry out any transactions deemed advantageous by TC Energy for the separation of the Liquids Pipelines business from the business of TC Energy.

In addition, each party agreed that it and any successor thereto will not, on or before the Effective Date, perform any act or enter into any transaction or permit any transaction within its control to occur that could reasonably be considered to interfere or be inconsistent with the Tax Rulings. Further, each party agreed that it will not (and that it will cause its subsidiaries to not) take any actions, omit to take any action, or enter into any transaction that could cause the Arrangement or any related transaction to be taxed in a manner inconsistent with that provided for in the Tax Rulings without obtaining a supplementary tax ruling or an opinion of a nationally recognized law firm that such actions, omissions or transactions will not have such effect in respect of the Tax Rulings.

The parties further agreed that taxes and tax matters, including the control of tax-related proceedings, will be governed by the Tax Matters Agreement to the extent specifically addressed in the Tax Matters Agreement, subject to the terms thereof and that, in the case of any conflict or inconsistency between the Arrangement Agreement and the Tax Matters Agreement in relation to any matters addressed by the Tax Matters Agreement, the Tax Matters Agreement shall prevail.

Conditions Precedent

Completion of the Arrangement is subject to certain customary conditions precedent, see The Arrangement – Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings. Certain conditions precedent to the completion of the Arrangement in the Arrangement Agreement will be deemed to be satisfied, waived or released on the filing of the Articles of Arrangement.

Amendments

The Arrangement Agreement provides that at any time and from time to time before and after the meeting, but not later than the Effective Date, the Arrangement Agreement may be amended by written agreement of the parties without, subject to applicable law, further notice to or authorization on the part of their respective shareholders.

Termination

The Arrangement Agreement may be terminated at any time before or after the holding of the meeting, but prior to the issue of the Certificate of Arrangement, by TC Energy in its sole discretion without the approval of the shareholders, South Bow or SBPL.

SEPARATION AGREEMENT AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

The Separation Agreement will set forth the agreement between TC Energy and South Bow with respect to the separation of the Liquids Pipelines business from the business of TC Energy in connection with the Arrangement, including the transfer of certain assets related to the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy to South Bow and the allocation of certain liabilities and obligations related to the Liquids Pipelines business between TC Energy and South Bow, including responsibility and liability for certain legal actions existing at the Effective Time.

In addition, under the terms of the Separation Agreement, South Bow will indemnify TC Energy and its Affiliates from and against any liabilities that are primarily attributed to the Liquids Pipelines business, whether arising or accruing at, prior to or after the Effective Time and whether the facts on which such liability are based occurred at, prior to or after the Effective Time. This arrangement is subject to two primary exceptions, as TC Energy may indemnify South Bow for certain liabilities associated with: (a) the Milepost 14 incident; and (b) certain existing variable toll disputes on the Keystone Pipeline (collectively, the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities). The variable toll disputes on the Keystone Pipeline are currently before applicable regulatory bodies and, while TC Energy believes that it has strong arguments that the variable tolls in dispute were properly calculated and applied, any amounts above the current accrued amounts that may ultimately be payable in respect of these disputes are indeterminable at this time, however such may be material. It is expected that the ultimate amounts of any indemnities provided by TC Energy in respect of the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities will be determined closer to the Effective Date when more information about the potential liabilities are known and that the amounts will be set with a view to ensuring that South Bow and TC Energy satisfy the Investment Grade Rating Condition set forth in the Arrangement Agreement. Any arrangements with respect to the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities will not apply to any impact the resolution of the variable toll disputes has on post-Effective Time tolls or South Bow revenues. For more information regarding the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities, see note 20 to the Carve-Out Financial Statements, which are included in Schedule H to this Circular.

The Separation Agreement also will contain an indemnity under which TC Energy will agree to indemnify South Bow and its Affiliates from and against any liabilities relating to the businesses and assets retained by TC Energy. TC Energy and South Bow will also indemnify each other with respect to non-performance of their respective obligations under the Separation Agreement.

It is expected that any amounts ultimately recoverable in respect of the claim to recover economic damages under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement relating to the legacy North American Free Trade Agreement and the revocation of the Keystone XL Presidential Permit in early 2021, will be attributable to TC Energy and South Bow on a 90 / 10 split, respectively.

For more information regarding the Milepost 14 incident and the variable toll disputes and United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement claim discussed above, see the Three-Year History section of Schedule F to this Circular.

The separation of the Liquids Pipelines business will be completed effective as at the Effective Time, in accordance with the Separation Agreement, the Tax Matters Agreement, the Employee Matters Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement. However, to the extent that certain legal documentation necessary to evidence any of the transactions contemplated by the Separation Agreement has not been completed on or prior to the Effective Time, South Bow and TC Energy will agree under the Separation Agreement to cooperate to complete such legal documentation following the Effective Time. In addition, each of TC Energy and South Bow will agree under the Separation Agreement to cooperate with each other and use reasonable commercial efforts to take or to cause to be taken all actions, and to do, or to cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary under applicable law or contractual obligations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the Separation Agreement and the ancillary agreements.

Other matters provided for by the Separation Agreement are expected to include, among other things, access to books and records, confidentiality, and dispute resolution.

Following the Arrangement, TC Energy and South Bow will be independent of each other to the greatest extent practicable. While the owners of both companies will initially be the shareholders of TC Energy prior to the Arrangement, other than Mary Pat Salomone, who has been nominated for election to the TC Energy Board and South Bow Board, there is not expected to be any overlap in the directors, management or employees of TC Energy and South Bow following the Arrangement. However, for a limited transition period, TC Energy and South Bow will be subject to certain contractual arrangements, which are intended to facilitate the orderly transition of each entity into a fully independent public company. Such arrangements are expected to be limited to those contained in the Separation Agreement, the Transition Services Agreement, the Tax Matters Agreement and the Employee Matters Agreement.

Transition Services Agreement

TC Energy and South Bow will provide certain services to one another pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement, which services are expected to be limited to those matters which, for practical reasons, TC Energy or South Bow, as applicable, cannot feasibly self-perform or outsource to third parties as of the Effective Time. It is expected that such services will primarily be provided by TC Energy to South Bow and that South Bow will provide limited transitional services to TC Energy. It is further expected that, pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement, detailed schedules will be prepared, including the terms for each scope of services provided between the entities, and the related costs payable by TC Energy to South Bow, and South Bow to TC Energy. Unless terminated earlier or extended by mutual agreement of the parties thereto, it is expected that the schedules to the Transition Services Agreement will expire no later than twenty-four months following the Effective Date.

Tax Matters Agreement

TC Energy and South Bow will enter into the Tax Matters Agreement, which will govern the parties' respective rights, responsibilities and obligations after the Arrangement with respect to taxes (including taxes arising in the ordinary course of business and taxes, if any, incurred as a result of any failure of the Arrangement and certain related transactions to qualify as tax-free for Canadian or U.S. federal income tax purposes), tax attributes, the preparation and filing of tax returns, tax elections, the control of audits and other tax proceedings and assistance and cooperation in respect of tax matters.

The Tax Matters Agreement will also impose certain restrictions on each party and their respective subsidiaries (including, among others, restrictions on share issuances, share repurchases, business combinations, sales of assets and similar transactions) designed to preserve the tax-free status of the Arrangement and certain related transactions. The Tax Matters Agreement will contain certain covenants that may, except in specific circumstances, prohibit the parties from taking or failing to take certain actions that could cause the Arrangement and certain related transactions to be taxed in a manner that is inconsistent with the Tax Rulings. Such covenants include that, generally, South Bow and its respective subsidiaries will not, as part of the series of transactions that includes the Arrangement, dispose of certain property (other than in the ordinary course of business) to an unrelated person that exceeds, in the aggregate, 10 per cent of the fair market value of the property of South Bow immediately after the Arrangement. Such covenants also include that, generally, TC Energy and its respective subsidiaries will not, as part of the series of transactions that includes the Arrangement, dispose of certain property (other than in the ordinary course of business) to an unrelated person that exceeds, in the aggregate, 10 per cent of the fair market value of the property of TC Energy immediately after the Arrangement. Such covenants may limit TC Energy's and South Bow's ability to pursue certain strategic transactions or other transactions for a period of time. However, these restrictions are designed to preserve the intended Canadian tax treatment of the Arrangement.

The Tax Matters Agreement will provide special rules that allocate tax liabilities in the event the Arrangement, together with certain related transactions, is not tax-free. In general, under the Tax Matters Agreement, each party is expected to be responsible for any taxes imposed on TC Energy or South Bow that arise from the failure of the Arrangement, together with certain related transactions, to qualify as a transaction that is generally tax-free, to the extent that the failure to so qualify is attributable to actions, events or transactions relating to such party's respective stock, assets or business, or a breach of the relevant representations or covenants made by that party in the Tax Matters Agreement.

As discussed below under the heading Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations, notwithstanding receipt by TC Energy of the U.S. Tax Ruling and opinion(s) of tax advisors, the IRS could assert that the Arrangement or certain related transactions do not qualify for tax-free treatment for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If the IRS were successful in taking this position, TC Energy, South Bow, and certain shareholders could be subject to significant U.S. federal income tax liability. In addition, certain events that may or may not be within the control of TC Energy or South Bow could cause the Arrangement and certain related transactions to not qualify for tax-free treatment. Depending on the circumstances, each party may be required to indemnify the other for taxes and certain related amounts resulting from the Arrangement and certain related transactions not qualifying for tax-free treatment.

Employee Matters Agreement

TC Energy will assign employees and transfer certain employee benefit plan assets and liabilities, including with respect to South Bow USA employees, and both South Bow and South Bow USA will establish benefit plans and arrangements for the transferred employees pursuant to an Employee Matters Agreement that will be entered into between TC Energy and South Bow in connection with the Arrangement.

PRE-ARRANGEMENT TRANSACTIONS

On December 15, 2023, South Bow and SBPL were formed under the CBCA in order to carry out the Arrangement. Until the Arrangement is effected, South Bow will have no assets or liabilities, will conduct no operations and will not issue any shares in its capital stock.

CONDITIONS TO CLOSING OF THE ARRANGEMENT AND TAX RULINGS

Conditions to the Arrangement

The obligation of TC Energy to complete the Arrangement is subject to fulfillment, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of certain conditions, including the following:

- (e) no action shall have been instituted and be continuing on the Effective Date for an injunction to restrain, a declaratory judgment in respect of, or damages on account of or relating to, the Arrangement and there shall not be in force any order or decree restraining or enjoining the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, the Tax Rulings or the Rulings Applications and no cease trading or similar order with respect to any securities of TC Energy, South Bow or SBPL shall have been issued and remain outstanding;

- (f) no law, regulation or policy shall have been proposed, enacted, promulgated or applied that interferes or is inconsistent with the completion of the Pre-Arrangement Transactions, the Arrangement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement or the Tax Rulings or the effective application of the Tax Rulings to the Arrangement, including any material change to the income tax laws of Canada or the United States, or any province, state or territory thereof;
- (g) the Tax Rulings, having been issued by the CRA and IRS, respectively, shall remain in full force and effect and all of the transactions referred to in such Tax Rulings as occurring on or prior to the Effective Time will have occurred and all conditions or terms of such Tax Rulings shall have been satisfied;
- (h) TC Energy will have received an opinion from White & Case LLP, satisfactory to the Board, regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters relating to the Arrangement;
- (i) the TSX will have conditionally approved the listing thereon of the TC Energy Special Shares and TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan, in each case, prior to the Effective Time and subject only to compliance with the usual requirements of the TSX;
- (j) the NYSE will have approved, subject to notice of issuance, the listing thereon of the TC Energy Special Shares and TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan, in each case, prior to the Effective Time;
- (k) TC Energy, South Bow and, as applicable, SBPL, shall have entered into the Separation Agreement, the Transition Services Agreement, the Tax Matters Agreement and the Employee Matters Agreement;
- (l) TC Energy and South Bow shall each have been assigned an Investment Grade Rating by any two of S&P, Moody's and Fitch and such ratings shall remain in effect as of the Effective Time (the Investment Grade Rating Condition);
- (m) there shall not have occurred a Material Adverse Effect of TC Energy, South Bow or SBPL; and
- (n) the Arrangement Agreement will not have been terminated pursuant to the provisions thereof.

If any of the conditions set forth in the Arrangement Agreement are not fulfilled or performed, on or prior to the Effective Time, TC Energy may terminate the Arrangement or waive, in its discretion, the applicable condition in whole or in part; provided, however, that the conditions described above in paragraphs (b), (c), (f), as it relates to the Tax Rulings, (g), (i), (j), and (l) may not be waived by TC Energy.

Conditions to the Tax Rulings

Conditions to the Canadian Tax Ruling

The Canadian Tax Ruling received from the CRA contains income tax rulings binding on the CRA which confirm that the transfer of the Transferred Property may be accomplished on a tax-free basis, and certain other tax matters related to the Arrangement, provided that the material facts presented are accurately stated, the transfer is implemented as disclosed to the CRA and certain other conditions are satisfied. This requires, among other things, that the Arrangement complies with all requirements of the public company "butterfly" rules in Section 55 of the Tax Act.

The Arrangement is structured to comply with these rules. However, there are certain requirements of these rules that may depend on events occurring after the Arrangement is completed or that may not be within the control of TC Energy and/or South Bow. For example, under Section 55 of the Tax Act, TC Energy and/or South Bow will recognize a taxable gain on the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property if: (a) a "specified shareholder" were to exist and such "specified shareholder" disposes of TC Energy or South Bow shares (or property that derives 10 per cent or more of its fair market value from such shares or property substituted therefor) to an unrelated person or to a partnership as part of the series of transactions which includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property; (b) there is an acquisition of control of TC Energy or of South Bow that is part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property; (c) a person unrelated to South Bow acquires in the aggregate (generally otherwise than in the ordinary course of operations of South Bow), as part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property, property acquired on the transfer by TC Energy that has a fair market value greater than 10 per cent of the fair market value of all property received by South Bow in the Arrangement; (d) a person unrelated to TC Energy acquires in the aggregate (generally otherwise than in the ordinary course of operations of TC Energy), as part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property, property retained by TC Energy on the Arrangement that has a fair market value greater than 10 per cent of the fair market value of all property retained by TC Energy in the Arrangement; or (e) certain persons acquire shares of TC Energy (other than in specified permitted transactions) in contemplation of, and as part of the series of transactions that includes, the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property. If any of the above events were to occur and to cause the Arrangement to be taxable to TC Energy or to South Bow under Section 55 of the Tax Act, TC Energy or South Bow, as applicable, and in some cases, both TC Energy and South Bow, would be liable for a substantial amount of tax. In addition, if such an event were due to an act of TC Energy or South Bow (or one of their respective Affiliates), or an omission by one of them to act, TC Energy or South Bow, as applicable, would generally be required to indemnify the other party for taxes under the Tax Matters Agreement.

Conditions to the U.S. Tax Ruling

TC Energy has received the U.S. Tax Ruling from the IRS on certain issues relating to the qualification of the Arrangement as generally tax-free under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355(a), and related provisions of the U.S. Code. In addition, it is a condition to the Arrangement that TC Energy receive an opinion from White & Case LLP, satisfactory to the Board, regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters relating to the Arrangement.

The opinion of White & Case LLP will be conditioned upon the continuing validity of the U.S. Tax Ruling. In addition, the U.S. Tax Ruling is, and the opinion of White & Case LLP will be, based upon and rely on, among other things, various facts and assumptions, as well as certain representations, statements and undertakings of TC Energy and South Bow (including those relating to the past and future conduct of TC Energy and South Bow). If any of these representations, statements or undertakings is, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, or if TC Energy or South Bow breach any of their respective representations or covenants contained in any of the separation-related agreements and documents or in any documents relating to the U.S. Tax Ruling and/or the opinion of White & Case LLP, the U.S. Tax Ruling and/or such opinion may be invalid, and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. In addition, to the extent that certain additional transactions are entered into and/or executed by TC Energy or South Bow that are not fully disclosed in the U.S. Tax Ruling, the IRS can, to the extent such deviations from the disclosed facts, assumptions or undertakings impact the tax treatment of the transaction, retroactively revoke or require modification of the U.S. Tax Ruling.

Accordingly, notwithstanding the U.S. Tax Ruling or the opinion of White & Case LLP, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to one or more of the conclusions in the U.S. Tax Ruling or such opinion. In addition, neither the U.S. Tax Ruling nor the opinion of White & Case LLP address or will address all of the issues that are relevant to determining whether the Arrangement, together with certain related transactions, qualifies as a transaction that is generally tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares. An opinion of a tax advisor represents the judgment of such tax advisor and is not binding on the IRS or any court, and the IRS or a court may disagree with the conclusions in the opinion(s) of such tax advisor. Thus, TC Energy cannot provide assurances that the intended U.S. tax treatment will be achieved, or that U.S. Holders will not incur substantial U.S. federal income tax liabilities in connection with the Arrangement and certain related transactions. For a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the Arrangement to U.S. Holders, see Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Arrangement.

To preserve the intended tax treatment of the Arrangement, for a period of time following the Arrangement, TC Energy and South Bow may be prohibited, except in specific circumstances, from taking or failing to take certain actions under the Tax Matters Agreement. The foregoing restrictions may limit, for a period of time, the ability of TC Energy and/or South Bow to pursue certain strategic transactions or other transactions that either company believes to be in the best interests of its shareholders or that might increase the value of its business. For a discussion of the risk factors relating to the preservation of the intended tax treatment of the Arrangement, see The Arrangement – Risk Factors Relating to the Arrangement.

COURT APPROVAL OF THE ARRANGEMENT

An arrangement of a corporation under the CBCA requires court approval. On April 9, 2024, TC Energy obtained the Interim Order authorizing the calling and holding of the meeting and providing for certain other procedural matters. The Interim Order is attached as Schedule E to this Circular. If shareholders approve the Arrangement Resolution at the meeting in the manner set forth in the Interim Order, TC Energy will apply to the Court to obtain the Final Order approving the Arrangement. The hearing of the application for the Final Order is scheduled to take place at the Calgary Courts Centre, 601 – 5th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, on June 4, 2024 at 3:30 p.m. (MDT) or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard. Any shareholder or any other interested party desiring to appear and make submissions at the application for the Final Order may do so, provided that they comply with the applicable procedural requirements set forth in the Interim Order and the Notice of Application. The Court, when hearing the application for the Final Order, will consider, among other things, the fairness of the Arrangement, both from a substantive and a procedural perspective, to the shareholders and any other interested party as the Court determines appropriate. The Court may approve the Arrangement in any manner it may direct and determine appropriate.

The Court will be advised prior to the hearing for the Final Order that if the terms and conditions of the Arrangement are approved by the Court, such approval will be relied upon in seeking an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, pursuant to Section 3(a)(10) thereof, with respect to the offer and sale of the securities to be issued or distributed pursuant to the Arrangement.

SHAREHOLDER APPROVAL OF THE ARRANGEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS

In order to pass:

- subject to any further order of the Court, the Arrangement Resolution must be approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting; and
- the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution must be approved by at least a simple majority of the votes cast by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting.

PROPOSED TIMETABLE FOR THE ARRANGEMENT

The expected timeline of key events in respect of the Arrangement below is provided for illustrative purposes only. Such events could be delayed or otherwise changed for a number of reasons and it is not possible to state if or when such events will occur.

See The Arrangement – Risk Factors Relating to the Arrangement.

Record Date:	April 16, 2024
Proxy Deadline:	May 31, 2024
Shareholder Meeting:	June 4, 2024
Final Order Hearing:	June 4, 2024
Effective Date:	Late-Q3 2024 – Mid-Q4 2024

Assuming that shareholders approve the Arrangement Resolution at the meeting in the manner set forth in the Interim Order, that the Court grants the Final Order on June 4, 2024, in a form acceptable to TC Energy, and the satisfaction of certain other conditions to completion of the Arrangement, as described in greater detail above, the Articles of Arrangement and related documents, in the form prescribed by the CBCA, will be filed with the Director at such time as TC Energy deems appropriate, in its sole discretion. The Arrangement will become effective upon the issuance of the Certificate of Arrangement by the Director. Provided that the foregoing approvals and conditions are satisfied in a timely manner, TC Energy currently expects that the Effective Date will occur between late third quarter 2024 and mid fourth quarter 2024. Once determined, TC Energy will issue a news release announcing the timing of the Effective Date and the Distribution Record Date.

TREATMENT OF INCENTIVE SECURITIES

TC Energy delivers a long-term incentive program in the form of the TC Energy Stock Option Plan, the TC Energy RSU Plan and the TC Energy PSU Plan (formerly known as the TC Energy Executive Share Unit Plan). In addition, TC Energy has the TC Energy DSU Plan which allows the members of the Board to defer certain director fees. See Compensation.

The Board, based on the recommendation of the Human Resources Committee, determined that, in connection with the Arrangement, it would be in the best interests of TC Energy and South Bow for:

- TC Energy Stock Options, TC Energy RSUs and TC Energy PSUs held by Transferred Employees to be exchanged for South Bow Stock Options, South Bow RSUs and South Bow PSUs, respectively, in each case, subject to adjustment to ensure that the aggregate value of such TC Energy incentive securities immediately prior to the Effective Time is equal to the aggregate value of such South Bow incentive securities immediately following the Effective Time;
- TC Energy Stock Options held by Non-Transferred Employees and Former TC Energy Employees to be exchanged for New TC Energy Stock Options, subject to adjustment to ensure that the aggregate value of such TC Energy Stock Options immediately prior to the Effective Time is equal to the aggregate value of such New TC Energy Stock Options immediately following the Effective Time; and
- TC Energy RSUs, TC Energy PSUs and TC Energy DSUs held by Non-Transferred Employees and Former TC Energy Employees to be adjusted to ensure that the aggregate value of such TC Energy incentive securities is the same immediately before and immediately after the Effective Time.

More specifically, TC Energy Stock Options, TC Energy RSUs, TC Energy PSUs and TC Energy DSUs outstanding as of immediately before the Effective Time will be treated as set out below, subject to the discretion of the Board.

Treatment of Outstanding TC Energy Stock Options

As of April 10, 2024, there were 7,050,342 TC Energy Stock Options outstanding. Under these outstanding TC Energy Stock Options, the exercise price per TC Energy share ranges from $56.66 to $75.06, with a weighted average exercise price of $62.23. The TC Energy Stock Option Plan is administered by the Human Resources Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors of TC Energy. TC Energy Stock Options vest one third each year, beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date and have a seven-year term. Each TC Energy Stock Option entitles the holder, upon exercise, to acquire one TC Energy share at the applicable exercise price. The exercise price of a TC Energy Stock Option is the closing market price of the TC Energy shares on the TSX on the last trading day immediately preceding the grant date. As at December 31, 2023, the Human Resources Committee determined to discontinue the use of TC Energy Stock Options as part of TC Energy's long term incentive program. Other than South Bow Stock Options issued in exchange for TC Energy Stock Options pursuant to the Arrangement, South Bow does not expect to issue South Bow Stock Options as part of its long term incentive program.

Pursuant to the Arrangement:

- for TC Energy Stock Options held as of immediately prior to the Effective Time by Non-Transferred Employees and Former TC Energy Employees: (a) each such TC Energy Stock Option will be exchanged for one New TC Energy Stock Option; and (b) the exercise price of each such New TC Energy Stock Option will be equal to the original exercise price of the TC Energy Stock Option exchanged therefor less the FMV Reduction of a TC Energy Common Share (rounded up to the nearest whole cent); and
- for TC Energy Stock Options held as of immediately prior to the Effective Time by Transferred Employees: (a) each such Transferred Employee shall exchange the TC Energy Stock Options held thereby for a number of South Bow Stock Options equal to the number of TC Energy Stock Options so exchanged multiplied by the Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio (rounded down to the nearest whole number); and (b) the exercise price of each such South Bow Stock Option will be equal to the original exercise price of the TC Energy Stock Option exchanged therefor divided by the Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio (rounded up to the nearest whole cent).

Except as noted above, the New TC Energy Stock Options or South Bow Stock Options, as the case may be, received by a former holder of TC Energy Stock Options pursuant to the Arrangement will have substantially the same terms as the TC Energy Stock Options exchanged therefor. For purposes of the TC Energy Stock Option Plan and the South Bow Stock Option Plan, the New TC Energy Stock Options and the South Bow Stock Options, respectively, shall be deemed to be a continuation of the earlier granted TC Energy Stock Option exchanged therefor, as opposed to a new grant of options.

If the Arrangement Resolution is approved, it is estimated that 6,422,071 New TC Energy Stock Options will be outstanding following the Arrangement, entitling the holders thereof to acquire an aggregate of 6,422,071 New TC Energy Common Shares (representing approximately 0.06 per cent of the 1,043,909,900 estimated New TC Energy Common Shares to be outstanding immediately following completion of the Arrangement on a fully diluted basis). The proposed executive officers, employees and consultants of South Bow own, in the aggregate, 628,271 TC Energy Stock Options, which, if the Arrangement Resolution is approved, will be exchanged for South Bow Stock Options pursuant to the Arrangement in the same manner as other Transferred Employees.

The South Bow Stock Options to be received by Transferred Employees pursuant to the Arrangement will be granted pursuant to the South Bow Stock Option Plan. Approval of the South Bow Stock Option Plan by shareholders is not required by the TSX as no South Bow Stock Options will be issued pursuant to the South Bow Stock Option Plan other than South Bow Stock Options issued in exchange for TC Energy Stock Options pursuant to the Arrangement.

Treatment of Outstanding TC Energy RSUs

As of April 10, 2024, there were approximately 4,073,600 TC Energy RSUs outstanding. TC Energy RSUs are notional share units awarded under the TC Energy RSU Plan. TC Energy RSUs accrue dividend equivalents and vest at the end of the one, two or three-year grant term. Awards are paid out in a lump sum cash payment as soon as practicable following the end of the grant term.

Pursuant to the Arrangement:

- each Non-Transferred Employee and Former TC Energy Employee shall have the TC Energy RSUs held thereby adjusted such that, following the completion of the Arrangement the aggregate number of TC Energy RSUs held by such person shall be equal to the number of TC Energy RSUs held by such person as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by the Non-Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio. This adjustment is intended to provide applicable Non-Transferred Employees and Former TC Energy Employees with an aggregate value of TC Energy RSUs immediately following the Arrangement equal to the aggregate value of the TC Energy RSUs they held immediately before the Arrangement; and

- each Transferred Employee shall have the TC Energy RSUs held thereby exchanged for a number of South Bow RSUs equal to the number of TC Energy RSUs held by such person as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by the Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio. This adjustment is intended to provide applicable Transferred Employees with an aggregate value of South Bow RSUs immediately following the Arrangement equal to the aggregate value of the TC Energy RSUs they held immediately before the Arrangement.

Except as noted above, the South Bow RSUs received by a Transferred Employee pursuant to the Arrangement will have substantially the same terms as the TC Energy RSUs exchanged therefor.

Treatment of Outstanding TC Energy PSUs

As of April 10, 2024, there were approximately 2,315,838 TC Energy PSUs outstanding. TC Energy PSUs are notional share units awarded under the TC Energy PSU Plan. TC Energy PSUs accrue dividend equivalents and vest on December 31 at the end of the three-year performance period. TC Energy PSUs (and dividend equivalents) can vest based on a performance multiplier of zero to 200 per cent, depending on performance against targets established at the beginning of the period. TC Energy PSUs, if earned, are paid out in a lump sum cash payment in the first quarter following the end of the performance period.

Pursuant to the Arrangement:

- each Non-Transferred Employee and Former TC Energy Employee shall have the TC Energy PSUs held thereby adjusted such that, following the completion of the Arrangement the aggregate number of TC Energy PSUs held by such person shall be equal to the number of TC Energy PSUs held by such person as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by the Non-Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio. This adjustment is intended to provide applicable Non-Transferred Employees and Former TC Energy Employees with an aggregate value of TC Energy PSUs immediately following the Arrangement equal to the aggregate value of the TC Energy PSUs they held immediately before the Arrangement; and
- each Transferred Employee shall have the TC Energy PSUs held thereby exchanged for a number of South Bow PSUs equal to the number of TC Energy PSUs held by such person as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by the Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio. This adjustment is intended to provide applicable Transferred Employees with an aggregate value of South Bow PSUs immediately following the Arrangement equal to the aggregate value of the TC Energy PSUs they held immediately before the Arrangement.

The Human Resources Committee has considered the performance period and performance factors applicable to the TC Energy PSUs. Taking into account the advice of external advisors, the Human Resources Committee intends to make certain adjustments to the performance factors of the outstanding TC Energy PSUs in connection with the completion of the Arrangement, and it is expected that South Bow will establish new performance factors for the South Bow PSUs substantially as follows.

In respect of the outstanding TC Energy PSUs granted in 2022 (the 2022 TC Energy PSUs), it is expected that the Human Resources Committee will truncate the performance period of such TC Energy PSUs to end on the Effective Date and measure performance from January 1, 2022 to the Effective Date, rather than to the end of the current performance period applicable to such TC Energy PSUs of December 31, 2024. This will involve measuring relative TSR and the achievement of the cumulative EPS through to the Effective Date as much as practicable and applying such performance factor to the 2022 TC Energy PSUs. While the EPS and TSR performance factors for the 2022 TC Energy PSUs will be crystallized on the Effective Date, as of immediately prior to the Distribution Record Date, the 2022 TC Energy PSUs will continue to vest to the end of the original term and the payout will be calculated based on the volume-weighted average price (VWAP) of the New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares as applicable on the TSX for the 20 days prior to the vesting date of such 2022 TC Energy PSUs of December 31, 2024.

In respect of the outstanding TC Energy PSUs granted in 2023 and TC Energy PSUs granted in 2024 it is expected that the Human Resources Committee will measure performance according to the measures set at time of grant through to the Effective Date to the extent practicable. For the performance periods following the Effective Date, performance will be measured by the Human Resources Committee in ordinary course and the South Bow Human Resources Committee, as applicable.

Except as noted above, the South Bow PSUs received by a Transferred Employee pursuant to the Arrangement will have substantially the same terms as the TC Energy PSUs exchanged therefor.

Treatment of Outstanding TC Energy DSUs

As of April 10, 2024, there were 434,169 TC Energy DSUs outstanding. TC Energy DSUs are notional shares that have the same value as TC Energy shares. TC Energy DSUs earn dividend equivalents as additional units at the same rate as dividends paid on TC Energy shares. The TC Energy DSU Plan allows directors to choose to receive a portion of their retainers and travel fees in TC Energy DSUs instead of cash. The TC Energy DSU Plan also allows the Governance Committee to use discretion to grant TC Energy DSUs to directors as additional compensation (excluding employee directors). Directors have a 12 month period to redeem their TC Energy DSUs when they leave the Board. Directors can redeem their TC Energy DSUs for cash or TC Energy shares purchased on the open market.

Pursuant to the Arrangement, each holder of TC Energy DSUs shall have the TC Energy DSUs held thereby adjusted such that, following the completion of the Arrangement the aggregate number of TC Energy DSUs held by such person shall be equal to the number of TC Energy DSUs held by such person as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by the Non-Transferred Employee Exchange Ratio. This adjustment is intended to provide holders of TC Energy DSUs with an aggregate value immediately following the Arrangement equal to the aggregate value of the TC Energy DSUs they held immediately before the Arrangement.

TREATMENT OF TC ENERGY EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

To provide for the allocation of management and employees to each of TC Energy and South Bow after giving effect to the Arrangement, certain modifications are required to be made to employment arrangements. These arrangements will become effective following the Effective Date. The Arrangement will not result in directors, officers or employees of TC Energy receiving any material benefit that shareholders do not receive generally in connection with the Arrangement. Other than as described in The Arrangement – Treatment of Incentive Securities, there will be no acceleration of vesting, redemption or settlement of incentive securities, triggering of change of control provisions or other payments or benefits being made to the directors, officers or employees of TC Energy in connection with the Arrangement.

Employment Agreements

As of April 10, 2024, TC Energy and its subsidiaries had approximately 7,231 employees. TC Energy expects approximately 6,674 employees to remain with TC Energy and its subsidiaries after the Arrangement becomes effective and approximately 557 employees to be transferred to South Bow and its subsidiaries, on equivalent terms of employment, upon or after the Arrangement becomes effective.

TC Energy has agreements with certain executive officers that provide for the payment of certain severance benefits if a change of control of TC Energy occurs and, within two years of the change of control, the individual's employment is terminated by TC Energy without cause or there has been a constructive dismissal. The Arrangement will not constitute a "change of control" for purposes of such agreements. See Termination and Change of Control.

Benefit and Pension Plans

TransCanada Registered Pension Plan and TransCanada Supplemental Pension Plan

In Canada, TC Energy provides employees of TCPL hired prior to January 1, 2024, a choice to participate in a legacy savings plan (Legacy Savings Plan) or a registered non-contributory defined benefit pension plan (DB Plan) for eligible employees. The Legacy Savings Plan provides participants with a seven per cent employer contribution on eligible earnings. Employees can direct these funds to a RRSP, Non-Registered Savings Plan, or TFSA. TC Energy also maintains a non-registered non-contributory supplemental pension plan (Supplemental DB Plan) that provides for earned pension benefits in excess of the Tax Act limits.

At the Effective Date, Transferred Employees who previously participated in a Legacy Savings Plan will automatically join the DB Plan. As part of the Pre-Arrangement Transactions and following the receipt of applicable pension regulatory approvals, a proportionate share of the going concern liabilities and assets from TC Energy's DB Plan and Supplemental DB Plan that relate to Transferred Employees, as determined by actuarial consultants, will be transferred to the South Bow Pension Plan and the South Bow Supplemental Pension Plan, respectively, for the benefit of such individuals. The going concern liabilities and assets related to Non-Transferred Employees prior to the Effective Date will remain with TC Energy.

The defined benefit provisions described above were closed to new hires effective December 31, 2023. Canadian employees hired on or after January 1, 2024 participate in the TC Energy Defined Contribution Component of the TransCanada Registered Pension Plan (DC Plan). TC Energy also maintains a Defined Contribution Component in the TransCanada Supplemental Pension Plan (Supplemental DC Plan) for participants that earn in excess of the Tax Act limits. TC Energy contributes nine per cent of each participant's base salary to the DC Plan and Supplemental DC Plan, if applicable. Participants can also make voluntary contributions and receive a company match up to 100 per cent for the first three per cent of base salary in a savings plan (Savings Plan). All company contributions vest immediately. The DC Plan, Supplemental DC Plan, and Savings Plan offer a number of investment options to help participants meet their saving goals.

Additionally South Bow DB Plan members will have the option to make voluntary contributions and be matched by South Bow up to 100 per cent for the first three per cent of eligible earnings in the Savings Plan. South Bow Common Shares will be an investment option in the Savings Plan.

TransCanada USA Services Inc. Retirement Plan

In the U.S., TC USA provides certain of its employees a qualified non-contributory defined benefit pension plan (U.S. DB Plan). TC USA is the sponsor of the U.S. DB Plan. The U.S. DB Plan was closed to new hires effective April 1, 2017.

As part of the Pre-Arrangement Transactions and following the receipt of applicable pension regulatory approvals, South Bow USA will establish a defined benefit pension plan (the South Bow USA DB Plan). TC USA will transfer a proportionate share of the going concern liabilities and assets from the U.S. DB Plan that relate to South Bow USA employees, as determined by actuarial consultants, to the South Bow USA Pension Plan for the benefit of such individuals. The going concern liabilities and assets related to continuing employees of TC USA prior to the Effective Date of the Arrangement will remain with TC Energy.

TransCanada 401(k) and Savings Plan

TC USA provides an opportunity for employees of TC USA to participate in the TransCanada 401(k) and Savings Plan (401(k) Plan). All participants can make voluntary contributions and receive a company match equal to 100 per cent up to the first five per cent of eligible earnings. For employees who are not in the U.S. DB Plan, TC USA also contributes seven per cent of each participant's base salary to a 401(k) account. All company contributions vest immediately. The 401(k) Plan offers a number of investment options to help participants meet their saving goals, including a TC Energy stock fund.

As part of the Pre-Arrangement Transactions and following the receipt of applicable pension regulatory approvals, South Bow USA will establish its own 401(k) plan (the South Bow USA 401(k) Plan) that will be substantially similar to the 401(k) Plan; however, the South Bow USA 401(k) Plan will provide a company match on employee contributions equal to 100 per cent of those contributions up to the first six per cent of eligible earnings. The additional match is provided because South Bow will not maintain an employee stock purchase plan. Assets attributed to South Bow employee account balances in the 401(k) Plan will be transferred from the 401(k) Plan to the transferred employee South Bow USA 401(k) Plan accounts.

The transaction will result in the TC Energy stock fund and South Bow USA stock fund being separated into two separate funds in each of the 401(k) Plan and South Bow USA 401(k) Plan. Immediately after the transaction, 401(k) Plan participants will no longer be permitted to make new contributions and transfers into the South Bow USA stock fund. During a transition period, participants will be permitted to direct investment out of the South Bow USA stock fund, and at the end of that period, any remaining amounts in the South Bow USA stock fund will be mapped to other investments. Participants will be able to continue to direct investments into the TC Energy stock fund.

Similarly, participants in the South Bow USA 401(k) Plan will no longer be permitted to make new contributions and transfers into the TC Energy stock fund. During a transition period, participants will be permitted to direct investment out of the TC Energy stock fund, and at the end of that period, any remaining amounts in the TC Energy stock fund will be mapped to other investments. Participants will be able to continue to direct investments into the South Bow USA stock fund.

TransCanada USA Services Inc. Non-Qualified Plan

TC USA provides employees of TransCanada USA Services Inc. with earnings in excess of the annual compensation limit imposed by the IRS on qualified retirement plans the opportunity to participate in the TransCanada USA Services Inc. Non-Qualified Plan (Non-Qualified Plan). TC USA is the sponsor of the Non-Qualified Plan. Employee contributions are voluntary and eligible employees must enroll annually. TC USA provides employer matching contributions to eligible participants. TC USA provides a matching contribution equal to (a) 100 per cent of deferrals into the Non-Qualified Plan plus 100 per cent of deferrals into the 401(k) Plan, capped at five per cent of compensation, less (b) the actual amount of matching contributions contributed to the 401(k) Plan. For employees that participate in the U.S. DB Plan, TC USA contributes seven per cent of base pay that is in excess of the IRS annual compensation limit. For employees who do not participate in the U.S. DB Plan, TC Energy will also contribute seven per cent of base pay less the amount of non-elective profit sharing contributions contributed in the 401(k) Plan. The investment options and monitoring align to the 401(k) Plan.

As part of the Pre-Arrangement Transactions and following the receipt of applicable pension regulatory approvals, South Bow USA will establish its own non-qualified deferred compensation plan (the South Bow USA Non-Qualified Plan) that is substantially similar to the Non-Qualified Plan. Assets in the Non-Qualified Plan rabbi trust that are attributed to South Bow participants will be transferred from the Non-Qualified Plan rabbi trust to the South Bow USA Non-Qualified Plan rabbi trust. Similarly, liabilities related to the South Bow USA participants will be transferred from TC USA to South Bow USA.

DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' LIABILITY INSURANCE

TC Energy has purchased liability insurance to protect its directors and officers (or their heirs and legal representatives) against liabilities they may incur while performing their duties as directors and officers of TC Energy and/or its subsidiaries, subject to the limitations set out in the CBCA. This protection will continue unchanged up until and after the Effective Date.

On the Effective Date, South Bow will purchase separate and distinct liability insurance to protect its directors and officers (or their heirs and legal representatives) against liabilities they may incur while performing their duties as directors and officers of South Bow and/or its subsidiaries, subject to the limitations set out in the CBCA.

INTENTION OF TC ENERGY DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

All of the directors and executive officers of TC Energy have indicated that they intend to vote all of their TC Energy shares for the Arrangement Resolution and for the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution.

As of April 10, 2024, such directors and executive officers beneficially own or exercise control or direction over, directly or indirectly, an aggregate of 540,555 TC Energy shares representing approximately 0.05 per cent of the outstanding TC Energy shares.

Following the Effective Date, TC Energy's CEO will continue to hold his South Bow Common Shares for at least one and a half years, demonstrating a continued commitment to the success of the Arrangement for both resulting entities.

EXPENSES OF THE ARRANGEMENT

It is expected that, pursuant to the Separation Agreement: (a) TC Energy will generally be responsible for all fees and out-of-pocket costs and expenses payable to governmental authorities to make filings or applications or obtain rulings, orders or listings necessary or desirable in connection with the Arrangement, other than certain tax-related fees; (b) TC Energy will generally be responsible for transaction costs incurred and payable prior to the Effective Date; and (c) all transaction costs incurred and/or payable after the Effective Date in connection with the Arrangement will generally be apportioned to TC Energy or South Bow depending on which party principally benefits from the applicable expenditure.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE ARRANGEMENT

If the Arrangement Resolution is approved at the meeting and the Arrangement is completed, immediately following the Effective Time, shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date will hold both New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares. Accordingly, each such shareholder will become a shareholder of South Bow and will remain a shareholder of TC Energy and will be subject to all of the risks associated with the operations of TC Energy and South Bow and the industries in which such companies operate. Those risks include the risk factors set forth in the TC Energy Annual MD&A, which is incorporated by reference into this Circular. Additional risk factors relating to the Arrangement are set out below. For a discussion of the risk factors relating to the businesses of TC Energy and South Bow, respectively, following the completion of the Arrangement, please see Risk Factors in Schedule J and Schedule F to this Circular, respectively.

Completion of the Arrangement is subject to a number of conditions precedent and required approvals.

Completion of the Arrangement is subject to a number of conditions precedent and required approvals, some of which are outside TC Energy's control, including receipt of the Final Order. At the hearing for the Final Order, the Court will consider whether to approve the Arrangement based on the applicable legal requirements and the evidence before the Court. Other conditions precedent which are outside TC Energy's control include, without limitation, the required shareholder approval, the approvals of the TSX and the NYSE and the receipt of applicable third party consents and regulatory approvals, including certain approvals from the CER and FERC. There can be no certainty, nor can TC Energy provide any assurance, that all conditions precedent to the Arrangement will be satisfied or waived, or, if satisfied or waived, when they will be satisfied or waived. In particular, shareholders are advised that the TSX has not conditionally approved TC Energy's application to list on the TSX the South Bow Common Shares, TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares and TC Energy Special Shares and there is no assurance that the TSX will approve such application. If certain approvals and consents are not received prior to the anticipated Effective Date, TC Energy may decide to proceed nonetheless, or it may either delay or amend the implementation of all or part of the Arrangement, including possibly delaying the completion of the Arrangement in order to allow sufficient time to complete such matters. If the Arrangement is delayed or not completed, there may be a Material Adverse Effect on the market price of the TC Energy shares, New TC Energy Common Shares and/or South Bow Common Shares, as applicable.

The Arrangement Agreement may be terminated by TC Energy in its sole discretion without shareholder approval.

It is possible that future factors may arise that make it inadvisable to proceed with, or advisable to delay, all or part of the Arrangement. Pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, TC Energy is entitled, in its sole discretion and without the approval of the shareholders, South Bow or SBPL, at any time before or after the holding of the meeting, but prior to the issue of the Certificate of Arrangement, to terminate the Arrangement Agreement.

The receipt of South Bow Common Shares in connection with the Arrangement is intended to qualify as a tax-free transaction for Canadian and U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares, but no assurance can be given that such treatment is correct, and, as a result, TC Energy, South Bow, and their shareholders could be exposed to substantial liabilities if certain requirements are not met.

The Canadian Tax Ruling received from the CRA requires, among other things, that the transfer of the Transferred Property complies with all requirements of the public company "butterfly" rules in Section 55 of the Tax Act. Although the Arrangement is structured to comply with these rules, there are certain requirements of these rules that depend on events occurring after the Arrangement is completed or that may not be within the control of TC Energy or South Bow. For example, under Section 55 of the Tax Act, TC Energy and/or South Bow will recognize a taxable gain on the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property if: (a) a “specified shareholder” were to exist and such “specified shareholder” disposes of TC Energy or South Bow shares (or property that derives 10 per cent or more of its fair market value from such shares or property substituted therefor) to an unrelated person or partnership as part of the series of transactions which includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property; (b) there is an acquisition of control of TC Energy or of South Bow that is part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property; (c) a person unrelated to South Bow acquires in the aggregate (generally otherwise than in the ordinary course of operations of South Bow), as part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property, property acquired on the transfer by TC Energy that has a fair market value greater than 10 per cent of the fair market value of all property received by South Bow in the Arrangement; (d) a person unrelated to TC Energy acquires in the aggregate (generally otherwise than in the ordinary course of operations of TC Energy), as part of the series of transactions that includes the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property, property retained by TC Energy in the Arrangement that has a fair market value greater than 10 per cent of the fair market value of all property retained by TC Energy in the Arrangement; or (e) certain persons acquire shares of TC Energy (other than in specified permitted transactions) in contemplation of, and as part of the series of transactions that includes, the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property. If any of the above events were to occur and to cause the Arrangement to be taxable to TC Energy or to South Bow under Section 55 of the Tax Act, TC Energy or South Bow, as applicable, and in some cases, both TC Energy and South Bow, would be liable for a substantial amount of tax. In addition, if such an event were due to an act of TC Energy or South Bow (or one of their respective affiliates), or an omission by one of them to act, TC Energy or South Bow, as applicable, would generally be required to indemnify the other party for taxes under the Tax Matters Agreement.

If these requirements are not met, TC Energy and/or South Bow would recognize a taxable gain in respect of the transfer by TC Energy of the Transferred Property. If incurred, these tax liabilities could be substantial and could have a Material Adverse Effect on the financial position of TC Energy and/or South Bow, as applicable. Under the terms of the Tax Matters Agreement, TC Energy and South Bow would generally be required to indemnify the other party for any such tax if it is the result of the indemnifying party (or its affiliates) breaching its covenant not to take any action, omit to take any action or enter into a transaction that could cause the Arrangement or any related transaction to be treated in a manner inconsistent with the Canadian Tax Ruling.

In order to satisfy these requirements, TC Energy may decide to either delay or amend the implementation of all or part of the Arrangement, including possibly delaying the completion of the Arrangement in order to allow sufficient time to satisfy such requirements. If the Arrangement is delayed or not completed, there may be a Material Adverse Effect on the market price of the TC Energy shares, New TC Energy Common Shares and/or South Bow Common Shares, as applicable.

Similarly, TC Energy has received the U.S. Tax Ruling from the IRS on certain issues relating to the qualification of the Arrangement as generally tax-free under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355(a), and related provisions of the U.S. Code. In addition, it is a condition to the Arrangement that TC Energy receives an opinion from White & Case LLP, satisfactory to the Board, regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters relating to the Arrangement. The validity of the U.S. Tax Ruling and the opinion of White & Case LLP is based on disclosure of the pertinent facts associated with the Arrangement and representations made to the IRS by TC Energy and South Bow. If any of the facts, assumptions, representations or undertakings described therein are incorrect or not otherwise satisfied, or to the extent that certain additional transactions are entered into and/or executed by TC Energy or South Bow that are not fully disclosed in the U.S. Tax Ruling, the IRS can, to the extent such deviations from the disclosed facts, assumptions or undertakings impact the tax treatment of the transaction, retroactively revoke or require modification of the U.S. Tax Ruling. Furthermore, notwithstanding the U.S. Tax Ruling or the opinion of White & Case LLP, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to one or more of the conclusions in the U.S. Tax Ruling or such opinion. Accordingly, the IRS could determine that the Arrangement should be treated as a taxable transaction if it determines that any of these facts, assumptions, representations or undertakings is not correct or has been violated or, if a modification is required, such modification may impact the scope of the conclusions in the U.S. Tax Ruling or cause a delay in TC Energy’s receipt of the U.S. Tax Ruling (to the extent such deviations were determinative to the treatment of the transaction as tax-free). Accordingly, TC Energy cannot provide assurance that the intended U.S. tax treatment will be achieved, or that U.S. Holders will not incur substantial U.S. federal income tax liabilities in connection with the Arrangement and certain related transactions. For a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the Arrangement to U.S. Holders, see Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Arrangement.

Under the expected terms of the Tax Matters Agreement, TC Energy and South Bow will generally be required to indemnify the other party against any additional taxes and related amounts resulting from: (a) an acquisition of all or a portion of their respective equity securities or assets, whether by merger or otherwise (and regardless of whether they participated in or otherwise facilitated the acquisition); (b) other actions or failures to act; or (c) any inaccuracy or breach of their respective representations, covenants or undertakings contained in any of the separation-related agreements and documents or in any documents relating to the Tax Rulings and/or the opinion(s) of tax advisors. Any such indemnity obligations, including the obligation to indemnify the other party for taxes resulting from the Arrangement and certain related transactions not qualifying as tax-free, could be material.

To preserve the intended tax treatment of the Arrangement, TC Energy and South Bow expect to agree to certain restrictions that may significantly reduce their strategic and operating flexibility.

To preserve the intended tax treatment of the Arrangement, for a period of time following the Arrangement, TC Energy and South Bow may be prohibited, except in specific circumstances, from taking or failing to take certain actions, including:

- material dispositions of their stock or assets, whether by merger or otherwise;
- issuances of equity securities beyond certain thresholds;
- repurchases of shares of their capital stock;
- ceasing to actively conduct certain aspects of their businesses; and/or
- taking or failing to take any other action that would jeopardize the expected tax treatment of the Arrangement and certain related transactions.

The foregoing restrictions may limit, for a period of time, the ability of TC Energy and/or South Bow to pursue certain strategic transactions or other transactions that either company believes to be in the best interests of its shareholders or that might increase the value of its business.

Tax laws and regulations may change in the jurisdictions in which TC Energy and South Bow operate, which may adversely affect TC Energy and South Bow and/or holders of shares of TC Energy and South Bow.

TC Energy and South Bow will each operate in countries with differing tax laws and tax rates. TC Energy and South Bow's tax reporting is supported by tax laws in the countries in which each entity operates and the application of tax treaties between the various countries in which each entity operates.

Tax laws, regulations, and administrative practices in various jurisdictions may be subject to significant change, with or without notice, due to economic, political, and other conditions, and significant judgment is required in evaluating and estimating TC Energy's provision and accruals for these taxes. Such changes could have a material adverse effect on the holders of shares of TC Energy and South Bow and the business, financial condition and results of operations of TC Energy and South Bow. Each of TC Energy's and South Bow's income tax reporting is subject to audit by tax authorities in the countries in which it operates. Each of TC Energy's and South Bow's effective tax rate may change from year to year, based on: (a) changes in the mix of activities and income earned among the different jurisdictions in which it operates; (b) changes in tax laws in these jurisdictions; (c) changes in the tax treaties between the countries in which it operates; (d) changes in its eligibility for benefits under those tax treaties; and (e) changes in the estimated values of deferred tax assets and liabilities, which could result in a substantial increase in the effective tax rate on all or a portion of its income.

There can be no assurance that the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares received as a result of the Arrangement will continue to be qualified investments for Registered Plans.

TC Energy and South Bow, as applicable, will endeavor to ensure that the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares received as a result of the Arrangement continue to be qualified investments for RRSPs, RRIFs, RDSPs, RESPs, FHSAs or TFSA's, as applicable, for purposes of the Tax Act. However, no assurance can be given in this regard. The Tax Act imposes penalties for the acquisition or holding of non-qualified investments by RRSPs, RRIFs, RDSPs, RESPs, FHSAs or TFSA's, as applicable. See Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations – Shareholders Resident in Canada – Eligibility for Investment.

The combined trading prices of the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares after the Arrangement may be less than the trading price of the TC Energy shares immediately prior to the Arrangement.

There can be no assurance as to the prices at which the New TC Energy Common Shares and the South Bow Common Shares will trade following the completion of the Arrangement. The combined trading prices of the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares received by a shareholder pursuant to the Arrangement may be materially less than the trading price of the TC Energy shares immediately prior to the Arrangement.

There is currently no established market for the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares, and even if markets do develop, current shareholders may be unwilling or unable to hold New TC Energy Common Shares and/or South Bow Common Shares after the Arrangement, which could have a negative effect on trading prices.

There is not currently a public market for the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares and there can be no assurance that public markets for these shares will develop after the Arrangement becomes effective or as to the prices at which trading in these shares will occur even if public markets do develop after the Arrangement. If public markets for the New TC Energy Common Shares and/or the South Bow Common Shares do develop, there may be a significant number of shareholders who wish to sell their New TC Energy Common Shares and/or their South Bow Common Shares. Some shareholders may determine that they do not wish to have an investment solely in South Bow's Liquids Pipelines business or TC Energy's Natural Gas Pipelines business and Power and Energy

Solutions. In addition, following completion of the Arrangement, some shareholders may be subject to investment restrictions which preclude them from holding New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares, while other shareholders may elect to sell for different reasons. If there are a significant number of sellers of the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares without a corresponding number of buyers, the trading price of those shares could decline, and such decline could be material.

TC Energy may delay or amend the implementation of all or part of the Arrangement or may proceed with the Arrangement even if certain consents and approvals are not obtained on a timely basis.

TC Energy continues to seek and obtain certain necessary consents and approvals in order to implement the Arrangement and related transactions as currently structured. TC Energy may not obtain such consents and approvals on acceptable terms prior to the expected Effective Date. If certain approvals and consents are not received prior to the expected Effective Date, TC Energy may decide to proceed nonetheless, or it may either delay or amend the implementation of all or part of the Arrangement in order to allow sufficient time to complete such matters. See Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings – Conditions to the Arrangement.

TC Energy and South Bow will have indemnification obligations to each other following the Arrangement that could be significant.

It is expected that, pursuant to the Tax Matters Agreement, TC Energy and South Bow will agree to a number of representations, warranties and covenants, including agreeing to indemnify and hold harmless the other party against any loss suffered or incurred resulting from, or in connection with, a breach of certain tax-related covenants. In addition, it is expected that, under the terms of the Separation Agreement, subject to certain exceptions, South Bow will generally agree to indemnify TC Energy and its Affiliates from and against any liabilities that are primarily attributed to the Liquids Pipelines business, whether arising or accruing at, prior to or after the Effective Time and whether the facts on which such liability is based occurred at, prior to or after the Effective Time. The Separation Agreement is expected to contain a reciprocal indemnity under which TC Energy will generally agree to indemnify South Bow and its Affiliates from and against the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities, as well as any liabilities relating to the businesses and assets retained by TC Energy. It is further expected that TC Energy and South Bow will indemnify each other with respect to non-performance of their respective obligations under the Separation Agreement. Any indemnification claim against TC Energy or South Bow could be substantial, may not be able to be satisfied and may have a Material Adverse Effect upon TC Energy and/or South Bow. See Separation Agreement and Other Arrangements.

As separate companies, the respective businesses of TC Energy and South Bow will be less diversified and will not be mutually supportive.

Ownership of the Natural Gas Pipelines business, Power and Energy Solutions and the Liquids Pipelines business provides TC Energy with diversification resulting from its ownership and operation of each of these business units. As the Arrangement will separate the ownership and operation of these business units, the Arrangement will result in reduced diversification which, in turn, will increase each company's net exposure to risks associated with its specific assets and operating environment.

There are certain costs related to the Arrangement that must be paid even if the Arrangement is not completed.

There are certain costs related to the Arrangement, such as those for financial and legal advisory services, printing and the Fairness Opinion, that must be paid even if the Arrangement is not completed. There are also opportunity costs associated with the diversion of management attention away from the conduct of business in the ordinary course.

TC Energy and South Bow may not realize the anticipated benefits of the Arrangement.

TC Energy and South Bow may not realize the benefits that TC Energy anticipates from the Arrangement for a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, if any of the matters identified as risks in this Risk Factors section and elsewhere in, or incorporated by reference into, this Circular were to occur. If either TC Energy or South Bow does not realize the anticipated benefits from the Arrangement for any reason, or if the Arrangement is not completed, there may be a Material Adverse Effect on their respective businesses.

The businesses of TC Energy and South Bow may be negatively impacted by each company providing transitional services to the other.

Following the Arrangement, TC Energy and South Bow will provide each other, on a transitional basis, certain services in order to facilitate the orderly transfer of the Liquids Pipelines business to South Bow. These services may require TC Energy and South Bow to divert their resources from their business, which in turn may negatively impact their business, financial condition and results of operations. The personnel performing services for South Bow under the Transition Services Agreement may be employees of TC Energy, and the personnel performing services for TC Energy under the Transition Services Agreement may be employees of South Bow. In the course of performing their respective obligations under the Transition Services Agreement, each of TC Energy and South Bow, as applicable, will allocate certain of its resources and attention of personnel for the benefit of the other party's business and not their own, which may negatively impact TC Energy's or South Bow's, as applicable, business, financial condition and results of operations.

CERTAIN SECURITIES LAW MATTERS

The following discussion is only a general overview of certain requirements of Canadian and U.S. securities laws applicable to trades in securities of TC Energy or South Bow. All holders of securities of TC Energy or South Bow are urged to consult with their own legal counsel to ensure that any resale of their securities complies with applicable securities legislation.

Canadian Securities Laws

TC Energy is a reporting issuer in all the provinces and territories of Canada. Upon completion of the Arrangement, it is expected that South Bow will be a reporting issuer in all the provinces and territories of Canada.

The issuance of securities of TC Energy and South Bow pursuant to the Arrangement will constitute a distribution of securities which is exempt from the prospectus requirements of applicable Canadian securities laws. With certain exceptions, the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares received by shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement may generally be resold in each of the provinces and territories of Canada without restriction, provided the trade is not a “control distribution” as defined in National Instrument 45-102 – Resale of Securities, no unusual effort is made to prepare the market or create a demand for those securities, no extraordinary commission or consideration is paid to a person or company in respect of the trade and, if the selling securityholder is an insider or officer of the issuer, the insider or officer has no reasonable grounds to believe that the issuer is in default of securities legislation.

Application of MI 61-101

TC Energy is subject to the provisions of MI 61-101, which regulates certain types of transactions to ensure equality of treatment among securityholders, generally requiring enhanced disclosure, approval by a majority of securityholders excluding interested or related parties, and, in certain instances, independent valuations and approval and oversight of certain transactions by a special committee of independent directors.

The Board considered whether the Arrangement would constitute a “related party transaction” within the meaning of MI 61-101. While the Arrangement is a “related party transaction” for purposes of MI 61-101, the Board has determined that it is exempt from the requirements of Part 5 of MI 61-101 pursuant to subparagraph 5.1(k) (i) thereof, because the Arrangement is a transaction in which the general body of holders in Canada of affected securities of the same class are treated identically on a per security basis and the transaction has no “interested party” for purposes of paragraph (d) of the definition of such term in MI 61-101.

U.S. Securities Laws

The securities to be issued or deemed to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any state of the United States, and will be distributed in reliance upon the exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof and available exemptions from applicable state registration requirements. Section 3(a)(10) of the U.S. Securities Act provides an exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act for offers and sales of securities issued in exchange for one or more outstanding securities where the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of such securities have been approved by a court authorized to grant such approval after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange at which all persons to whom the securities will be issued have the right to appear. Before approval of the Arrangement, the Court will conduct a hearing to determine the fairness of the terms and conditions of the Arrangement. The Court issued the Interim Order on April 9, 2024 and, subject to the approval of the Arrangement by the shareholders at the meeting, it is expected that a hearing on the Arrangement will be held on June 4, 2024 at 3:30 p.m. (MDT), or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard. Any shareholder or any other interested party desiring to appear and make submissions at the application for the Final Order may do so, provided that they comply with the applicable procedural requirements set forth in the Interim Order and the Notice of Application. See The Arrangement – Court Approval of the Arrangement.

The Final Order will constitute a basis for the exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof with respect to the securities to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. The Court will be advised prior to the hearing for the Final Order that if the terms and conditions of the Arrangement are approved by the Court, such approval will be relied upon in seeking an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, pursuant to Section 3(a)(10) thereof, with respect to the offer and sale of the securities to be issued or distributed pursuant to the Arrangement.

The securities issued or deemed to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement will generally not be subject to resale restrictions under the U.S. Securities Act, except by persons who are “affiliates” of TC Energy or South Bow after the Arrangement or were affiliates of TC Energy or South Bow within 90 days prior to completion of the Arrangement. Persons who may be deemed to be “affiliates” of an issuer include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, the issuer, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, and generally include executive officers and directors of the issuer as well as principal shareholders of the issuer.

Any resale of such securities by such an affiliate (or, if applicable, former affiliate) may be subject to the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, absent an exemption therefrom. Subject to certain limitations, such affiliates (and former affiliates) may immediately resell such securities outside the United States without registration under the U.S. Securities Act pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act. Such securities may also be resold in transactions completed in accordance with Rule 144 under the U.S. Securities Act, if available.

The foregoing discussion is only a general overview of certain requirements of the U.S. Securities Act applicable to the resale of the securities issued or deemed to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. All holders of such securities are urged to consult with counsel to ensure that the resale of their securities complies with applicable securities legislation.

STOCK EXCHANGE LISTINGS

TC Energy has applied to list on the TSX (a) the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan; (b) the TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement; and (c) the TC Energy Special Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. Listing is subject to the approval of the TSX in accordance with its original listing requirements. The TSX has not conditionally approved such application and there is no assurance that the TSX will approve such application.

The receipt of conditional approval from the TSX in respect of the above listing application, subject only to compliance with the usual requirements of the TSX, is a condition precedent to the completion of the Arrangement under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, and TC Energy will not proceed with the Arrangement without receiving such approval.

Additionally, TC Energy has applied to list on the NYSE: (a) the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan; (b) the TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement; and (c) the TC Energy Special Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. Listing on the NYSE will be subject to TC Energy and South Bow, as applicable, fulfilling all of the listing requirements of the NYSE.

The receipt of approval from the NYSE in respect of the above listing application, subject to notice of issuance, is a condition precedent to the completion of the Arrangement under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, and TC Energy will not proceed with the Arrangement without receiving such approval.

The trading symbol for the South Bow Common Shares will be "SOBO" on the TSX and the NYSE. The New TC Energy Common Shares will continue to be listed on the TSX and on the NYSE under TC Energy's current trading symbol, "TRP".

TRADING OF SHARES ON THE TSX AND NYSE

The following is a summary of the trading markets that may develop in TC Energy shares and South Bow Common Shares prior to the Distribution Payment Date. Additional information on trading will be provided by news release once available. Shareholders are encouraged to consult their brokers and financial advisors regarding the specific consequences of trading TC Energy shares and South Bow Common Shares prior to the Distribution Payment Date. Shareholders are advised that the following disclosure has been prepared on the basis of a T+1 settlement cycle, which is expected to take effect on May 27, 2024.

Type of Trading and Markets

Shares may trade on the TSX and the NYSE under a variety of methods and markets as follows:

Regular Way

"Regular-way" trading typically involves a trade of a listed share that settles on the first full trading day following the date of the acquisition or disposition of such share. The TC Energy shares currently trade on a "regular-way" basis on the TSX and the NYSE and, on the first trading day following the Distribution Payment Date, the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares will trade on a "regular-way" basis on the TSX and the NYSE.

Ex-Distribution

As the settlement of a "regular-way" trade occurs on the first full trading day following the date of the acquisition or disposition of a listed share, in the event an issuer is making a distribution to holders of that share of record on a particular record date, at the opening of trading on such record date (the Ex-Date), the share will trade "ex-distribution", meaning those who acquire or dispose of that share on or after the Ex-Date will have settlement occur on the first full trading day following the date of the acquisition or disposition, which settlement day will be after the record date and thus the buyer will not be entitled to receive, and the seller will retain the right to receive, the applicable distribution when made. As a result, the market value of the listed share will typically decline as of the Ex-Date to reflect the lack of entitlement to the distribution.

Due Bills

A “due bill” is an entitlement to receive (among other things) a security that can attach to a share. In circumstances where an issuer will be undergoing certain material corporate events that will involve a distribution, such as stock-splits, spin offs or other distributions in circumstances where the effective date or payment date of the event cannot be determined with certainty in advance, “due bills” are often attached to the listed shares of that issuer on the Ex-Date, which “due bills” represent the entitlement to receive that distribution notwithstanding that the shares began trading “ex-distribution” on the Ex-Date. In this way, the buyer and seller of the share will be acquiring and disposing of both the share and the distribution “due bill” entitlement on and after the Ex-Date, and therefore the listed share should continue to carry the appropriate market value until the “due bill” entitlement has been paid.

With respect to the Arrangement, since completion of the Arrangement is subject to the satisfaction of a number of conditions precedent, it is possible that the Arrangement will not be completed on the expected Effective Date or at all, in which case, the expected Distribution Record Date and Distribution Payment Date will change or be nullified, as the case may be. Therefore, the Ex-Date in respect of the Arrangement cannot be determined with certainty and market valuation issues could arise between the expected Ex-Date and the actual Effective Date and/or Distribution Payment Date. Accordingly, a “due bill” trading market may be used in connection with the Arrangement in order to address such uncertainties. In such market, any TC Energy share traded during the applicable period will have “due bills” attached carrying the right to receive South Bow Common Shares. By having such a “due bill” market for the TC Energy shares, the Ex-Date for the TC Energy shares in such market will be deferred and buyers and sellers of TC Energy shares will be certain of the entitlements attaching thereto. Shareholders trading TC Energy shares in this market during the applicable period will not be required to take any special action. Any trades of TC Energy shares that are executed during the applicable period will be automatically flagged to ensure buyers receive the distribution entitlement and sellers do not.

In the event that a “due bill” trading market is used in connection with the Arrangement, the details thereof will be disclosed prior to the Distribution Record Date by way of a news release.

When Issued/If, As and When Issued

“When issued” or “if, as and when issued” trading refers to a share transaction made conditionally on or before the distribution or issuance date because the share is not yet available (and if the conditions to the distribution or issuance are not met, such that the distribution or issuance is not made, all “when issued” or “if, as and when issued” trades do not settle and are null and void). A “when issued” market for the South Bow Common Shares may be made available on the TSX and the NYSE. In addition, a “when issued ex-distribution” market for the TC Energy shares, which would allow the TC Energy shares to trade without an entitlement to receive South Bow Common Shares under the Arrangement, may be made available on the TSX and the NYSE. In the event that either such market is made available in connection with the Arrangement, the details thereof will be disclosed prior to the Distribution Record Date by way of a news release.

MATERIAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Tax Rulings

The Canadian Tax Ruling received from the CRA contains income tax rulings binding on the CRA which confirm that the transfer of the Transferred Property may be accomplished on a tax-free basis, and certain other tax matters related to the Arrangement, provided that the material facts presented are accurately stated, the transfer is implemented as disclosed to the CRA and certain other conditions are satisfied. This requires, among other things, that the Arrangement complies with all requirements of the public company “butterfly” rules in Section 55 of the Tax Act. See The Arrangement – Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings.

The U.S. Tax Ruling received from the IRS contains income tax rulings binding on the IRS on certain issues relating to the qualification of the Arrangement as tax-free under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355(a), and related provisions of the U.S. Code. The validity of the U.S. Tax Ruling is based on disclosure of the pertinent facts associated with the Arrangement and representations made to the IRS by TC Energy and South Bow. If any of these representations, statements or undertakings is, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, or if TC Energy or South Bow breach any of their respective representations or covenants contained in any of the separation-related agreements and documents or in any documents relating to the U.S. Tax Ruling, the U.S. Tax ruling may be invalid and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. In addition, to the extent that certain additional transactions are entered into and/or executed by TC Energy or South Bow that are not fully disclosed in the U.S. Tax Ruling, the IRS can, to the extent such deviations from the disclosed facts, assumptions or undertakings impact the tax treatment of the transaction, retroactively revoke or require modification of the U.S. Tax Ruling. See The Arrangement – Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings.

Meaning of “Tax Free”

The use of the phrase “tax-free” in this Circular is a reference to the tax-deferred nature of the Arrangement. Specifically, the receipt of South Bow Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement is generally intended not to result in taxable income or gain to Holders for Canadian federal income tax purposes or U.S. federal income tax purposes. As described under the heading Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations and Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations, a Holder may trigger certain tax consequences upon the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares to which they may otherwise be entitled pursuant to the Arrangement or on a subsequent disposition of a New TC Energy Common Share or a South Bow Common Share (in the ordinary course or otherwise).

Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations

In the opinion of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP, Canadian counsel to TC Energy in respect of the Arrangement, the following represents, as of the date hereof, a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations under the Tax Act in respect of the Arrangement generally applicable to a shareholder who holds TC Energy shares as beneficial owner and who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times: (a) holds TC Energy shares, and will hold any New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares received pursuant to the Arrangement, (all such shares, collectively, the Arrangement Shares) as capital property; and (b) deals at arm's length with each of TC Energy and South Bow and is not affiliated with either of TC Energy or South Bow (a Holder). Generally, Arrangement Shares will be capital property to a Holder provided that the Holder does not hold such shares in the course of carrying on a business and has not acquired such shares in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade.

The Canadian Tax Ruling received from the CRA confirms certain of the tax consequences discussed in this summary. This summary assumes that the conditions and qualifications to the rulings in the Canadian Tax Ruling will be satisfied or complied with (as applicable). See The Arrangement – Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings – Conditions to the Arrangement, and The Arrangement – Conditions to Closing of the Arrangement and Tax Rulings – Conditions to the Tax Rulings – Conditions to the Canadian Tax Ruling.

This summary is not applicable to a Holder: (a) that is a “financial institution” as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the “mark-to-market” rules; (b) that is a “specified financial institution” as defined in the Tax Act; (c) an interest in which is a “tax shelter investment” as defined in the Tax Act or who acquires any Arrangement Shares as a “tax shelter investment” (and this summary assumes that no such persons hold such shares); (d) that has entered into a “derivative forward agreement” as defined in the Tax Act with respect to the Arrangement Shares; (e) that has elected to report its “Canadian tax results” as defined in the Tax Act in a currency other than Canadian currency; (f) that has, directly or indirectly, a “significant interest” (as defined in the Tax Act) in TC Energy or South Bow; (g) if any affiliate of TC Energy or South Bow is, or becomes as part of a series of transactions that includes the acquisition of shares of TC Energy or South Bow, a “foreign affiliate” (for purposes of the Tax Act) of such Holder or of any corporation that does not deal at arm's length with such Holder for purposes of the Tax Act; (h) that is exempt from tax under Part I of the Tax Act, or (i) is considered to be a partnership for purposes of the Tax Act.

This summary does not address the Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to holders of TC Energy Stock Options, TC Energy DSUs, TC Energy PSUs or TC Energy RSUs, as applicable, or to Holders who received TC Energy shares upon the exercise of the right to acquire TC Energy shares under TC Energy Stock Options, as applicable.

This summary does not address the deductibility of interest on money borrowed to acquire TC Energy shares.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder (Regulations) and counsel's understanding of the administrative practices and assessing positions of the CRA published in writing and made publicly available prior to the date hereof. This summary takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the Regulations publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) (Tax Proposals) before the date hereof. This summary assumes that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed; however, no assurance can be given that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed, if at all. This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal income tax considerations and does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law or administrative policies, whether by legislative, regulatory, administrative or judicial decision or action, nor does it take into account any other federal or any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from the Canadian federal income tax considerations discussed herein.

This summary is not exhaustive and is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular Holder, and no representations concerning the tax consequences to any particular Holder are made. Holders should consult their own tax advisors to determine the tax consequences to them of the Arrangement having regard to their particular circumstances, including the application and effect of the income and other tax laws of any country, province, territory, state or local tax authority.

Currency Conversion

For purposes of the Tax Act, all amounts expressed in a currency other than Canadian dollars relating to the acquisition, holding or disposition of the Arrangement Shares must be converted into Canadian dollars based on exchange rates as determined in accordance with the Tax Act.

Shareholders Resident in Canada

The following portion of the summary is generally applicable to Holders who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, are, or are deemed to be, resident in Canada (Resident Shareholders).

Certain Resident Shareholders whose Arrangement Shares might not otherwise qualify as capital property may be entitled to make an irrevocable election in accordance with Subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act to have such shares, and any other “Canadian security” (as defined in the Tax Act) owned by the Resident Shareholder in the taxation year in which the election is made and in all subsequent taxation years, deemed to be capital property. Resident Shareholders contemplating making such an election should consult their own tax advisors as to whether such election is available and/or advisable in the Resident Shareholder’s particular circumstances.

This summary is not applicable to a Resident Shareholder that identifies as a non-resident of Canada for Canadian federal income tax purposes. Any such Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the Arrangement.

Additional considerations, not discussed herein, may be applicable to a Resident Shareholder that is a corporation (or does not deal at arm’s length with a corporation) that is, or becomes as part of a transaction or series of transactions or events that includes the Arrangement, controlled by a non-resident person or group of non-resident persons that do not deal with each other at arm’s length for the purposes of the “foreign affiliate dumping” rules in Section 212.3 of the Tax Act. Such Resident Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors.

Exchange of TC Energy shares for TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares and TC Energy Special Shares

As part of the Arrangement, each Resident Shareholder will transfer each TC Energy share held by such Resident Shareholder to TC Energy in exchange for (a) one TC Energy Arrangement Common Share and (b) one TC Energy Special Share.

On such exchange, a Resident Shareholder will be deemed to have disposed of such TC Energy share for proceeds of disposition equal to the adjusted cost base of such share immediately before the exchange. Accordingly, a Resident Shareholder will not realize a capital gain or a capital loss as a result of such exchange.

The aggregate adjusted cost base of the TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares and TC Energy Special Shares acquired by a Resident Shareholder on such exchange will be equal to the Resident Shareholder’s aggregate adjusted cost base of its TC Energy shares immediately before the exchange. The aggregate adjusted cost base of a Resident Shareholder’s TC Energy shares immediately before the exchange will be allocated among the TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares and TC Energy Special Shares acquired by the Resident Shareholder on the exchange in proportion to the relative fair market value of such shares immediately after the exchange. It is intended that, following the Arrangement, TC Energy and South Bow will inform Resident Shareholders either by news release or on their websites of their estimate of the appropriate proportionate allocation; however, such allocation will not be binding on the CRA or on any Resident Shareholder.

Exchange of TC Energy Special Shares for South Bow Common Shares

As part of the Arrangement, and following the exchange under Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations – Shareholders Resident in Canada – Exchange of TC Energy shares for TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares and TC Energy Special Shares, each Resident Shareholder will transfer each TC Energy Special Share acquired by it pursuant to the Arrangement to South Bow in exchange for 0.2 of a South Bow Common Share. No joint election pursuant to Subsection 85(1) will be made available to a Holder as between such Holder and TC Energy or South Bow.

Unless a Resident Shareholder includes any portion of the gain or loss otherwise determined in respect of such exchange in computing its income for the taxation year in which the exchange occurs, the Resident Shareholder will be deemed to have disposed of such TC Energy Special Share for proceeds of disposition equal to the Resident Shareholder’s adjusted cost base of such TC Energy Special Share immediately prior to such exchange. Accordingly, the Resident Shareholder will not realize a capital gain or a capital loss as a result of the exchange. The aggregate adjusted cost base of the South Bow Common Shares acquired by the Resident Shareholder on the exchange will be equal to the adjusted cost base immediately before the exchange of the TC Energy Special Shares disposed of by the Resident Shareholder on the exchange.

Where a Resident Shareholder includes any portion of the gain or loss otherwise determined in respect of such exchange in computing its income for the taxation year in which the exchange occurs, the Resident Shareholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) on the TC Energy Special Shares to the extent that the Resident Shareholder’s aggregate proceeds of disposition for such shares, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the Resident Shareholder’s aggregate adjusted cost base of such shares immediately before the exchange. The Resident Shareholder’s aggregate proceeds of disposition for the TC Energy Special Shares will be equal to the aggregate fair market value of the South Bow Common Shares received on the exchange. The Resident Shareholder’s aggregate adjusted cost base of the South Bow Common Shares received by the Resident Shareholder on the transfer will also be equal to that fair market value.

Exchange of TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares for New TC Energy Common Shares

As part of the Arrangement, and following the exchange under Material Income Tax Considerations – Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations – Shareholders Resident in Canada – Exchange of TC Energy Special Shares for South Bow Common Shares, each Resident Shareholder will transfer each TC Energy Arrangement Common Share held by such Resident Shareholder to TC Energy in exchange for one New TC Energy Common Share.

Such exchange by a Resident Shareholder should not be a disposition of property for purposes of the Tax Act and, accordingly, should not give rise to a capital gain or capital loss. The aggregate adjusted cost base of the New TC Energy Common Shares acquired by a Resident Shareholder on such exchange will be equal to the Resident Shareholder's aggregate adjusted cost base of its TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares immediately before such exchange.

Dividends on New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares (Post-Arrangement)

Dividends received or deemed to be received by a Resident Shareholder on New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares after the Arrangement will be included in computing the Resident Shareholder's income for the purposes of the Tax Act. Such dividends received or deemed to be received by a Resident Shareholder that is an individual (including a trust) will generally be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules in the Tax Act normally applicable to taxable dividends received from corporations resident in Canada, including the enhanced gross-up and dividend tax credit rules applicable to any dividends designated as "eligible dividends" for these purposes. There may be limitations on the ability of TC Energy or South Bow to designate dividends as "eligible dividends".

Generally, dividends received or deemed to be received by a Resident Shareholder that is a corporation on New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares after the Arrangement will be included in computing the corporation's income but will be deductible in computing the corporation's taxable income, subject to certain limitations in the Tax Act. In certain circumstances, Subsection 55(2) of the Tax Act will treat a taxable dividend received or deemed to be received by a Resident Shareholder that is a corporation as proceeds of disposition or a capital gain. Resident Shareholders that are corporations should consult their own tax advisors having regard to their own circumstances.

A Resident Shareholder that is a "private corporation" or a "subject corporation" (each as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable to pay a refundable tax under Part IV of the Tax Act on dividends received or deemed to be received on New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares, to the extent that such dividends are deductible in computing the Resident Shareholder's taxable income. Such additional tax may be refundable in certain circumstances.

Dispositions of New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares (Post-Arrangement)

A disposition by a Resident Shareholder of New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares after the Arrangement generally will result in a capital gain (or a capital loss) to such Resident Shareholder to the extent that the proceeds of disposition received, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of such shares to such Resident Shareholder immediately before the disposition. The tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses is discussed in this portion of the summary under the heading Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations – Shareholders Resident in Canada – Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses.

Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses

Generally, a Resident Shareholder will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year one-half of the amount of any capital gain (a taxable capital gain) realized by it in the year. Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act, a Resident Shareholder must deduct one-half of the amount of any capital loss (an allowable capital loss) realized in a taxation year from taxable capital gains realized by such Resident Shareholder in that taxation year. Allowable capital losses in excess of taxable capital gains in a particular taxation year may be carried back and deducted in any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward and deducted in any subsequent taxation year against net taxable capital gains realized in such year to the extent and under the circumstances specified in the Tax Act.

The amount of a capital loss otherwise arising on the disposition of a share by a Resident Shareholder that is a corporation may, to the extent and under the circumstances specified in the Tax Act, be reduced by dividends previously received or deemed to have been received on such share (or on a share for which such share was exchanged). Similar rules apply to a partnership or trust of which a corporation, partnership or trust is a member or beneficiary. Resident Shareholders to whom these rules may be relevant should consult their own tax advisors.

A Resident Shareholder that is throughout the relevant taxation year a "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) or, at any time in the year, a "substantive CCPC" (as proposed to be defined in the Tax Act pursuant to the proposed amendments in Bill C-59) may be liable to pay an additional tax, refundable in certain circumstances, on its "aggregate investment income". For this purpose, aggregate investment income will include an amount in respect of taxable capital gains and interest.

Alternative Minimum Tax

Dividends received or deemed to be received, or a capital gain realized, on New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares by a Resident Shareholder who is an individual (including certain trusts) may give rise to a liability for alternative minimum tax under the Tax Act. The Minister of Finance (Canada) announced proposed changes to the existing rules in the Tax Act relating to alternative minimum tax in the federal budget on March 28, 2023. In the 2023 Fall Economic Statement released on November 21, 2023, the Minister of Finance (Canada) confirmed the government's intention to proceed with the previously announced proposed changes to the existing rules in the Tax Act relating to alternative minimum tax, as modified to take into account consultations and deliberations since their release.

Eligibility for Investment

Provided that the New TC Energy Common Shares and the South Bow Common Shares are and continue to be listed on a "designated stock exchange" (as defined in the Tax Act and which currently includes the NYSE and the TSX) or are shares of a "public corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act), such shares will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by RRSPs, RRIFs, RDSPs, deferred profit sharing plans, RESPs, FHSA, and TFSA.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a New TC Energy Common Share or a South Bow Common Share is a "prohibited investment" (as defined in the Tax Act) for a trust governed by an RRSP, RRIF, RDSP, RESP, FHSA or TFSA, the holder of the FHSA, TFSA or RDSP, the annuitant under the RRSP or RRIF or the subscriber of the RESP, as the case may be, will be subject to a penalty tax under the Tax Act. Based on the current provisions of the Tax Act and Regulations, a New TC Energy Common Share or a South Bow Common Share will not be a prohibited investment for a trust governed by an RRSP, RRIF, RDSP, RESP, FHSA or TFSA, provided that the holder of the FHSA, TFSA or RDSP, the annuitant under the RRSP or RRIF or the subscriber of the RESP, as the case may be: (a) deals at arm's length with TC Energy or South Bow, as the case may be, for purposes of the Tax Act; and (b) does not have a "significant interest" (as defined in Subsection 207.01(4) of the Tax Act) in TC Energy or South Bow, as the case may be. In addition, New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares will not be a prohibited investment if such shares are "excluded property" (as defined in the Tax Act) for an RRSP, RRIF, RDSP, RESP, FHSA or TFSA.

Resident Shareholders who will hold or who intend to hold the Arrangement Shares in a RRSP, RRIF, RDSP, RESP, FHSA or TFSA should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the application of these rules in their particular circumstances.

Shareholders Not Resident in Canada

The following portion of the summary is applicable generally to Holders who, at all relevant times and for purposes of the Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty or convention, are not, and are not deemed to be, resident in Canada, and do not use or hold and are not deemed to use or hold, and will not use or hold or be deemed to use or hold, the Arrangement Shares in carrying on a business in Canada (Non-Resident Shareholders). Special rules, which are not discussed in this summary, may apply to a Non-Resident Shareholder that carries on an insurance business in Canada or elsewhere or an "authorized foreign bank" (as defined in the Tax Act) and any such Non-Resident Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the application of these rules in their particular circumstances.

The following portion of the summary assumes that no Non-Resident Shareholder will file a Canadian tax return that reports all or any portion of the gain or loss otherwise determined in respect of the exchange of TC Energy Special Shares for South Bow Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement. For the reasons set out below in Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations – Shareholders Not Resident in Canada – Taxable Canadian Property, this summary assumes that the Arrangement Shares disposed of pursuant to the Arrangement will not be, or be deemed to be, "taxable Canadian property" of any Non-Resident Shareholder for purposes of the Tax Act.

The Arrangement

A Non-Resident Shareholder will generally be subject to the same Canadian federal income tax consequences as a Resident Shareholder in respect of: (a) the exchange of TC Energy shares for TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares and TC Energy Special Shares; (b) the transfer of TC Energy Special Shares to South Bow in exchange for South Bow Common Shares; and (c) the exchange of TC Energy Arrangement Common Shares for New TC Energy Common Shares, as discussed above in this summary under the heading Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations – Shareholders Resident in Canada. Accordingly, a Non-Resident Shareholder will generally not realize a capital gain or a capital loss as a result of the Arrangement.

Dividends on New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares (Post-Arrangement)

Dividends on New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares that are paid or credited or deemed to be paid or credited to a Non-Resident Shareholder after the Arrangement will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25 per cent of the gross amount of such dividends, unless such rate is reduced by the terms of an applicable income tax treaty or convention. For example, under the Canada – United States Tax Convention (1980), as amended (Canada-U.S. Treaty), dividends paid or credited to a Non-Resident Shareholder who is the beneficial owner of such dividends and who is a resident of the United States for purposes of the Canada-U.S. Treaty and who is fully entitled to the benefits of the Canada-

U.S. Treaty will generally be subject to Canadian withholding tax at a rate of 15 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends. Non-Resident Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors to determine their entitlement to relief under any applicable income tax treaty or convention.

Dispositions of New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares (Post- Arrangement)

On a disposition or deemed disposition of New TC Energy Common Shares or South Bow Common Shares after the Arrangement, a Non-Resident Shareholder will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of a capital gain realized by the Non-Resident Shareholder on such disposition or deemed disposition, and capital losses arising on such disposition or deemed disposition will not be recognized under the Tax Act, unless such shares constitute “taxable Canadian property” (as defined in the Tax Act) of the Non-Resident Shareholder at the time of disposition and the Non-Resident Shareholder is not entitled to relief under an applicable income tax treaty or convention between Canada and the country in which the Non-Resident Shareholder is resident.

Taxable Canadian Property

Provided that the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares, as the case may be, are listed on a “designated stock exchange” (as defined in the Tax Act and which currently includes the NYSE and the TSX) at the time of the disposition or deemed disposition, the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares, as the case may be, generally will not constitute “taxable Canadian property” of a Non-Resident Shareholder, unless at any time during the 60-month period immediately preceding the disposition or deemed disposition, the following two conditions have been met concurrently: (a) one or any combination of (i) the Non-Resident Shareholder, (ii) persons with whom the Non-Resident Shareholder did not deal at arm’s length for purposes of the Tax Act, or (iii) partnerships in which the Non-Resident Shareholder or persons described in (ii) hold a membership interest directly or indirectly through one or more partnerships, owned 25 per cent or more of the issued shares of any class of the capital stock of TC Energy or South Bow, as the case may be; and (b) more than 50 per cent of the fair market value of the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares, as the case may be, was derived directly or indirectly from one or any combination of real or immovable property situated in Canada, “Canadian resource properties” (as defined in the Tax Act), “timber resource properties” (as defined in the Tax Act) or an option in respect of, an interest in, or for civil law or a right in, any such property, whether or not such property exists. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares may be deemed to be “taxable Canadian property” to a Non-Resident Shareholder for the purposes of the Tax Act in certain circumstances.

Non-Resident Shareholders who may hold the New TC Energy Common Shares or the South Bow Common Shares as “taxable Canadian property” should consult their own tax advisors.

Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following discussion summarizes certain material U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to U.S. Holders with respect to the receipt of South Bow Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement and the ownership and disposition of South Bow Common Shares by such U.S. Holders. This section is general in nature and does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax effects.

This discussion only addresses persons that hold TC Energy common shares, and will hold South Bow Common Shares received in the Arrangement, as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all U.S. federal income tax consequences relevant to a U.S. Holder’s particular circumstances, including any tax consequences of: (a) any dispositions of property, other than the South Bow Common Shares received in the Arrangement; or (b) any transactions occurring prior to or after the Arrangement. This discussion does not constitute tax advice and does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular holders of TC Energy common shares or South Bow Common Shares in light of their personal circumstances, or to any holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. Code, such as:

- banks, mutual funds, and other financial institutions;
- real estate investment trusts and regulated investment companies;
- traders in securities who elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting;
- tax-exempt organizations or governmental organizations;
- insurance companies;
- dealers or brokers in securities or foreign currency;
- individual retirement and other tax-deferred accounts;
- persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;
- U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;
- PFICs, controlled foreign corporations, or corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- persons subject to the alternative minimum tax;
- persons subject to the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income;

- persons who own or will own (directly, indirectly, or constructively) 10 per cent or more of the total voting power of all classes of shares entitled to vote or of the total value of all classes of shares of either TC Energy or South Bow;
- persons who hold their TC Energy common shares or South Bow Common Shares as part of a straddle, hedging, conversion, wash sale, constructive sale, integrated or similar transaction;
- partnerships or other entities or arrangements classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and investors therein);
- persons who own or will own TC Energy common shares or South Bow Common Shares in connection with a trade or business conducted outside the United States;
- persons who are subject to special tax accounting rules under Section 451(b) of the U.S. Code; and
- persons who received TC Energy common shares or South Bow Common Shares through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. Holder” is a beneficial owner of TC Energy common shares or, after the completion of the Arrangement, South Bow Common Shares, which for U.S. federal income tax purposes is:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if (i) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. Persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) the trust has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. Person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If a partnership, including for this purpose any arrangement or entity that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, holds TC Energy common shares or, after completion of the Arrangement, South Bow Common Shares, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Holders that are partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes and the partners in such partnerships are urged to consult their tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Arrangement and the ownership and disposition of South Bow Common Shares.

This discussion is based on current provisions of the U.S. Code, the U.S. Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions, published positions of the IRS, and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and to differing interpretations. This discussion does not address all U.S. federal tax laws (such as estate or gift tax laws), nor does it address any aspects of U.S. state or local or non-U.S. taxation. In addition, except as expressly described herein, this discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may apply to U.S. Holders under the Canada-U.S. Treaty.

It is a condition to the Arrangement that the U.S. Tax Ruling regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters relating to the Arrangement received by TC Energy remain valid and be satisfactory to the Board. In addition, it is a condition to the Arrangement that TC Energy receives an opinion from White & Case LLP, satisfactory to the Board, regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters relating to the Arrangement.

The opinion of White & Case LLP will be conditioned upon the continuing validity of the U.S. Tax Ruling. In addition, the U.S. Tax Ruling is, and the opinion of White & Case LLP will be, based upon and rely on, among other things, various facts and assumptions, as well as certain representations, statements and undertakings of TC Energy and South Bow (including those relating to the past and future conduct of TC Energy and South Bow). If any of these representations, statements or undertakings is, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, or if TC Energy or South Bow breach any of their respective representations or covenants contained in any of the separation-related agreements and documents or in any documents relating to the U.S. Tax Ruling and/or the opinion of White & Case LLP, the U.S. Tax Ruling and/or such opinion may be invalid and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. In addition, to the extent that certain additional transactions are entered into and/or executed by TC Energy or South Bow that are not fully disclosed in the U.S. Tax Ruling, the IRS can, to the extent such deviations from the disclosed facts, assumptions or undertakings impact the tax treatment of the transaction, retroactively revoke or require modification of the U.S. Tax Ruling.

Accordingly, notwithstanding the U.S. Tax Ruling or the opinion of White & Case LLP, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to one or more of the conclusions in the U.S. Tax Ruling or such opinion. In addition, neither the U.S. Tax Ruling nor the opinion of White & Case LLP address or will address all of the issues that are relevant to determining whether the Arrangement, together with certain related transactions, qualifies as a transaction that is generally tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes. An opinion of a tax advisor represents the judgment of such tax advisor and is not binding on the IRS or any court, and the IRS or a court may disagree with the conclusions in the opinion(s) of such tax advisor. Thus, TC Energy cannot provide assurances that the intended U.S. tax treatment will be achieved, or that U.S. Holders will not incur substantial U.S. federal income tax liabilities in connection with the Arrangement and certain related transactions.

THIS DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. U.S. HOLDERS OF TC ENERGY COMMON SHARES OR, AFTER THE COMPLETION OF THE ARRANGEMENT, SOUTH BOW COMMON SHARES ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISERS REGARDING THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE ARRANGEMENT AND THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF SOUTH BOW COMMON SHARES IN LIGHT OF THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES OF SUCH MATTERS ARISING UNDER U.S. FEDERAL TAX LAWS OTHER THAN THOSE PERTAINING TO INCOME TAX, INCLUDING ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS, OR UNDER ANY STATE, LOCAL, OR NON-U.S. TAX LAWS OR THE CANADA-U.S. TREATY.

Tax Consequences of the Arrangement

It is expected that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- U.S. Holders of TC Energy common shares should recognize no gain or loss (and no amounts should be includible in income) upon receipt of South Bow Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares;
- the aggregate basis of the New TC Energy Common Shares and the South Bow Common Shares (including any fractional share interest in South Bow Common Shares for which cash is received) in the hands of U.S. Holders of TC Energy common shares immediately after the Arrangement should be the same as the aggregate basis of the TC Energy common shares held by U.S. Holders of TC Energy common shares immediately before the Arrangement allocated between the New TC Energy Common Shares and the South Bow Common Shares (including any fractional share interest in South Bow Common Shares for which cash is received) in proportion to the fair market value of each immediately following the Arrangement; and
- the holding period of South Bow Common Shares received by U.S. Holders of TC Energy common shares in the Arrangement (including any fractional share interest in South Bow Common Shares for which cash is received) should generally include the holding period of the TC Energy common shares with respect to which the deemed distribution of South Bow Common Shares is made pursuant to the Arrangement.

A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional South Bow Common Share in the Arrangement will be treated as having sold such fractional South Bow Common Share for cash, and will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such fractional South Bow Common Share. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder's holding period for its TC Energy common shares exceeds one year at the time of the Arrangement.

U.S. Holders of TC Energy common shares that have acquired different blocks of TC Energy common shares at different times or at different prices are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the allocation of their aggregate adjusted basis among, and their holding period of, South Bow Common Shares and New TC Energy Common Shares.

Following the Effective Date, TC Energy will prepare and file in accordance with U.S. Treasury Regulations (including by posting a copy on the investor relations section of its website) an IRS Form 8937 with respect to the Arrangement. It is anticipated that information regarding the expected qualification of the Arrangement under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355(a) of the U.S. Code, including TC Energy's estimate of the proportionate allocation of tax basis, will be made available on such IRS Form 8937 following the consummation of the Arrangement. TC Energy's estimated allocation will not be binding on the IRS or on any U.S. Holder. U.S. Treasury Regulations also require certain U.S. Holders who receive South Bow Common Shares in the Arrangement to attach to such U.S. Holder's federal income tax return for the year in which the Arrangement occurs a detailed statement setting forth certain information relating to the tax-free nature of the Arrangement. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the information provided on IRS Form 8937, including regarding the allocation of their aggregate adjusted tax basis among the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares, their holding period of the New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares, and any other information that may be required to be filed with the IRS with respect to the Arrangement.

As discussed above, notwithstanding the receipt by TC Energy of the U.S. Tax Ruling and the opinion of White & Case LLP, the IRS could assert that the Arrangement does not qualify for tax-free treatment for U.S. federal income tax purposes, in which case each U.S. Holder who receives South Bow Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement may be treated as receiving a taxable distribution in an amount equal to the fair market value of the South Bow Common Shares received by such U.S. Holder. Specifically, in that event, the full value of the South Bow Common Shares received by a U.S. Holder generally should be treated first as a taxable dividend to the extent paid out of TC Energy's current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles), then as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of the U.S. Holder's basis in its TC Energy common shares, and finally as capital gain from the sale or exchange of the TC Energy common shares with respect to any remaining value. In such event, each U.S. Holder would generally have a tax basis in the South Bow Common Shares received equal to their fair market value on the Effective Date and the holding period of South Bow Common Shares received would generally begin on the day following the Effective Date. For a further discussion on the U.S. federal income tax treatment of distributions made with respect to South Bow Common Shares, see Material Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Ownership and Disposition of South Bow Common Shares – Distributions on South Bow Common Shares.

Tax Consequences of the Ownership and Disposition of South Bow Common Shares

Distributions on South Bow Common Shares

Subject to the discussion below under Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Ownership and Disposition of South Bow Common Shares – PFIC Considerations, the gross amount of any distribution of cash or property paid to a U.S. Holder with respect to South Bow Common Shares (including any Canadian taxes withheld from such distribution) will generally be included in the U.S. Holder's gross income on the date actually or constructively received as a dividend to the extent paid out of the current or accumulated earnings and profits of South Bow, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. To the extent that the amount of a distribution exceeds the current and accumulated earnings and profits of South Bow, the excess is treated as a non-taxable recovery of basis to the extent of the U.S. Holder's basis in South Bow Common Shares, and thereafter as either long-term or short-term capital gain depending upon whether the U.S. Holder held the South Bow Common Shares for more than one year as of the time such distribution is actually or constructively received. South Bow currently does not intend to calculate its earnings and profits under U.S. federal income tax principles. Thus, U.S. Holders should expect that distributions will be reported as dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Dividends on South Bow Common Shares generally will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally available to U.S. corporations with respect to dividends received from other U.S. corporations. With respect to certain non-corporate U.S. Holders, including individual U.S. Holders, dividends will be taxed at the lower capital gains rate applicable to "qualified dividend income," provided that: (a) South Bow is eligible for the benefits of the Canada-U.S. Treaty or South Bow Common Shares are readily tradable on the NYSE; (b) South Bow is not a PFIC (as discussed below under Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Ownership and Disposition of South Bow Common Share – PFIC Considerations) for the taxable year in which the dividend is paid and the preceding taxable year; and (c) certain holding period and other requirements are met.

The amount of any dividend paid in Canadian dollars will be the U.S. dollar value of the Canadian dollars received calculated by reference to the spot rate of exchange in effect on the date of actual or constructive receipt, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars on such date. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the treatment of any foreign currency gain or loss.

A U.S. Holder may be entitled, subject to certain limitations, to a credit against its U.S. federal income tax liability, or to a deduction, if elected, in computing its U.S. federal taxable income, for non-refundable Canadian income taxes withheld from dividends at a rate not exceeding the rate provided in the Canada-U.S. Treaty (if applicable). For purposes of the foreign tax credit limitation, dividends paid by South Bow generally will constitute foreign source income in the "passive category income" basket. However, there are significant complex limitations on a U.S. Holder's ability to claim such a credit or deduction. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the creditability or deductibility of any withholding taxes under their particular circumstances.

Sale or Other Disposition of South Bow Common Shares

Subject to the discussion below under Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Ownership and Disposition of South Bow Common Shares – PFIC Considerations, a U.S. Holder is expected to recognize taxable gain or loss upon the sale, exchange, or other taxable disposition of South Bow Common Shares equal to the difference, if any, between the amount realized for the South Bow Common Shares and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the South Bow Common Shares. A U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the South Bow Common Shares generally should be determined as described above under Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations – Tax Consequences of the Arrangement. The amount realized equals the U.S. dollar value of the amount of cash, if any, plus the fair market value of any property received in exchange for the South Bow Common Shares. If the South Bow Common Shares are treated as traded on an "established securities market," a cash method U.S. Holder, or if it elects, an accrual method U.S. Holder, will determine the U.S. dollar value of the amount realized by translating the amount received at the spot rate of exchange on the settlement date of the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition. Such an election by an accrual method U.S. Holder must be applied consistently from year to year and cannot be revoked without the consent of the IRS. Accrual method U.S. Holders that do not elect to be treated as cash method taxpayers for this purpose may have a foreign currency gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes, which in general will be treated as U.S. source ordinary income or loss. U.S. Holders should consult their advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the receipt of Canadian dollars.

Any capital gain or loss recognized on a sale, exchange, or other taxable disposition of South Bow Common Shares is expected to be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder's holding period in the South Bow Common Shares exceeds one year at the time of such sale, exchange, or other taxable disposition. Gain or loss, as well as the holding period for the South Bow Common Shares, is determined separately for each block of South Bow Common Shares (that is, shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) sold or otherwise subject to a taxable disposition. Gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder generally is expected to be treated as U.S. source gain or loss for foreign tax credit limitation purposes. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate U.S. Holders, including individual U.S. Holders that have held their South Bow Common Shares for more than one year, currently are eligible for preferential tax rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

PFIC Considerations

In general, a corporation organized outside the United States will be treated as a PFIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes in any taxable year in which: (a) 75 per cent or more of its gross income is passive income; or (b) 50 per cent or more of its assets by value either produce passive income or are held for the production of passive income, based on the quarterly average of the fair market value of such assets. For this purpose, “gross income” generally includes all sales revenues less the cost of goods sold, plus income from investments and from incidental or outside operations or sources, and “passive income” generally includes, for example, dividends, interest, certain rents and royalties, certain gains from the sale of stock and securities, and certain gains from commodities transactions. For purposes of the PFIC income test and asset test described above, if South Bow owns, directly or indirectly, 25 per cent or more of the total value of the outstanding shares of another corporation, South Bow will be treated as if it: (a) held a proportionate share of the assets of such other corporation; and (b) received directly a proportionate share of the income of such other corporation.

Based on the nature of South Bow’s business, the composition of South Bow’s expected income and assets, the expected value of South Bow’s assets, and the expected price of South Bow Common Shares, we do not believe that South Bow was a PFIC for its most recently ended taxable year, or expect that it will be a PFIC for its current taxable year or in the foreseeable future. However, because a determination of whether a company is a PFIC must be made annually after the end of each taxable year and South Bow’s PFIC status for each taxable year will depend on facts, including the composition of South Bow’s income and assets and the value of South Bow’s assets (which may be determined in part by reference to the market value of the South Bow Common Shares) at such time, there can be no assurance that South Bow will not be a PFIC for the current or any future taxable year. If South Bow is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds South Bow Common Shares and any of South Bow’s non-U.S. subsidiaries is also a PFIC, such U.S. Holder will be treated as owning a proportionate amount (by value) of the shares of the lower-tier PFIC for purposes of the application of these rules. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about the application of the PFIC rules to any of South Bow’s subsidiaries.

Generally, if South Bow is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds South Bow Common Shares, the U.S. Holder may be subject to adverse tax consequences. Generally, gain recognized by a U.S. Holder upon a disposition (including, under certain circumstances, a pledge) of South Bow Common Shares by the U.S. Holder would be allocated ratably over the U.S. Holder’s holding period for such South Bow Common Shares. The amounts allocated to the taxable year of disposition and to years before South Bow became a PFIC would be taxed as ordinary income. The amount allocated to each other taxable year would be subject to tax at the highest rate in effect for that taxable year for individuals or corporations, as appropriate, and an interest charge would be imposed on the tax attributable to the allocated amount. Further, to the extent that any distribution received by a U.S. Holder on the South Bow Common Shares exceeds 125 per cent of the average of the annual distributions on such South Bow Common Shares received during the preceding three years or the U.S. Holder’s holding period, whichever is shorter, that distribution would be subject to taxation in the same manner as gain, described immediately above. Certain elections may be available that would result in alternative treatments of the South Bow Common Shares if South Bow was a PFIC.

If South Bow was a PFIC for any year during which a U.S. Holder owned South Bow Common Shares, South Bow would generally continue to be treated as a PFIC with respect to such U.S. Holder for all succeeding years during which such U.S. Holder held the South Bow Common Shares, even if South Bow ceased to meet the threshold requirements for PFIC status.

If a U.S. Holder owns South Bow Common Shares during any year in which South Bow is a PFIC, the U.S. Holder generally will be required to file an IRS Form 8621 annually with respect to South Bow, generally with the U.S. Holder’s U.S. federal income tax return for that year unless specified exceptions apply.

U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding South Bow’s PFIC status for any taxable year and the potential application of the PFIC rules.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

A U.S. Holder may be subject to information reporting with respect to the South Bow Common Shares received pursuant to the Arrangement, payments of cash in lieu of fractional South Bow Common Shares, dividends on South Bow Common Shares, and proceeds from the sale or other disposition of South Bow Common Shares, unless the holder is a corporation or is otherwise exempt from backup withholding and demonstrates this fact when required. In addition, such payments may be subject to backup withholding, unless: (a) the U.S. Holder is exempt from backup withholding and demonstrates this fact when required; or (b) provides a taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding tax, and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding tax rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax, and it generally may be refunded or credited against a U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner.

Foreign Financial Asset Reporting

Certain U.S. Holders who are individuals or certain specified entities that own "specified foreign financial assets" with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$50,000 (and in some circumstances, a higher threshold) may be required to report information relating to the South Bow Common Shares by attaching a complete IRS Form 8938, Statement of Specified Foreign Financial Assets (which requires U.S. Holders to report "foreign financial assets," which generally include financial accounts held at a non-U.S. financial institution, interests in non-U.S. entities, as well as stock and other securities issued by a non-U.S. person), to their tax return for each year in which they hold the South Bow Common Shares, subject to certain exceptions (including an exception for South Bow Common Shares held in accounts maintained by U.S. financial institutions). U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their reporting obligations with respect to the Arrangement and their ownership and disposition of South Bow Common Shares.

INFORMATION CONCERNING TC ENERGY PRIOR TO THE ARRANGEMENT

Our business consists of natural gas and crude oil transportation, storage and delivery systems, as well as power generation assets that produce electricity.

Our vision is to be the premier energy infrastructure company in North America today and in the future by safely generating, storing and delivering the energy people need every day. Our goal is to develop, build and safely operate a portfolio of infrastructure assets that enable us to prosper irrespective of the pace and direction of energy transition and at all points in the economic cycle. We are a team of energy problem solvers working to deliver this energy in a safe, reliable, secure and affordable manner through lower carbon energy solutions including natural gas, nuclear energy and pumped hydro.

The following is a description of each of TC Energy's three core businesses.

Natural Gas Pipelines

Our natural gas pipeline network transports natural gas from supply basins to local distribution companies, power generation plants, industrial facilities, interconnecting pipelines, LNG export terminals and other businesses across Canada, the U.S. and Mexico.

In addition to our natural gas pipelines, we have regulated natural gas storage facilities in the U.S. with a total working gas capacity of 532 Bcf, making us one of the largest providers of natural gas storage and related services to key markets in North America.

Our Natural Gas Pipelines business is split into three operating segments representing its geographic diversity: Canadian Natural Gas Pipelines, U.S. Natural Gas Pipelines and Mexico Natural Gas Pipelines.

A description of the natural gas pipelines and regulated natural gas storage assets we operate in addition to further information about our pipeline holdings, developments and opportunities, significant regulatory developments and competitive position which relate to our Natural Gas Pipelines business can be found in the "Natural Gas Pipelines Business", "Canadian Natural Gas Pipelines", "U.S. Natural Gas Pipelines" and "Mexico Natural Gas Pipelines" sections of the TC Energy Annual MD&A, which is incorporated by reference herein.

Liquids Pipelines

Our Liquids Pipelines business provides safe and reliable crude oil transportation through infrastructure extending from the WCSB in Canada to the U.S. Midwest and Gulf Coast. We offer long haul transportation from the WCSB to key refining and export markets in the U.S., as well as domestic transportation within Alberta and from Cushing, Oklahoma to the U.S. Gulf Coast.

A description of pipelines and properties we operate, in addition to further information about our pipeline holdings, developments and opportunities, significant regulatory developments and competitive position which relate to our Liquids Pipelines business can be found in the "Liquids Pipelines" section of the TC Energy Annual MD&A, which is incorporated by reference herein.

Power & Energy Solutions

The Power and Energy Solutions business consists of power generation, non-regulated natural gas storage assets, as well as emerging technologies that can provide low-carbon solutions for our customers and industry.

Our Power and Energy Solutions business includes approximately 4,600 MW of generation powered by nuclear, natural gas, wind and solar. These generation assets are generally supported by long-term contracts. Our Canadian power infrastructure assets are located in Alberta, Ontario, Québec and New Brunswick, while our U.S. power infrastructure assets are located in Texas. Additionally, we have approximately 400 MW of PPAs in both the U.S. and Canada from wind and solar facilities. We continue to pursue generation assets and PPA opportunities in Canada and the U.S.

We also own and operate approximately 118 Bcf of non-regulated natural gas storage capacity in Alberta.

Further information about the Power & Energy Solutions assets we operate and those currently under construction, along with our Power & Energy Solutions holdings, significant developments, and opportunities in relation to our Power and Energy Solutions business, can be found in the “Power & Energy Solutions” section of the TC Energy Annual MD&A, which is incorporated by reference herein.

South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan

At the meeting, shareholders will be asked to vote to approve the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan Resolution, the full text of which is set forth in Schedule B to this Circular, approving the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE SOUTH BOW SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN RESOLUTION.

SUMMARY

The following discussion is qualified in its entirety by the text of the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan, which is set forth in Schedule L of this Circular and will be filed on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca) and with the SEC (www.sec.gov) under South Bow's profile after the Effective Date.

BACKGROUND

The South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan is designed to ensure that South Bow Shareholders are treated fairly and provide the South Bow Board with adequate time to identify, develop and negotiate alternative value maximizing transactions if there is a take-over bid for South Bow.

PERMITTED BIDS

A take-over bid that involves buying 20 per cent or more of the outstanding South Bow Common Shares is considered a permitted bid when it meets the following requirements:

- a circular is issued, informing all South Bow Shareholders of the bid;
- the bid is made available to all South Bow Shareholders;
- the bid is available for a minimum period of 105 days or such shorter period that a non-exempt take-over bid must remain open for deposits of securities, in the applicable circumstances, pursuant to Canadian securities laws;
- South Bow Common Shares tendered to the take-over bid can be taken up only after such minimum period, and only if more than 50 per cent of the South Bow Common Shares held by independent South Bow Shareholders (South Bow Shareholders other than the bidder, its affiliates and anyone acting jointly or in concert with the bidder) have been tendered and not withdrawn; and
- in the event that the deposit condition described in the preceding bullet is satisfied, the bidder must publicly disclose this and keep the bid open for at least another ten business days to allow any additional deposits of South Bow Common Shares.

The South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan allows competing permitted bids to be made while there is an outstanding permitted bid, as long as the competing bids are available for acceptance for at least the minimum number of days as required under Canadian securities laws.

The South Bow Board will continue to have the power to carry out its responsibilities and make recommendations to South Bow Shareholders as appropriate while there are permitted bids outstanding.

FLIP-IN EVENTS

The acquisition of 20 per cent or more of the outstanding South Bow Common Shares by any person (an acquiring person) is considered a flip-in event when it does not meet the requirements for a permitted bid.

There are certain exceptions in the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan where the acquisition of 20 per cent or more of the outstanding South Bow Common Shares will not result in the creation of an acquiring person and will not trigger a flip-in event, including where institutional investors acquire 20 per cent or more of the South Bow Common Shares as long as they are not making, or are not part of a group that is making, a take-over bid. Institutional investors include investment managers, trust companies, statutory bodies, crown agents and managers or trustees of pension plans or mutual funds.

SOUTH BOW RIGHTS

One South Bow right (the South Bow Rights) will be attached to each South Bow Common Share issued on and after the Effective Date.

These South Bow Rights separate from South Bow Common Shares and South Bow Shareholders can then exercise their rights and transfer or trade them separately ten trading days after the earlier of: (a) the date of commencement or public announcement of a takeover bid for the South Bow Common Shares (which is not a permitted bid or competing permitted bid); (b) the date that a permitted bid or competing permitted bid ceases to be that; and (c) the date that a public announcement or disclosure is made that a person has become an acquiring person (the Separation Time).

After the Separation Time and prior to a flip-in event, each South Bow Right allows South Bow Shareholders to buy one South Bow Common Share at three times the market price (the Exercise Price), after adjusting for anti-dilution provisions.

After a flip-in event, each South Bow Right allows South Bow Shareholders, other than an acquiring person, to buy that number of South Bow Common Shares having a total market price equal to double the Exercise Price for an amount equal to the Exercise Price (effectively, the price of each South Bow Common Share will be half the market price).

The issue of South Bow Rights is not initially dilutive, but South Bow's reported earnings per South Bow Common Share on a fully diluted or non-diluted basis may be affected after a flip-in event occurs. South Bow Shareholders may experience substantial dilution if they do not exercise their South Bow Rights when a flip-in event occurs.

South Bow Rights held by an acquiring person are void on a flip in event.

ABOUT SOUTH BOW RIGHTS AND SOUTH BOW COMMON SHARES

South Bow Rights are imprinted on share certificates and they cannot be transferred separately from the South Bow Common Shares before the Separation Time.

As of the Separation Time, however, the South Bow Rights holders receive South Bow Rights certificates that can be transferred, and South Bow Rights are traded separately from the South Bow Common Shares.

WAIVING THE SOUTH BOW SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

The South Bow Board, acting in good faith can, until the occurrence of a flip-in event, waive the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan for a particular flip-in event (called an exempt acquisition) if a circular for a take-over bid is distributed to all holders of South Bow Common Shares. The waiver will also apply to any other take-over bid that is made by way of a circular that is distributed to all holders of South Bow Common Shares before the original bid expires.

The South Bow Board can also waive the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan if a person becomes an acquiring person through inadvertence and thereafter reduces their beneficial ownership to less than 20 per cent of the outstanding South Bow Common Shares.

REDEEMING SOUTH BOW RIGHTS

The South Bow Board, acting in good faith, can until the occurrence of a flip-in event in respect of which the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan has not been waived, redeem each South Bow Right at $0.00001 per right, as long as it receives approval from a majority of South Bow Shareholders (or rights holders after the Separation Time has passed) at a meeting called for this purpose.

The South Bow Board will also redeem the South Bow Rights once a permitted bid, competing permitted bid or exempt acquisition is complete, and does not need South Bow Shareholder approval to do so.

LOCK-UP AGREEMENTS

South Bow Shareholders can enter into a lock-up agreement with a bidder and agree to tender their South Bow Common Shares to the take-over bid (Subject Bid).

Any lock-up agreement must allow the South Bow Shareholder to withdraw their South Bow Common Shares so they can tender them to another take-over bid or transaction if:

- the offering price for each South Bow Common Share in such other take-over bid or transaction is greater than the offering price in the Subject Bid;
- the offering price for each South Bow Common Share in such other take-over bid or transaction exceeds the offering price in the Subject Bid by a specified amount, as long as the specified amount is not greater than seven per cent of the offering price per South Bow Common Share in the Subject Bid; or
- the number of South Bow Common Shares they can tender in such other take-over bid or transaction exceeds the number of South Bow Common Shares they can tender in the Subject Bid by a specified amount, as long as the specified amount is not greater than seven per cent of the number of South Bow Common Shares they can tender in the Subject Bid, and the offering price in such other take-over bid or transaction is not less than the offering price in the Subject Bid.

The lock-up agreement must meet two other requirements:

- a copy of the lock-up agreement must be made available to South Bow and the public for review; and
- the locked-up person does not agree to pay break-up or top-up fees, penalties, reimbursement of expenses, or other amounts that exceed in the aggregate the greater of: (a) two and a half per cent of the value to be paid to the locked-up person under the Subject Bid; and (b) 50 per cent of the difference between the amount the locked-up person would receive under the other take-over bid or transaction and what they would have received under the Subject Bid, if they do not tender their South Bow Common Shares to the Subject Bid or withdraw them to deposit with another bid or transaction.

A lock-up agreement can also include a right of first refusal, or a delay period or other limitation, to give the bidder an opportunity to match terms like a higher price or number of securities, as long as the South Bow Shareholder can accept another bid or tender their South Bow Common Shares to another transaction.

MAKING CHANGES TO THE SOUTH BOW SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

The South Bow Board can make changes to the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan if a majority of votes cast by independent South Bow Shareholders (or rights holders if the Separation Time has occurred) at a meeting called for that purpose vote for the changes.

The South Bow Board can correct clerical and typographical errors and make other housekeeping changes, in each case, without South Bow Shareholder approval. The South Bow Board may also amend the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan in order to comply with applicable laws. In such a case, any such amendment must be approved by a majority of the votes cast by South Bow Shareholders (or rights holders if the Separation Time has occurred) at the next meeting of South Bow Shareholders (or, with respect to approval of rights holders, at a meeting to be held not later than immediately following the next meeting of South Bow Shareholders).

Governance

We believe that strong governance improves corporate performance and benefits all stakeholders.

This section discusses our approach to governance and describes our Board and how it works.

About Our Governance Practices

Our Board and management are committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct and corporate governance.

TC Energy is a public company listed on the TSX and the NYSE, and we recognize and respect rules and regulations in both Canada and the U.S.

Our corporate governance practices comply with the Canadian governance guidelines, which include the governance rules of the CBCA, TSX and Canadian Securities Administrators, including:

- National Instrument 52-110, Audit Committees,
- National Policy 58-201, Corporate Governance Guidelines, and
- National Instrument 58-101, Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practice.

We also comply with the governance listing standards of the NYSE and the governance rules of the SEC that apply, in each case, to foreign private issuers.

Our governance practices comply with the NYSE standards for U.S. companies in all significant respects. As a non-U.S. company, we are not required to comply with most of the governance listing standards of the NYSE. As a foreign private issuer, however, we must disclose how our governance practices differ from those followed by U.S. companies that are subject to the NYSE standards. Our corporate governance practices do not significantly differ from those required to be followed by U.S. domestic issuers under the NYSE’s listing standards. A summary of our governance practices compared to U.S. standards can be found on our website (www.tcenergy.com).

We benchmark our policies and procedures against major North American companies to assess our standards and we adopt best practices as appropriate. Some of our best practices are derived from the NYSE rules and comply with applicable rules adopted by the SEC to meet the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

Board Characteristics

Our Board and its members exemplify strong principles of corporate governance:

- an independent, non-executive Chair,
- all directors except our CEO are independent,
- knowledgeable, diverse and experienced directors who ensure that we promote ethical behaviour throughout TC Energy,
- qualified directors who can make a meaningful contribution to the Board, the development of our strategy and business and oversight of our risk management processes,
- significant share ownership requirements to align the directors' interests with those of our shareholders,
- annual assessments of Board, Chair, committee and director effectiveness, and
- an effective board size.

Based on the current Board composition, 12 of 13 or 92 per cent of our directors are independent. Assuming all director nominees are elected, 12 of 13 or 92 per cent of our directors will be independent.

SIZE AND COMPOSITION

TC Energy's articles state that the Board must have a minimum of eight and a maximum of 15 directors. The Board has determined that 13 directors will be elected this year at the annual meeting. The Board believes this size is appropriate based on the scope of our business, the skills and experience of the nominated directors, the four standing committees, and to achieve effective decision making. It believes that all of the nominated directors are well qualified to serve on the Board.

We believe our Board must consist of qualified, diverse and knowledgeable directors, and include directors with direct experience in the oil and gas, pipelines and energy sectors.

BOARD DIVERSITY

TC Energy has long been committed to promoting diversity on our Board. In 1999, we revised our Corporate Governance Guidelines to include a variety of diversity criteria for Board membership. Under these guidelines, when selecting new members for nomination to the Board, the Governance Committee takes fully into account the desirability of maintaining a balanced diversity of backgrounds, skills and experience, and personal characteristics such as age, gender and the geographic residence of directors.

In addition to our Corporate Governance Guidelines, as a further commitment to promoting Board diversity, in February 2018, the Board adopted and endorsed a Board Diversity Policy, which relates to the identification and nomination of directors generally. The objective of the policy is to increase Board diversity by seeking qualified director nominees, while considering diversity criteria. The diversity criteria includes skills, expertise, industry experience and personal characteristics such as age, gender, ethnicity and other distinctions of potential director nominees.

More specifically, in seeking suitable director nominee candidates, the Governance Committee will:

- consider all aspects of diversity,
- assess the skills and backgrounds collectively represented on the Board to ensure that they reflect the diverse nature of the business environment in which we operate,
- consider candidates on merit against objective criteria having due regard to the benefits of diversity on the Board, and
- at their discretion, engage qualified independent external advisors to identify and assess candidates that meet the Board's skills and diversity criteria.

As part of its ongoing process of seeking potential Board candidates for future consideration and nomination, TC Energy's search consultant is asked to ensure that candidates with salient industry experience who identify as women, members of visible minorities, Aboriginals peoples and persons with disabilities (each as defined in the Employment Equity Act) are considered.

Pursuant to the Board Diversity Policy, the Board has a target of at least 30 per cent women and at least one racially and/or ethnically diverse member on our Board. Further, if the Board composition falls below the target of 30 per cent women or one racially and/or ethnically diverse member on the Board, the Governance Committee will commit to increasing the gender diversity and/or racial or ethnic diversity representation to the applicable target by the next annual meeting of shareholders.

Assuming all the director nominees are elected this year, we will exceed our targets with 38 per cent of the Board being comprised of women and two members of the Board being visible minorities representing racial and/or ethnic diversity on the Board.

In addition, each year, the Governance Committee will:

- assess the effectiveness of the Board Diversity Policy, including receiving updates on TC Energy’s board diversity statistics, peer diversity policies and shareholder expectations on diversity,
- monitor and review our progress in achieving the target for gender diversity,
- monitor the implementation of the Board Diversity Policy, and
- report to the Board and recommend any revisions to the Board Diversity Policy that may be necessary.

TC Energy has a director Term Limit and Retirement Policy that stipulates once a director turns 73 or has served more than 15 years on the Board, whichever comes first, such director will not stand for re-election at the next annual meeting. Notwithstanding age limits, a director will be eligible to serve on the Board for at least five years in order to ensure a robust level of Board continuity and to permit onboarded directors to serve a sufficient term to meaningfully contribute to the Board. For more information, please see our Governance – Board effectiveness and director assessment – Director tenure, on page 120.

Women on the Board

Currently, five of 13, or 38 per cent of the Board is composed of women. After the meeting, if all the nominated directors are elected, five of 13, or approximately 38 per cent of the Board will be composed of women, which continues to exceed our target of 30 per cent women on the Board.

Racial and Ethnic Diversity on the Board

In February 2024, the Board approved amendments to the Board Diversity Policy to add a new target of at least one racially and/or ethnically diverse member on the Board. Racially and/or ethnically diverse members includes both Aboriginal peoples and members of visible minorities.

Currently, two of 13, or 15 per cent of the Board is composed of members of visible minorities and there are no Aboriginal peoples currently serving on the Board. After the meeting, if all the nominated directors are elected, two of 13, or 15 per cent of the Board will be composed of members of visible minorities and zero of 13, or zero per cent of the Board will be composed of Aboriginal peoples.

As such, the Board will have two members of the Board who identify as visible minorities, which exceeds the target of at least one racially or ethnically diverse member on the Board.

Persons with Disabilities

There are no persons with disabilities currently serving on the Board. After the meeting, if all the nominated directors are elected zero of 13, or zero per cent of the Board will be composed of persons with disabilities.

Although we do not have specific targets regarding Board membership for persons with disabilities, as described above, the Governance Committee does specifically consider the representation of women, Aboriginal peoples, visible minorities and persons with disabilities in its nomination of potential director candidates. In addition, we believe that our Board Diversity Policy and Corporate Governance Guidelines sufficiently encourage our Governance Committee to consider all forms of diversity, including with respect to women, racial or ethnic diversity, such as Aboriginal people and visible minorities, and persons with disabilities when selecting director candidates.

INDEPENDENCE

An independent board is a fundamental principle of governance. We believe that the majority of our directors are independent in accordance with applicable Canadian legal requirements and guidelines, and consistent with the applicable independence criteria of the regulations of the SEC and rules of the NYSE.

The Governance Committee and the Board review the independence of each Board member and nominated director against these criteria once a year. The Governance Committee also reviews family relationships and associations with companies that have relationships with TC Energy when it reviews director independence.

The Board has determined that 12 of 13 or 92 per cent of the nominated directors are independent. Mr. Poirier is not independent because of his role as President and CEO.

Other than as described above, none of the directors have a direct or indirect material relationship with TC Energy that could reasonably be expected to interfere with the exercise of their independent judgment.

Independent Chair

The Chair is appointed by the Board, and serves in a non-executive capacity. We have had separate Chair and CEO positions since our incorporation in 2003 and at our predecessor company since 1994. Mr. Lowe has served as the independent non-executive Chair since January 1, 2024 after Mr. Vanaselja stepped down as Board Chair on December 31, 2023.

Independent advice

The Board and each of its four standing committees can retain independent advisors to assist in carrying out their duties and responsibilities.

Serving on other boards

To ensure we do not have overboarding or interlocking relationships that would conflict with a director's independence or interfere with fulfilling their Board duties and responsibilities, we have the following policy:

- outside directors may not serve on more than four public company boards in total (including TC Energy),
- the CEO may not serve on more than two public company boards in total (including TC Energy), and
- Audit Committee members may not serve on more than three audit committees in total (including TC Energy).

In February 2023, the Governance Committee approved amendments to the policy to reflect that, for the purposes of counting public company boards, each non-executive board chair role will be counted as two board seats.

All of our directors meet our overboarding policy requirements.

We discuss the time commitment and duties and responsibilities with every candidate so they have a full understanding of the role and our expectations of directors. The Governance Committee monitors director relationships to ensure their business associations do not hinder their role as a TC Energy director or Board performance overall.

The Board believes that it is important for it to be composed of qualified and knowledgeable directors. As a result, due to the specialized nature of the energy infrastructure business, some of the nominated directors are associated with or sit on the boards of companies that ship natural gas or liquids through our pipeline systems. Transmission services on most of TC Energy's pipeline systems in Canada and the U.S. are subject to regulation and, accordingly, we generally cannot deny transportation services to a creditworthy shipper. As discussed in Conflicts of interest and related party transactions, the Governance Committee monitors relationships among directors to ensure that business associations do not affect the Board's performance.

See the director profiles starting on page 42 for the other public company boards each nominated director serves on.

Independent of management

Our Corporate Governance Guidelines stipulate that the Board must meet at the end of each Board meeting, in-camera, without management present. In 2023, the independent directors met separately at each regularly scheduled Board meeting. Our Board has adopted the policy of holding in-camera sessions at each meeting of its Committees without management. Members of management meet with the independent directors upon request.

Governance Philosophy

We believe that effective corporate governance improves corporate performance and benefits all shareholders and that honesty and integrity are vital to ensuring good corporate governance.

The Board has formally adopted the Corporate Governance Guidelines recommended by the Governance Committee. These guidelines address the structure and composition of the Board and its Committees and clarify the responsibilities of the Board and management.

ETHICAL BUSINESS CONDUCT

Our Code of Business Ethics (the Code) incorporates principles of good conduct and ethical and responsible behaviour to guide our decisions and actions and the way we conduct business.

The Code applies to all employees, officers and directors as well as contract workers of TC Energy and its wholly-owned subsidiaries and operated entities in countries where we conduct business. All employees (including executive officers) and directors must certify their compliance with the Code.

Any unusual behaviour or suspected violations of the Code must be reported immediately. Employees can report a concern to their supervisor, Corporate Compliance, Internal Audit, their Compliance coordinator or to our ethics help-line. The ethics help-line allows anyone – employees, contractors, consultants, other stakeholders and the general public – to report a concern, confidentially and anonymously, about any perceived accounting irregularities, legal or ethical violations or other suspected breaches of the Code. The telephone number is published on our website and employee intranet, in other employee communications and in the TC Energy Annual Report. Our policy strictly prohibits reprisals or retaliation against anyone who files an ethics concern or complaint in good faith.

Internal Audit handles most investigations, including any concerns about directors and senior management. Human resources professionals handle any concerns relating to human resource matters such as harassment.

The Audit Committee monitors compliance with the Code and reports any significant violations to the Board. The Audit Committee oversees the procedures for receiving and reviewing complaints and determining a course of action. It also oversees the operation of the ethics help-line as part of its responsibilities.

Any waiver of the Code for our executive officers and directors must be approved by the Board, or the appropriate committee. There were no such waivers or material departures from the Code in 2023.

The Code is posted on our website (www.tcenergy.com).

In order to promote a culture of ethical business conduct across the company, TC Energy also maintains additional internal corporate policies with respect to gift giving and conflicts of interest that apply to our personnel.

Conflicts of interest and related party transactions

The Code covers potential conflicts of interest and requires that all employees, officers, directors and contract workers of TC Energy avoid situations that may result in a potential conflict.

In the event an employee, officer, director or contract worker finds themselves in a potential conflict situation, the Code stipulates that:

- the conflict should be reported, and
- the person should refrain from participation in any decision or action where there is a real or perceived conflict.

The Code also notes that employees and officers of TC Energy may not engage in outside business activities that are in conflict with or detrimental to the interests of TC Energy. The CEO and the Executive Leadership Team must receive consent from the Chair of the Governance Committee for all outside business activities.

Under the Code, directors must also declare any material interest that they may have in a material contract or transaction and recuse themselves from related deliberations and approvals.

In addition to the Code, the directors and corporate officers of TC Energy are required to disclose any related parties and related party transactions in their annual directors and officers questionnaires. These questionnaires assist TC Energy in identifying and monitoring material related party transactions.

The Governance Committee reviews and approves any material related party transactions prior to the transaction occurring, and maintains oversight over material related party transactions following such approval.

Related party transactions include any transactions between TC Energy (or any of its subsidiaries) and a related party that are material to TC Energy or the related party or are unusual in their nature or conditions and are inconsistent with the interests of TC Energy and its shareholders.

For this purpose, related parties include:

- key management personnel, such as TC Energy's directors and Executive Leadership Team and their immediate family members,
- individuals and their immediate family members who exercise significant influence over TC Energy,
- entities where the individuals, including their immediate family members, noted above have substantial voting power or are able to exercise significant influence, and
- entities directly controlled by TC Energy.

There were no material conflicts of interests or related party transactions reported by the Board, CEO or the corporate officers, including the Executive Leadership Team, in 2023.

Serving on other boards

The Board considers whether directors serving on the boards of, or acting as officers or in another similar capacity, for other entities including public and private companies, Crown corporations and other state-owned entities, and non-profit organizations pose any potential conflict. The Board reviews these relationships annually to determine that they do not interfere with any of our directors' ability to act in our best interests. If a director declares a material interest in any material contract or material transaction being considered at a meeting, the director is not present during the discussion and does not vote on the matter.

Our Code requires employees to receive consent before accepting a directorship with an entity that is not an affiliate. The CEO and executive vice-presidents must receive the consent of the Chair of the Governance Committee. All other employees must receive the consent of the Corporate Secretary or their delegate.

Affiliates

The Board oversees relationships between TC Energy and any affiliates to avoid any potential conflicts of interest.

MAJORITY VOTING

Our Majority Voting Policy aligns with the majority voting requirements under the CBCA and provides that, in director elections where the number of nominated directors is the same as the number of director positions available (an uncontested election), each candidate is elected only if the number of votes cast in their favour represents a majority (50 per cent plus one vote) of the votes cast for and against them by the shareholders who are present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and voted on the election of directors. Unelected incumbent directors who fail to achieve a majority vote may continue in office until the earlier of: (a) the 90th day after the election; and (b) the day on which their successor is appointed or elected. This policy does not apply if there is a proxy contest over the election of directors. Majority voting will not apply in the case of a contested election of directors, in which case the directors will be elected by a plurality of votes of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the meeting and voted on the election of directors.

SHARE OWNERSHIP

We have share ownership requirements for our directors and executives to align their interests with those of our shareholders. Ownership levels are significant, and directors and executives must meet the requirements within five years of assuming their position.

As of April 10, 2024, all of our directors are in compliance with our director Share Ownership Policy, which provides that directors must hold at least four times their annual retainer in TC Energy shares or TC Energy DSUs within five years of joining the Board. Certain directors are still within the five year period from their election to the Board.

See Aligning the interests of directors and shareholders on page 140 and Aligning the interests of executives and shareholders on page 154 for more information.

Role and Responsibilities of the Board

The Board's primary responsibilities are to foster TC Energy's long-term success and sustainability, oversee our business affairs and management and to act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of TC Energy.

The Board's main objective is to promote our best interests, to maximize long-term shareholder value and to enhance shareholder returns.

The Board has key duties and responsibilities, delegates some duties to its four standing committees and discharges others to management for managing the day-to-day affairs of the business.

The Chair of the Board is responsible for ensuring that the Board is organized properly, functions effectively and meets its obligations and responsibilities. The Chair's role includes coordinating the affairs of the Board, working with management (primarily the CEO) and ensuring effective relations with Board members, shareholders, other stakeholders and the public.

CHARTERS AND POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

The Board and each standing Committee have adopted a charter that outlines its principal responsibilities.

The charters are reviewed every year to ensure that they reflect current developments in corporate governance and corporate best practices, and the Board approves any necessary changes.

The Board charter describes the:

- composition and organization of the Board,
- duties and responsibilities for managing the affairs of the Board, and
- oversight responsibilities for:
 - management and human resources,
 - strategy and planning,
 - financial and corporate issues,
 - business and risk management, including compensation risk,
 - policies and procedures,
 - compliance reporting and corporate communications, and
 - general legal obligations, including its ability to use independent advisors as necessary.

The Board has also developed position descriptions for the Chair of the Board, each Committee Chair and the CEO. The position descriptions for the Chair of the Board and the CEO are part of their respective terms of reference. The position descriptions for the Chair of each Committee are contained in the Committee charters.

See Schedule N for a copy of the Board charter. The Board charter, Committee charters and position terms of reference for the Chair of the Board and the CEO are posted on our website (www.tcenergy.com).

STRATEGIC PLANNING

The Board provides oversight and direction in the strategic planning process to ensure we have a robust strategy that supports our vision of being North America’s premier energy infrastructure company today and in the future. We move, generate and store the energy people need every day. Our business consists of natural gas and crude oil transportation, storage and delivery systems and power generation assets that produce electricity. We are a team of energy problem solvers working to deliver energy in a safe, affordable, reliable and sustainable manner while developing lower carbon energy solutions, including natural gas, nuclear energy and pumped hydro storage. Our goal is to develop, build and safely operate a portfolio of infrastructure assets that will enable us to prosper irrespective of the pace and direction of energy transition at all points of the economic cycle. To achieve this, we have a five-year strategic plan which we reaffirm or update regularly. Additionally, we hold strategic issues sessions with the Board throughout the year to consider specific and emerging issues. The Governance Committee is accountable for overseeing the strategy development process and works with management to identify and discuss emerging issues, elevating topics for discussion with the entire Board as necessary. Guidance is also provided relative to the annual strategy cycle.

As part of our annual strategic plan review, management includes an assessment of energy fundamentals, the competitive environment and the stakeholder landscape to identify opportunities and threats to our business strategy. This process informs our annual strategic priorities and executive performance measures. We also periodically test our strategy against a range of energy supply and demand outlooks to confirm the resilience of our assets.

Throughout the year, the Board monitors management’s progress toward achieving strategic priorities. In 2023, management provided updates and sought guidance from the Board and Special Committee on the spin off of our Liquids Pipelines business and asset divestiture programs. At each regularly scheduled Board meeting, management also provides updates on the human, safety, technological and capital resources required to implement our strategy and relevant regulatory and ESG issues that may impact our strategy.

See Election of Directors – Meeting attendance on page 55 for more information about the meetings held in 2023 and Orientation and education on pages 114 and 115 for more information about the strategic issues and planning sessions attended by Board members in 2023.

RISK OVERSIGHT AND ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT

Risk management is embedded in all activities at TC Energy and is integral to the successful operation of our business. Our strategy is to ensure that our risks and related exposures are aligned with our objectives as well as our risk tolerances. We manage risk through a centralized enterprise risk management (ERM) program that systematically identifies enterprise risks, including ESG-related risks, that could materially impact the achievement of our strategic objectives. The program and framework follow a principled approach and includes an enterprise risk register supported by in-depth risk assessments and reporting, quarterly emerging risk reports and deep dive presentations.

The purpose of the ERM program is to address risks to, or yielding from, the execution of our business strategies, as well as enabling practices that allow us to identify and monitor emerging risks. Specifically, the ERM program and framework provides an end-to-end process for risk identification, analysis, evaluation and mitigation, and the ongoing monitoring and reporting to the Board, CEO and Executive Vice-Presidents, including the Chief Risk Officer.

Process

Our Board retains general oversight of all enterprise risks, as identified below, and specifically has direct oversight of reputation and relationships, political and regulatory uncertainty, capital allocation strategy, and project execution and capital costs. The Board reviews the enterprise risk register annually and oversees how these risks are being managed and mitigated in accordance with TC Energy’s risk appetite and tolerances. The Board also participates in detailed presentations on each enterprise risk as required or requested.

The Board is informed quarterly on emerging risks and management’s response to these risks. If an emerging risk rises to the level of an enterprise risk then the Governance Committee will review the mapping of such enterprise risk and the Governance Committee chair will include the identified enterprise risk and the enterprise risk governance and execution owners in its report to the Board.

Our Executive Leadership Team is accountable for developing and implementing risk management plans and actions, and effective risk management is reflected in their compensation. Each identified enterprise risk has an Executive Leadership Team member as the governance owner and business unit presidents and/or senior management as the execution owner. These team members collectively provide in-depth reviews for the Board on an annual basis.

As part of our commitment to continuous improvement of the ERM program, we identified and are working towards adopting Key Risk Indicators for risk events that may impact our ability to achieve our strategic objectives. These metrics will establish a set of appropriate indicators that will provide quantifiable metrics and objective rationale, as well as meaningful trending, for each enterprise risk. Going forward, Key Risk Indicators will be used to inform our annual in-depth review of our enterprise risks conducted by the Board.

The enterprise risk register establishes clear accountabilities of the Board, committees and executives responsible for specific oversight of each enterprise risk. The following is a list of enterprise risks with the potential to affect our operations and the Board committee responsible for overseeing each enterprise risk. These are being continuously monitored through the program and its framework.

Enterprise Risk	Board/Board Committee Oversight
Business interruption	HSSE
Reputation and relationships	Board
Access to capital at a competitive cost	Audit/Board
Capital allocation strategy	Board
Cyber security	Audit
Climate change	HSSE
Political and regulatory	Board
Strategy and development	Board
Project execution and capital costs	HSSE/Board
Talent attraction, retention and succession planning	Human Resources

In addition, all projects and opportunities recommended by management to the Board for approval include specific descriptions of the associated risks. The risk discussion associated with each project forms a part of the Board’s determination of whether to approve projects or pursue opportunities.

Our process ensures that the Board is fully informed of the interrelationship between the business environment and its associated risks, and is intended to facilitate and stimulate discussion of our key business risks.

The TC Energy AIF and the TC Energy Annual Report include more information about the risks applicable to TC Energy. The TC Energy AIF and the TC Energy Annual Report are available on our website (www.tcenergy.com) and on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca).

Information security/cyber security programs

TC Energy maintains a comprehensive cyber security strategy which aligns with regulatory and industry standards for cyber security, including but not limited to requirements under the Transportation Security Administration, CER and North American Electric Reliability Corporation. We also follow cyber security best practices outlined by the National Institute of Standards and Technology.

Our Cyber security office, reporting to our Chief Information Officer, manages the cyber security program. The program includes the following key components:

Training and policies	All employees and contractors are required to complete mandatory cyber security awareness training annually. This training covers identifying and reporting cyber security related incidents and threats, such as suspicious emails. The Cyber security office promotes awareness using safety moments and periodic presentations across the organization. TC Energy also maintains Acceptable Use and Cyber Security Policies designed to ensure the safe, reliable, and confidential usage of TC Energy's digital assets. These Policies outline TC Energy's required cyber security standards and reporting regimes for safeguarding TC Energy's digital assets.
Monitoring	TC Energy continuously monitors our networks for threats to the organization and maintains comprehensive incident response plans/processes in the event of an information security breach.
External assessments/security audits	TC Energy engages third parties to conduct regular external assessments, audits and cyber security exercises (for example, penetration tests and red team exercises).
Insurance	TC Energy maintains conventional cyber insurance for data privacy breaches and insurance policies covering physical loss or damage to assets resulting from an information security breach.
Governance and risk management	Our cyber security strategy is regularly reviewed and updated, and the status of our cyber security program is reported to the Audit Committee, which committee maintains oversight over cyber security risks, on a quarterly basis. Reports on cyber security are also received by both senior management and the Board as part of our enterprise risk management system.

Members of the Board also periodically attend cyber security related training seminars. For more information on the Board's education programs, please refer to Orientation and education – 2023 Director education program on page 115.

TC Energy has not experienced an information security breach in the last three years.

Committee responsibilities

The various standing Board committees are also involved in risk oversight in their respective areas to ensure a robust risk management process with appropriate expertise, attention and diligence given to each key business risk. The chart below includes the risk focus area of each Committee, and information on each risk focus area. The Committees receive updates regularly from management on these areas, and update the Board on their risk oversight activities regularly. In addition to its specific focus area, each Committee maintains an overall awareness of risk management for TC Energy, and includes other issues in its reports to the Board as appropriate.

Committee	Risk focus	Description
Audit	Financial and cyber security risk	Oversees management's role in monitoring compliance with financial risk management policies and procedures and reviewing the adequacy of our financial risk management. Ensures that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> our financial risk management strategies, policies and limits are designed to ensure our risks and related exposures are in line with our business objectives and risk tolerance, and risks are managed within limits that are ultimately established by the Board, implemented by senior management and monitored by our risk management and internal audit groups. Approves interim financial statements and related management's discussions and analysis. Oversees cyber security and its related risks to TC Energy.
Governance	Enterprise risk management process and management allocation of enterprise risks	Oversees the ERM program and framework and meets with management annually to ensure there is proper Board and Committee oversight according to the terms of their charters. Recommends, along with the respective committee (or executive) assigned responsibility for specific enterprise risks, any enhancements to the risk management program and policies to the Board.
Health, Safety, Sustainability and Environment	Operational risk, major project execution risk, occupational and process safety, sustainability, security of personnel, environmental and climate change-related risks	Monitors compliance with our health, safety, sustainability and environment corporate policies through regular reporting from management, within the framework of our integrated HSSE management system that is used to capture, organize and document our related policies, programs and procedures. See the next page for more details. Monitors risk management for risks related to health, safety, sustainability and environment, including climate change related risks. Committee holds regular sessions, outside formal Committee meetings, with members of senior management to receive status, cost and notable updates on certain of TC Energy's major projects.
Human Resources	Human resources and compensation risk	Oversees the compensation policies and practices to effectively identify and mitigate compensation risks and discourage the CEO, executive vice-presidents or others from taking inappropriate or excessive risks and to ensure our compensation policies are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on TC Energy. See Compensation governance starting on page 132 for more information about how we manage our compensation risk.

HSSE risk management system

The HSSE Committee oversees operational risk, major project execution risk, occupational and process safety, sustainability, security of personnel, environmental and climate change-related risks, as well as monitoring development and implementation of systems, programs and policies relating to HSSE matters through regular reporting from management. We use an integrated management system that establishes a framework for managing these risks and is used to capture, organize, document, monitor and improve our related policies, standards and procedures.

TC Energy's Operational Management System, TOMS, leverages industry best practices and standards and incorporates applicable regulatory requirements. TOMS governs health, safety, environment, and operational integrity matters at TC Energy. It is applicable across Canada, U.S. and Mexico throughout the lifecycle of our assets and employs a continuous improvement cycle. Periodic audits of TOMS, as they apply to our Canadian assets, are conducted by the CER and lessons learned from these audits are shared and applied across our system where applicable.

The HSSE Committee reviews performance and operational risk management. It receives updates and reports on:

- overall HSSE corporate governance,
- operational performance,
- asset integrity,
- significant occupational safety and process safety incidents,
- occupational and process safety performance metrics,
- occupational health, safety and industrial hygiene, which includes physical and mental health, as well as psychological safety,
- emergency preparedness, incident response and evaluation,
- environment, including biodiversity and land reclamation,
- developments in and compliance with applicable legislation and regulations, including those related to the environment,
- prevention, mitigation and management of risks related to HSSE matters, including climate change or business interruption risks, such as pandemics, which may adversely impact TC Energy, and
- sustainability matters, including social, environmental and climate change related risks and opportunities, as well as related voluntary public disclosure such as our Report on Sustainability and the Reconciliation Action Plan.

The HSSE Committee also maintains oversight of significant or complex capital projects, including the monitoring of prescribed performance criteria. Starting in late 2022 through to late 2023, the HSSE Committee held regular sessions, outside formal HSSE Committee meetings, with members of senior management to receive status, cost and notable updates on certain of these capital projects. Beginning in 2024, these updates will be incorporated into normally scheduled HSSE meetings and management will provide periodic written updates to the Committee throughout the year.

The HSSE Committee also receives updates on any specific areas of operational and construction risk management review being conducted by management and the results and corrective action plans flowing from internal and third-party audits.

In addition, the HSSE Committee also receives updates on climate change risks and opportunities when appropriate.

Generally, each year the HSSE Committee or the HSSE Committee Chair tours one of our existing assets or projects under development as part of its responsibility to monitor and review our HSSE practices. All Board members are invited to attend our site tours.

The safety of our employees, contractors and the public, the integrity of our pipelines and our power and energy solutions infrastructure, are a top priority. All assets are designed, constructed, commissioned, operated and maintained with full consideration given to safety and integrity, and are placed in service only after all necessary requirements, both regulatory and internal, have been satisfied.

HSSE expertise

The HSSE Committee consists of six independent directors who have a mix of skills and expertise in health, safety, sustainability, security and environmental matters, including oversight over operational risk, major project execution risk, occupational and process safety, sustainability, security of personnel, environmental and climate change-related risks. Two of the members currently are or have been members of HSSE Committees of other public companies. Three members have CEO or COO experience, which has provided them experience in oversight of operations.

You can find specific details about each director's background, skills and experience in the director profiles starting on page 42 and the skills matrix on page 118, and more information about the HSSE Committee's oversight and responsibilities on pages 109, 110 and 130.

SUCCESSION PLANNING

The Board is responsible for succession planning at the executive level including the development of the CEO succession plan. Succession planning for the CEO position is an ongoing process that includes analysis of each potential candidate's performance, skills and experience, assessment of the personal attributes and characteristics that the Board believes are necessary for the role and assessment of developmental opportunities to increase senior executive bench strength.

The CEO prepares an overview of the executive vice-president roles, noting the required skills and expertise for each position and the current executive's areas of strength. He also prepares development plans for each executive and presents them to the Board. The CEO meets formally with each executive at least twice a year, and more frequently as necessary, to discuss progress on their development plan.

The CEO identifies potential future candidates for the executive vice-president positions and presents them to the Board for discussion. Each candidate is assessed based on their skills and experience and the competencies that are required for promotion to the senior executive level. Development opportunities are also identified so each candidate can receive additional or varied management experience, training, development and educational opportunities. The Board reviews each position and the performance assessment and competencies of potential successors at least once a year and makes decisions as appropriate.

ACCESS TO MANAGEMENT

The Board has complete access to management, but gives reasonable advance notice to avoid disrupting the business and operations. The Chair of the Board and Committee Chairs also connect with the CEO and relevant executives as needed.

The Board encourages the CEO and executives to include key managers in Board and Committee meetings so they can share their expertise on specific matters. This approach gives the Board an opportunity to meet individuals who have the potential to assume more senior positions in the future, and for these individuals to gain exposure to the Board.

MANAGEMENT DIVERSITY

Our inclusion and diversity vision

At TC Energy, we are committed to building a diverse workforce and actively strive to promote an inclusive culture where everyone is respected, valued and has the opportunity to contribute to their full potential.

Our strategic intent

Inclusion and diversity in the workforce contribute to collaborative solutions, enhance our performance and deliver superior business results, creating a competitive advantage for our business now and into the future.

Our foundation and approach

Our Executive Leadership Team, which includes our CEO, seven executive vice-presidents and two senior vice-presidents, annually evaluates progress against specific talent objectives including enterprise-wide inclusion and diversity goals. Based off these enterprise goals, our Inclusion and Diversity Executive Council and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion team, align their inclusion and diversity related priorities and actions to be executed within the business units throughout the year.

Our Executive Leadership Team is actively engaged with succession assessment and planning to ensure we have the right diversity in our leadership group with the capability to develop and execute our corporate strategy. This is further shared with our Board to ensure we have a healthy and sustainable talent pipeline for the future.

To help advance our inclusion and diversity priorities, we have developed the following approach and actions:

- an integrated approach which includes Board and executive oversight,
- an executive sponsored Inclusion and Diversity Executive Council and Chief Inclusion and Diversity Officer,
- an Indigenous advisory council, comprised of leaders representing Indigenous interests across Canada,
- specific measurable inclusion and diversity goals evaluated against external benchmarking,
- corporate policies and compliance programs to support consistent standards across TC Energy,
- enterprise communications promoting inclusion and diversity priorities and rationale and highlighting diverse voices and stories from within our teams,
- mandatory Inclusion and Unconscious Bias training for all employees and mandatory psychological safety training for all people leaders,
- an Inclusion and Diversity Champion program comprised of employees and supported by the Inclusion and Diversity Executive Council,
- the launch of Employee Inclusion Networks to create networking, education and development opportunities for underrepresented groups and allies,
- talent development strategies aimed at attracting, retaining, and developing more diverse talent pools, and
- aligned community partnerships and social impact investment.

Our goals

The Executive Leadership Team has established specific diversity goals related to the percentage of women and members of visible minorities to be represented in all levels of leadership (which includes managers and above). These goals are based on the diversity of our broader workforce, and we believe they will have an impactful positive result for our overall diversity vision.

Our objectives are for:

- women to hold 40 per cent of all leadership positions in our corporate locations of Calgary, Houston, Charleston, and Mexico City by 2025,
- members of visible minorities to hold 17 per cent of all leadership positions across our Canadian and U.S. workforce by 2025, and
- 100 per cent of leaders and employees to be trained on how to recognize and mitigate unconscious bias and how to create and sustain an inclusive workplace.

While we have not established specific goals for other designated groups under the CBCA at this time, we consider these groups an integral part of our overall diversity vision and continuing to grow our culture of inclusion. As part of our Reconciliation Action Plan commitments, we established an Indigenous Advisory Council to advise our Executive Leadership Team and advance our vision to build and sustain support for Indigenous groups through early and honest communication, by mitigating impacts, and mutually beneficial partnerships. We are focused on improving attraction and retention of Indigenous talent, development of stronger relationships and partnerships with Indigenous groups, and expanding our hiring and contracting efforts through Indigenous participation and supply chain activities.

Our outcomes

Since the establishment of our corporate leadership goals in 2018, we have increased the representation of women in leadership positions at our Calgary, Charleston, Houston and Mexico City corporate locations from 32 per cent to 37 per cent. We have increased the representation of visible minorities holding leadership positions across our Canadian and U.S. workforce from 11 per cent to 16 per cent.

CBCA Disclosure

The CBCA requires diversity disclosure for our senior management team, which includes the Chair of our Board and our Executive Leadership Team, for four designated groups being women, members of visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, and persons with disabilities.

27 per cent, or three of 11, of our senior management team are women. When we exclude the Chair of the Board, 30 per cent, or three of ten, of our senior management team are women.

Members of visible minorities hold 17 per cent of all leadership positions in the Canadian and U.S. workforce. Currently one out of 11, or nine per cent of the senior management team identify as members of visible minorities. When we exclude the Chair of the Board, 10 per cent, or one of ten, of our senior management team identify as members of visible minorities.

Persons with disabilities hold two per cent of all leadership positions in our Canadian and U.S. workforce. Currently zero out of 11, or zero per cent of the senior management team identify as persons with disabilities.

Aboriginal peoples hold two per cent of all leadership positions within the Canadian workforce. Currently zero out of 11 members, or zero per cent of members of the senior management team identify as Aboriginal peoples.

Data requirements for the designated groups vary in the geographic areas in which TC Energy operates, as per the prescribed definitions and governing laws of such jurisdictions. Self-disclosure is voluntary for members of visible minorities, persons with disabilities and Aboriginal peoples and as a result, representation may be under-reported.

As of the date of this Circular, over 96.9 per cent of our workforce has completed the Inclusion and Unconscious Bias training with an ongoing commitment to expanding education within this space.

Orientation and Education

New directors participate in an orientation program featuring sessions on corporate strategy, our main business issues and historical and financial information about TC Energy. They also typically have an opportunity to visit and tour our facilities and project sites and meet with the CEO, executive vice-presidents and other directors.

We tailor the sessions for each director based on individual needs and their specific areas of interest. New directors also meet one-on-one with the CEO and each executive vice-president for an overview of the different areas of our business and operations and a discussion of key areas of interest. Briefing sessions are also held for new Committee members.

Directors receive a reference manual with:

- details about their duties and obligations as a member of the Board,
- information about our business and operations,
- copies of the Board and Committee charters,
- copies of recent public disclosure filings,
- documents from recent Board meetings, and
- a copy of the current year's strategic plan.

The Governance Committee reviews the orientation program and reference manual every year so they continue to meet our needs and those of new directors.

The Governance Committee also develops the continuing education program every year based on current and emerging issues, our corporate objectives and input from other directors. Our 2023 education program included two in-depth educational sessions covering the topics of geopolitics, markets and energy transition and economic, energy and climate security.

Continuing education helps strengthen a director's knowledge and understanding of the business, industry, governance and other issues. Senior management and external experts make presentations to the Board and Committees from time to time on various topics related to the business, including changes to legal, regulatory and industry requirements. Continuing education is also conducted on an informal basis and our directors are provided with articles and publications of interest.

We suggest seminars and education programs for our directors that may be relevant, and pay the registration fee and travel expenses as appropriate. We also offer to pay annual fees for memberships with organizations that are appropriate and provide relevant publications and educational opportunities to our directors.

Board Effectiveness and Director Assessment

The Governance Committee oversees an assessment of the performance of the Board, the Chair, Board Committees and individual directors annually and reports the results to the Board.

The assessment process involves both the Chair of the Board and Chair of the Governance Committee meeting separately with each director individually for the individual director assessment. The individual director assessment also includes a discussion of expectations for directors serving on our Board, and providing specific feedback to each director on their performance as a member of the Board.

Interviews include questions about effectiveness, communication, personal and individual peer performance and soliciting input from directors about areas for potential improvement. The interviews are open-ended to encourage discussion and seek specific input on topics such as risk, strategy and governance.

The Governance Committee believes the interview process is the most effective way for directors to give feedback that can be reviewed by the entire Board. The Governance Committee also monitors developments in board governance and evolving best practices in corporate governance.

In 2023, the assessment process showed that the Chair of the Board, each director, and all Committees are functioning effectively and fulfilling the mandates set out in the Board and Committee charters.

FINANCIAL LITERACY

The Board has determined that all members of the Audit Committee are financially literate, which means each member can read and understand a set of financial statements that are generally comparable to ours in terms of breadth and complexity of accounting issues. You can find more information about their education and financial experience in the director profiles starting on page 42, in the Audit Committee report on page 128 and in the TC Energy AIF which is available on our website (www.tcenergy.com) and on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca).

BOARD RENEWAL

The Governance Committee regularly assesses the skill set of each director, and reviews it against the director retirement schedule, their ages and the composition of each Committee. The review also takes into account the desirability of maintaining a reasonable diversity of backgrounds, and character and behavioural qualities.

The Governance Committee, with input from the Chair of the Board and the CEO, is responsible for identifying suitable director candidates and canvasses the entire Board for potential nominees. From time to time, the Governance Committee uses a third-party recruitment specialist to identify potential director candidates. The Governance Committee is responsible for assessing the individuals and proposing the strongest candidates for nomination. An evolving roster of suitable director candidates is maintained by the Governance Committee.

The Governance Committee looks for a mix of skills and experience required for overseeing our business and affairs. While candidates are nominated as directors based on their background and ability to contribute to the Board and Committee meetings, the Board also specifically considers diversity factors. The Board considers personal characteristics such as gender, ethnic background, geographic residence and other distinctions when looking at diversity. Board diversity is discussed under the section Governance – Board characteristics – Board diversity on pages 99 and 100.

Candidates who are being nominated for the first time must have experience in industries similar to ours or experience in general business management or with corporations or organizations that are similar in size and scope. Candidates must also be willing to serve on the Board and able to devote the necessary time to fulfill their duties and responsibilities.

The Governance Committee recommends potential candidates based on their qualifications and independence and how these qualities balance with the skill set of the current Board, the structure and composition of the Committees and the director retirement schedule. This assessment helps the Board determine the best mix of skills and experience to guide our business operations and our long-term strategy.

The Committee ensures that the Board seeks expertise in the following key areas:

Area of expertise	Definition
Accounting/Audit	Expertise with financial statements and financial reporting matters, and an understanding of critical accounting policies and issues relevant to internal and external audit.
Capital Markets/Mergers & Acquisitions	Expertise in debt and equity markets, banking and investor relations. Expertise with complex M&A transactions.

Enterprise Risk Management	Expertise in enterprise risk management frameworks, systems, processes and tools used to identify, assess and manage enterprise risks and opportunities; includes cyber security and other technology risk oversight.

Operations/Health, Safety, Sustainability & Environment	Expertise with operating assets in a cost effective, reliable and efficient manner with a mindset of continuous improvement, including expertise in assessing and managing health, safety and environmental compliance obligations. Experience in overseeing sustainability in operations.
Strategy & Leading Growth	Expertise in driving strategic insight and direction, encouraging innovation and conceptualizing strategic risks, including the ability to assess emerging technologies and related potential for innovation.

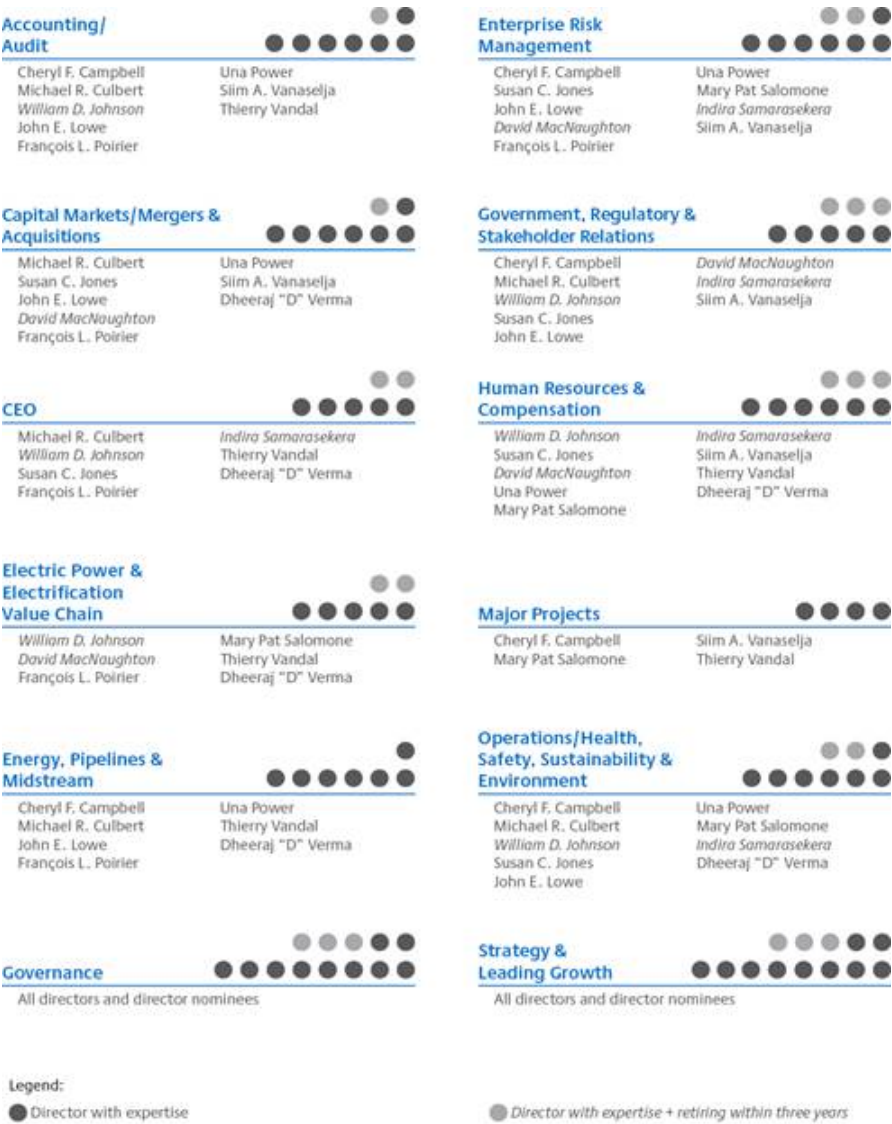

SKILLS ANALYSIS

While all of our directors possess an extensive list of skills and experience, the Governance Committee has determined that focusing on each director’s top key expertise areas is a more effective way to assess director candidates and to ensure that our Board has a deep knowledge base available in each key expertise area.

Based on a review of the current and nominated board composition, and as informed by interviews conducted by an independent third-party recruitment specialist, each of our directors have been assessed to have expertise in the skills areas of Governance and Strategy &

Leading Growth. In addition to these two areas, the image on the next page shows the top five to six key expertise areas in addition to Governance and Strategy & Leading Growth of each of our director nominees and current directors.

The Governance Committee considers these factors and others when discussing Board renewal.

EXPECTED RETIREMENT YEARS

This table provides the expected retirement year for each of the current non-executive directors.

DIRECTOR TENURE

Under TC Energy's Corporate Governance Guidelines, once a director turns 73 or has served more than 15 years on the Board, whichever comes first, such director will not stand for re-election at the next annual meeting. Notwithstanding age limits, a director will be eligible to serve on the Board for at least five years in order to ensure a robust level of Board continuity and to permit onboarded directors to serve a sufficient term to meaningfully contribute to the Board. The Board, upon recommendation of the Governance Committee, may apply discretion to permit a director or director nominee to stand for election outside of the terms of our retirement age or term limit if it is in the best interests of the company.

The Governance Committee continues to review factors like changes in principal occupation, consistently poor attendance, poor performance, board interlocks and other relevant circumstances that may trigger the resignation or retirement of a director.

There has been substantial Board refreshment over the past few years, with three new non-executive directors joining in 2020, one new non-executive director joining in 2021 and two new non-executive directors joining in 2022.

The graphs below show the composition of our Board by years of service as of the date of this Circular and after the meeting, assuming all of the nominated directors are elected.

The lines below the tenure chart depict the shortest and longest tenured directors, and the average tenure of the directors. The lines below the director age chart depict the age range of the directors and the average age of the directors.

ENGAGEMENT

We believe it is important to engage with our stakeholders.

TC Energy has comprehensive programs, policies and guidelines with executive oversight to regularly engage with Indigenous groups and stakeholders, including landowners, community groups, employees and shareholders. TC Energy participates in an open and transparent political process and supports public policies that promote the safe and environmentally responsible development of North American energy infrastructure.

Members of our Board engage with governance organizations and shareholder advocacy groups to discuss emerging best practices and provide commentary on how we maintain our high standard of corporate governance.

Sustainability and Environmental, Social and Governance Matters

TC Energy’s governance structure provides a framework for accountability, management and mitigation of the risks and opportunities facing TC Energy, including on sustainability matters. The Board has oversight over our sustainability practices, with the primary accountabilities at the Committee level. Management’s sustainability governance framework includes the Chief Sustainability Officer, Chief Risk Officer and Chief Inclusion and Diversity Officer. We also have two separate management-level committees that report to the HSSE Committee. The corporate Sustainability Management Committee provides strategic leadership and direction on sustainability-related issues while the corporate Operating Committee is responsible for making enterprise decisions in support of management system governance, strategic system enhancements and operational risk management related to safety and certain environmental considerations.

At TC Energy, sustainability includes ESG considerations and the financial health of the organization. This means safely, reliably, securely and economically meeting today’s energy needs while finding responsible solutions for our energy future.

FOCUSED ON PERFORMANCE AND TRANSPARENCY

TC Energy continues to meet growing demand for reliable, secure and affordable energy solutions with a focus on operational excellence and a commitment to health, safety, sustainability and the environment. We are continuously improving our sustainability approach.

Our sustainability strategy, including positioning to achieve net-zero emissions from our operations by 2050, is enabled by the capabilities and expertise of our workforce, the extent to which we embrace technology and encourage innovation, and embedding sustainability considerations in our existing business practices.

We maintain our commitment to achieving our GHG targets, including positioning to achieve net zero emissions from our operations, on a net basis, by 2050. We continue to assess our 2030 medium term emission reduction target and major components of our longer-term reduction plan against various criteria, including policy, regulatory, commercial and economic developments, the outcomes of our capital rotation program and the anticipated spin off of our Liquids Pipelines business.

Our approach is guided by our nine commitments that align to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs), with tangible targets to measure and drive performance in areas of greatest importance to our business and stakeholders. We are committed to ensuring balanced, and transparent disclosure of our progress against these targets annually in our Report on Sustainability. In 2023 we also issued reports on the Reliability of Methane Emissions Disclosure and Climate-related Lobbying to provide more transparency and insight into our climate-related goals and efforts.

Embracing the energy transition –
Contribute to global efforts to address climate change and manage the risks and opportunities of the energy transition.

Leaving the environment as we found it –
Safeguard habitat and biodiversity and minimize land use impacts, including restoring the environment to a condition equal to or better than we found it.

Committed to safe, reliable, sustainable operations –
Systematically manage risk to continuously improve the integrity and safety of our assets and operations.

Continuous safety improvement –
Continuously improve our systems to protect people and consistently demonstrate safety as our number one value.

Fostering mutually beneficial relationships – Promote wellbeing for our communities and maintain mutually beneficial external relationships.

Focus on mental health – Demonstrate actions that enhance employee psychological safety and emotional wellbeing.

Furthering inclusion and diversity –
Strengthen collaboration and performance by promoting inclusion and diversity across our organization and supply chain.

Fostering enduring, mutually beneficial relationships with Indigenous groups – Be the partner of choice for Indigenous groups.

Further integrate and contribute to sustainability – Advance sustainability and innovation across our business and value chain, including our strategic planning and decision-making.

Starting in 2022, we embedded sustainability goals into our corporate scorecard to progress and advance key strategic priorities including growth and energy transition. Our 2023 corporate scorecard includes goals on safety, diversity of women and visible minorities in leadership and management of our GHG emissions. TC Energy's 2024 grant of TC Energy PSUs includes a methane intensity reduction performance metric to support our GHG emissions reduction plan. In addition, safety has been an enduring measure in our corporate scorecards throughout the years.

Another way in which we demonstrate our commitment to sustainability is through our pursuit of voluntary initiatives. In May 2023, we joined Catalyst, a global non-profit organization supporting companies with solutions and strategies to accelerate progress for women through workplace inclusion. In June 2023, we completed a pilot of the Taskforce for Nature-related Financial Disclosures framework to support the development of an approach to disclosure of nature-related dependencies, impacts, risks and opportunities. In July 2023, we signed the UN Women's Empowerment Principles, furthering our commitment to foster an inclusive, safe and productive workplace for all our staff. By signing the UN Women's Empowerment Principles, we are committing to align with the seven core principles and take steps to advance gender equality in our workplace and community.

Our Reconciliation Action Plan, including the 2022 update, outlines six measurable goals of action to help advance reconciliation, both internally and in the communities where we operate. Throughout 2023, our Indigenous Advisory Council, established with members representing Indigenous perspectives across Canada, has advised on strategies, approaches, and tactics in support of pillar areas of focus including: talent and employment, hiring and contracting, and relationships and partnerships.

Sustainability Performance

To further assess TC Energy's sustainability priorities, we completed an extensive materiality assessment in 2022, engaging multiple internal and external stakeholders through an evidence-based evaluation of the sustainability topics material to our business and stakeholders. The assessment covered a wide variety of topics that impact or are affected by our business, industry, operations, and stakeholders. We plan to conduct a comprehensive sustainability materiality assessment every two to three years, with annual internal refreshes in between, strengthening our process during each exercise. We intend to continually evolve our approach in response to results of the assessment and to better reflect current and emerging shareholder and stakeholder priorities.

We align our sustainability reporting and performance with guidance from globally-recognized sustainability reporting frameworks, standards and recommendations including the Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosure (TCFD), Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB), UN SDGs and the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI). TC Energy recognizes TCFD recommendations as a useful framework for describing how we assess climate-related risks and opportunities and embed climate considerations in our governance, strategy, and risk management. Our Report on Sustainability and annual CDP Climate Change questionnaire response outlines our comprehensive alignment with the recommendations including metrics used to manage climate-related risks and associated targets.

In addition to the above, there are new mandatory climate, cyber security and human rights-related disclosure requirements being issued in jurisdictions in which we operate. While these disclosure requirements do not necessarily all apply to us, they may impact how we report on climate and non-climate related sustainability risks, opportunities, strategies, governance, and information. We continue to monitor these developments and progress activities, as necessary, related to these new and anticipated requirements.

BOARD OVERSIGHT OF ESG INITIATIVES

TC Energy has established a clear governance structure to effectively communicate and respond to existing and emerging sustainability topics. The Board maintains ultimate oversight over TC Energy’s sustainability matters, including risks and opportunities related to climate change, political and regulatory uncertainty, material capital project decisions, reputation and relationships, and other matters not specifically covered in a committee mandate, such as Indigenous relations. The Board also maintains oversight of business strategy alignment, progress against our most significant sustainability objectives and commitments and our overall sustainability communications strategy. The Board and the relevant Committees with oversight receive updates about climate change risk factors when appropriate. For more information on the responsibility and oversight provided by the HSSE Committee, see Roles and Responsibilities of the Board – Risk Oversight and Enterprise Risk Management – HSSE risk management on page 110.

PUBLICATIONS ON SUSTAINABILITY AND ESG INITIATIVES

TC Energy is committed to transparent, concise, and consistent communication of our sustainability strategies, programs and performance and remains invested in corporate sustainability reporting.

The keystone of our sustainability communications is the Report on Sustainability, which includes performance data tables and reporting framework alignment tables. This single, integrated document provides a resource for general audiences regarding our sustainability direction and progress, aligns our contributions towards the UN SDGs and identifies the tangible targets that are aligned to topics of greatest importance to our business and stakeholders. Our Report on Sustainability is also designed to satisfy the needs of capital markets and is prepared in alignment with GRI, SASB and TCFD. In 2023 we enhanced our governance section and organized our content under environmental, social, and governance chapters to better reflect and align with the way sustainability issues are currently referred to by investors and other stakeholders.

As a member of the United Nations Global Compact, TC Energy completes the Communication on Progress, the United Nations Global Compact’s annual disclosure mechanism and platform to report our progress toward the Ten Principles and the SDGs. TC Energy also submits the CDP Climate Change questionnaire providing additional standardized climate change and GHG emissions information. Our 2022 Reconciliation Action Plan update offers transparency on the performance of our Indigenous engagement program to support reconciliation commitments across Canada, and reflections on our learnings of this journey. It also provides an update on the creation of TC Energy’s Indigenous advisory council, comprised of six Indigenous leaders, who meet with our executive leadership to provide guidance on initiatives to progress reconciliation-related priorities with Indigenous groups.

When combined with our complementary reporting materials and our broader engagement, these reports highlight TC Energy’s increasing transparency on sustainability matters and TC Energy’s focus on, and accountability for, achieving meaningful and measurable results. TC Energy’s sustainability publications and information on our website is not incorporated by reference and is not part of this Circular. A directory of these and additional materials is available at our website (www.tcenergy.com/investors/ESG/).

Board Committees

The Board has four standing committees:

- Audit Committee,
- Governance Committee,
- HSSE Committee, and
- Human Resources Committee.

Each of the committees is comprised entirely of independent directors.

The Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing the composition of each committee and recommending any changes once new directors are appointed or elected to the Board. Each committee must consist entirely of independent directors, except for the HSSE Committee, which must have a majority of independent directors. As of the date of this Circular, all members of the HSSE Committee are independent. Each committee has the authority to retain advisors to help it carry out its responsibilities. The Board does not have an executive committee.

Each standing Committee reviews its charter at least once a year, and recommends any changes to the Governance Committee and the Board. You can find the Committee charters on our website (www.tcenergy.com).

The Audit and the Governance Committees hold meetings concurrently, as do the Human Resources and HSSE Committees, so each committee has sufficient time to focus on its responsibilities. As a result, Mr. Lowe, the independent non-executive Chair of the Board, is a voting member of the Governance Committee and the Human Resources Committee, and is not a member of the Audit Committee nor the Health, Safety, Sustainability and Environment Committee.

On January 1, 2024, the standing committee memberships were updated following the appointment of Mr. Lowe as the Chair of the Board.

Each meeting has time set aside for members to discuss the committee operations and responsibilities without management present.

In May 2023, the Board also formed an ad-hoc Special Committee comprised of independent members of the Board to assist the Board in providing input, advice and guidance with respect to the structure, key determinations, and other matters relating to the spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business.

Mr. Johnson, the Committee chair as of January 1, 2024, has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of two large public utility corporations as well as the largest publicly-owned utility in the United States, and is experienced in the administration of compensation programs.

Ms. Jones ran three distinct businesses of a publicly-traded company and was the former Chair of the Compensation Committee of another publicly-traded company. She is a director of two public companies including TC Energy, serving on the Compensation Committee and Human Resources Committee of both of them. Ms. Jones is experienced in the administration of compensation programs.

Dr. Samarasekera serves on the selection panel for Canada’s Outstanding CEO of the Year and is a director of four public companies including TC Energy, serving as the Chair of the Human Resources Committee of two of those public companies. She also serves as a director of various not-for-profit organizations and has extensive experience in overseeing and administering compensation programs.

Mr. Vanaselja was the Executive Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer of a publicly-traded company. He has also served on the Management Resources and Compensation Committees of one publicly-traded company and various private corporations, and has experience in the implementation, administration and management of executive compensation programs and plans.

Mr. Verma is currently a Senior Advisor to a private energy investment company, previously serving as President, and was on the Executive and Investment Committees of the firm during his tenure. Prior to this, Mr. Verma was a senior member of a large financial services company’s Mergers and Acquisitions group for seven years. He has experience in overseeing and administering compensation programs.

In addition to the Human Resources Committee’s collective experience in compensation matters, all of the members stay actively informed of trends and developments in compensation matters and the applicable legal and regulatory frameworks.

Governance

You can find specific details about each director’s background, skills and experience in the director profiles starting on page 42 and the skills matrix on page 118, and more information about the Committees starting on page 127.

The Governance Committee is responsible for corporate governance, director compensation, governance and strategic planning and risk oversight. It consists of seven independent directors who have a mix of skills and experience in business, risk, governance, human resources and compensation. Five of the members currently are or have been members of Human Resources or Compensation Committees of other public companies. Two of the members have experience as a CEO of one or more public companies, which has provided each of them with experience in oversight of and direct involvement in compensation matters. One of the members is also a member of the Committee on the Future of Corporate Governance in Canada, a committee established by TMX Group and the Institute of Corporate Directors, comprised of thirteen experienced Canadian directors and leading governance experts from across Canada, whose work focuses on providing guidance on corporate governance matters facing public companies in Canada.

COMPENSATION OVERSIGHT

The purpose of the Board's compensation oversight is to ensure that executives and directors are compensated fairly with respect to market in a way that does not lead to undue risk in TC Energy's business and operations.

The Board reviews our compensation policies and practices every year, considers the possibility of risks and makes any adjustments it deems necessary to ensure that our compensation policies are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on TC Energy. It carries out this work directly or through the Human Resources Committee and the Governance Committee.

The Board has approved various compensation policies and practices to effectively identify and mitigate compensation risks and discourage the CEO, executive vice-presidents or others from taking inappropriate or excessive risks.

Multi-year strategic plan

We have a multi-year strategic plan that identifies our core strategies to achieve our vision of being the leading energy infrastructure company in North America. Our core strategies include:

- maximizing the full-life value of our infrastructure assets and commercial positions,
- commercially developing and building new asset investment programs,
- cultivating a focused portfolio of high-quality development options, and
- maximizing our competitive strengths.

Executive compensation is closely linked to the strategic plan. Our annual corporate objectives support the strategic plan and are integrated into our compensation decision-making process. At the end of each year, the Board assesses our performance against the corporate objectives to determine the corporate factor that is used in calculating short-term incentive awards for the CEO, executive vice-presidents and all other employees. The Board also ensures that the annual individual performance objectives for the CEO and each executive vice-president align with our corporate objectives and reflect performance areas that are specific to each role when it determines total direct compensation for each executive.

Compensation philosophy

Our compensation philosophy guides all compensation program design and decisions. Our approach to compensation is structured to meet four key objectives: pay for performance, be market competitive, align executives' interests with those of our various stakeholders, and attract, engage and retain our executives. In setting compensation levels, each component – base salary, short-term and long-term incentives – as well as total direct compensation are determined with reference to median levels in our peer group. See pages 150 through 160 for details.

Executive compensation is designed to pay for performance, as a significant portion of total direct compensation is variable or at-risk compensation. See pages 165 through 169 for the pay mix for each named executive.

Executive compensation structured to manage risk

The Human Resources Committee and the Board have structured the executive compensation program to ensure that executives are compensated fairly and in a way that does not present undue risk to TC Energy or encourage executives to take inappropriate risks. The Human Resources Committee is committed to continuous improvement of executive compensation practices, and reviews prevalent best practices on a regular basis.

- Structured process: The Human Resources Committee has implemented a formal decision-making process that involves management, the Human Resources Committee and the Board. The Human Resources Committee uses a multi-step review process for all compensation matters, first adopting goals and metrics of performance, reviewing how performance compares to the pre-established metrics and then seeking Board input as to the reasonableness of the results.
- Benchmarking to ensure fairness: Executive compensation is reviewed every year. Executive compensation is benchmarked against size appropriate peer groups to assess competitiveness and fairness, and the appropriateness of the composition of the applicable peer groups is reviewed.
- Modelling and stress testing: The Human Resources Committee uses modelling to stress test different compensation scenarios and potential future executive compensation. This includes an analysis of the potential effect of different corporate performance scenarios on previously awarded and outstanding compensation to assess whether the results are reasonable. The Human Resources Committee also uses modelling to assess the payments under the terms of the executives' employment agreements for severance and change of control situations.
- Independent advice: The Human Resources Committee uses an independent external compensation consultant to provide advice in connection with executive pay benchmarking, incentive plan design, compensation governance and pay for performance.
- Alignment with shareholders: The Human Resources Committee and the Board place a significant emphasis on long-term incentives when determining the total direct compensation for the CEO and each executive vice-president. Our long-term incentives include stock options (referred to as TC Energy Stock Options) and performance vesting executive share units (referred to as TC Energy PSUs) – both of which encourage value creation over the long-term and align executives' interests with our shareholders.
- Pre-established objectives: Each year the Board approves corporate, business unit and individual objectives that are aligned with the overall business plan for the CEO and each executive vice-president. These objectives are used to assess performance and determine compensation.
- Multi-year performance-based compensation: Awards under the TC Energy PSU Plan are paid out based on our performance against objectives set for the three-year vesting period.
- Limits on variable compensation payments: Short-term incentive awards are subject to a minimum of a zero payout up to a maximum payout of two times target. Long-term incentive awards under the TC Energy PSU Plan are subject to a minimum of a zero payout up to a maximum payout of two times the final number of units accrued at the end of the vesting period.
- Discretion: The Board completes a formal assessment annually, and can then use its discretion to increase or decrease any compensation awards if it deems it appropriate based on market factors or other extenuating circumstances. However, to maintain the integrity of the metrics-based framework, the Board exercises its discretion sparingly.

Policies and guidelines to manage risk

The Governance Committee, the Human Resources Committee and the Board have instituted several policies to ensure that compensation risk is appropriately managed and that the interests of both directors and executives are aligned with those of our shareholders. These policies are derived from best practices in governance and legal requirements.

- Corporate objectives: We adopt corporate objectives consistent with our approved strategic plan so that the Board can monitor how compensation influences business decisions.
- Share ownership requirements: We have share ownership requirements for both directors and executives, reflecting the Board’s view that directors and executives can represent the interests of shareholders more effectively if they have a significant investment in TC Energy.
- Post-retirement share ownership requirement: The CEO is required to maintain their required ownership level for one year post-retirement.
- Prohibition on hedging: Our Trading Policy includes an Anti-Hedging Policy preventing directors and officers from using derivatives or other instruments to insulate them from movements in our share price. This includes prepaid variable forward contracts, equity swaps, collars, units of exchange funds and other hedging vehicles.
- Reimbursement: We maintain both an Incentive Compensation Recoupment and Holdback Policy and a Recoupment Policy for Intentional Misconduct.
 - The Incentive Compensation Recoupment and Holdback Policy requires covered executives to repay erroneously awarded incentive compensation, including vested and unvested short and long-term incentive compensation (including proceeds realized from the exercise of TC Energy Stock Options) received in the three completed fiscal years prior to the determination that a restatement of financial results is required due to material non-compliance with any financial reporting requirement under U.S. securities laws. This policy meets the requirements of the NYSE Listing Standards and Rule 10D-1 as adopted by the SEC to implement Section 954 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010.
 - The Recoupment Policy for Intentional Misconduct operates in conjunction with the Incentive Compensation Recoupment and Holdback Policy. Pursuant to the Recoupment Policy for Intentional Misconduct, in cases where an employee at the vice president level and above has engaged in intentional misconduct and as a result, there is a restatement of financial results or a material error in financial reporting, the employee will be required to repay vested and unvested short and long-term incentive compensation (including proceeds realized from the exercise of TC Energy Stock Options) granted in the three year period preceding a restatement.

To date, neither of these policies have been triggered, and no reimbursement of incentive compensation or related profits have been paid under either of these Policies.

- Say on pay: We implemented a non-binding advisory shareholder vote on our approach to executive compensation starting in 2010. The results shown in the table below confirm that a significant majority of shareholders have accepted our approach to executive compensation. The approval vote as a percentage of shares voted in favour of our approach to executive compensation for the last three years are as follows:

Year	Approval vote (%)
2023	94.20
2022	97.70
2021	94.81

- Code of business ethics: Our Code applies to employees, contract workers, independent consultants and directors. The Code incorporates principles of good conduct and ethical and responsible behaviour to guide our decisions and actions and the way we conduct business.

After considering the implications associated with our compensation policies and practices, completing a review of our policies and practices described above, and with advice from the independent consultant to the Human Resources Committee, the Board believes that:

- we have the proper practices in place to effectively identify and mitigate potential risk, and
- TC Energy's compensation policies and practices do not encourage the CEO, executive vice-presidents, or any employee to take inappropriate or excessive risks, and are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on our company.

In addition to our compensation policies and practices, our corporate values – safety, innovation, responsibility, collaboration and integrity – also guide director, officer and employee behaviour, underpin our company culture and define the character of the organization we share and work in every day.

INDEPENDENT CONSULTANT

The Human Resources Committee retains an independent compensation consultant to provide advice on compensation-related matters.

The Human Resources Committee created a mandate for the consultant that includes:

- advising on compensation levels for the CEO and named executives,
- assessing the CEO’s recommendations on the compensation of the other named executives,
- attending all of its Human Resources Committee meetings (unless otherwise requested by the Human Resources Committee Chair),
- providing data, analysis or opinions on compensation-related matters requested by the Human Resources Committee or its Chair, and
- reporting to the Human Resources Committee on any matters that may arise related to executive compensation.

Meridian has been the independent compensation consultant since September 2014. The Human Resources Committee obtains independent advice from the consultant who provides a neutral source of data and information on compensation practices and trends. While the consultant’s advice is an important tool in the Human Resources Committee’s processes, the Human Resources Committee remains wholly responsible for making its own decisions and recommendations to the Board.

Meridian provides advice to the Human Resources Committee on matters relating to executive and director compensation. It does not provide consulting or other services to TC Energy, and is not permitted to provide services to management. Before engaging Meridian, and each year, after considering all factors bearing on the consultant’s independence, including those factors enumerated by the NYSE, the Human Resources Committee determined that Meridian is independent.

The table below shows the executive and director compensation-related fees paid in 2022 and 2023:

Executive and director compensation-related fees

($ in millions)

Meridian	2023	2022
Consulting to the Human Resources Committee	0.23	0.14
Consulting to the Governance Committee	0.03	—
All other fees	0.08	—
Total fees	0.34	0.14

- Amounts included in “All other fees” represent fees paid to Meridian for services performed in connection with the Arrangement.

Director Compensation Discussion and Analysis

APPROACH

Our director compensation program reflects our size and complexity, and reinforces the importance we place on delivering shareholder value. Director compensation includes annual retainers and travel fees that are paid in cash and TC Energy DSUs to link a significant portion of their compensation to the value of our shares. See Deferred share units below for more information about the TC Energy DSU Plan.

The Board follows a formal performance assessment process to ensure directors are engaged and make meaningful contributions to the Board and Committees they serve on.

The Governance Committee typically reviews director compensation at least every two years, based on independent advice respecting compensation paid by our peer companies, and makes compensation recommendations to the Board for its review and approval. Recommendations take into consideration the directors’ time commitment, duties and responsibilities and director compensation practices at comparable companies.

Directors of TC Energy also serve as directors of TCPL. Board and Committee meetings of TC Energy and TCPL run concurrently, and the director compensation described below is for serving on both boards. TC Energy does not hold any material assets directly, other than TCPL common shares and receivables from some of our subsidiaries. As a result, TCPL assumes all directors’ costs according to a management services agreement between the two companies.

Benchmarking

Director compensation is benchmarked against a peer group of companies reviewed by the Governance Committee. The companies in our 2023 peer group are consistent with the group of Canadian and U.S. publicly-traded companies included in the executive compensation peer group. Total compensation is determined with reference to our peer group, so we can attract and retain qualified directors.

The Governance Committee generally reviews director compensation every two years and recommendations are based on independent advice respecting compensation paid by our peer companies. In accordance with this, in 2023, the Governance Committee retained Meridian as its independent consultant to prepare a report on director compensation for the 2023 compensation year. The Governance Committee refers to the report when conducting its compensation review. The 2023 peer group is listed below and mirrors the companies included in the executive compensation peer group:

2023 Peer Group
American Electric Power Company, Inc.	Enbridge Inc.	Pembina Pipeline Corporation
BCE Inc.	Exelon Corporation	Sempra
Canadian National Railway Company	Fortis Inc.	Suncor Energy Inc.
Canadian Natural Resources Limited	Imperial Oil Limited	Teck Resources Limited
Cenovus Energy Inc.	Kinder Morgan, Inc.	The Southern Company
Dominion Energy, Inc.	NextEra Energy, Inc.	The Williams Companies, Inc.

Aligning the interests of directors and shareholders

The Board believes that directors can represent the interests of shareholders more effectively if they have a significant investment in TC Energy. Directors must hold at least four times their annual retainer in TC Energy shares or TC Energy DSUs within five years of joining the Board.

Directors can meet the requirements by purchasing TC Energy shares, participating in our dividend reinvestment plan (DRP) or by directing all or a portion of their compensation to be paid in TC Energy DSUs. We recalibrate the required ownership values if the retainer is increased.

If their holdings fall below the minimum level because of fluctuations in our share price, we expect directors to attain the minimum threshold within a reasonable amount of time set by the Governance Committee.

As President and CEO, Mr. Poirier must instead meet our CEO share ownership requirement which is five times his base salary. Mr. Poirier has until the end of 2026 to meet these ownership requirements.

As of April 10, 2024, all of our non-executive directors are in compliance with our Director Share Ownership Policy. Ms. Campbell, Mr. Johnson and Mr. MacNaughton each have five years from the date they were appointed to meet the director share ownership requirements.

Non-Executive Director	Date appointed	Share ownership date
Mr. MacNaughton	May 1, 2020	May 1, 2025
Mr. Johnson	June 14, 2021	June 14, 2026
Ms. Campbell	June 7, 2022	June 7, 2027

Deferred share units

DSUs are notional shares that have the same value as TC Energy shares. TC Energy DSUs earn dividend equivalents as additional units at the same rate as dividends paid on TC Energy shares.

The TC Energy DSU Plan allows directors to choose to receive a portion of their retainers and travel fees in TC Energy DSUs instead of cash. The plan also allows the Governance Committee to use discretion to grant TC Energy DSUs to directors as additional compensation (excluding employee directors such as our President and CEO). No discretionary grants of TC Energy DSUs were made to directors in 2023.

Directors redeem their TC Energy DSUs when they leave the Board. Directors can redeem their DSUs for cash or shares of TC Energy purchased on the open market.

COMPONENTS

Directors receive annual retainers and travel fees when applicable. They are also reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses they incur while attending meetings and other Board activities. Beginning January 1, 2020, director compensation was determined in U.S. dollars based on a decision to align compensation practices with peers and to ensure equitable treatment between our U.S. and Canadian directors. Mr. Poirier is compensated in his role as President and CEO, and does not receive any director compensation. Both the annual Board retainer and the separate retainer for the Chair of the Board are paid in cash and TC Energy DSUs according to the fee schedule below:

2023 compensation (presented in U.S. dollars)
Retainers
paid quarterly from the date the director is appointed to the Board and Committees
Board paid to each director except the Chair of the Board flat fee (no meeting fees paid)	$260,000 per year ($110,000 cash + $150,000 in TC Energy DSUs)	represented 3,936 TC Energy DSUs for directors in 2023
Chair of the Board receives a higher retainer because of his level of responsibility flat fee (no meeting fees paid)	$491,000 per year ($201,000 in cash + $290,000 in TC Energy DSUs)	represented 7,610 TC Energy DSUs in 2023
Committee Chairs receive a higher committee retainer for additional duties and responsibilities	$25,000 per year	Audit

Ad-Hoc Special Committee Member paid to each member for additional duties and responsibilities relating to ad-hoc committee	$15,000 per year
Travel fees if round trip travel is more than three hours	$1,500 per round trip

TC Energy DSUs are credited quarterly, in arrears, using the closing price of TC Energy shares on the TSX at the end of each quarter.

Human Resources Committee Letter to Shareholders

Dear Shareholder:

The Board is holding its fifteenth consecutive say-on-pay advisory vote regarding our approach to executive compensation. We appreciate the strong shareholder support we have received in the past and hope you will support our deliberations once again this year. This letter and the accompanying compensation discussion and analysis will explain the approach taken by the Human Resources Committee and the Board to assess 2023 performance and the basis on which we reached compensation decisions for each of our named executive officers.

TC Energy’s approach to compensation

Our vision is to be the premier energy infrastructure company in North America, now and in the future. Our diversified portfolio of North American energy infrastructure features critical, long-life energy assets, over 95 per cent underpinned by long-term contracts and/or regulated business models. Our compensation plans are designed to encourage disciplined decision-making in the balanced pursuit of sustainable financial performance and the responsible long-term development of critical North American infrastructure.

The Human Resources Committee periodically conducts a comprehensive review of our compensation program design to ensure it supports our strategy, it aligns well to market practice and there is a strong link between performance achieved and compensation delivered. Annually, we review changes in market practice to ensure our programs remain consistent with emerging governance and peer group best practices. As always, we evaluate executive compensation levels relative to market to ensure they remain competitive in order to attract and retain the critical talent required to run our business now and into the future.

2023 performance and compensation

The 2023 corporate scorecard was approved by the Board early in the year, consistent with our practice in prior years. The scorecard focused on safe, reliable and sustainable operations, financial results, and advancing our strategic priorities by strengthening the balance sheet and progressing the Focus Project, a cost-savings and efficiency initiative. Throughout 2023, the company’s focus on operational excellence has delivered a record 11 per cent EBITDA growth while reliably meeting the world’s growing demand for energy. We performed well despite unpredictable geopolitical events and market volatility.

We achieved comparable EBITDA of $11 billion (segmented earnings of $6.1 billion) and comparable EPS of $4.52 in 2023 (Net income per share of $2.75) while delivering our 23rd consecutive year of dividend growth. We delivered strong project execution by placing $5.3 billion of assets into service during the year on our natural gas and liquids pipeline systems and completing Bruce Power Unit 6 major component replacement on budget and ahead of schedule. We achieved mechanical completion of Coastal Gas Link ahead of our year-end target and are tracking to on budget and on schedule on Southeast Gateway. Delivering on our commitment to strengthen the balance sheet, we exceeded our 2023 divestiture target with the $5.3 billion monetization of a 40 per cent minority interest in Columbia Gas and Columbia Gulf while retaining operational control, and we announced and meaningfully progressed the Liquids Pipelines business spin off, which will strategically position both companies to generate incremental shareholder value.

Despite these successes, there was a single incident during an operational aerial patrol in Mexico, resulting in the tragic loss of four lives. As we mourn these losses, the incident continues to be investigated and we are assessing our aviation activities across the company’s entire footprint. We remain steadfastly committed to driving a culture of safety and advancing progress on our safety roadmap.

The Board considered the financial and operational successes achieved and the worker fatalities in assessing 2023 performance. The annual safety performance score for the corporate and Mexico Business Unit scorecards was reduced to zero. The overall corporate payout factor for the annual incentive plan was 1.3.

For our long-term compensation program, the Board approved a performance multiplier of 0.93 for the 2021 TC Energy PSUs that vested in 2023. The multiplier reflects strong cumulative three-year EPS performance relative to targets set in 2021 but lagging TSR relative to both direct business peers and a high-dividend subset of the S&P/TSX 60. The TC Energy PSUs paid out at a value that was 107 per cent of the original grant value based on the performance multiplier and final share price of $52.16 plus accrued dividends over the period.

Conclusion

The Board is keenly aware of our responsibility to ensure that our approach to executive compensation supports our strategy and aligns with the interests of our shareholders. The Board and the Human Resources Committee are also aware that our decisions must be logical and understandable to our employees, shareholders and other stakeholders. To this end, this Circular includes significant detail in the compensation discussion and analysis starting on the next page. We respond to shareholder questions on an individual basis, take input from stakeholders and continue to revisit our approach to ensure that our program remains appropriate.

Compensation highlights

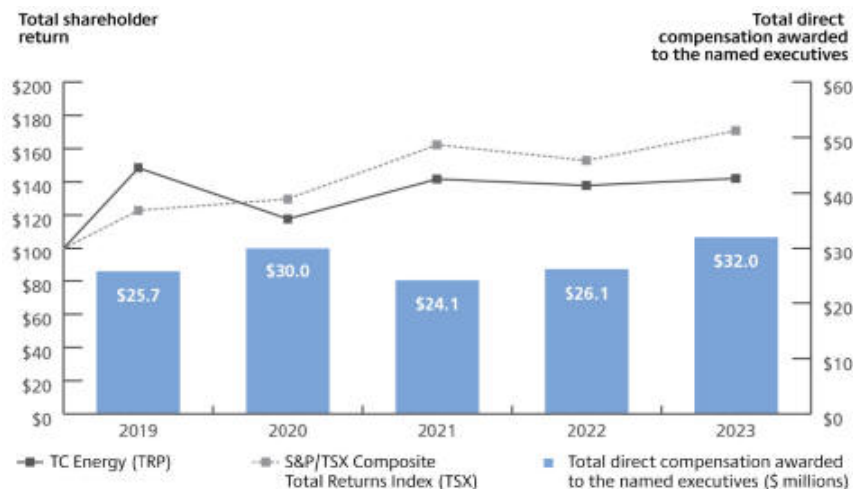

The Human Resources Committee and the Board made the following executive compensation decisions in 2024:

Program component	Decision/rationale
Base salary adjustments	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To maintain competitiveness with our peer group, recognize sustained proficiency in roles, and reflect increases in scope of responsibility. Increases are effective March 1, 2024.
2023 Annual incentive payments	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Reflect a corporate factor of 1.3 and business unit/functional area factors ranging from 1.2 to 1.6.
2021 TC Energy PSUs	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Approved a performance multiplier of 0.93, reflecting TSR performance below threshold relative to our peer group comprised of similar businesses and below target relative to our peer group comprised of the high-yield subset of the TSX 60 Index, and cumulative comparable EPS below target over the three-year period ended December 31, 2023.• The performance multiplier, combined with the change in share price from $54.75 to $52.16 and dividend reinvestment, results in a payout that is 107 per cent of the original award value.• See Payout of 2021 TC Energy PSU Award starting on page 162.
2024 TC Energy PSUs	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Approved three-year targets for Debt/EBITDA ratio, DCF and Methane Intensity Reduction goal.• Continued 50 per cent weighting on relative TSR performance against two peer groups. The industry-relative TSR group was unchanged and the high yield TSR group was updated to include 29 high-yield companies in the TSX 60 Index.• See Grant of 2024 TC Energy PSU Award on page 164.
2024 Corporate scorecard	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Human Resource Committee recommended, and the Board approved, the 2024 corporate scorecard that will apply to the named executives.• Business unit and functional scorecards are being discontinued to reflect the integrated and team-based approach to our business performance.

Compensation vs. total shareholder return

The chart below illustrates TSR, assuming an initial investment of $100 in TC Energy shares at year end 2018, and compares it to the return of the S&P/TSX Composite Total Returns Index and the trend in total direct compensation awarded to our named executives over the same period. In both cases, the chart assumes that all dividends are reinvested on the ex-dividend date (in accordance with our DRP in place at the time).

TSR is only one of the performance measures the Board considers when assessing performance and determining compensation for our named executives. Consequently, we do not necessarily expect there to be a direct correlation between TSR and total direct compensation awarded in any given period. The value of long-term compensation awarded in any given year is not guaranteed, it is equity-based, and the value ultimately realized by our executives is directly affected by the performance factor applied to the TC Energy PSU and changes in our share price, which creates strong alignment with shareholder experience.

	At year end						Compound annual return
	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023
TRP	$100.00	$148.50	$117.69	$141.72	$137.84	$142.11	7.3%
TSX	$100.00	$122.88	$129.76	$162.32	$152.83	$170.79	11.3%

CEO Realizable Pay

A significant portion (73%) of Mr. Poirier's CEO compensation consists of fully at-risk long-term incentives (the long-term incentive mix is 60% performance-vesting TC Energy PSU and 40% TC Energy Stock Options), which are designed to focus the CEO on TC Energy's long-term success. LTI is directly affected by the performance of TC Energy's common share price:

- TC Energy Stock Options only have value when the share price increases, and
- TC Energy PSUs are impacted by share price, relative TSR performance and EPS growth.

The table below is a look back comparing grant date total target direct pay for Mr. Poirier to the realizable value of this compensation during the last three years, compared to shareholder return on investment. The analysis is based on the return of a $100 investment by a shareholder at the start of a period, and the reinvestment of dividends over the period, compared to $100 of total direct compensation for the CEO for each year. In all cases, shareholder returns are more favourable than CEO compensation value.

	Total Target Direct Pay	Realizable Pay	From	To	Value of $100
					CEO	Shareholder
2021	$8,000,000	$5,919,668	December 31, 2020	December 31, 2023	$74	$121
2022	$9,420,000	$6,740,322	December 31, 2021		$72	$100
2023	$12,090,000	$8,856,407	December 31, 2022		$73	$103

Notes

- Total target direct pay includes salary, target bonus, long-term incentive grant of TC Energy PSUs and TC Energy Stock Options. Excludes pension and all other compensation value.
- Realizable pay includes salary, actual bonus paid, value of stock options that are in-the-money and the market value of unvested TC Energy PSUs including dividend equivalents (assuming TC Energy PSUs vest at target for 2022 and 2023 grants, and actual for 2021 grant). Equity valued as at December 31, 2023 close stock price. Excludes pension and all other compensation value.

The table below compares target and realizable CEO compensation values.

For more information on TC Energy's long-term incentives programs, see Components beginning on page 155 and for more information on CEO compensation, see Executive Profiles on page 165.

APPROACH

TC Energy’s executive compensation program is designed to meet four key objectives:

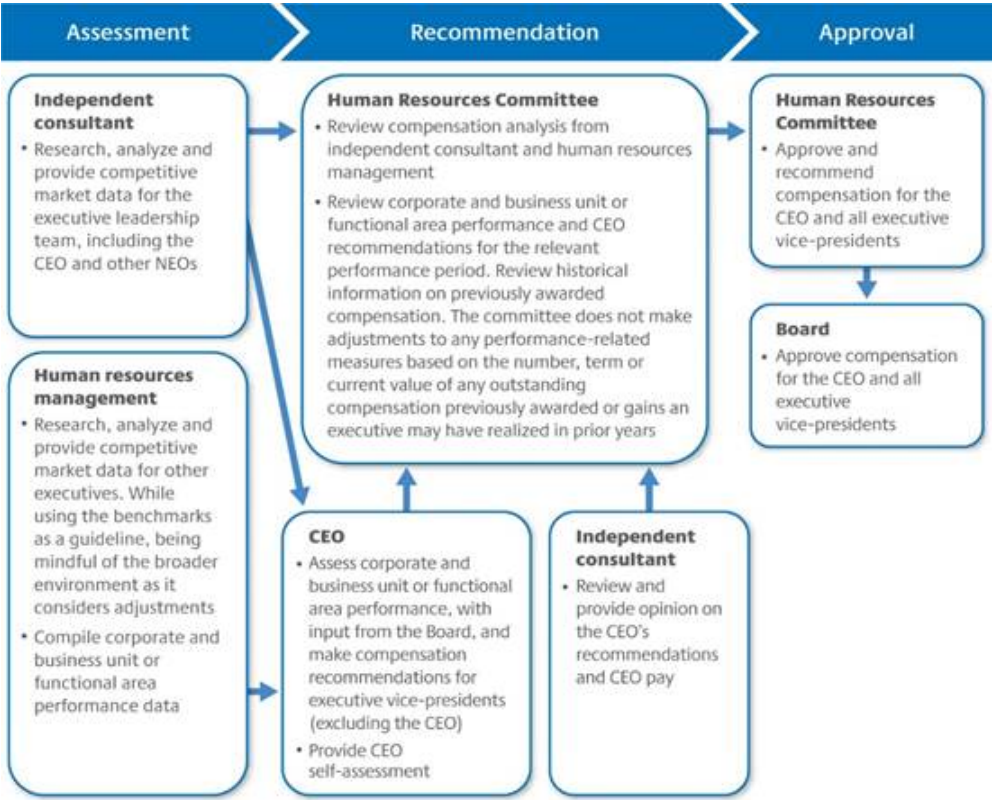

- provide a compensation package that ‘pays for performance’ by rewarding executives for delivering on our corporate objectives and achieving our overall strategy,
- offer levels and types of compensation that are competitive with the market,
- align executives’ interests with those of our various stakeholders, and
- attract, engage and retain our executives.

Compensation is also aligned with our risk management processes to ensure there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward. See pages 134 and 136 for more information.

Decision-making process

We follow a comprehensive decision-making process that involves management, the Human Resources Committee and the Board, and takes into account market data, input from the CEO and advice from the Human Resources Committee’s independent consultant.

The Board makes all decisions affecting CEO and executive vice-president compensation based on the Human Resources Committee’s recommendations.

Independent consultant

The Human Resources Committee is advised by Meridian as its independent consultant on all executive compensation matters. The consultant’s mandate includes providing advice on compensation for the named executives and other members of the Executive Leadership Team, incentive design, compensation governance, attending all Human Resources Committee meetings and providing data, analysis or advice on compensation-related matters. While the Human Resources Committee is ultimately responsible for making its own decisions and recommendations to the Board, the consultant brings expertise, experience, independence and objectivity to the Human Resources Committee’s deliberations. The Human Resources Committee meets routinely in-camera and with the consultant, thereby ensuring that the discussions regarding compensation are substantive and unconstrained. You can find additional information on the independent consultant on page 138.

Benchmarking

We benchmark our executive compensation against a peer group of companies to assess the competitive market. Each year, the Human Resources Committee reviews the companies with its independent consultant, makes adjustments as it deems appropriate, and approves the peer group.

The peer group for the named executives reflects:

- the size of TC Energy relative to the peer companies,
- a broad sample size, which reduces potential volatility in the data,
- the scope of TC Energy’s North American business activities, and
- the broad market from which TC Energy competes for executive talent.

The 2023 peer group for our named executives is listed below. There were no changes from the 2022 peer group.

Named executive peer group
American Electric Power Company, Inc.	Imperial Oil Limited
BCE Inc.	Kinder Morgan, Inc.
Canadian National Railway Company	NextEra Energy, Inc.
Canadian Natural Resources Limited	Occidental Petroleum Corporation

Dominion Energy, Inc.	Sempra
Duke Energy Corporation	Suncor Energy Inc.
Enbridge Inc.	Teck Resources Limited
Exelon Corporation	The Southern Company
Fortis Inc.	The Williams Companies, Inc.

We benchmark each named executive position against similar positions in the peer group and target total direct compensation is generally set within a competitive range of the market median. The Human Resources Committee exercises judgment in the interpretation of the market data and is guided by the independent consultant in this regard. Competitive market data for the peer group provides an initial reference point for determining executive compensation.

Notes

- Named executive peer group scope information reflects 2022 data, unless otherwise noted, as this was the most current information available at the time the analysis was performed. For comparability, the TC Energy scope information also reflects 2022 data.
- Values reflect a U.S./Canada foreign exchange rate of 1.3497 for 2023 and 1.3013 for 2022.

Total target direct compensation is generally set within a competitive range of the market median. Actual compensation will be above or below median, depending on performance.

See Components on page 155 for more information about total direct and indirect compensation.

Aligning the interests of executives and shareholders

We have share ownership requirements to align the interests of our executives and shareholders. The minimum requirements are significant and vary by executive level. As at December 31, 2023 the ownership requirements were:

Executive level	Required ownership (multiple of base salary)
CEO	5x
Executive vice-president	3x
Senior vice-president	2x
Vice-president	1x

The CEO is required to maintain their required ownership level for one year after retirement.

Executives have five years to meet the requirement and must buy and hold TC Energy shares with a value of 50 per cent of the net proceeds of all long-term incentive payments until they meet their share ownership requirement.

The Human Resources Committee reviews share ownership levels for each executive annually and uses its discretion in assessing compliance if ownership levels fall below the minimum because of fluctuations in share price. As of January 1, 2024, outstanding unvested TC Energy RSUs granted to executives beginning in 2024 will count towards share ownership holdings, which aligns with dominant market practice, as the value of TC Energy RSUs is directly correlated with TC Energy's share price and the TC Energy RSUs vest based on time.

In 2023, the Human Resources Committee increased the CEO share ownership requirements from 5x to 6x multiple of base salary effective for 2024. Mr. Poirier now has until the end of 2029 to meet the incremental share ownership requirements, Mr. Chapman has until September 1, 2024 to meet his requirements, Ms. Wallace has until the end of 2028 to meet her requirements, and Mr. Wirzba has until the end of 2025 to meet his requirements. Mr. Hunter will no longer have share ownership requirements after his departure from TC Energy on July 1, 2024.

See Executive profiles starting on page 165 for share ownership levels.

Fixed compensation

Base salary

Base salaries for executive positions are generally aligned within a competitive range of median base salary levels in our peer group. The independent consultant to the Human Resources Committee analyzes and provides relevant market data to the Human Resources Committee and the Board.

Increases in base salary for the named executives are based on their performance, competitive market data, experience in and scope of the role, and compensation relative to other executives at TC Energy. Base salary adjustments are typically effective March 1.

Variable or at-risk compensation

Variable compensation accounts for a significant portion of executive pay and increases in proportion by executive level.

Short-term incentive

The short-term incentive plan is principally designed to motivate employees to achieve key annual business objectives. It rewards individuals for their contributions and aligns the interests of employees and shareholders. In doing so, it offers the opportunity for higher compensation in strong performance scenarios, which is a factor in attracting and retaining highly qualified and motivated talent. Short-term incentive awards are paid as a lump sum cash payment in March following the performance year.

Annual cash awards are made to the named executives based on a formula that takes into account:

Note

- Effective in 2024, Business Unit and Functional area performance factor component will be removed and executive short-term incentive will be solely based on Corporate performance factor.

Awards are based on the following target levels and performance measure relative weightings.

	Short-term incentive target (% of base salary)	Payout range (% of target)	2023 Performance measure relative weighting
			Corporate	Business unit or functional area
President and Chief Executive Officer (François Poirier)	140%	0 – 200%	100%	—
Executive Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer (Joel Hunter)	80%	0 – 200%	80%	20%
Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer, Natural Gas Pipelines (Stanley Chapman III)	100%	0 – 200%	80%	20%
Executive Vice-President, Strategy and Corporate Development and President, Power and Energy Solutions (Annesley Wallace)	80%	0 – 200%	80%	20%
Executive Vice-President and President, Liquids Pipelines (Bevin Wirzba)	90%	0 – 200%	80%	20%

As with base pay, targets are set relative to market median, with actual ranges reflecting TC Energy's size and complexity compared to other peers as well as the scope and experience of the executive in the role.

Effective January 1, 2023, the short-term incentive target for Mr. Poirier was increased to 140 per cent of base salary to remain competitive to market. Annesley Wallace joined TC Energy as Executive Vice-President, Strategy, Corporate Development and Energy Transition Planning on April 28, 2023, with a short-term incentive target of 80 per cent of base salary. Ms. Wallace was appointed Executive Vice-President, Strategy and Corporate Development and President, Power and Energy solutions on September 1, 2023 with no change to her target.

Effective January 1, 2023, the relative weightings for corporate and business unit performance were increased for Mr. Chapman and Mr. Wirzba from 60 per cent to 80 per cent corporate weighting to increase focus on overall TC Energy performance and reflect the integrated and team-based approach to our business performance.

Long-term incentive

Each year, the Human Resources Committee and the Board grant long-term incentive awards to the named executives considering median market levels and potential to contribute to TC Energy's future success.

The long-term incentive awards for our CEO and executive vice-presidents are 60 per cent performance contingent TC Energy PSUs and 40 per cent TC Energy Stock Options. Starting in 2024, CEO and executive vice-presidents' long-term incentive mix has been increased to 70 per cent TC Energy PSUs, a very strong weighting to performance contingent long-term incentive, and 30 per cent TC Energy RSUs. TC Energy Stock Options will no longer be granted starting in 2024.

Performance share units

These are notional share units awarded under the TC Energy PSU Plan. TC Energy PSUs accrue dividend equivalents and vest on December 31 at the end of the three-year performance period. TC Energy PSUs (and dividend equivalents) can vest at zero per cent to 200 per cent, depending on performance against targets established at the beginning of the period.

TC Energy PSUs, if earned, are paid out in a lump sum cash payment in the first quarter following the end of the performance period.

Notes

- Number of TC Energy PSUs vesting* is the number of TC Energy PSUs originally granted plus TC Energy PSUs earned as dividend equivalents (reinvested in accordance with our DRP in place at the time) during the three-year performance period. Dividends and TC Energy PSUs vest at the same time and only to the same extent that the underlying TC Energy PSUs vest.
- Valuation price on the grant term end date* is the volume-weighted average closing price of TC Energy shares for the 20 trading days immediately prior to and including the grant term end date (December 31).

Out-of-cycle TC Energy PSU grants may be made to newly hired executives and to executives promoted part way through the year. Out-of-cycle TC Energy PSU grants will vest on the same schedule as the standard grants that year and will be subject to the same valuation methodology and performance multiplier, however, they will be granted based on the five-day volume weighted average share price at the time of award and accrue fewer dividends than the standard grant.

Restricted share units

These are notional time vested units awarded under the TC Energy RSU Plan and starting in 2024, will be a part of the Executive long-term incentive mix. TC Energy RSUs cliff vest over a three-year period. During the vesting period, the notional share units accrue notional dividend equivalents that are reinvested, increasing the total number of share units each quarter. TC Energy RSU awards, if earned, are paid out at in a lump sum cash payment in the first quarter following the end of the vesting period.

Out-of-cycle TC Energy RSU grants may be made to newly hired executives and to executives promoted part way through the year. Out-of-cycle TC Energy RSUs can be granted with a one-year, two-year, or three-year term, all of which cliff vest based on the grant date anniversary.

TC Energy Stock Options

Shareholders first approved the TC Energy Stock Option Plan in 1995, and the most recent version of the plan was last approved by shareholders in 2016. The plan is administered by the Human Resources Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors. The total number of common shares that can be reserved for issuance to insiders, or issued to insiders at any time and within any one-year period, under any of our security-based compensation arrangements (as defined in the TSX Company Manual), is limited to 10 per cent or less of our issued and outstanding common shares. Non-executive directors are not eligible to participate in the plan. Under the terms of the plan, the Human Resources Committee determines which employees are eligible to participate. Only employees at the vice-president level or above are currently eligible to receive TC Energy Stock Options. The Human Resources Committee does not take into account the value of long-term incentive awards it grants in a given year to offset less-than-expected returns from awards granted in prior years. The Human Resources Committee believes that increasing, reducing or limiting grants based on prior gains could detract from the integrity of the performance-based framework or undermine the incentives for executives to deliver strong performance.

Vesting

TC Energy Stock Options vest one third each year, beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date and have a seven-year term.

Executives are limited to trading TC Energy shares in four windows (open trading windows), which are designated quarterly. The open trading windows relate to the completion and disclosure of quarterly and annual financial reports.

Executives are not permitted to trade when they are in possession of material, non-public information. If the expiry date of a TC Energy Stock Option does not fall during an open trading window, or falls within the first five days of an open trading window, the expiry date is extended to ten trading days after the next window opens. Similar extensions apply when there is a special trading blackout imposed during one of the four open trading windows and TC Energy Stock Options expire during the trading blackout.

Exercise price

The exercise price of an TC Energy Stock Option is the closing price of TC Energy shares on the TSX on the last trading day immediately preceding the grant date. TC Energy Stock Option holders only benefit if the price of TC Energy shares exceeds the exercise price at the time they exercise the TC Energy Stock Options. We do not provide financial assistance to plan participants in connection with the exercise of TC Energy Stock Options.

Adjustments

The number of shares subject to an TC Energy Stock Option will be adjusted under the terms of the plan when exercised, if, before the exercise of any TC Energy Stock Option:

- the TC Energy shares are consolidated, subdivided, converted, exchanged, reclassified or in any way substituted, or
- a stock dividend that is not in place of an ordinary cash dividend is paid on TC Energy shares.

More about the TC Energy Stock Option Plan

TC Energy Stock Options cannot be transferred or assigned to another person. A personal representative can exercise options on behalf of the holder if they die or are incapacitated.

The Human Resources Committee has the authority to suspend or discontinue the plan at any time without shareholder approval. Management does not have this right and cannot make changes to the plan. The Human Resources Committee can recommend to the Board for approval certain amendments to the plan, or any TC Energy Stock Option grant without shareholder approval, provided they are to:

- clarify an item,
- correct an error or omission,
- change the vesting date of an existing grant, or
- change the expiry date of an outstanding option to an earlier date.

The Human Resources Committee cannot make any amendments to the plan that adversely affect the holders' rights relating to any previously granted options without their consent.

The plan requires that the following amendments to be approved by shareholders:

- increasing the number of TC Energy shares available for issue under the plan,
- lowering the exercise price of a previously granted option,
- canceling and reissuing an option,
- permitting options to be transferable or assignable other than for normal estate settlement purposes,
- changing the categories of individuals eligible to participate in the plan,
- providing financial assistance to a participant in connection with the exercise of options,
- extending the expiry date of an option, and
- changing the types of amendments that require shareholder approval.

TC Energy Stock Options will no longer be granted to executives starting in 2024.

For more details on TC Energy Stock Options, see Equity compensation plan information on page 175.

See the Compensation on termination table starting on page 178 for the effect of certain employment events on participants' entitlements under the plan.

Retirement benefits

Defined benefit plan

Our Canadian defined benefit plans include the DB Plan and the Supplemental DB Plan for eligible employees.

For employees hired before January 1, 2024, participation in the DB Plan is mandatory once a Canadian employee has ten years of continuous service. All of the Canadian named executives participate in the DB Plan. Mr. Chapman is a U.S. employee and participates in the 401(k) Plan and the Non-Qualified Plan.

For employees hired before January 1, 2019, normal retirement for participants is when they turn 60, or between 55 and 60 if their age and years of continuous service add up to 85 points. These retirement benefit provisions apply to Mr. Poirier and Mr. Hunter. The retirement benefit at normal retirement age is calculated as follows:

Participants can retire between 55 and 60, but the benefit is reduced by 4.8 per cent per year for each year until they reach age 60 or 85 points, whichever is earlier. They can retire ten years prior to normal retirement age, however, the benefit is reduced by an actuarial equivalence from age 55.

For employees hired on or after January 1, 2019, normal retirement for participants is age 60. These retirement benefit provisions apply to Mr. Wirzba and Ms. Wallace. The retirement benefit at normal retirement age is calculated as follows:

$$1.50\% \text{ of employee's highest average earnings} \times \text{Credited service} = \text{Annual retirement benefit ($)}$$

Participants can retire as early as age 50, but the benefit is reduced by five per cent per year for each year until they reach age 60.

Notes

- Highest average earnings is the average of an employee's best 36 consecutive months for employees hired before January 1, 2019 or 60 consecutive months for employees hired on or after January 1, 2019 of pensionable earnings in their last 15 years of employment. Pensionable earnings means an employee's base salary plus the annual short-term incentive award up to a pre-established maximum, expressed as a percentage of base salary. For 2023, this was 100 per cent for Mr. Poirier and 60 per cent for the other Canadian named executives under this provision. Pensionable earnings do not include any other forms of compensation.
- YMPE is the Year's Maximum Pensionable Earnings under the Canada/Québec Pension Plan.
- Final average YMPE is the average of the YMPE in effect for the latest calendar year from which earnings are included in the Employee's highest average earnings calculation plus the two previous years.
- Credited service is the employee's years of credited pensionable service in the plan. Registered defined benefit plans are subject to a maximum annual benefit accrual under the Tax Act which is currently $3,610 for each year of credited service. Participants therefore cannot earn benefits in the registered plan on any compensation that is higher than approximately $226,000 per year for employees hired before January 1, 2019 or $241,000 per year for employees hired on or after January 1, 2019.

Although our DB Plan and Supplemental DB Plan are non-contributory, participants can make pension contributions to an enhancement account to buy ancillary or "add-on" benefits within the registered pension plan. The DB Plan and Supplemental DB Plan are integrated with the Canada/Québec Pension Plan benefits.

Any Canadian employees, including named executives, who join TC Energy on or after January 1, 2024, will participate in the DC Plan and the Savings Plan. The employer contribution to the DC Plan is nine per cent of base salary and TC Energy will match up to three per cent of an employee's voluntary contributions to the Savings Plan.

Supplemental pension plan

Our Canadian defined benefit plans use a hold harmless approach, where the maximum amount allowed under the Tax Act is paid from the DB Plan and the remainder is paid from the Supplemental DB Plan. The Supplemental DB Plan is funded through a retirement compensation arrangement under the Tax Act. Currently, there are 1,010 participants in the Supplemental DB Plan including the Canadian named executives. All DB Plan participants with pensionable earnings exceeding approximately $226,000 per year for those hired before January 1, 2019 and $241,000 for those hired on or after January 1, 2019 are eligible to participate in the Supplemental DB Plan.

Contributions to the plan are subject to Board approval and are based on an actuarial valuation of the Supplemental DB Plan obligations each year.

At the discretion of the Board, annual funding for the Supplemental DB Plan approximates current year service cost accruals and the five-year amortization of deficits. This funding practice is aligned with the approach utilized under our DB Plan.

All DB Plan and Supplemental DB Plan participants, including our Canadian named executives, receive the normal form of pension when they retire:

- monthly pension for life, and 60 per cent is paid to the spouse after the employee dies, or
- if the employee is not married, the monthly pension is paid to the employee's beneficiary or estate for the balance of the ten years, if the employee dies within ten years of retirement.

Participants can choose a different form of payment, but must complete waivers, as required by law. Options include:

- increasing the percentage of the pension value that continues after they die,
- adding a guarantee period to the pension, or
- transferring the lump sum commuted value of the registered pension plan to a locked-in retirement account up to certain tax limits and the excess is paid in cash. Subject to company discretion, the supplemental pension plan commuted value may also be transferred and paid in cash.

TransCanada 401(k) and Savings Plan

The 401(k) Plan provides a company contribution in addition to a voluntary employee contribution with a company match. Mr. Chapman participates in the 401(k) Plan.

The company contributes seven per cent of each participant's base salary (up to IRS contribution limits) to a 401(k) account. Participants can also make voluntary contributions and receive a company match equal to 100 per cent up to the first five per cent of eligible earnings. All Company contributions vest immediately. For 2024, the IRS annual compensation limit is $345,000 USD while the annual employee 401(k) contribution limit is $23,000 USD with an additional $7,500 USD of contribution room for employees age 50 and older.

The 401(k) Plan offers a number of investment options to help participants meet their saving goals. The TC USA Investment Committee monitors and measures the performance of the investment funds offered in the 401(k) Plan in relation to established performance guidelines and occasionally makes changes to the choice of investment funds where necessary.

TC USA Non-Qualified Plan

The Non-Qualified Plan is offered to employees with earnings in excess of the annual compensation limit imposed by the IRS on qualified retirement plans. Employee contributions are voluntary and eligible employees must enroll annually. Mr. Chapman participates in the Non-Qualified Plan.

The Company provides employer matching contributions to eligible participants using the same formula as the 401(k) Plan offset by the maximum amount allowed in the 401(k) Plan. The company will also contribute seven per cent of base pay less what is contributed in the 401(k) Plan. The investment options and monitoring align to the 401(k) Plan.

Other benefits

All employees, including the named executives, receive other benefits such as traditional health and welfare programs that are based on competitive market practices in the country in which they work. These benefits help to attract and retain talent.

Perquisites

Named executives receive a limited number of perquisites, including:

- a flexible perquisite allowance to use at their discretion,
- club memberships,
- a reserved parking space, and
- an annual car allowance.

Notes

- Calculated factors are rounded to the nearest one decimal.
- Comparable EPS* is calculated by adjusting Net income per share for specific items, such as unrealized gains/losses, which are believed to be significant but not reflective of TC Energy's underlying operations in the period. We calculate comparable EPS based on the weighted average number of our common shares outstanding 1,030 million in 2023.
- Comparable EPS* is a non-GAAP measure and does not have any standardized meaning under U.S. GAAP and therefore it may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other entities. The most directly comparable U.S. GAAP measure to comparable EPS is Net income per common share. Refer to Non-GAAP Measures in this Circular for additional information and to the About this document – Non-GAAP measures section of the TC Energy Annual MD&A for more information about the non-GAAP measures we use and a reconciliation to their U.S. GAAP equivalents, which section of the TC Energy Annual MD&A is incorporated by reference herein. The specific reconciliation for comparable EPS can be found on page 23 in the TC Energy Annual MD&A.

BUSINESS UNIT AND FUNCTIONAL AREA PERFORMANCE

Each business unit and functional area's performance in 2023 was assessed relative to a scorecard of metrics and targets established at the start of the year and approved by the Board. The CEO reviews and assesses business unit results, which are then recommended to the Board for approval.

While each business unit scorecard is unique, the following recurring objectives are included in all scorecards: safety, financial results, optimization, project execution, and growth.

Functional area scorecards have the following standard goals across all functions: Focus Project and blended business unit scores.

PAYOUT OF 2021 TC ENERGY PSU AWARD

Performance multiplier

The TC Energy PSUs granted in 2021 vested on December 31, 2023, and will be paid in March 2024. The performance multiplier for this award was determined based on the guidelines in the table below.

If TC Energy's performance is	Then the performance multiplier is
At threshold	0.50
At target	1.00
At or above maximum	2.00

We calculate the performance multiplier using a straight-line interpolation if performance is:

- between threshold and target, or
- between target and maximum

This award provided for a performance multiplier from zero to 2.00 based on the Board's assessment of how the company performed in terms of relative TSR and comparable EPS targets over the course of the three-year period. TC Energy PSU payouts were calculated using a performance multiplier of 0.93, based on the following result:

Performance level targets for 2021 TC Energy PSU award
Measure	Period	Threshold	Target	Maximum	Actual performance	Multiplier	Weighting	Weighted multiplier
Relative TSR against the PSU peer group (see page 163)	January 2021 to December 2023	at least the 25th percentile	at least the 50th percentile	at least the 75th percentile	P38	0.76	25%	0.19
Relative TSR against a dividend subset of the TSX 60 Index		at least the 25th percentile	at least the 50th percentile	at least the 75th percentile	P17	0.00	25%	0.00
Comparable EPS for compensation purposes		$12.32	$12.80	$13.59	$13.18	1.48	50%	0.74
Performance multiplier

Notes

- 2023 comparable EPS was $4.52. This value was adjusted by $0.10 for the impact of the sale of a 40 per cent non-controlling equity interest in Columbia Gas and Columbia Gulf to Global Infrastructure Partners (Columbia sale) making 2023 comparable EPS for compensation purposes $4.62. 2023 comparable EPS for compensation purposes, along with 2022 comparable EPS of $4.30 and 2021 comparable EPS of $4.26, result in a cumulative three-year combined comparable EPS for compensation purposes of $13.18.
- 2021 comparable EPS was adjusted from $4.27 to $4.26 for 2021 as a result of changes made beginning in the first quarter of 2022, with consistent presentation of prior periods, to exclude our proportionate share of the unrealized gains and losses from changes in the fair value of Bruce Power's funds invested for post-retirement benefits and derivatives related to its risk management activities. For more information on this adjustment refer to About this document – Non-GAAP measures – Comparable measures of the 2022 MD&A.
- Comparable EPS for compensation purposes* and comparable EPS are non-GAAP measures and do not have any standardized meaning under U.S. GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other entities. The most directly comparable U.S. GAAP measure to comparable EPS for compensation purposes and comparable EPS is Net income per common share. Refer to Non-GAAP Measures in this Circular for additional information. Refer also to the About this document – Non-GAAP measures section of the TC Energy Annual MD&A for more information about the non-GAAP measures we use and to page 23 in the TC Energy Annual MD&A for a reconciliation of comparable EPS to Net income per common share, which sections of the TC Energy Annual MD&A are incorporated by reference herein. Comparable EPS for compensation purposes is used for compensation decision making.
- Relative TSR* is calculated using $52.16, the 20-day volume-weighted average closing price of TC Energy shares on the TSX at December 31, 2023. Our absolute TSR performance was 14.7 per cent.

We used two peer groups for measuring relative TSR for the 2021 TC Energy PSUs. The first group consisted of a group of publicly-traded companies that are in the same or similar business to TC Energy and which represented investment opportunities for equity investors seeking exposure to the North American pipeline, power and utility sector. The second group for relative TSR was a high-yield subset of the TSX 60 Index, which included publicly-traded peer companies that represent dividend subset competitors for shareholder investment. Inter Pipeline Ltd. was excluded from the relative TSR calculations as it was acquired by Brookfield Infrastructure Partners L.P. in 2021.

Brookfield Property Partners L.P. was excluded from relative TSR calculations as it was private in 2021. Shaw Communications Inc. was excluded from the relative TSR calculations as it was acquired by Rogers Communications Inc. in 2023.

Methane Intensity Reduction was introduced as a metric for the 2024 TC Energy PSU award. This measure supports our current decarbonization targets.

DCF is a cash-based metric that reflects our focus on growing earnings and cash flows to create sustainable value. DCF will be adjusted on a pro-forma basis for divestitures that occur during the three-year period.

The Debt/EBITDA metric is aligned with our ongoing commitment to strengthen our balance sheet and ensure we remain competitively positioned to capitalize on future opportunities.

With the proposed spin off of our Liquids Pipelines business, we expect 2024 to be a transformational year for TC Energy and management will be focused on successfully executing the spin off and moving TC Energy into a new phase focused on its diversified, industry-leading natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions business. In connection with the spin off, TC Energy will make the necessary adjustments to its executive compensation program, including to the performance metrics applicable to its TC Energy PSU awards, to ensure that it appropriately reflects the profile and objectives of the Company following the completion of the transaction.

TC Energy Stock Option valuation

The amount under Option-based awards is calculated using the grant date fair value of the TC Energy Stock Options, as determined by the Human Resources Committee.

The Human Resources Committee and Board have approved the Binomial valuation model, a generally accepted valuation method, as the methodology to determine TC Energy Stock Option awards. The Compensation Binomial valuation model used to calculate TC Energy Stock Option fair value differs from the Accounting Binomial valuation model. The Compensation Binomial valuation model bases the TC Energy Stock Option term on the full award term and volatility on a seven-year historical volatility while the Accounting Binomial valuation model uses expected life and a blend of historical and implied volatility. The Compensation Binomial valuation model yields per unit valuations that were $0.96 higher in 2023, $2.13 higher in 2022 and $0.46 higher in 2021. The higher values result in fewer TC Energy Stock Options being awarded to the executives. TC Energy Stock Options will no longer be granted starting in 2024.

Each year, the Human Resources Committee and Board review the valuation as prepared by management’s compensation consultant. The value takes into account the volatility of the underlying shares, dividend yield, risk-free interest rate, option term and vesting period.

For TC Energy Stock Option grants beginning in 2018, inputs to the Binomial valuation model used for compensation purposes were adjusted as follows:

	Methodology beginning in 2018	Methodology prior to 2018
Volatility	historic	historic and implied
Expected life	stock option term	historical stock option exercise activity

These changes were implemented to better reflect the view of the Board as to the appropriate compensation value of TC Energy Stock Options.

The table below is a summary of the grant date compensation value for the TC Energy Stock Options granted in 2023, 2022 and 2021:

Termination

We have an executive employment agreement with each named executive that outlines the terms and conditions that apply if the executive leaves TC Energy. The table on the following page is a summary of the material terms and provisions if the executive resigns, is terminated, retires or dies. These do not apply when there is a change of control.

The general terms and provisions of TC Energy PSUs and TC Energy RSUs are discussed under each event, however, pursuant to the provisions of the TC Energy PSU Plan and the TC Energy RSU Plan, the Human Resources Committee can use its discretion to decide how to treat unvested TC Energy PSUs upon termination for executives who have an executive employment agreement. Each executive employment agreement includes a non-competition provision that applies for 12 months following the executive's separation date.

Like all other Canadian employees, all of the Canadian named executives are eligible for retiree benefits if they are 55 or older with ten or more years of continuous service on the separation date. Canadian retiree benefits include:

- a health spending account that can be used to pay for eligible health and dental expenses and/or to purchase private health insurance,
- a security plan that provides a safety net if there are significant medical expenses, and
- life insurance that provides a death benefit of $10,000 to a designated beneficiary.

Mr. Chapman is eligible for retiree benefits under the U.S. retiree benefit program including:

- access to medical plans that provide a wide range of coverage, and
- life insurance that provides a death benefit of $10,000 to a designated beneficiary.

The Canadian employee stock savings plan, the U.S. employee stock purchase plan, 401(k) Plan, the Non-Qualified Plan, spousal and dependent life insurance, accident insurance and disability insurance end at the separation date.

Notes

- Resignation includes voluntary resignation but not resignation as a result of constructive dismissal. If a named executive resigns because of constructive dismissal, it is treated as termination without cause.
- The short-term incentive award is not paid on resignation unless the Board uses its discretion.
- The notice period is currently two years for each named executive.
- Benefits on termination without cause is paid as an equivalent lump-sum for Mr. Chapman, and retiree benefits eligibility for Mr. Chapman would be determined on the termination date.
- For Mr. Chapman, there are certain differences due to U.S. tax law. These differences are:
 - to the extent any of Mr. Chapman's payments are subject to section 409A of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, these payments may be deferred for a period of six months following the date of termination, and
 - certain payments will be reduced in a specific order to the extent excise tax applies.
- For Mr. Wirzba, the above terms apply with the following differences:
 - In the case of a termination without cause, instead of a lump sum cash payment equal to 15 per cent of base salary over the notice period, Mr. Wirzba will receive:
 - o with respect to Benefits, benefit coverage that continues during the notice period (or an equivalent lump-sum payout is made). Retiree benefits eligibility will be determined at the end of the notice period, and
 - o with respect to Perquisites, a lump-sum cash payment equal to the corporate cost of the perquisite package in the one-year period preceding the separation date multiplied by the notice period must be paid.

Departure of Chief Financial Officer

Mr. Hunter is departing TC Energy on July 1, 2024, with his role as Executive Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer transitioning to his successor effective May 15, 2024. The following arrangements apply for Mr. Hunter:

- pursuant to the short-term incentive plan, payment of a prorated 2024 short-term incentive equal to the average short term incentive award for the three years preceding his departure prorated for the actual period between the start of the calendar year and the departure date,
- pursuant to the TC Energy PSU Plan and the TC Energy RSU Plan, vested TC Energy PSUs and TC Energy RSUs will be paid out and outstanding TC Energy PSU and TC Energy RSU grants will continue to vest and will be paid out in the normal course after vesting and be prorated by the number of eligible months in which Mr. Hunter was employed during the grant term,
- pursuant to the TC Energy Stock Option Plan, the expiry date of each tranche of TC Energy Stock Options held by Mr. Hunter shall be the earlier of the original expiry of each respective award or three years from the separation date. There is no change in the value of Mr. Hunter's unexercised in-the-money options as disclosed in the Incentive plan awards on page 173, and
- pension benefits as disclosed in the Retirement benefits section on page 176.

No additional allowance, severance or other compensation will be paid to Mr. Hunter upon his departure.

Pursuant to Mr. Hunter's executive employment agreement, the above is subject to his compliance with 12-month non-competition and 12-month non-solicitation provisions, as well as compliance with his fiduciary obligations, confidentiality, non-disclosure, non-disparagement and cooperation provisions, which are not limited in time.

Change of control

Under the terms of the employment agreements, the TC Energy Stock Option Plan, the TC Energy RSU and the TC Energy PSU Plan, a change of control includes an event where another entity becomes the beneficial owner of:

- more than 50 per cent of the voting shares of TC Energy, or
- more than 50 per cent of the voting shares of TCPL (not including the voting shares held by TC Energy).

Other events can also constitute a change of control, including a merger where TC Energy is not the surviving entity, a sale of all, or substantially all, of TCPL's assets or if the incumbent board ceases to be a majority of the Board. The proposed spin off of the Liquids Pipelines business will not trigger any change of control payments upon closing.

The following is a summary of the terms and provisions that apply to the compensation of all of the Canadian named executives if there is a change of control and there has been a termination without cause or a constructive dismissal within two years of the change of control (double trigger). Upon a double trigger for the named executives, a 24 month notice period applies, which provides for:

- payment of a severance allowance equal to the annual compensation during the notice period where annual compensation is composed of base salary and an average of annual incentive compensation over three years, or such lesser time, as applicable,
- a pensionable service credit of two years under the supplemental pension plans,
- for all named executives other than Mr. Wirzba, a lump sum cash payment equal to 15 per cent of base salary over the notice period and for Mr. Wirzba a lump-sum cash payment equal to the corporate cost of the perquisite package in the one-year period preceding the separation date multiplied by the notice period and a continuation of benefit coverage for the notice period,
- professional outplacement services to a maximum of $25,000,
- accelerated vesting and payment of TC Energy PSUs and TC Energy RSUs at the Human Resources Committee's discretion, and
- accelerated vesting of TC Energy Stock Options.

If, for any reason, we are unable to implement accelerated vesting (for example, our common shares stop trading), we will pay the named executive a cash amount. This would be equal to the net amount of the compensation the named executive would have received if, on the date of a change of control, such named executive had exercised all vested options and unvested options that would have had accelerated vesting.

For Mr. Chapman, the same terms and provisions apply, with the following differences:

- to the extent any of Mr. Chapman's payments are subject to section 409A of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the payments may be deferred for a period of six months following the date of termination,
- certain payments will be reduced in a specific order to the extent excise tax applies, and
- Mr. Chapman has elected to receive a lump sum cash payment with respect to benefits during the notice period.

Separation and other payments

The table below is a summary of the incremental payments that would be made to each named executive under the different separation events, with and without a deemed change of control. All payments have been calculated using December 31, 2023 as the separation date and the date of a change of control as if it applies. These amounts would be paid under the terms of the employment agreements.

The Arrangement will not trigger any change of control payments upon closing.

These amounts do not include certain amounts that would be provided under normal course, such as the value of:

- any TC Energy Stock Options, TC Energy PSUs and TC Energy RSUs vesting as part of normal employment,
- pension benefits that would normally be provided following resignation, or
- retiree benefits.

- TC Energy PSUs, TC Energy RSUs and TC Energy Stock Options continue to vest under the Retirement scenario, provided the named executive is age 55 or over.

which would be payable on the First Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares if all such dividends were declared and paid in full in accordance with their terms, and the First Preferred Shares shall participate rateably with all preferred shares, if any, which rank on a parity with the First Preferred Shares with respect to repayment of capital, in respect of any return of capital in accordance with the sums which would be payable on the First Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares on such return of capital if all sums so payable were paid in full in accordance with their terms.

Preferences

5. Purchase for Cancellation

6. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series of First Preferred Shares, the Corporation may at any time or times purchase for cancellation (if obtainable) out of capital or otherwise the whole or any part of the First Preferred Shares of any one or more series outstanding from time to time in the market (including purchase through or from an investment dealer or firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by invitation for tenders addressed to all the holders of record of the said series of First Preferred Shares outstanding at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of the directors such shares are obtainable but not exceeding the price at which, at the date of purchase, such shares are redeemable, plus costs of purchase. If upon any invitation for tenders under the provisions of this section 6 more First Preferred Shares of any particular series are tendered at a price or prices acceptable to the Corporation than the Corporation is willing to purchase, the Corporation will accept, to the extent required, the tenders submitted at the lowest price and then, if and as required, the tenders submitted at the next progressively higher prices and, if more shares are tendered at any such price than the Corporation is prepared to purchase, the shares tendered at that price will be purchased as nearly as may be pro rata (disregarding fractions) according to the number of First Preferred Shares of such series so tendered by each of the holders of First Preferred Shares who submitted tenders at that price. From and after the date of purchase of any First Preferred Shares under the provisions of this section 6, the shares so purchased shall be cancelled.

Redemption

7. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, the Corporation, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, may redeem out of capital or otherwise at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares of any one or more series on payment for each share of such price or prices as may at the time be applicable to such series. Subject as aforesaid, in case a part only of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares of any particular series is at any time to be redeemed, the shares so to be redeemed shall be selected by lot in such manner as the directors or the transfer agent, if any, appointed by the Corporation in respect of the First Preferred Shares of such series shall decide or, if the directors so determine, may be redeemed pro rata disregarding fractions.

Procedure on Redemption

8. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, in any case of redemption of First Preferred Shares under the provisions of the foregoing section 7, the following provisions shall apply. The Corporation shall at least 30 days before the date specified for redemption mail to each person who at the date of mailing is a registered holder of First Preferred Shares to be redeemed a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such First Preferred Shares. Such notice shall be mailed in a prepaid letter addressed to each such shareholder at his address as it appears in the securities register maintained by or for the Corporation or in the event of the address of any such shareholder not so appearing then to the last known address of such shareholder, provided, however, that accidental failure to give any such notice to one or more of such holders shall not affect the validity of such redemption. Such notice shall set out the redemption price and the date on which redemption is to take place and, if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares to be redeemed the redemption price on presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or any other place designated in such notice of the certificates for the First Preferred Shares called for redemption. Such payment shall be made by cheque of the Corporation payable in lawful money of Canada at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada. Such First Preferred Shares shall thereupon be redeemed and shall be cancelled. If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. From and after the date so specified for redemption, the First Preferred Shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of shareholders in respect thereof unless payment of the redemption price shall not be made upon presentation of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of such holders shall remain unaffected. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing of notice of its intention to redeem any First Preferred Shares as aforesaid to deposit the redemption price of the shares so called for redemption, or of such of the said shares represented by certificates which have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption, to a special account in any chartered bank or any trust company in Canada named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such First Preferred Shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the First Preferred Shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made shall be cancelled and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving without interest their proportionate part of the total redemption price so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively.

Rights to Subscribe to Other Securities

9. The holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not as such be entitled as of right to subscribe for or purchase or receive any part of any issue of shares or bonds, debentures or other securities of the Corporation now or hereafter authorized otherwise than in accordance with the conversion, exchange or other rights, if any, which may from time to time attach to any series of the First Preferred Shares.

Rights to Attend and Vote at Shareholders' Meetings

10. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, and except as hereinafter provided, the holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to any vote at any such meeting. The holders of any particular series of First Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of any such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the directors if the Corporation fails to pay dividends on that series of First Preferred Shares for any period as may be so determined by the directors.

Amendments

11. The provisions of the foregoing sections 1 to 10, inclusive, the provisions of this section 11 and the provisions of the following section 12 may be repealed, altered, modified, amended or amplified only with the sanction of the holders of the First Preferred Shares given as hereinafter specified in addition to any other approval required by the Canada Business Corporations Act.

12. The sanction of holders of the First Preferred Shares or of any series of the First Preferred Shares as to any and all matters referred to herein or as may otherwise be required by the Canada Business Corporations Act or the provisions relating to any particular series may, subject to the provisions applicable to such series, and subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, be given by resolution passed at a meeting of such holders duly called and held for such purpose at which the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are present or represented by proxy and carried by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, represented and voted at such meeting cast on a poll. If at any such meeting the holders of a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are not present or represented by proxy within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting then the meeting shall be adjourned to such date being not less than 15 days later and to such time and place as may be appointed by the chairman and at least ten days notice shall be given of such adjourned meeting but it shall not be necessary in such notice to specify the purpose for which the meeting was originally called. At such adjourned meeting the holders of First Preferred Shares present or represented by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution passed thereat by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares represented and voted at such adjourned meeting cast on a poll shall constitute the sanction of the holders of First Preferred Shares or series referred to in this section 12. The formalities to be observed with respect to the giving of notice of any such meeting or adjourned meeting and the conduct thereof shall be those which may from time to time be prescribed in the by-laws of the Corporation with respect to meetings of shareholders. On every poll taken at every such meeting or adjourned meeting every holder of First Preferred Shares shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each First Preferred Share held.

2. The holders of the Special Shares will be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation and in priority to any payment of dividends on the common shares of the Corporation or the Arrangement Common Shares of the Corporation, fixed, preferential, non-cumulative, cash dividends equal to the Redemption Amount multiplied by the Prime Rate as of the Dividend Payment Date, payable per annum on the Dividend Payment Date. The holders of the Special Shares shall not be entitled to any dividend other than or in excess of the non-cumulative cash dividends provided for above. If within three months after the expiration of any fiscal year of the Corporation the Board of Directors of the Corporation in its discretion shall not have declared the said fixed preferential dividend or any part thereof on the Special Shares for such fiscal year then the rights of the holders of the Special Shares to such dividend or any undeclared part thereof shall be forever extinguished. For any period which is less than a full year with respect to any Special Share which is issued, redeemed or repurchased during such year, dividends shall be deemed to accrue on a daily basis and shall be equal to the product of $A \times B \times C$, where: A = the Redemption Amount; B = the Prime Rate as of the Period End Date; and C = a fraction of which the numerator is the number of days in such period (including the day at the beginning of such period and excluding the day at the end of such period (the "Period End Date")) and of which the denominator is the number of days in such year (including the day at the beginning thereof and excluding the Dividend Payment Date at the end thereof). The Board of Directors of the Corporation may, in its sole discretion, declare dividends on the Special Shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares of the Corporation.

Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up

3. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Special Shares will be entitled to receive, before any amount shall be paid by the Corporation, or any assets of the Corporation shall be distributed, to the holders of common shares of the Corporation or Arrangement Common Shares of the Corporation, an amount equal to the Redemption Amount in respect of each Special Share held by them, respectively, to the extent of the amount or value of the assets of the Corporation available under applicable law for payment to holders of shares of the Corporation upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation. After payment to the holders of the Special Shares of the amount provided above in this paragraph 3 such holders will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs.

Redemption by Corporation

4. The Corporation may redeem at any time the whole, or from time to time any part, of the then issued and outstanding Special Shares from the holders thereof on payment (which may, at the discretion of the Corporation, be made through the issuance of a promissory note or promissory notes) of: (a) an amount for each Special Share to be redeemed equal to the aggregate fair market value of all of the issued and outstanding TC Energy Common Shares as of immediately before the completion of the transactions contemplated by Section 2.3(d) of the Plan of Arrangement multiplied by the Butterfly Proportion and then divided by the number of Special Shares issued pursuant to Section 2.3(d) of the Plan of Arrangement; and (b) all declared and unpaid dividends on such Special Share (collectively, the “Redemption Amount”).

Retraction by Holder

Following receipt of such share certificate or certificates and written request, the Corporation will, on the Retraction Date (or as soon as practicable thereafter), redeem such Special Shares by paying to the holder the Redemption Amount for each Special Share so redeemed.

Cancellation

6. Any Special Shares that are redeemed by the Corporation as aforesaid will for all purposes be considered to have been redeemed on, and will be cancelled concurrently with, the payment of the Redemption Amount by the Corporation to or for the benefit of the holder thereof.

No Dilution

7. For so long as any Special Shares are outstanding, the Corporation will not: (a) declare or pay any dividend on the common shares of the Corporation or the Arrangement Common Shares of the Corporation; or (b) redeem, purchase for cancellation or otherwise acquire any common shares of the Corporation or Arrangement Common Shares of the Corporation, if, in the opinion of the Board, the payment of such dividend or the consideration payable in connection with such redemption, purchase or other acquisition, as the case may be, would reduce the net realizable value of the assets of the Corporation (after taking into account all liabilities of the Corporation) to an amount that is less than the product of the Redemption Amount of each Special Share multiplied by the number of Special Shares outstanding immediately before the time of payment of such dividend or consideration, as the case may be.

Voting Rights

8. Subject to applicable law, holders of Special Shares will not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and will not be entitled to vote at any such meeting.

Specified Amount

9. For the purposes of Section 191(4) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), the amount specified in respect of the redemption, acquisition or cancellation of each Special Share shall be the amount specified by a Director or an Officer of the Corporation in a certificate that is made (a) effective concurrently with the issuance of such Special Share; and (b) pursuant to a resolution of the Board duly passed and evidenced in writing authorizing the issuance of such Special Share, such amount to be expressed as a dollar amount (and not expressed as a formula) and shall be equal to the fair market value of the consideration for which such Special Share is issued.

INITIAL AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF SOUTH BOW CORPORATIONA. COMMON SHARES

The common shares of the Corporation shall entitle the holders thereof to vote, on the basis of one vote per common share, at all meetings of shareholders, except meetings at which only holders of another specified class of shares are entitled to vote, and shall, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares, the Second Preferred Shares and the Special Shares, whether as a class or a series, and to any other class or series of shares of the Corporation which rank prior to the common shares, entitle the holders thereof to receive (a) dividends if, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation out of the assets of the Corporation properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amount and payable at such times and at such place or places as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine and (b) the remaining property of the Corporation upon a dissolution.

The First Preferred Shares shall, as a class, carry and be subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions hereinafter set forth:

Limitation on Issue

2. The directors of the Corporation may not issue any First Preferred Shares if, by doing so, the aggregate number of First Preferred Shares and Second Preferred Shares that would then be issued and outstanding would exceed 20 per cent of the aggregate number of common shares then issued and outstanding.

Provisions Attaching to the First Preferred Shares

3. The First Preferred Shares of any series may have attached thereto rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions whether with regard to dividends (which, in the case of fixed dividends, shall in all cases be cumulative), voting, the right to convert such shares into common shares or otherwise including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following kinds of rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions, namely with respect to: (a) the redemption and purchase of First Preferred Shares by the Corporation; (b) sinking funds or funds for purchase or redemption of First Preferred Shares; (c) payment of dividends on any other shares of the Corporation; (d) redemption, purchase or payment of any shares of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (e) the exercise by the Corporation of any election open to it to make any payments of corporation, income or other taxes; (f) subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of any shares of the Corporation; (g) borrowing by the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (h) the creation or issue of any debt or equity securities by the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation including the issue of any First Preferred Shares in addition to the First Preferred Shares at any time outstanding; (i) reduction of capital by the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (j) retirement of notes, bonds or debentures or other indebtedness of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (k) conduct of the business of the Corporation or investment of its funds; (l) meetings of the holders of the First Preferred Shares; and (m) the right of holders of First Preferred Shares to convert or exchange such shares into shares of any class of the Corporation or into or for any other securities of the Corporation or into or for shares or securities of any other company.

Directors' Resolutions

4. The directors of the Corporation may, subject as hereinafter provided, by resolution fix from time to time before the issue thereof, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares of each series.

Return of Capital

5. When any fixed cumulative dividends or amounts payable on a return of capital are not paid in full, the First Preferred Shares of all series shall participate rateably with all preferred shares, if any, which rank on a parity with the First Preferred Shares with respect to payment of dividends, in respect of such dividends, including accumulations, if any, in accordance with the sums which would be payable on the First Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares if all such dividends were declared and paid in full in accordance with their terms, and the First Preferred Shares shall participate rateably with all preferred shares, if any, which rank on a parity with the First Preferred Shares with respect to repayment of capital, in respect of any return of capital in accordance with the sums which would be payable on the First Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares on such return of capital if all sums so payable were paid in full in accordance with their terms.

Preferences

6. The First Preferred Shares of each series shall rank on a parity with the First Preferred Shares of every other series, and shall be entitled to preference with respect to payment of dividends over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to payment of dividends and shall be entitled to preference with respect to distribution of assets in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to repayment of capital and may also be given such other preferences not inconsistent with the provisions hereof over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares in any respect as may be determined in the case of each series of First Preferred Shares authorized to be issued.

Purchase for Cancellation

7. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series of First Preferred Shares, the Corporation may at any time or times purchase for cancellation (if obtainable) out of capital or otherwise the whole or any part of the First Preferred Shares of any one or more series outstanding from time to time in the market (including purchase through or from an investment dealer or firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by invitation for tenders addressed to all the holders of record of the said series of First Preferred Shares outstanding at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of the directors such shares are obtainable but not exceeding the price at which, at the date of purchase, such shares are redeemable, plus costs of purchase. If upon any invitation for tenders under the provisions of this section 6 more First Preferred Shares of any particular series are tendered at a price or prices acceptable to the Corporation than the Corporation is willing to purchase, the Corporation will accept, to the extent required, the tenders submitted at the lowest price and then, if and as required, the tenders submitted at the next progressively higher prices and, if more shares are tendered at any such price than the Corporation is prepared to purchase, the shares tendered at that price will be purchased as nearly as may be pro rata (disregarding fractions) according to the number of First Preferred Shares of such series so tendered by each of the holders of First Preferred Shares who submitted tenders at that price. From and after the date of purchase of any First Preferred Shares under the provisions of this section 6, the shares so purchased shall be cancelled.

Redemption

8. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, the Corporation, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, may redeem out of capital or otherwise at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares of any one or more series on payment for each share of such price or prices as may at the time be applicable to such series. Subject as aforesaid, in case a part only of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares of any particular series is at any time to be redeemed, the shares so to be redeemed shall be selected by lot in such manner as the directors or the transfer agent, if any, appointed by the Corporation in respect of the First Preferred Shares of such series shall decide or, if the directors so determine, may be redeemed pro rata disregarding fractions.

Procedure on Redemption

9. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, in any case of redemption of First Preferred Shares under the provisions of the foregoing section 7, the following provisions shall apply. The Corporation shall at least 30 days before the date specified for redemption mail to each person who at the date of mailing is a registered holder of First Preferred Shares to be redeemed a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such First Preferred Shares. Such notice shall be mailed in a prepaid letter addressed to each such shareholder at his address as it appears in the securities register maintained by or for the Corporation or in the event of the address of any such shareholder not so appearing then to the last known address of such shareholder, provided, however, that accidental failure to give any such notice to one or more of such holders shall not affect the validity of such redemption. Such notice shall set out the redemption price and the date on which redemption is to take place and, if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares to be redeemed the redemption price on presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or any other place designated in such notice of the certificates for the First Preferred Shares called for redemption. Such payment shall be made by cheque of the Corporation payable in lawful money of Canada at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada. Such First Preferred Shares shall thereupon be redeemed and shall be cancelled. If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. From and after the date so specified for redemption, the First Preferred Shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of shareholders in respect thereof unless payment of the redemption price shall not be made upon presentation of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of such holders shall remain unaffected. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing of notice of its intention to redeem any First Preferred Shares as aforesaid to deposit the redemption price of the shares so called for redemption, or of such of the said shares represented by certificates which have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption, to a special account in any chartered bank or any trust company in Canada named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such First Preferred Shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the First Preferred Shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made shall be cancelled and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving without interest their proportionate part of the total redemption price so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively.

Rights to Subscribe to Other Securities

10. The holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not as such be entitled as of right to subscribe for or purchase or receive any part of any issue of shares or bonds, debentures or other securities of the Corporation now or hereafter authorized otherwise than in accordance with the conversion, exchange or other rights, if any, which may from time to time attach to any series of the First Preferred Shares.

Rights to Attend and Vote at Shareholders' Meetings

11. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, and except as hereinafter provided, the holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to any vote at any such meeting. The holders of any particular series of First Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of any such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the directors if the Corporation fails to pay dividends on that series of First Preferred Shares for any period as may be so determined by the directors.

Amendments

12. The provisions of sections 1 to 10, inclusive, the provisions of this section 11 and the provisions of the following section 12 may be repealed, altered, modified, amended or amplified only with the sanction of the holders of the First Preferred Shares given as hereinafter specified in addition to any other approval required by the Canada Business Corporations Act.

Sanction by Holders of First Preferred Shares

13. The sanction of holders of the First Preferred Shares or of any series of the First Preferred Shares as to any and all matters referred to herein or as may otherwise be required by the Canada Business Corporations Act or the provisions relating to any particular series may, subject to the provisions applicable to such series, and subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, be given by resolution passed at a meeting of such holders duly called and held for such purpose at which the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are present or represented by proxy and carried by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, represented and voted at such meeting cast on a poll. If at any such meeting the holders of a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are not present or represented by proxy within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting then the meeting shall be adjourned to such date being not less than 15 days later and to such time and place as may be appointed by the chairman and at least ten days notice shall be given of such adjourned meeting but it shall not be necessary in such notice to specify the purpose for which the meeting was originally called. At such adjourned meeting the holders of First Preferred Shares present or represented by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution passed thereat by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares represented and voted at such adjourned meeting cast on a poll shall constitute the sanction of the holders of First Preferred Shares or series referred to in this section 12. The formalities to be observed with respect to the giving of notice of any such meeting or adjourned meeting and the conduct thereof shall be those which may from time to time be prescribed in the by-laws of the Corporation with respect to meetings of shareholders. On every poll taken at every such meeting or adjourned meeting every holder of First Preferred Shares shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each First Preferred Share held.

C. SECOND PREFERRED SHARES

The Second Preferred Shares shall, as a class, carry and be subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions hereinafter set forth:

Issue In Series

1. The directors of the Corporation may at any time and from time to time issue the Second Preferred Shares in one or more series, each series to consist of such number of shares as may before issuance thereof be determined by the directors.

Limitation on Issue

2. The directors of the Corporation may not issue any Second Preferred Shares if, by doing so, the aggregate number of First Preferred Shares and Second Preferred Shares that would then be issued and outstanding would exceed 20 per cent of the aggregate number of common shares then issued and outstanding.

Provisions Attaching to the Second Preferred Shares

3. The Second Preferred Shares of any series may have attached thereto rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions whether with regard to dividends (which, in the case of fixed dividends, shall in all cases be cumulative), voting, the right to convert such shares into common shares or otherwise including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following kinds of rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions, namely with respect to: (a) the redemption and purchase of Second Preferred Shares by the Corporation; (b) sinking funds or funds for purchase or redemption of Second Preferred Shares; (c) payment of dividends on any other shares of the Corporation; (d) redemption, purchase or payment of any shares of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (e) the exercise by the Corporation of any election open to it to make any payments of corporation, income or other taxes; (f) subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of any shares of the Corporation; (g) borrowing by the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (h) the creation or issue of any debt or equity securities by the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation including the issue of any Second Preferred Shares in addition to the Second Preferred Shares at any time outstanding; (i) reduction of capital by the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (j) retirement of notes, bonds or debentures or other indebtedness of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation; (k) conduct of the business of the Corporation or investment of its funds; (l) meetings of the holders of the Second Preferred Shares; and (m) the right of holders of Second Preferred Shares to convert or exchange such shares into shares of any class of the Corporation or into or for any other securities of the Corporation or into or for shares or securities of any other company.

Directors' Resolutions

4. The directors of the Corporation may, subject as hereinafter provided, by resolution fix from time to time before the issue thereof, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Second Preferred Shares of each series.

Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding-Up

5. The Second Preferred Shares of all series shall rank junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to priority in payment of dividends and with respect to distribution of assets in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, and will be subject in all respects to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares as a class and to each series of First Preferred Shares.

Return of Capital

6. When any fixed cumulative dividends or amounts payable on a return of capital are not paid in full, the Second Preferred Shares of all series shall participate rateably with all preferred shares, if any, which rank on a parity with the Second Preferred Shares with respect to payment of dividends, in respect of such dividends, including accumulations, if any, in accordance with the sums which would be payable on the Second Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares if all such dividends were declared and paid in full in accordance with their terms, and the Second Preferred Shares shall participate rateably with all preferred shares, if any, which rank on a parity with the Second Preferred Shares with respect to repayment of capital, in respect of any return of capital in accordance with the sums which would be payable on the Second Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares on such return of capital if all sums so payable were paid in full in accordance with their terms.

Preferences

7. The Second Preferred Shares of each series shall rank on a parity with the Second Preferred Shares of every other series, and shall be entitled to preference with respect to payment of dividends over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the Second Preferred Shares with respect to payment of dividends and shall be entitled to preference with respect to distribution of assets in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the Second Preferred Shares with respect to repayment of capital and may also be given such other preferences not inconsistent with the provisions hereof over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the Second Preferred Shares in any respect as may be determined in the case of each series of Second Preferred Shares authorized to be issued.

Purchase for Cancellation

8. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series of Second Preferred Shares, the Corporation may at any time or times purchase for cancellation (if obtainable), out of capital or otherwise, the whole or any part of the Second Preferred Shares of any one or more series outstanding from time to time in the market (including purchase through or from an investment dealer or firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by invitation for tenders addressed to all the holders of record of the said series of Second Preferred Shares outstanding at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of the directors such shares are obtainable but not exceeding the price at which, at the date of purchase, such shares are redeemable, plus costs of purchase. If upon any invitation for tenders under the provisions of this section 7 more Second Preferred Shares of any particular series are tendered at a price or prices acceptable to the Corporation than the Corporation is willing to purchase, the Corporation will accept, to the extent required, the tenders submitted at the lowest price and then, if and as required, the tenders submitted at the next progressively higher prices and, if more shares are tendered at any such price than the Corporation is prepared to purchase, the shares tendered at that price will be purchased as nearly as may be pro rata (disregarding fractions) according to the number of Second Preferred Shares of such series so tendered by each of the holders of Second Preferred Shares who submitted tenders at that price. From and after the date of purchase of any Second Preferred Shares under the provisions of this section 7, the shares so purchased shall be cancelled.

Redemption

9. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, the Corporation, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, may redeem out of capital or otherwise at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the then outstanding Second Preferred Shares of any one or more series on payment for each share of such price or prices as may at the time be applicable to such series. Subject as aforesaid, in case a part only of the then outstanding Second Preferred Shares of any particular series is at any time to be redeemed, the shares so to be redeemed shall be selected by lot in such manner as the directors or the transfer agent, if any, appointed by the Corporation in respect of the Second Preferred Shares of such series shall decide or, if the directors so determine, may be redeemed pro rata disregarding fractions.

Procedure on Redemption

10. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, in any case of redemption of Second Preferred Shares under the provisions of the foregoing section 8, the following provisions shall apply. The Corporation shall at least 30 days before the date specified for redemption mail to each person who at the date of mailing is a registered holder of Second Preferred Shares to be redeemed a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such Second Preferred Shares. Such notice shall be mailed in a prepaid letter addressed to each such shareholder at his address as it appears in the securities register maintained by or for the Corporation or in the event of the address of any such shareholder not so appearing then to the last known address of such shareholder, provided, however, that accidental failure to give any such notice to one or more of such holders shall not affect the validity of such redemption. Such notice shall set out the redemption price and the date on which redemption is to take place and, if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the registered holders of the Second Preferred Shares to be redeemed the redemption price on presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or any other place designated in such notice of the certificates for the Second Preferred Shares called for redemption. Such payment shall be made by cheque of the Corporation payable in lawful money of Canada at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada. Such Second Preferred Shares shall thereupon be redeemed and shall be cancelled. If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. From and after the date so specified for redemption, the Second Preferred Shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of shareholders in respect thereof unless payment of the redemption price shall not be made upon presentation of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of such holders shall remain unaffected. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing of notice of its intention to redeem any Second Preferred Shares as aforesaid to deposit the redemption price of the shares so called for redemption, or of such of the said shares represented by certificates which have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption, to a special account in any chartered bank or any trust company in Canada named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such Second Preferred Shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the Second Preferred Shares in respect whereof such deposits shall have been made shall be deemed to be redeemed and shall be cancelled and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving without interest their proportionate part of the total redemption price so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively.

Rights to Subscribe to Other Securities

11. The holders of the Second Preferred Shares shall not as such be entitled as of right to subscribe for or purchase or receive any part of any issue of shares or bonds, debentures or other securities of the Corporation now or hereafter authorized otherwise than in accordance with the conversion, exchange or other rights, if any, which may from time to time attach to any series of the Second Preferred Shares.

Rights to Attend and Vote at Shareholders' Meetings

12. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, and except as hereinafter provided, the holders of the Second Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to any vote at any such meeting. The holders of any particular series of Second Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of any such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the directors if the Corporation fails to pay dividends on that series of Second Preferred Shares for any period as may be so determined by the directors.

Amendments

13. The provisions of sections 1 to 11, inclusive, the provisions of this section 12 and the provisions of the following section 13 may be repealed, altered, modified, amended or amplified only with the sanction of the holders of the Second Preferred Shares given as hereinafter specified in addition to any other approval required by the Canada Business Corporations Act.

Sanction by Holders of Second Preferred Shares

14. The sanction of holders of the Second Preferred Shares or of any series of the Second Preferred Shares as to any and all matters referred to herein or as may otherwise be required by the Canada Business Corporations Act or the provisions relating to any particular series may, subject to the provisions applicable to such series, and subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, be given by resolution passed at a meeting of such holders duly called and held for such purpose at which the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Second Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are present or represented by proxy and carried by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the Second Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, represented and voted at such meeting cast on a poll. If at any such meeting the holders of a majority of the outstanding Second Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are not present or represented by proxy within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting then the meeting shall be adjourned to such date being not less than 15 days later and to such time and place as may be appointed by the chairman and at least ten days notice shall be given of such adjourned meeting but it shall not be necessary in such notice to specify the purpose for which the meeting was originally called. The formalities to be observed with respect to the giving of notice of any such meeting or adjourned meeting and the conduct thereof shall be those which may from time to time be prescribed in the by-laws of the Corporation with respect to meetings of shareholders. On every poll taken at every such meeting or adjourned meeting every holder of Second Preferred Shares shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each Second Preferred Share held.

D. SPECIAL SHARES

The Special Shares shall carry and be subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions hereinafter set forth:

Definitions

1. For the purposes of this Section D, the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings:
 - (a) "Dividend Payment Date" means the last day of the Corporation's fiscal year.
 - (b) "Period End Date" has the meaning attributed to such term in paragraph 2 below.

- (c) "Prime Rate" means, on any day, the annual prime commercial lending rate of interest established and announced as the reference rate of interest used by the Royal Bank of Canada on such day to determine the rates of interest on Canadian dollar loans to customers in Canada and designated by the Royal Bank of Canada as its prime rate.
- (d) "Redemption Amount" has the meaning attributed to such term in paragraph 4 below.
- (e) "Retraction Date" has the meaning attributed to such term in paragraph 5 below.

Dividends

- 2. The holders of the Special Shares will be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation and in priority to any payment of dividends on the common shares of the Corporation, fixed, preferential, non-cumulative, cash dividends equal to the Redemption Amount multiplied by the Prime Rate as of the Dividend Payment Date, payable per annum on the Dividend Payment Date. The holders of the Special Shares shall not be entitled to any dividend other than or in excess of the non-cumulative cash dividends provided for above. If within three months after the expiration of any fiscal year of the Corporation the Board of Directors of the Corporation in its discretion shall not have declared the said fixed preferential dividend or any part thereof on the Special Shares for such fiscal year then the rights of the holders of the Special Shares to such dividend or any undeclared part thereof shall be forever extinguished. For any period which is less than a full year with respect to any Special Share which is issued, redeemed or repurchased during such year, dividends shall be deemed to accrue on a daily basis and shall be equal to the product of $A \times B \times C$, where: A = the Redemption Amount; B = the Prime Rate as of the Period End Date; and C = a fraction of which the numerator is the number of days in such period (including the day at the beginning of such period and excluding the day at the end of such period (the "Period End Date")) and of which the denominator is the number of days in such year (including the day at the beginning thereof and excluding the Dividend Payment Date at the end thereof). If, by reason of insolvency provisions of applicable law or for any other reason, on any Dividend Payment Date the dividends declared as of such date are not paid in full on all of the Special Shares then outstanding, such unpaid dividends shall be paid on a subsequent date or dates determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may, in its sole discretion, declare dividends on the Special Shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares of the Corporation.

Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up

- 3. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Special Shares will be entitled to receive, before any amount shall be paid by the Corporation, or any assets of the Corporation shall be distributed, to the holders of common shares of the Corporation or holders of any other shares of any other class of the Corporation, an amount equal to the Redemption Amount in respect of each Special Share held by them, respectively, to the extent of the amount or value of the assets of the Corporation available under applicable law for payment to holders of shares of the Corporation upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation. After payment to the holders of the Special Shares of the amount provided above in this paragraph 3, such holders will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs.

Redemption by Corporation

- 4. The Corporation may redeem at any time the whole, or from time to time any part, of the then issued and outstanding Special Shares from the holders thereof on payment (which may, at the discretion of the Corporation, be made through the issuance of a promissory note or promissory notes) of: (a) an amount for each Special Share to be redeemed equal to the aggregate fair market value of the consideration paid to the Corporation on the issuance thereof; and (b) all declared and unpaid dividends on such Special Share (collectively, the "Redemption Amount").

Retraction by Holder

- 5. Subject to applicable law, a holder of Special Shares will be entitled to require the Corporation to redeem, at any time, all or any of the Special Shares held by such holder, by tendering to the Corporation at its registered office a share certificate or certificates representing the Special Shares that the holder wishes to have the Corporation redeem together with a written request specifying the number of Special Shares to be redeemed and the business day (referred to herein as the "Retraction Date") on which the holder wishes to have the Corporation redeem the Special Shares. Following receipt of such share certificate or certificates and written request, the Corporation will, on the Retraction Date (or as soon as practicable thereafter), redeem such Special Shares by paying to the holder the Redemption Amount for each Special Share so redeemed.

Cancellation

6. Any Special Shares that are redeemed by the Corporation as aforesaid will for all purposes be considered to have been redeemed on, and will be cancelled concurrently with, the payment of the Redemption Amount by the Corporation to or for the benefit of the holder thereof.

No Dilution

7. The chair of the meeting shall have the right to waive or extend any proxy deposit deadlines in his or her sole discretion.
- 8.6 Persons Entitled to be Present. The only persons entitled to attend a meeting of shareholders shall be those entitled to vote thereat and such others who, although not entitled to vote thereat, are entitled or required to attend under the Act, the articles, the by-laws or applicable laws. Any other person may be permitted to attend a meeting of shareholders by the chair of the meeting or with the consent of the meeting.
- 8.7 Voting. Subject to the Act, the articles and any other applicable law, every matter at a meeting of shareholders shall be decided by a show of hands unless a ballot is required by the chair or demanded by any person entitled to vote. Purchase for Cancellation

7. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series of First Preferred Shares, the Corporation may at any time or times purchase for cancellation (if obtainable) out of capital or otherwise the whole or any part of the First Preferred Shares of any one or more series outstanding from time to time in the market (including purchase through or from an investment dealer or firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by invitation for tenders addressed to all the holders of record of the said series of First Preferred Shares outstanding at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of the directors such shares are obtainable but not exceeding the price at which, at the date of purchase, such shares are redeemable, plus costs of purchase. If upon any invitation for tenders under the provisions of this section 6 more First Preferred Shares of any particular series are tendered at a price or prices acceptable to the Corporation than the Corporation is willing to purchase, the Corporation will accept, to the extent required, the tenders submitted at the lowest price and then, if and as required, the tenders submitted at the next progressively higher prices and, if more shares are tendered at any such price than the Corporation is prepared to purchase, the shares tendered at that price will be purchased as nearly as may be pro rata (disregarding fractions) according to the number of First Preferred Shares of such series so tendered by each of the holders of First Preferred Shares who submitted tenders at that price. From and after the date of purchase of any First Preferred Shares under the provisions of this section 6, the shares so purchased shall be cancelled.

Redemption

8. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, the Corporation, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, may redeem out of capital or otherwise at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares of any one or more series on payment for each share of such price or prices as may at the time be applicable to such series. Subject as aforesaid, in case a part only of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares of any particular series is at any time to be redeemed, the shares so to be redeemed shall be selected by lot in such manner as the directors or the transfer agent, if any, appointed by the Corporation in respect of the First Preferred Shares of such series shall decide or, if the directors so determine, may be redeemed pro rata disregarding fractions.

Procedure on Redemption

9. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, in any case of redemption of First Preferred Shares under the provisions of the foregoing section 7, the following provisions shall apply. The Corporation shall at least 30 days before the date specified for redemption mail to each person who at the date of mailing is a registered holder of First Preferred Shares to be redeemed a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such First Preferred Shares. Such notice shall be mailed in a prepaid letter addressed to each such shareholder at his address as it appears in the securities register maintained by or for the Corporation or in the event of the address of any such shareholder not so appearing then to the last known address of such shareholder, provided, however, that accidental failure to give any such notice to one or more of such holders shall not affect the validity of such redemption. Such notice shall set out the redemption price and the date on which redemption is to take place and, if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares to be redeemed the redemption price on presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or any other place designated in such notice of the certificates for the First Preferred Shares called for redemption. Such payment shall be made by cheque of the Corporation payable in lawful money of Canada at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada. Such First Preferred Shares shall thereupon be redeemed and shall be cancelled. If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. From and after the date so specified for redemption, the First Preferred Shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of shareholders in respect thereof unless payment of the redemption price shall not be made upon presentation of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of such holders shall remain unaffected. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing of notice of its intention to redeem any First Preferred Shares as aforesaid to deposit the redemption price of the shares so called for redemption, or of such of the said shares represented by certificates which have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption, to a special account in any chartered bank or any trust company in Canada named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such First Preferred Shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the First Preferred Shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made shall be cancelled and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving without interest their proportionate part of the total redemption price so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively.

Rights to Subscribe to Other Securities

10. The holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not as such be entitled as of right to subscribe for or purchase or receive any part of any issue of shares or bonds, debentures or other securities of the Corporation now or hereafter authorized otherwise than in accordance with the conversion, exchange or other rights, if any, which may from time to time attach to any series of the First Preferred Shares.

Rights to Attend and Vote at Shareholders' Meetings

11. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, and except as hereinafter provided, the holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to any vote at any such meeting. The holders of any particular series of First Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of any such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the directors if the Corporation fails to pay dividends on that series of First Preferred Shares for any period as may be so determined by the directors.

Amendments

12. The provisions of sections 1 to 10, inclusive, the provisions of this section 11 and the provisions of the following section 12 may be repealed, altered, modified, amended or amplified only with the sanction of the holders of the First Preferred Shares given as hereinafter specified in addition to any other approval required by the Canada Business Corporations Act.

If at any such meeting the holders of a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are not present or represented by proxy within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting then the meeting shall be adjourned to such date being not less than 15 days later and to such time and place as may be appointed by the chairman and at least ten days notice shall be given of such adjourned meeting but it shall not be necessary in such notice to specify the purpose for which the meeting was originally called. At such adjourned meeting the holders of First Preferred Shares present or represented by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution passed thereat by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares represented and voted at such adjourned meeting cast on a poll shall constitute the sanction of the holders of First Preferred Shares or series referred to in this section 12. The formalities to be observed with respect to the giving of notice of any such meeting or adjourned meeting and the conduct thereof shall be those which may from time to time be prescribed in the by-laws of the Corporation with respect to meetings of shareholders. The Corporation shall at least 30 days before the date specified for redemption mail to each person who at the date of mailing is a registered holder of First Preferred Shares to be redeemed a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such First Preferred Shares. Such notice shall be mailed in a prepaid letter addressed to each such shareholder at his address as it appears in the securities register maintained by or for the Corporation or in the event of the address of any such shareholder not so appearing then to the last known address of such shareholder, provided, however, that accidental failure to give any such notice to one or more of such holders shall not affect the validity of such redemption. Such notice shall set out the redemption price and the date on which redemption is to take place and, if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares to be redeemed the redemption price on presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or any other place designated in such notice of the certificates for the First Preferred Shares called for redemption. Such payment shall be made by cheque of the Corporation payable in lawful money of Canada at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada. Such First Preferred Shares shall thereupon be redeemed and shall be cancelled. If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. From and after the date so specified for redemption, the First Preferred Shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of shareholders in respect thereof unless payment of the redemption price shall not be made upon presentation of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of such holders shall remain unaffected. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing of notice of its intention to redeem any First Preferred Shares as aforesaid to deposit the redemption price of the shares so called for redemption, or of such of the said shares represented by certificates which have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption, to a special account in any chartered bank or any trust company in Canada named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such First Preferred Shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the First Preferred Shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made shall be cancelled and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving without interest their proportionate part of the total redemption price so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively.

Rights to Subscribe to Other Securities

9. The holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not as such be entitled as of right to subscribe for or purchase or receive any part of any issue of shares or bonds, debentures or other securities of the Corporation now or hereafter authorized otherwise than in accordance with the conversion, exchange or other rights, if any, which may from time to time attach to any series of the First Preferred Shares.

Rights to Attend and Vote at Shareholders' Meetings

10. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, and except as hereinafter provided, the holders of the First Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to any vote at any such meeting. The holders of any particular series of First Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of any such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the directors if the Corporation fails to pay dividends on that series of First Preferred Shares for any period as may be so determined by the directors.

Amendments

11. The provisions of the foregoing sections 1 to 10, inclusive, the provisions of this section 11 and the provisions of the following section 12 may be repealed, altered, modified, amended or amplified only with the sanction of the holders of the First Preferred Shares given as hereinafter specified in addition to any other approval required by the Canada Business Corporations Act.

Sanction by Holders of First Preferred Shares

12. The sanction of holders of the First Preferred Shares or of any series of the First Preferred Shares as to any and all matters referred to herein or as may otherwise be required by the Canada Business Corporations Act or the provisions relating to any particular series may, subject to the provisions applicable to such series, and subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, be given by resolution passed at a meeting of such holders duly called and held for such purpose at which the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are present or represented by proxy and carried by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, represented and voted at such meeting cast on a poll. If at any such meeting the holders of a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are not present or represented by proxy within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting then the meeting shall be adjourned to such date being not less than 15 days later and to such time and place as may be appointed by the chairman and at least ten days notice shall be given of such adjourned meeting but it shall not be necessary in such notice to specify the purpose for which the meeting was originally called. At such adjourned meeting the holders of First Preferred Shares present or represented by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution passed thereat by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares represented and voted at such adjourned meeting cast on a poll shall constitute the sanction of the holders of First Preferred Shares or series referred to in this section 12. The formalities to be observed with respect to the giving of notice of any such meeting or adjourned meeting and the conduct thereof shall be those which may from time to time be prescribed in the by-laws of the Corporation with respect to meetings of shareholders. On every poll taken at every such meeting or adjourned meeting every holder of First Preferred Shares shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each First Preferred Share held.

C. SECOND PREFERRED SHARES

The Second Preferred Shares shall, as a class, carry and be subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions hereinafter set forth:

Directors' Resolution

3. The directors of the Corporation may, subject as hereinafter provided, by resolution fix from time to time before the issue thereof, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Second Preferred Shares of each series.

Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding-Up

4. The Second Preferred Shares of all series shall rank junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to priority in payment of dividends and with respect to distribution of assets in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, and will be subject in all respects to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares as a class and to each series of First Preferred Shares.

Return of Capital

5. When any fixed cumulative dividends or amounts payable on a return of capital are not paid in full, the Second Preferred Shares of all series shall participate ratably with all preferred shares, if any, which rank on a parity with the Second Preferred Shares with respect to payment of dividends, in respect of such dividends, including accumulations, if any, in accordance with the sums which would be payable on the Second Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares if all such dividends were declared and paid in full in accordance with their terms, and the Second Preferred Shares shall participate ratably with all preferred shares, if any, which rank on a parity with the Second Preferred Shares with respect to repayment of capital, in respect of any return of capital in accordance with the sums which would be payable on the Second Preferred Shares and such other preferred shares on such return of capital if all sums so payable were paid in full in accordance with their terms.

Preferences

6. The Second Preferred Shares of each series shall rank on a parity with the Second Preferred Shares of every other series, and shall be entitled to preference with respect to payment of dividends over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the Second Preferred Shares with respect to payment of dividends and shall be entitled to preference with respect to distribution of assets in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the Second Preferred Shares with respect to repayment of capital and may also be given such other preferences not inconsistent with the provisions hereof over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the Second Preferred Shares in any respect as may be determined in the case of each series of Second Preferred Shares authorized to be issued.

Purchase for Cancellation

7. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series of Second Preferred Shares, the Corporation may at any time or times purchase for cancellation (if obtainable), out of capital or otherwise, the whole or any part of the Second Preferred Shares of any one or more series outstanding from time to time in the market (including purchase through or from an investment dealer or firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by invitation for tenders addressed to all the holders of record of the said series of Second Preferred Shares outstanding at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of the directors such shares are obtainable but not exceeding the price at which, at the date of purchase, such shares are redeemable, plus costs of purchase. If upon any invitation for tenders under the provisions of this section 7 more Second Preferred Shares of any particular series are tendered at a price or prices acceptable to the Corporation than the Corporation is willing to purchase, the Corporation will accept, to the extent required, the tenders submitted at the lowest price and then, if and as required, the tenders submitted at the next progressively higher prices and, if more shares are tendered at any such price than the Corporation is prepared to purchase, the shares tendered at that price will be purchased as nearly as may be pro rata (disregarding fractions) according to the number of Second Preferred Shares of such series so tendered by each of the holders of Second Preferred Shares who submitted tenders at that price. From and after the date of purchase of any Second Preferred Shares under the provisions of this section 7, the shares so purchased shall be cancelled.

Redemption

8. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, the Corporation, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, may redeem out of capital or otherwise at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the then outstanding Second Preferred Shares of any one or more series on payment for each share of such price or prices as may at the time be applicable to such series. Subject as aforesaid, in case a part only of the then outstanding Second Preferred Shares of any particular series is at any time to be redeemed, the shares so to be redeemed shall be selected by lot in such manner as the directors or the transfer agent, if any, appointed by the Corporation in respect of the Second Preferred Shares of such series shall decide or, if the directors so determine, may be redeemed pro rata disregarding fractions.

Procedure on Redemption

9. Subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act and subject to the provisions relating to any particular series, in any case of redemption of Second Preferred Shares under the provisions of the foregoing section 8, the following provisions shall apply. The Corporation shall at least 30 days before the date specified for redemption mail to each person who at the date of mailing is a registered holder of Second Preferred Shares to be redeemed a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such Second Preferred Shares. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing of notice of its intention to redeem any Second Preferred Shares as aforesaid to deposit the redemption price of the shares so called for redemption, or of such of the said shares represented by certificates which have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption, to a special account in any chartered bank or any trust company in Canada named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such Second Preferred Shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the Second Preferred Shares in respect whereof such deposits shall have been made shall be deemed to be redeemed and shall be cancelled and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving without interest their proportionate part of the total redemption price so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively.

Rights to Subscribe to Other Securities

10. The holders of the Second Preferred Shares shall not as such be entitled as of right to subscribe for or purchase or receive any part of any issue of shares or bonds, debentures or other securities of the Corporation now or hereafter authorized otherwise than in accordance with the conversion, exchange or other rights, if any, which may from time to time attach to any series of the Second Preferred Shares.

Rights to Attend and Vote at Shareholders' Meetings

11. Subject to the Canada Business Corporations Act, and except as hereinafter provided, the holders of the Second Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to any vote at any such meeting. The holders of any particular series of Second Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of any such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the directors if the Corporation fails to pay dividends on that series of Second Preferred Shares for any period as may be so determined by the directors.

Sanction by Holders of Second Preferred Shares

13. The sanction of holders of the Second Preferred Shares or of any series of the Second Preferred Shares as to any and all matters referred to herein or as may otherwise be required by the Canada Business Corporations Act or the provisions relating to any particular series may, subject to the provisions applicable to such series, and subject to the Canada Business Corporations Act, be given by resolution passed at a meeting of such holders duly called and held for such purpose at which the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Second Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, are present or represented by proxy and carried by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the Second Preferred Shares or series, as the case may be, represented and voted at such meeting cast on a poll. The Board of Directors of TC Energy Corporation
450 1 St SW
Calgary, Alberta
T2P5H1

Members of the Board of Directors:

We understand that TC Energy Corporation (“TC Energy” or the “Company”) is proposing to undertake a separation, to be effected by way of statutory plan of arrangement (the “Transaction”) under section 192 of the Canada Business Corporations Act, which would divide the Company into two publicly-traded energy companies – a new liquids-focused midstream infrastructure company that will be named South Bow Corporation (“South Bow”) and a natural gas-focused midstream infrastructure company that will continue as TC Energy Corporation (“Remain-Co”).

We understand that pursuant to the Transaction:

- a) each issued and outstanding common share of TC Energy as of the Distribution Record Date will be exchanged for one New TC Energy Common Share and 0.2 of a South Bow Common Share (such New TC Energy Common Shares and South Bow Common Shares to be received pursuant to such exchange collectively referred to as the “Consideration”); and
- b) the completion of the Transaction will be conditional upon, among other things, approval by at least two thirds of the votes cast by the holders (the “Shareholders”) of common shares of TC Energy who are present in person or represented by proxy at a special meeting (the “Meeting”) relating to the Transaction.

The above description is summary in nature. The terms and conditions of the Transaction will be described in a Management Information Circular (the “Circular”) that will be delivered to the Shareholders in connection with the Meeting. We have further assumed, in all respects material to our analysis, that all governmental, regulatory, or other consents, approvals or releases necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any delay, limitation, restriction or condition that would have an adverse effect on TC Energy, South Bow or Remain-Co or the consummation of the Transaction or reduce the contemplated benefits to the Shareholders of the Transaction.

We have not conducted a physical inspection of the properties or facilities of TC Energy, South Bow or Remain-Co and have not made or assumed any responsibility for making any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off balance sheet assets and liabilities) of TC Energy, South Bow and Remain-Co, nor have we been furnished with any such valuations or appraisals, nor have we evaluated the solvency or fair value of TC Energy, South Bow and Remain-Co under any provincial, state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect this Opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this Opinion.

We have not been asked to pass upon, and express no opinion with respect to, any matter other than the fairness to the Shareholders, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration. We do not express any view on, and our Opinion does not address, the fairness of the Transaction to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of the Company, or any class of such persons, whether relative to the Consideration or otherwise. We have not been asked to, nor do we express any view on, and our Opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the Arrangement Agreement or the Transaction, including, without limitation, the structure or form of the Transaction, or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the Arrangement Agreement. Our Opinion does not address the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to other business or financial strategies that might be available to the Company, nor does it address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Transaction. We do not express any view on, and our Opinion does not address, the prices at which the securities of TC Energy, South Bow or Remain-Co will trade at any time, including following announcement or consummation of the Transaction. In arriving at our Opinion, we were not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from any third party with respect to the acquisition of any or all of the common shares of the Company or any business combination or other extraordinary transaction involving the Company. Our Opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Board or to any other persons in respect of the Transaction, including as to how any Shareholders should vote or act in respect of the Transaction. We are not expressing any opinion as to the potential effects of volatility in the credit, financial and stock markets on TC Energy, South Bow or Remain-Co or the Transaction or as to the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of TC Energy, South Bow or Remain-Co or the ability of TC Energy, South Bow or Remain-Co to pay their respective obligations when they come due.

We have not been asked to prepare and have not prepared a formal valuation or appraisal of the Company or any of its assets or securities and our Opinion should not be construed as such, nor have we been requested to identify, solicit, consider or develop any potential alternatives to the Transaction. We are not legal, regulatory, accounting or tax experts and have assumed the accuracy and completeness of assessments by the Company and its advisors with respect to legal, regulatory, accounting and tax matters and this Opinion does not address any such matters.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is payable upon rendering this Opinion, regardless of the conclusion reached herein. None of the fees payable to Evercore in connection with its engagement are contingent on the completion of the Transaction or any other transaction. The Company has also agreed to reimburse our expenses and to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. Neither Evercore nor its affiliates is an insider, associate or affiliate (as those terms are defined in the Securities Act (Alberta) or the rules made thereunder) of TC Energy or its associates or affiliates (collectively, the “Interested Parties”). During the two year period prior to the date hereof, Evercore and its affiliates have not been engaged to provide financial advisory or other services to any of the Interested Parties and we have not received any compensation from the Company during such period. Except in respect of the Engagement Agreement, there are no understandings, agreements or commitments between Evercore and any of the Interested Parties with respect to future business dealings. We may provide financial advisory or other services to TC Energy,

South Bow and Remain-Co and their respective affiliates in the future and in connection with any such services we may receive compensation.

Evercore and its affiliates engage in a wide range of activities for its and their own accounts and the accounts of customers, including corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, equity sales, trading and research, private equity, placement agent, asset management and related activities. In connection with these businesses or otherwise, Evercore and its affiliates and/or its or their respective employees, as well as investment funds in which any of them may have a financial interest, may at any time, directly or indirectly, hold long or short positions and may trade or otherwise effect transactions for their own accounts or the accounts of customers, in debt or equity securities, senior loans and/or derivative products or other financial instruments of or relating to TC Energy, South Bow and Remain-Co and their respective affiliates or persons that are competitors, customers or suppliers of TC Energy, South Bow and Remain-Co.

The preparation of an opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily amenable to partial analysis or summary. Any attempt to do so could lead to undue emphasis on any particular factor or analysis. We believe that our analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analyses or the factors considered by us, without considering all factors and analyses together, could create an incomplete or misleading view of the process underlying our Opinion.

Our financial advisory services and this Opinion are provided for the information and benefit of, the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Transaction. The issuance of this Opinion has been approved by an Opinion Committee of Evercore.

This Opinion is provided solely for the benefit of the Board (in its capacity as such), and is not on behalf of, and shall not confer rights or remedies upon, any Shareholder, securityholder, creditor or any other person other than the Board or be used or relied upon for any other purpose. This Opinion may not be disclosed, quoted, referred to or communicated (in whole or in part) to any third party for any purpose whatsoever except with our prior written approval, except the Company may reproduce this Opinion in full, and include a summary thereof (in a form acceptable to us), in any document that is required to be filed with the CISO and required to be mailed by the Company to its shareholders relating to the Transaction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be received by Shareholders pursuant to the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to Shareholders.

Very truly yours,

EVERCORE GROUP L.L.C.

FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS ORDER:

All references to “Arrangement” used in this Order (the “Interim Order”) shall mean the arrangement described in the Plan of Arrangement attached as Appendix “A” to the Arrangement Agreement, which is attached as Schedule “C” to the Management Information Circular of TC Energy (the “Information Circular”) to be sent to holders of common shares of TC Energy, which is attached as Exhibit “1” to the Interim Order Affidavit.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

General

1. As prescribed by this Interim Order, TC Energy shall seek approval of the Arrangement as described in the Information Circular, in the manner set out below.
2. The time for filing and service of the Originating Application and the Interim Order Affidavit is abridged and service is deemed good and sufficient.

The Meeting

3. TC Energy shall call and conduct an Annual and Special Meeting (the “Meeting”) of the holders of record of common shares of TC Energy (the “Shareholders”). The Meeting shall occur virtually, using a live audio webcast, on June 4, 2024 at 8:00 a.m. Mountain Time.
4. At the Meeting, the Shareholders will consider and vote on, among other things, a special resolution, the full text of which is set out in Schedule “A” of the Information Circular, to approve the Arrangement pursuant to section 192 of the CBCA. Pursuant to the Arrangement, among other things, the Shareholders of record as of the close of business on a date to be determined by TC Energy (the “Distribution Record Date”) will receive one newly issued common share of TC Energy and 0.2 of a common share in a new public company called “South Bow Corporation” (“South Bow”) in exchange for each common share of TC Energy held (the “Arrangement Resolution”).
5. A quorum for the Meeting will be two Shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting, either personally present or represented by their appointed proxyholders, who together hold or represent not less than 25% of the outstanding common shares of TC Energy entitled to vote at the Meeting.
6. If a quorum is not present at the opening of the Meeting, the Meeting shall be adjourned to a fixed time and place and no other business may be transacted.
7. Each Shareholder is entitled to vote their common shares at the Meeting on the Arrangement Resolution and any other matter to be considered at the Meeting.
8. The record date for Shareholders shall be April 16, 2024 (the “Record Date”). Only Shareholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting.
9. The Meeting shall be called, held, and conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of the CBCA, the articles and by-laws of TC Energy in effect at the relevant time, the Information Circular, the rulings and directions of the Chair of the Meeting, this Interim Order, and any other orders of this Court. If there is inconsistency between this Interim Order and the CBCA or the articles and by-laws of TC Energy, the terms of this Interim Order shall govern.

10. TC Energy shall be entitled to change the format of the Meeting from a virtual-only meeting to a “hybrid” meeting for any reason that it deems appropriate and at any time in advance of the opening of the Meeting. If TC Energy changes the format of the Meeting to a “hybrid” meeting, Shareholders will be able to attend the meeting virtually or in-person at a place determined by TC Energy. A “hybrid” meeting format shall not remove or limit in any way the ability of Shareholders to attend the meeting virtually, as contemplated by the Information Circular.
11. If TC Energy changes the format of the Meeting to a “hybrid” meeting, TC Energy shall not be required to amend any of the Meeting materials, including the Information Circular, form of proxy (“Proxy Form”), voting instruction form (“VIF”), notice of the Meeting (“Notice of Meeting”) and notice of Originating Application (“Notice of Originating Application”). TC Energy may provide notice of a change to the format of the Meeting from virtual-only to “hybrid” by the method and in the time most reasonably practicable in the circumstances as determined by TC Energy and that notice shall be deemed sufficient.
12. The Meeting shall be deemed to be the 2024 Annual General Meeting of South Bow and shall meet the requirements of South Bow’s by-laws.

Conduct of the Meeting

13. The only persons entitled to attend the Meeting shall be the Shareholders or their authorized proxy holders, and TC Energy’s directors and officers, auditors, legal counsel, and those other persons who are permitted to attend by the Chair of the Meeting.
14. The number of votes required to pass the Arrangement Resolution shall be at least two-thirds (66.67 per cent) of the votes cast by Shareholders present or represented by proxy at the Meeting.
15. To be valid, proxies must be deposited with TC Energy or its service providers, including Morrow Sodali (Canada) Ltd., in the way described in the Information Circular by 8:00 a.m. Mountain Time on May 31, 2024, or, if the Meeting is adjourned or postponed, by 48 hours prior to the commencement of the reconvened Meeting, excluding weekends and statutory holidays from the counting of time. TC Energy may, at its sole discretion, waive the proxy-related deadlines outlined in the Information Circular, if the Chair of the Meeting determines that it is advisable to do so.

16. A proxy that is properly completed and received, but which does not contain voting instructions or appoint a proxyholder, shall be deemed to be voted in favour of the Arrangement Resolution.
17. A proxy that has been properly completed and received may only be revoked as follows:
 - (a) By attending and voting at the Meeting in accordance with the process outlined in the Information Circular;
 - (b) By completing and depositing a new proxy form in accordance with the requirements outlined in the Information Circular; or
 - (c) By delivering a written statement revoking the proxy in accordance with the requirements outlined in the Information Circular.
18. The accidental failure to give notice of the Meeting, or a failure to receive that notice by any Shareholder, shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceedings taken at the Meeting.
19. TC Energy is authorized to adjourn or postpone the Meeting on one or more occasions, for a period or periods of time that TC Energy deems advisable, without the need to first convene the Meeting or obtain any vote of the Shareholders on the adjournment or postponement. Notice of that adjournment or postponement may be given by any method that TC Energy determines is appropriate in the circumstances.
20. If the Meeting is adjourned, any resolution in respect of which a vote shall have been taken at the Meeting prior to such adjournment shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been conclusively decided in accordance with such vote and no further proceedings in respect thereof shall be required to be taken at the rescheduled Meeting or otherwise.
21. If the Meeting is adjourned or postponed, the references to the Meeting in this Interim Order shall be deemed to be references to the rescheduled Meeting. The Record Date shall not change because of any adjournment or postponement of the Meeting.

22. TC Energy is authorized to make such amendments, revisions, or supplements to the Arrangement as it may determine are necessary or desirable, provided that those amendments, revisions, or supplements are made in accordance with and in the manner contemplated by the Plan of Arrangement and the Arrangement Agreement. The Arrangement as so amended, revised, or supplemented shall be deemed to be the Arrangement submitted to the Meeting and the subject of the Arrangement Resolution, without any requirement to return to this Court to amend this Interim Order.

Amendments to Meeting Materials

23. TC Energy is authorized to make such amendments, revisions, or supplements (“Additional Information”) to the Information Circular, Proxy Form, VIF, Notice of Meeting, and Notice of Originating Application, if any, as it may determine. TC Energy may disclose such Additional Information, including material changes, by the method and in the time most reasonably practicable in the circumstances as determined by TC Energy. Without limiting the generality of this, if any material change or material fact arises between the date of this Interim Order and the date of the completion of the Arrangement, which if known prior to the delivery of the Information Circular would have been required to be disclosed in the Information Circular, then:
- (a) TC Energy shall advise the Shareholders of the material change or material fact by issuing a press release in accordance with applicable securities laws and the policies of the Toronto Stock Exchange; and
 - (b) Provided that that press release describes the applicable material change or material fact in reasonable detail, TC Energy shall not be required to deliver an amendment to the Information Circular or otherwise give notice to the Shareholders of the material change or material fact.

The materials for the Meeting, including the Information Circular, Proxy Form, VIF, Notice of Meeting, Notice of Originating Application, and any other communications or documents deemed necessary by TC Energy (collectively, the “Meeting Materials”), shall be sent to the Shareholders, the directors, and auditors of TC Energy and the CBCA Director as follows:

with a Proxy Form or VIF, as applicable, will be sent by mail to each Shareholder at their address, as shown on the books and records of TC Energy as of the Record Date. The following Shareholders will receive a paper copy of the Meeting Materials:

- (i) Those who have already provided instructions that they prefer to receive a paper copy;

25. Delivery of the Meeting Materials in the way directed by this Interim Order shall be deemed to be good and sufficient service.
26. TC Energy may provide notice of the Distribution Record Date by the method and in the time most reasonably practicable in the circumstances as determined by TC Energy and that notice shall be deemed sufficient for purposes of the CBCA.

Final Application

27. Subject to any further orders of this Court, and provided that the Shareholders approve the Arrangement in the way directed by this Court, TC Energy may proceed with an Application for a Final Order approving the Arrangement (the "Final Order"). That Application will occur on June 4, 2024 at 3:30 p.m. Mountain Time at the Calgary Courts Centre, or at some other date, time, and location permitted by this Court. Subject to the Final Order and to the issuance of the Certificate of Arrangement, TC Energy, South Bow, all Shareholders, and all other persons affected by the Arrangement will be bound by the Arrangement in accordance with its terms.

28. Any Shareholder, or other interested party (an “Interested Party”), wishing to appear and make submissions at the Application for the Final Order is required to file with this Court a notice of intention to appear (“Notice of Intention to Appear”). 30. If the Application for the Final Order is adjourned, the only parties that shall receive notice of the rescheduled Application are those parties appearing before this Court as part of the original Application for the Final Order and any Interested Party that has already served a Notice of Intention to Appear in accordance with the requirements of this Interim Order.

Additionally, TC Energy has applied to list on the NYSE the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan. Listing on the NYSE will be subject to South Bow fulfilling all of the listing requirements of the NYSE. It is a condition precedent to the completion of the Arrangement under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement that TC Energy receive: (a) the conditional approval of the TSX in respect of the above listing application, subject only to compliance with the usual requirements of the TSX; and (b) the approval of the NYSE in respect of the above listing application, subject to notice of issuance. TC Energy will not proceed with the Arrangement without receiving such approvals. See Description of Capital Structure – Market for Securities in this Schedule F and Stock Exchange Listings in the body of this Circular.

Upon completion of the Arrangement, South Bow will own and operate the Liquids Pipelines business.

OVERVIEW OF SOUTH BOW’S BUSINESS

South Bow’s business consists of crude oil pipeline and terminal assets that safely transport crude oil primarily from the WCSB and Cushing market hub to the U.S. Midwest and Gulf Coast. South Bow also offers ancillary services, including storage at terminals, which provides customers with increased receipt and delivery optionality. In addition to its crude oil pipeline and terminal assets, South Bow conducts marketing activities through a non-regulated marketing entity.

LIQUIDS PIPELINES

Spanning 4,900 km (3,045 mi), South Bow's network of pipelines is uniquely and strategically positioned, connecting stable oil production in the WCSB to world-class refineries in the U.S. Midwest (PADD 2) and Gulf Coast (PADD 3) markets.

South Bow's liquids pipelines assets provide pipeline transportation services to customers predominantly supported by long-term contracts with fixed monthly payments that are linked to contracted throughput volumes, providing certainty and generating stable earnings over the contract term. In 2023, South Bow's business generated comparable EBITDA of $1,457 million and earnings of $1,011 million, of which 88 per cent was supported by committed contracts with high-quality creditworthy customers. The EBITDA-weighted average remaining term on South Bow's transportation service agreements is approximately 8.7 years with 96 per cent of counterparty exposure to investment-grade companies.

These long-term contracts provide for the recovery of development costs, with operating and maintenance costs primarily recovered through a variable flow-through toll. This contracting profile generally insulates South Bow's business against market fluctuations and commodity price volatility, and is expected to provide South Bow with a stable source of cash flow to support its dividend and capital growth initiatives.

Revenues from liquids pipelines are generated mainly from providing customers with firm capacity, take-or-pay arrangements to transport crude oil. The performance obligation in these contracts is the reservation of a specified amount of transportation capacity of crude oil on a monthly basis. Revenues earned from these arrangements are recognized ratably over the term of the contract regardless of the actual amount of crude oil that is transported. South Bow does not take ownership of the crude oil that it transports under these transportation contracts.

Uncontracted pipeline capacity is offered to the market on a monthly uncommitted basis and also through periodic open seasons, in accordance with regulatory requirements, which provides opportunities for South Bow to generate incremental earnings.

South Bow has an interest in the following pipelines:

Pipeline	Length	Description	Ownership

KEYSTONE PIPELINE SYSTEM

Keystone Pipeline

The Keystone Pipeline (Keystone) is a 4,327-km (2,689-mile), 30 to 36-inch crude oil pipeline system, traversing three Canadian provinces and eight U.S. states. Keystone safely transports crude oil exported from western Canada to various delivery points in the U.S. Midwest and Gulf Coast. Keystone is able to transport over 600,000 Bbl/d of crude oil. Keystone operates in both Canada and the U.S. and it is subject to the common carrier obligations imposed by the CER and the FERC, respectively.

Keystone has negotiated a fixed/variable rate toll structure with its shippers, providing South Bow with long-term certainty of cash flow. Recovery of the initial capital investment was fixed on a long-term committed basis, while actual operating and maintenance costs are recovered through the variable toll. Keystone is required by the CER to reserve six per cent of its nominal capacity to uncommitted (spot) shippers. Spot tolls are adjusted based on market indicators to maintain competitiveness and offered on a monthly basis.

Keystone was built out over four phases as follows and as shown on the map to the right:

- Phase 1: 2,988-km (1,857-mile) section from Hardisty, Alberta, to Steele City, Nebraska, and onward to Wood River and Patoka, Illinois (Wood River / Patoka Leg) where it delivers to Mid Continent refineries and the Patoka trading hub.
- Phase 2 (Cushing Extension): 479-km (298-mile) section from Steele City, Nebraska, to Cushing, Oklahoma, for delivery into the Cushing trading hub.
- Phase 3 (Gulf Coast Extension): 782-km (486-mile) section from Cushing, Oklahoma, to Nederland, Port Arthur, and Sour Lake, Texas.
- Phase 4 (Houston Lateral): 78-km (48-mile) Houston Lateral to Houston, Texas, enabling deliveries to the Houston Tank Terminal, refineries, trading hubs and export terminals.

Keystone TSAs

Keystone is supported by 585,000 Bbl/d of committed contracts and 92 per cent of those commitments are with shippers who are either rated investment grade by at least one of S&P or Moody's or whose parent entity is rated investment grade by at least one of S&P or Moody's.

Credit Profile	Volume-Weighted Term (years)	Contract Volume (Bbl/d)
Investment Grade	7.7	540,000
Non-Investment Grade / Not Rated / Unrated	6.8	45,000
Total Contracted Volumes	7.7	585,000

With a volume-weighted remaining contract term of approximately eight years, South Bow expects earnings stability through the short-to-medium term. South Bow has line-of-sight to be able to execute on its high-quality set of growth opportunities, which is expected to further strengthen its competitive position in advance of re-contracting for the long-term. Keystone has the most direct path with the shortest transit times from Hardisty, Alberta, to the U.S. Gulf Coast, providing it with an existing competitive advantage. South Bow will take a focused and diligent approach to identifying, progressing and executing on growth opportunities, which include expanding or extending its premium corridor to add incremental market connections. For these reasons, South Bow believes it will be able to successfully compete for contracts over the long-term.

Marketlink

Marketlink provides crude oil transportation services from Cushing, Oklahoma to the U.S. Gulf Coast, through its lease of capacity on the U.S. Gulf Coast segment of Keystone. Marketlink’s lease payments are calculated in accordance with the lease and based on its proportional share of U.S. Gulf Coast capacity.

Marketlink is complementary to Keystone as it enables increased utilization of U.S. Gulf Coast segment capacity while ensuring Keystone customers maintain their right to capacity, and through the lease, reduces the operating costs for all Keystone customers, enabling South Bow to offer its customers a more competitive toll. Marketlink operates as a common carrier pipeline and is regulated by the FERC.

Port Neches Link

South Bow owns a 74.9 per cent interest in Port Neches Link, a joint venture with Motiva. The 6-km (4-mile), 36-inch, Port Neches Link pipeline is strategically located in a heavily congested area of energy infrastructure enabling last-mile connectivity for Keystone and Marketlink shippers to Motiva’s 630,000 Bbl/d Port Arthur refinery—North America’s largest refinery. The Port Neches pipeline also includes facilities that connect additional liquids terminals in the Port Arthur area to Motiva’s refinery. The Port Neches Link pipeline is a common carrier pipeline regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas.

HoustonLink

South Bow owns a 50 per cent interest in HoustonLink, a joint venture with Magellan Midstream Partners L.P., an affiliate of ONEOK. The 15-km (9-mile), 24-inch HoustonLink pipeline provides a connection between Keystone, Marketlink and ONEOK’s East Houston terminal. HoustonLink is a common carrier pipeline regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas. ONEOK is the operator of HoustonLink.

Terminal Assets

To facilitate the delivery of its customers’ products to key markets, South Bow owns and operates over 7.5 million barrels of crude oil storage at facilities located in Alberta, Oklahoma and Texas. These assets play an important role in the operation and competitiveness of South Bow’s liquids pipelines network and provide South Bow with the opportunity to generate incremental revenue by leasing tank space to customers, providing them with market optionality. Contractual arrangements associated with storage are typically fixed fee, term contracts.

Tank Terminal	Capacity (Bbls)
Hardisty	2.2 million
Cushing	3.3 million
Houston	1.4 million
MacKay & Heartland	0.7 million

Liquids Marketing

South Bow’s liquids marketing business provides customers with a variety of crude oil marketing services, including transportation, storage and logistics, primarily through the purchase and sale of physical crude oil. This business contracts for capacity on South Bow’s assets as well as third-party owned pipelines and tank terminals. The Liquids Marketing team periodically engages in hedging activities to minimize commodity risk exposure by utilizing financial instruments and derivative contracts.

INTRA-ALBERTA PIPELINE SYSTEMS

South Bow currently owns and operates two intra-Alberta pipelines as shown on the map to the right. South Bow’s intra-Alberta pipelines are regulated by the AER.

Grand Rapids Pipeline System

Jointly owned by South Bow and PetroChina Canada Ltd., with a 50 per cent interest each, the 460-km (286-mile), 20-inch Grand Rapids Pipeline System plays a key role in connecting oil sands production to terminals in the Edmonton and Heartland refining and trading hubs.

White Spruce Pipeline System

The 72-km (45-mile), 20-inch White Spruce Pipeline System provides safe transportation and market access for growing volumes of crude oil produced in Alberta’s oil sands region. White Spruce is designed to transport crude oil produced at Canadian Natural Resources Limited’s Horizon Oil Sands Facility in northeast Alberta to Grand Rapids.

Blackrod Connection Project

The Blackrod Connection Project is designed to provide both liquids and natural gas transportation infrastructure to support IPC’s proposed Blackrod Steam Assisted Gravity Drainage facility (the Blackrod Project). South Bow is proposing to develop and build a 25-km (16-mile), 12-inch crude oil pipeline and a 25-km (16-mile), 16-inch natural gas pipeline from the Blackrod Project to the existing Grand Rapids Pipeline System.

Project Status and Expected Timeline

Date	Action
Q3 2023	Engagement commenced.
Q2 2024	Application submitted to AER.
Q2 2024	Subject to regulatory approval, commence site preparatory work.
Q3 2024	Commence facility construction.
Q4 2024	Commence pipeline construction.
2025	Anticipated in-service date.

REGULATION OF THE LIQUIDS PIPELINES BUSINESS

Canada

The CER regulates the terms and conditions of service, including rates, construction and operation of the Canadian portion of Keystone. The CER also subjects liquids pipelines to common carrier obligations. The rates for transportation service on Keystone are calculated in accordance with a methodology agreed to in transportation service agreements between Keystone and its customers, as approved by the CER.

The AER regulates South Bow’s White Spruce and Grand Rapids pipelines and matters related to rates and services by the Alberta Utilities Commission. Rates and services are regulated on a complaint basis.

Rate-regulated accounting is not applicable to South Bow’s liquids pipelines as the regulators’ decisions regarding operations and tolls on the liquids pipeline systems generally do not have an impact on timing of recognition of revenues and expenses.

United States

In the U.S., regulated interstate liquids pipelines are subject to the federal authority of the FERC, PHMSA and various U.S. state authorities. These entities regulate the construction, operation and abandonment of pipeline infrastructure.

The FERC regulates the transportation service of South Bow's liquids pipeline systems and oversees the reasonableness of its tolls. The siting and construction of pipeline facilities are regulated by the specific state regulator in which the pipeline facilities are located.

PHMSA, an agency of the DOT, oversees safety for pipeline construction, operation, and maintenance including the U.S. portion of Keystone.

Liquids pipeline projects that cross federal lands or waters of the U.S. require additional federal permits.

Cross-Border Regulation

Liquids pipelines that cross the international border between Canada and the U.S., such as Keystone, are subject to cross-border regulation. South Bow's cross border activities subject it to regulatory matters, including import and export licenses, tariffs, Canadian and U.S. customs and tax issues and toxic substance certifications. Such regulations include the Short Supply Controls of the Export Administration Act, the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement and the Toxic Substances Control Act. Keystone obtained a Presidential Permit for the construction and operations of Keystone.

BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Dynamic shifts in geopolitical events, government policy changes and various macroeconomic factors continue to impact global crude oil supply and demand balances. While the upstream sector remains focused on balancing capital discipline and growth, South Bow still expects crude oil demand to increase this decade. Over the next 30 years, South Bow expects global demand to grow, driven by world population growth and economic expansion. South Bow believes that North America's crude oil supply, inclusive of the WCSB, is critical to supporting this future demand and that North American crude oil production will remain a robust and important part of the energy mix for decades to come.

SUPPLY OUTLOOK

Canada

Canada has the world's third largest crude oil reserves with over 160 billion barrels of proven and economically recoverable oil. Canada's crude oil reserves are made up of conventional, unconventional and oil sands reserves, with the predominance of the reserves attributable to the oil sands within the WCSB. Production from the WCSB, which is the main supply source for South Bow's assets, was approximately 4.7 million Bbl/d in 2023 and is expected to grow by over 600,000 Bbl/d by 2030.² The oil sands makeup the majority of Canadian crude oil production with 3.2 million Bbl/d in 2023.³ The oil sands are considered a world class supply source given their decades-long reserve life, low base production decline and continuously improving cost and environmental performance. South Bow believes that its assets are well-positioned to capture such production growth from the WCSB.

United States

The U.S. is one of the largest crude oil producing countries in the world, with production exceeding 12.9 million Bbl/d in 2023. The majority of continental U.S. crude oil production is in the form of light tight oil from the Permian, Williston, Eagle Ford and Niobrara basins. U.S. refineries have been optimized through significant capital investments to refine a mix of light and heavy crude oils to produce an optimized refined products slate. With Keystone's connection to key refining and export markets, South Bow believes its assets are well positioned to continue to attract barrels that aggregate at the Cushing, Oklahoma supply hub and utilize Marketlink to reach the U.S. Gulf Coast.

DEMAND OUTLOOK

Global energy demand is forecast to increase over the next 30 years, driven by global population and economic growth; and South Bow expects that crude oil will play a vital role in helping the world meet its energy needs for decades to come.

The U.S. is the primary source of crude oil demand in North America with refining capacity exceeding 18 million Bbl/d. Canada's heavy crude oil production is of strategic importance to the U.S. refining industry. South Bow's assets serve the U.S. Midwest and U.S. Gulf Coast refining markets, PADD 2 and PADD 3, respectively. PADD 2 represents 23 per cent and PADD 3 represents 54 per cent or, in aggregate, 77 per cent, of U.S. refining capacity. Many PADD 2 and PADD 3 refineries are large-scale, complex facilities, with deep conversion capacity for heavy crude oil reached through significant capital investments. These markets are expected to remain globally competitive for decades to come due to their access to low-cost Canadian heavy and U.S. light crude oil, as well as their proximity to abundant low-cost natural gas supply, positioning them to be among the most profitable refineries in the world.

While domestic consumption makes up the predominance of current North American crude oil demand, exports are expected to grow, increasing their proportion of North American crude oil demand out past the end of the decade, driven by growth in emerging markets. Crude oil export from the U.S. Gulf Coast, a market served by our pipelines, is expected to grow from 3.3 million Bbl/d to 4.7 million Bbl/d by the early 2030s.⁴

Given the unique and critical nature of its liquids pipeline network, South Bow believes that its advantageous infrastructure corridor will be useful through even the most aggressive energy transition scenarios. South Bow will seek to augment its connectivity to resilient supply and premium markets to ensure that its business remains stable and is positioned for future growth, even through turbulent markets. In particular, South Bow will examine opportunities to expand its transportation services and extend its pipeline platform to include last-mile delivery connectivity to refineries and terminals with storage and marine export capabilities. South Bow will also focus on leveraging its existing assets and developing new projects to provide optionality for its customers. See Strategic Priorities in this Schedule F.

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

South Bow believes that its liquids pipelines are strategically positioned to provide secure and competitive transportation solutions for growing supplies of WCSB and U.S. crude oil to the U.S. Midwest and Gulf Coast. Supported by long-term contracts generating stable earnings, South Bow believes that its assets will be able to endure the impact of short-term commodity price fluctuations and supply and demand responses.

Within established risk preferences, South Bow will remain committed to:

- optimizing the operational performance and commercial value of existing assets,
- expanding and leveraging existing infrastructure for growth expansions, and
- progressing system operational improvements.

South Bow's assets support cost-effective market access, which has enabled a pivot from large-scale pipeline projects to developing less capital-intensive organic growth projects, with a focus on optimizing and unlocking latent capacity on its existing systems. South Bow will examine opportunities to expand its transportation services and extend its pipeline platform to increase last-mile delivery connectivity to refineries and terminals with storage and marine export capabilities. South Bow will also focus on leveraging its existing assets and developing projects to provide increased optionality for its customers.

A significant aspect of South Bow's strategy is employing a strengthened, customer-centric approach to position its business to remain competitive in a dynamic market. As part of this strategy and its commitment to maintaining customer trust, South Bow carefully scrutinizes variable toll costs and has enacted consistent, frequent, and transparent communications with its customers through targeted events and shipper meetings.

Over the long-term, South Bow believes it has a high-quality set of growth opportunities to unlock the full potential of its premium footprint. South Bow will closely monitor the marketplace for strategic asset acquisitions as well as joint venture or joint tolling opportunities to enhance system connectivity or expand its footprint within North America. South Bow will remain disciplined in its approach and will position its business development activities strategically to capture opportunities within its risk preferences.

CUSTOMER PROFILE

South Bow's customers consist of highly creditworthy and sophisticated vertically integrated companies, refiners, producers and marketers. WCSB producers invest in long-lived supply sources with high initial capital investment but generally low sustaining capital to maintain production. Top oil sands producers share the goal of reducing energy emission intensity to support their asset's sustainability and longevity. Additionally, the long life of South Bow's liquids infrastructure aligns with the nature of the producers and refineries South Bow serves and is a key driver of the long-term contract profile that is unique to its business. South Bow conducts extensive counterparty risk assessments and regularly monitors its customers' financial portfolio to identify and mitigate risks that could materially impact the achievement of its strategic objectives.

THREE-YEAR HISTORY

The following is a summary of significant developments in the Liquids Pipelines business over the past three years:

Recent Developments

South Bow is developing the Blackrod Connection Project, which will consist of a 25-km (16-mile) crude oil pipeline and a 25-km (16-mile) natural gas lateral; and associated facilities to provide crude oil transportation from IPC’s Blackrod Project to South Bow’s Grand Rapids Pipeline System. The expected total capital cost of the project is approximately $250 million with a targeted in-service date in late 2025. The Blackrod Connection Project would be supported by long term committed contracts.

Keystone

Keystone is currently operating at a historically high operating performance, with an operational reliability of 93 per cent in 2023. Through a focus on operational excellence, investments in integrity and reliability projects, as well as innovative improvements, the system has been able to safely transport higher system throughput and increase its toll competitiveness. South Bow will continue to focus on enhancing system operations and continuing to optimize system reliability and performance.

In December 2022, the Milepost 14 incident occurred in Washington County, Kansas on Keystone, releasing 12,937 barrels of crude oil. In October 2023, the clean-up and recovery of all released volumes was completed. South Bow will maintain its commitment to long-term reclamation and environmental monitoring activities. The Separation Agreement will contain an indemnity under which TC Energy may indemnify South Bow from certain liabilities associated with the Milepost 14 incident. See Separation Agreement and Other Arrangements in the body of this Circular, as well as note 20 to the Carve-Out Financial Statements, for more information regarding such indemnification obligations.

A Corrective Action Order was issued by PHMSA in December 2022, and later amended in March 2023. The pipeline is operating subject to the Amended Corrective Action Order, which includes certain operating pressure restrictions. Under the Amended Corrective Action Order, South Bow expects to continue to fulfill its Keystone contract commitments.

A Root Cause Failure Analysis (RCFA) was conducted by an independent third party and was released on April 21, 2023. The RCFA revealed that a unique set of circumstances occurred at the rupture location, which likely originated during construction, with the primary cause of the rupture being a fatigue crack. A comprehensive remedial work plan is being implemented, including the RCFA’s recommendations, to enhance pipeline integrity and safety performance of the system.

In 2019 and 2020, a subset of Keystone customers initiated complaints before the FERC and the CER regarding certain costs within the variable toll calculation. In December 2022, the CER issued a decision which resulted in a one-time adjustment related to previously charged tolls of $38 million. The CER has established a proceeding to consider Keystone’s compliance filing required by the decision regarding the allocation of certain drag reducing agent costs in the variable-toll. In February 2023, the FERC Administrative Law Judge released their initial decision in respect of the complaint and as a result, a one-time pre-tax charge of $57 million was recorded. A final order from the commission of the FERC is expected in 2024. The Separation Agreement will contain an indemnity under which TC Energy may indemnify South Bow from certain liabilities associated with such variable toll disputes. See Separation Agreement and Other Arrangements in the body of this Circular.

Keystone XL

Following the revocation of the 2019 Presidential Permit for Keystone XL in January 2021, and after a comprehensive review of options in consultation with its partner, the Government of Alberta, in June 2021, TC Energy terminated the Keystone XL pipeline project. TC Energy determined that the carrying amount of these assets was no longer fully recoverable and recognized an asset impairment charge, net of expected contractual recoveries and other contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities, of $2.8 billion ($2.1 billion after tax) for the year ending December 31, 2021, a significant portion of which was shared with the Government of Alberta, thereby reducing the net financial impact to TC Energy. After the 2019 Presidential Permit was revoked, construction activities ceased except for certain activities required to clean up and reclaim worksites in adherence with TC Energy's commitment to safety, the environment and its regulatory requirements. Right-of-way clean up and restoration is substantially complete while termination activities will continue through the first half of 2024. TC Energy and South Bow, as applicable, will continue to coordinate with regulators, stakeholders, landowners and Indigenous groups to meet their respective environmental and regulatory commitments.

In November 2021, TC Energy filed a Request for Arbitration to formally initiate a legacy NAFTA claim seeking more than US$15 billion in economic damages resulting from the revocation of the 2019 Presidential Permit. In September 2022, the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes formally constituted a tribunal to hear the Request for Arbitration. In April 2023, the tribunal suspended the proceeding, granting a request from the U.S. Department of State to decide the jurisdictional grounds of the case as a preliminary matter. A hearing on the jurisdictional matter is set to occur in the second quarter of 2024. In April 2023, the Government of Alberta filed its own request for arbitration, which will proceed separately from TC Energy's claim. It is expected that any amounts ultimately recoverable in respect of such claim will be attributable to TC Energy and South Bow on a 90 / 10 split, respectively. See Separation Agreement and Other Arrangements in the body of this Circular.

Northern Courier

In November 2021, TC Energy sold its remaining 15 per cent equity interest in Northern Courier for $35 million in proceeds.

Port Neches Link

In March 2021, TC Energy entered a joint venture with Motiva to construct the Port Neches Link pipeline system. In March 2023, the Port Neches Link pipeline system was placed in service. In December 2023, Motiva exercised its option to increase its equity interest in the joint venture. As a result, subject to the agreed upon post-closing adjustment, South Bow's ownership interest decreased from 95 per cent to 74.9 per cent.

COMPETITIVE CONDITIONS

Competition among liquids pipelines is based primarily on transportation charges, access to producing areas and supply regions and demand for crude oil by end users. Existing third-party owned pipelines in the vicinity of South Bow's operations expose South Bow to competition based on their ability to provide crude oil transportation into similar or unique markets. In areas where new infrastructure is being built or has been built to accommodate new or increased production or changing product flows, South Bow faces competition, as well as risk that egress capacity may be unconstrained until production grows sufficiently or pipelines are retired. Further delays in production growth, higher than anticipated production declines, or lower than expected demand for crude oil could exacerbate these risks, but South Bow believes that its contract terms, tenor and structure of its integrated business model, combined with expected crude oil supply and demand fundamentals, should partially mitigate these risks.

Marketlink serves markets with heightened competition, which puts pressure on its ability to attract and retain volumes and has resulted in downward pressure on margins. As a result of this competition, Marketlink has been granted market-based rate authority by the commission of the FERC and South Bow is able to use this as a tool to compete in this competitive market.

In addition, depending upon the specific movement, pipelines, which generally offer the lowest cost of transportation, may also face competition from other forms of transportation, such as truck, rail and barge. Although these alternative forms of transportation typically have higher costs and are more carbon intensive, they may be able to provide access to alternative markets whereby a higher price may be realized justifying the increased transportation cost.

South Bow also faces competition with respect to its ancillary services, such as storage at terminals. South Bow's ability to offer competitive rates and attractive service attributes are necessary to compete in these markets.

Companies that compete with South Bow include Enbridge Inc., Gibson Energy Inc., Keyera Corp., Pembina Pipeline Corporation, Plains All American Pipeline, L.P., Energy Transfer LP and Enterprise Products Partners L.P.

ECONOMIC CYCLES/SEASONALITY

South Bow's annual revenues are based on contracted and uncontracted transportation service, ancillary services, as well as liquids marketing activities. Quarter-over-quarter revenues and earnings may be affected by:

- regulatory and government policy decisions,
- newly constructed assets being placed in service,
- acquisitions and divestitures,
- demand for uncontracted transportation services,
- liquids marketing activities and commodity prices,
- developments outside of the normal course of operations,
- certain fair value adjustments,
- weather,
- customer demand,
- market demand for crude oil and refined products, and
- planned and unplanned outages.

The long-term contract profile supporting South Bow's business model provides stable tolls for customers and stable revenues for South Bow. The cyclical nature of commodity prices may influence the pace at which customers expand their operations. This can impact the rate of project growth in the liquids industry, the value of services as contracts expire and the timing for the demand of transportation services and/or new liquids infrastructure.

ECONOMIC DEPENDENCE

For the year ended December 31, 2023, four major customers accounted for $838 million, $407 million, $230 million and $220 million in revenues, respectively, each representing more than 10 per cent of total revenues from contracts with customers (2022 – four customers, $775 million, $321 million, $224 million and $205 million; 2021 – four customers, $755 million, $314 million, $224 million and $203 million), or in aggregate, $1,695 million or approximately 80 per cent of total revenues from contracts with customers (2022 - four customers, $1,526 million or approximately 77 per cent; 2021 - four customers, $1,495 million or approximately 74 per cent). See note 5 to the Carve-Out Financial Statements for more information.

CHANGES TO CONTRACTS

The markets served by Marketlink are competitive, requiring South Bow to develop and offer services with attractive attributes at cost competitive levels. South Bow has been recently successful in attracting and retaining customers on Marketlink. However, adverse changes in market circumstances may result in customers with renewal options electing not to renew. Marketlink has contracts that are set to expire in 2024.

HEALTH, SAFETY, SUSTAINABILITY, ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AND SOCIAL POLICIES

Safety and Operational Excellence Committee

South Bow will establish the South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee that will oversee operational risk, major project execution risk, occupational and process safety, sustainability, security of personnel and electronic data, environmental and climate change-related risks, as well as monitoring the development and implementation of systems, programs and policies relating to HSSE matters through regular reporting from management. The Committee will review, monitor, and report on:

- Performance and activities of South Bow on HSSE matters including compliance with applicable and proposed legislation, regulations and orders; conformance with industry standards; people health, safety and security; process safety; asset reliability; operational risk management and asset integrity plans and programs; and emergency response plans and programs.
- Execution of major projects with significant cost, first-of-a kind technology to South Bow, or significant stakeholder complexity.
- Whether the systems, programs and policies are being appropriately developed and effectively implemented.
- Actions and initiatives undertaken by South Bow to prevent, mitigate and manage risks, including climate change-related risks and cyber security-related risks, which may have the potential to adversely impact South Bow's assets, operations, activities, plans, strategies or reputation or prevent loss or injury to South Bow's employees and its assets or operations from malicious acts, natural disasters or other crises situations.

- Critical incidents respecting South Bow's assets or operations involving: a fatality or a life-threatening injury to a person; any pipeline ruptures resulting in significant property damage or loss of product; whistleblower events; or any incidents involving personnel and public safety, property damage, environmental damage or physical security that have the potential to severely and adversely impact South Bow's reputation or business continuity.
- Regulatory audits, findings, orders, reports and/or recommendations issued by or to South Bow together with management's response.
- Sustainability matters, including social, environmental and climate change related risks and opportunities, as well as related public disclosure.

The South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee will also maintain oversight of significant and complex capital and system improvement projects, including the monitoring of prescribed performance criteria. The South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee will host regular sessions, as part of its formal committee meetings, with members of senior management to receive status, cost and notable updates on certain of these capital projects. Management will also provide periodic written updates to the South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee throughout the year.

The South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee will also receive updates on any specific areas of operational and construction risk management review being conducted by management and the results and corrective action plans flowing from internal and third-party audits. Generally, each year the South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee or the Chair of the South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee will tour one of South Bow's existing assets or projects under development as part of its responsibility to monitor and review its HSSE practices. All South Bow Board members will be invited to attend site tours.

Health, Safety and Asset Integrity

Operational Management System

South Bow uses an integrated operational management system (OMS) that establishes a framework for managing risks and is used to capture, organize, document, monitor and improve its related policies, standards and procedures. South Bow's OMS leverages industry consensus standards and incorporates applicable regulatory requirements. The OMS governs health, safety, environment, and operational integrity matters for all South Bow's assets across Canada and the U.S. throughout their lifecycle. The OMS is assessed through periodic audits and evaluations and continually improved through a structured and systematic process.

Safety Management Program

The safety of South Bow's employees, contractors and the public and the integrity of its assets are an enduring core value. All assets were and will continue to be designed, constructed, commissioned, operated and maintained with full consideration given to safety and integrity, and will be placed into service only after all necessary requirements, both regulatory and internal, have been satisfied.

In furtherance of its commitment to protecting the health and safety of all individuals involved in its activities, South Bow consistently seeks to deliver effective programs that:

- reduce the human and financial impact of illness and injury,
- ensure fitness for work,
- strengthen worker resiliency,
- build organizational capacity by focusing on individual wellbeing, health education, leader support and improved working conditions to sustain a productive workforce,
- increase mental wellbeing awareness,
- provide various health and wellness supports and training to employees and leaders,
- measure the success of programs,
- improve psychological safety, and
- foster a positive safety culture by embracing human and organizational performance, which emphasizes understanding the systemic factors contributing to workplace incidents unlike traditional models that often pinpoint human error as the primary cause of such events.

Emergency Management Program

South Bow has implemented an Emergency Management Program to provide a consistent and comprehensive approach to emergency preparedness, business continuity, and emergency response within South Bow. South Bow has also implemented standard emergency response protocols which align to the Incident Command System. To maintain a high level of readiness, South Bow utilizes a common organizational framework for emergency response and provides initial and ongoing response training for all relevant personnel. South Bow believes it has the physical resources required to manage a response of any size or scope and works closely with industry-leading response contractors and maintains a fleet of company-owned response equipment located in strategic caches along its system footprint. South Bow's business maintains multi-layer response plans that support site-specific planning and industry best practices to support a coordinated and effective response. South Bow routinely exercises these plans and holds realistic drills, often in collaboration with local response agencies and communities, to hone the skills of its personnel and test its protocols to ensure it is prepared for an incident. If South Bow responds to an actual incident, it hosts meaningful after-action assessments to support a culture of learning and continuous improvement.

Internal Root Cause Analysis

South Bow also has an internal root cause analysis process to collect learnings from minor events that would not receive a formal investigation as part of the Emergency Management Program and incorporate the learnings into procedures and work practices. Process safety events are classified based on the potential to escalate from a minor incident to something more severe or a repetitive pattern of small-scale incidents. High-potential process safety events are reviewed by leadership, driving actions and innovative solutions that go beyond repair and replacement to permanent improvements.

Pipeline and Facility Integrity

An integral component of South Bow's safety culture is its focus on pipeline and facility integrity, which is critical to managing the loss of containment risk that can have drastic consequences on life, property, and the environment. South Bow maintains a core pipe integrity team with subject matter expertise to ensure that it is positioned to proactively respond to emerging integrity threats along its pipelines and at pump stations and terminals. South Bow also fosters a culture of continuous learning and improvement, which seeks to develop new technologies, while reviewing, adjusting, and implementing program advancements.

South Bow expects pipeline integrity spending to fluctuate based on the results of on-going risk assessments conducted on its pipeline systems and evaluations of information obtained from recent inspections, incidents and maintenance activities. Pipeline and facility integrity expenditures are primarily recovered through a flow-through tolling mechanism. Spending associated with process safety and integrity will be used to minimize risk to employees, contractors, the public, equipment and the surrounding environment, and also prevent disruptions to serving the energy needs of South Bow's customers.

Environmental Risk, Compliance and Liabilities

Through the implementation of OMS, South Bow proactively and systematically manages environmental hazards and risks throughout the lifecycle of its assets. South Bow expects that its primary sources of risk related to the environment will include:

- changing regulations and requirements coupled with increased costs related to impacts on the environment,
- product releases, including crude oil and diluent, which may cause harm to the environment (land, water and air),
- use, storage and disposal of chemicals and hazardous materials, and
- natural disasters and other catastrophic events that may impact South Bow's operations.

South Bow's assets are subject to federal, state, provincial and local environmental statutes and regulations governing environmental protection, including air and GHG emissions, water quality, species at risk, wastewater discharges and waste management. Monitoring and reporting programs for environmental performance in day-to-day operations and project development, as well as inspections and assessments, are designed to provide assurance that environmental and regulatory standards are met.

Operating South Bow's assets requires obtaining and complying with a wide variety of environmental regulations, licenses, permits and other approvals and requirements. Failure to comply could result in administrative, civil or criminal penalties, remedial requirements, or orders affecting future operations. The OMS includes requirements for South Bow to continually monitor its facilities for compliance with all material legal and regulatory environmental requirements across all jurisdictions where it operates. South Bow complies with all material legal and regulatory permitting requirements in its project routing and development. South Bow routinely monitors proposed changes to environmental policy, legislation and regulation. Where the risks are uncertain or have the potential to affect South Bow's ability to effectively operate its business, South Bow comments on proposals independently or through industry associations.

Other than orders and claims relating to the Milepost 14 incident, South Bow is not aware of any material outstanding orders, claims or lawsuits against it related to releasing or discharging any material into the environment or in connection with environmental protection. The Separation Agreement will contain an indemnity under which TC Energy may indemnify South Bow from certain liabilities associated with the Milepost 14 incident. See Separation Agreement and Other Arrangements in the body of this Circular.

Compliance obligations can result in significant costs associated with installing and maintaining pollution controls, fines and penalties resulting from any failure to comply and potential limitations on operations. Remediation obligations can result in significant costs associated with the investigation and remediation of contaminated properties, and with damage claims arising from the contamination of properties. The timing and complete extent of future expenditures related to environmental matters is difficult to estimate accurately because:

- environmental laws and regulations and their interpretations and enforcement change,
- new claims can be brought against South Bow's existing or discontinued assets,
- South Bow's pollution control and clean-up cost estimates may change, especially when its current estimates are based on preliminary site investigations or agreements,
- new contaminated sites may be found or what South Bow knows about existing sites could change, and
- where there is potentially more than one responsible party involved in litigation, South Bow cannot estimate its joint and several liability with certainty.

Social Policies

Code of Business Ethics

South Bow has adopted a Code of Business Ethics (COBE), which applies to all employees, officers and directors, and contractors of South Bow and its wholly-owned subsidiaries and operated entities in countries where it conducts business, with the exception of independently operated entities whose corporate governance documents meet or exceed South Bow's requirements. Annual online COBE training is provided to all employees and contractors, and all employees and contractors (including executive officers) and directors are required to certify their compliance with COBE annually.

Avoiding Bribery and Corruption Program

South Bow has also adopted an Avoiding Bribery and Corruption Program, which includes an Avoiding Bribery and Corruption Policy, annual online training included as part of annual online COBE training, instructor-led training provided to personnel in higher risk areas of its business, a supplier and contractor due diligence review process, and auditing of certain types of transactions.

Stakeholder Engagement

South Bow is proud of the relationships it has built with stakeholders and rightsholders across North America and believes that these relationships are critical to its success. South Bow's approach to engagement with Indigenous groups, landowners and other stakeholders who may be affected by South Bow's activities is guided by a principled approach that considers the foundations of respect, trust and honesty. South Bow strives to engage early and often – and this means listening, providing accurate information and responding to interests in a prompt and consistent manner.

Acknowledging the unique rights of Indigenous Peoples, including rights to their Traditional, Treaty, and Tribal lands, South Bow has developed an Indigenous Relations Program. South Bow seeks to listen to Indigenous Peoples and incorporate their traditional and local knowledge in project design and planning. South Bow provides cultural competency training to employees to enhance understanding for Indigenous cultures. South Bow seeks to establish partnerships and collaborate by supporting community driven development and initiatives that contribute to the wellbeing and sustainability of Indigenous communities.

South Bow also employs programs that direct how it engages with other stakeholders including landowners, communities and governments. South Bow works to understand and mitigate the complexity of sustainability issues, and the interconnectivity of these issues as they relate to its business. These matters are of great importance to Indigenous groups and stakeholders and have an impact on South Bow's ability to build and operate energy infrastructure.

SPECIALIZED SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE

All aspects of South Bow's business require specialized skills and knowledge. Such skills and knowledge include the areas of pipeline and facility design, engineering, construction and operations; energy market fundamentals; law and regulation; and commercial operations and negotiations. South Bow relies upon its management, employees and various consultants for such expertise in addition to new hires as they are required for the operation and management of South Bow's business. South Bow is committed to enabling opportunities for employees to develop and maintain the necessary skills and knowledge required to effectively perform their roles with South Bow.

EMPLOYEES

Upon the completion of the Arrangement, it is expected that South Bow and its subsidiaries will have a total of approximately 600 employees. The South Bow Board will evaluate on an ongoing basis the leadership expertise and skills required to meet South Bow's goals.

RISK FACTORS

Below are certain risk factors relating to South Bow that shareholders should carefully consider in connection with and following the Arrangement. The following information is a summary of only certain risk factors and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and must be read in conjunction with, the detailed information that appears elsewhere in or is incorporated by reference into this Circular. Additional risk factors relating to South Bow in connection with the Arrangement are set out in the body of this Circular under the heading Risk Factors Relating to the Arrangement. Reference should also be made to the risk factors relevant to the Liquids Pipelines business included in the TC Energy Annual MD&A, which is incorporated by reference herein.

Risks Relating to the Arrangement

Risks Relating to Achieving the Expected Benefits of the Arrangement

TC Energy believes that South Bow, as an independent, publicly-traded company, will be able to, among other things, better focus its financial and operational resources on the Liquids Pipelines business, pursue independent growth strategies and provide the Liquids Pipelines business with growth opportunities that may not be available to it as part of TC Energy's consolidated business. However, by separating from TC Energy, South Bow may be more susceptible to market fluctuations and may experience other adverse events. In addition, South Bow may be unable to achieve some or all of the benefits that it expects to achieve as a separate company in the time expected, if at all. The completion of the Arrangement and post-closing activities related thereto will also require significant amounts of South Bow's management's time and effort, which may divert management's attention from operating and growing South Bow's business.

Transition Services Risks

Following the completion of the Arrangement, South Bow will need to provide internally or obtain from unaffiliated third parties some of the services which the entities holding the Liquids Pipelines business currently receive from TC Energy or from third parties pursuant to agreements with third parties, notwithstanding and further to the provision of transitional services and facilities by TC Energy and its Affiliates to South Bow and its Affiliates pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement. South Bow may be unable to replace these services in a timely manner or on terms and conditions as favourable as those received from TC Energy or as favourable as TC Energy receives from third parties. South Bow may be unable to successfully establish the infrastructure or implement the changes necessary to operate independently or may incur additional costs. If South Bow fails to obtain the services necessary to operate effectively or if it incurs greater costs in obtaining these services, South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

Risks Relating to Carve-Out Financial Statements

South Bow derived the historical financial information included in this Circular on a carve-out basis from TC Energy's consolidated financial statements, and this information does not necessarily reflect the results of operations and financial position South Bow would have achieved as a separate publicly-traded company during the periods presented or those that South Bow will achieve in the future. This is primarily because of the following factors:

- Prior to the completion of the Arrangement, the operations of the Liquids Pipelines business were part of the operations of TC Energy's broader corporate organization. South Bow's historical financial information reflects allocations of corporate expenses from TC Energy for administrative and similar functions. These allocations may not reflect the costs South Bow will incur for similar services in the future as a standalone publicly-traded company.
- South Bow's historical financial information does not reflect changes that South Bow expects to experience in the future as a result of its separation from TC Energy, including changes in South Bow's cost structure, personnel needs, tax structure, financing and business operations. The entities holding the Liquids Pipelines business enjoyed certain benefits from TC Energy's operating diversity, size, borrowing leverage and available capital for investments, which may not be available to South Bow after the completion of the Arrangement. As a separate entity, South Bow may be unable to purchase services and technologies or access capital markets on terms as favourable as those obtained by the entities holding the Liquids Pipelines business as part of TC Energy prior to the completion of the Arrangement.

Following the completion of the Arrangement, South Bow will also be responsible for the additional costs associated with being a publicly-traded company, including costs related to corporate governance, investor and public relations and public reporting. South Bow and TC Energy are expected to enter into the Transition Services Agreement for the provision of certain transitional services and facilities between the parties thereto for which South Bow will be required to pay certain costs. Certain costs incurred by TC Energy, including executive oversight, accounting, treasury, tax, legal, human resources, occupancy, information technology and other shared services, have historically been allocated to the Liquids Pipelines business by TC Energy; but these allocations may not reflect the future level of these costs as South Bow begins to source these services itself. Therefore, the Carve-Out Financial Statements may not be indicative of South Bow's future performance as a separate, publicly-traded company. South Bow will not be able to provide assurance that its operating results will continue at a similar level when South Bow is a separate publicly-traded company. For additional information about South Bow's past financial performance and the basis of presentation of the financial statements, see the Carve-Out Financial Statements and the notes thereto included in this Circular.

Risks Relating to Accessing Capital Markets

From time to time South Bow may need to access the capital markets to obtain long-term and short-term financing. As of the date of this Circular, South Bow has not previously accessed the capital markets, and South Bow's access to, and the availability of, financing on acceptable terms and conditions in the future will be impacted by many factors, including South Bow's business prospects and financial performance, its credit ratings or absence thereof, the liquidity of the overall capital markets and the state of the economy. South Bow will not be able to provide assurance that it will have access to the capital markets at the times and in the amounts needed or on terms acceptable to it.

Risks Relating to Operating as Stand-Alone Entity

Upon the Arrangement becoming effective, it is expected that South Bow will become an independent public company. The operating history of TC Energy in respect of the Liquids Pipelines business cannot be regarded as the operating history of South Bow. The ability of South Bow to raise capital, satisfy its obligations and provide a return to its shareholders will be dependent on future performance. It will not be able to rely on the capital resources and cash flows of TC Energy.

Risks Relating to Pre-Emptive Rights.

Certain of South Bow's assets, rights and interests, some of which may be material to its business, are subject to rights of first refusal, rights of first offer and other pre-emptive rights of purchase that may be triggered by the consummation of the Arrangement. In such event, third parties would be entitled to acquire the applicable assets, rights and interests on the terms set forth in the applicable agreement between South Bow and the third party. Any such exercise of such rights could have a negative impact on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks Relating to the Business of South Bow

Risks Relating to Operating the Liquids Pipelines

The transportation of crude oil involves numerous risks, which if materialized may result in incidents or otherwise adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of South Bow. There are a variety of hazards and operating risks inherent in the transportation and storage of crude oil, including: releases; underperformance or failure of equipment, pipelines and facilities (including as a result of internal or external corrosion, cracking, third party damage, material defects, operator error or outside forces), information systems or processes; the compromise of information and control systems; the performance of equipment at levels below those originally intended (whether due to misuse, ordinary course "wear and tear", unexpected degradation or design, construction or manufacturing defects); failure to maintain adequate supplies of spare parts; labour disputes; disputes with interconnected facilities; operational disruptions, including force majeure events, which may prevent the full utilization of the liquids pipeline systems; and catastrophic events, including, but not limited to, natural disasters, fires, floods, droughts, explosions, earthquakes, acts of terrorism and sabotage, cyber security breaches and other similar events, many of which are beyond the control of South Bow and all of which could result in damage to assets, related spills or other environmental issues and operational disruptions. South Bow may also be exposed, from time to time, to other operational risks in addition to the foregoing.

The occurrence or continuance of any of the risks described above could result in serious injury and loss of human life, significant damage to property and natural resources, environmental pollution, significant reputational damage to South Bow and its business, impairment or suspension of operations, fines or other regulatory penalties, costs associated with responding to an investigation or enforcement action brought by a governmental agency, and revocation of regulatory approvals or imposition of new requirements, any of which could materially adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition or results of operations. For sections of any of the liquids pipelines that are located near populated areas, including residential areas, commercial business centers, industrial sites and other public gathering areas, the level of damage resulting from these risks may be greater.

Risks Related to Crude Oil Supply and Demand

South Bow's liquids pipelines, terminals and other assets and facilities, including the availability of expansion opportunities, depend in part on continued production of crude oil in the markets that they serve. Without development of crude oil reserves, production will decline over time as reserves are depleted. Producers in areas served by South Bow may not be successful in exploring for and developing additional reserves or their costs of doing so may become uneconomic. Commodity prices and tax incentives may not remain at levels that encourage producers to explore for and develop additional reserves or produce existing reserves, which may lead to non-renewal or modification of transportation contracts as they expire. South Bow's business also depends in part on the levels of demand for crude oil in the markets in which the liquids pipelines, terminals and other facilities deliver or provide service. Decreases in the supply of or demand for crude oil could adversely impact the utilization of South Bow's assets. Changes in supply and demand for crude oil could also adversely impact the price of crude oil that producers receive for their product, which may result in a commensurate reduction in South Bow's revenues, earnings and cash flows.

Given that crude oil is a global commodity, demand can also be significantly influenced by global market conditions, particularly in key consumption markets such as the United States and China, domestic and foreign political conditions and governmental or regulatory actions (including restrictions on the import or export of crude oil). Decreases in demand for crude oil, whether at a global level or in geographic areas South Bow's assets serve, can negatively affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Economic disruptions, such as those which occurred during the COVID-19 pandemic, or conditions in the business environment generally, such as declining or sustained low commodity prices, supply disruptions, or higher development or production costs, could result in a slowing of supply to South Bow's liquids pipelines, terminals and other assets. Also, sustained lower demand for hydrocarbons, or changes in the regulatory environment or applicable governmental policies, including in relation to climate change or other environmental concerns, may have a negative impact on the supply of crude oil and other products. In recent years, a number of initiatives and regulatory changes relating to reducing GHG emissions have been undertaken by federal, provincial, state and municipal governments and crude oil and gas industry participants. In addition, public concern about the potential risks posed by climate change has resulted in increased demand for energy efficiency and a transition to energy provided from renewable energy sources rather than fossil fuels, fuel-efficient alternatives such as hybrid and electric vehicles, and pursuit of other technologies to reduce GHG emissions, such as carbon capture and sequestration. There has been and may be further intensification of these trends if and to the extent that federal, provincial, state and/or municipal governments enact further energy and environmental policies related to climate change.

Each of the foregoing could negatively impact South Bow's business directly, as well as its customers, which in turn could negatively impact South Bow's prospects for new contracts, or renewals of existing contracts or the ability of South Bow's customers to honor their contractual commitments. Furthermore, such unfavourable conditions may compound the adverse effects of larger disruptions such as geopolitical conditions and global pandemics.

South Bow cannot predict the impact of future economic conditions, fuel conservation measures, alternative fuel requirements, governmental regulation or technological advances in fuel economy and energy generation devices, all of which could reduce the development of and/or demand for South Bow's services.

Risks Related to the Competitive Industry

Competition is a factor affecting South Bow's existing businesses and its ability to secure new project opportunities. To the extent that any current or future pipeline system or other form of transportation (such as barge, rail or truck) that delivers crude oil into or from the markets that South Bow serves, at rates or service attributes more desirable than those provided by South Bow, it may result in unutilized capacity. Likewise, to the extent that competing terminals or other storage options offer services at rates or service attributes more desirable than South Bow, it may result in reduced demand for South Bow's services. If capacity on South Bow's assets remains unused, its ability to re-contract for expiring capacity at favourable rates or otherwise retain existing customers could be impaired. Additionally, competition from alternative energy sources may have an adverse effect on the demand for, and production of, the liquids transported and stored by South Bow, which may reduce the demand for South Bow's services. Competition in all of South Bow's businesses, including competition for growth and business opportunities, could have a negative impact on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

Reliance on Principal Customers

South Bow transports and stores crude oil for several large customers within its areas of operations. In particular, South Bow had four major customers that accounted for $838 million, $407 million, $230 million and $220 million in revenues in 2023, respectively, each representing more than 10 per cent of total revenues from contracts with customers. See Economic Dependence and Description of the Business – Customer Profile in this Schedule F. If for any reason any of such parties are unable to perform their obligations under the various agreements with South Bow, or if any of such parties terminate or do not renew their contractual arrangements with South Bow on favourable terms, its business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Reliance on Other Facilities and Third-Party Services

Certain of South Bow's terminals and pipelines are dependent upon their interconnections with other terminals and pipelines and facilities owned and operated by third parties to reach end markets. Risks may be created as a result of: differences in pressures; specifications or capacities which affect operations; planned and unplanned outages or curtailments at third-party facilities that restrict deliveries; and measurement and component balancing errors affecting product deliveries. South Bow is unable to control operations, events, decisions, regulatory actions or public perceptions with respect to third-party assets and facilities, making the mitigation of these risks challenging. Although South Bow employs strategies to assist in mitigating these risks, including having multiple connections, service arrangements or transportation alternatives available in order to provide flexibility during curtailments or interruptions, there is no assurance such strategies will be effective. Where such alternatives are not available or are not effective, South Bow's operations may be significantly affected.

Risks Relating to Leases and Rights of Way Access

Certain of South Bow's assets and associated infrastructure are located on lands leased or licensed from third parties and such leases and licenses may need to be renewed from time to time. If leases or licenses are unable to be renewed on terms acceptable to South Bow, it could result in additional costs or impacts to operations related to such leases or licenses. Certain of South Bow's leases include provisions to mitigate against such adverse outcomes. Successful development of new pipelines or extensions to existing pipelines depends in part on securing leases, easements, rights-of-way, permits and/or licenses from landowners or governmental authorities allowing access for such purposes. The process of securing rights-of-way or similar access is becoming more complex, particularly in more densely populated, environmentally sensitive and other areas. The inability to secure such rights-of-way or similar access could adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Throughput Risks

South Bow's pipeline revenue is based on a variety of transportation arrangements. As a result, certain pipeline revenue is dependent upon throughput levels of crude oil. Future throughput will be dependent upon the activities of producers operating in service areas as they relate to exploiting their existing reserve bases and exploring for and developing additional reserves, and technological improvements leading to increased recovery rates. Without reserve additions, or expansion of the service areas, volumes on such pipelines would decline over time as reserves are depleted. As crude oil reserves are depleted, production costs may increase relative to the value of the remaining reserves in place, causing producers to shut-in production or seek out lower cost alternatives for transportation. If, as a result, the level of tolls collected by South Bow decreases, South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Customer Contracts

Throughput on South Bow's pipelines is governed by numerous transportation contracts or tolling arrangements of varying durations with a range of third parties. Any default by counterparties under such contracts or any expiration or early termination of such contracts or tolling arrangements without renewal or replacement on favourable terms may have an adverse effect on South Bow's business and results of operations. In particular, a significant proportion of Keystone's contracts expire in 2031. There is no guarantee that any of the contracts that South Bow currently has in place will be renewed at the end of their term, including on terms favourable to South Bow, or replaced with other contracts on favourable terms in the event of early termination.

Risks Related to South Bow's Reputation with Key Stakeholders

Reputational risk is the risk that potential market events or events specific to South Bow, or other factors, could result in the deterioration of South Bow's reputation with key stakeholders, including Indigenous peoples and governmental authorities. The potential for harming South Bow's reputation exists in every business decision of South Bow and all risks can have an impact on reputation, which, in turn, can negatively impact South Bow's business. Reputational risk cannot be managed in isolation from other forms of risk. Credit, market, operational, insurance, liquidity, regulatory and legal, and technology risks, among others, must all be managed effectively to safeguard South Bow's reputation. South Bow's reputation could also be impacted by the actions and activities of other companies operating in the energy industry, particularly other energy infrastructure providers, over which South Bow has no control. In particular, South Bow's reputation could be adversely impacted by negative publicity related to pipeline incidents, unpopular expansion plans or new projects and due to opposition from organizations opposed to pipeline and energy development. Further, South Bow's reputation could be negatively impacted by changing public attitudes towards climate change and the perceived causes thereof, including the role played by companies in the industry in which South Bow operates. Public opinion may be influenced by certain media and special interest groups' negative portrayal of the industry in which South Bow operates as well as their opposition to future development projects. Negative impacts from a compromised reputation, whether as a result of South Bow's actions or otherwise, could adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations and reduce South Bow's access to capital.

Risks Related to the Impact of Non-Governmental Organizations on South Bow's Operations

South Bow's operations will at times be subject to public opposition which could expose it to the risk of higher costs, delays or even project cancellations due to increasing pressure on governments and regulatory bodies by special interest groups, including Indigenous groups, landowners, environmental interest groups (including those opposed to oil and gas production and transportation operations) and other non-governmental organizations, blockades, legal or regulatory actions or challenges, increased regulatory oversight, reduced support of the federal, provincial, state or municipal governments, and delays in, challenges to, or the revocation of, regulatory approvals, permits or land access agreements. There is no guarantee that South Bow will be able to satisfy the concerns of governmental agencies, courts and non-governmental organizations and attempting to address such concerns may require South Bow to incur significant costs and/or delay its operating activities, which could adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks Related to Regulatory Regimes

South Bow and its liquids pipelines are subject to regulation and oversight by various regulatory authorities. Regulatory actions taken by these agencies have the potential to adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of South Bow. Regulation affects most aspects of South Bow's business and extends to such matters as: (a) the integrity, safety and security of facilities and operations; (b) the acquisition, extension, disposition or abandonment of services or facilities; (c) reporting and information posting requirements; and (d) the maintenance of accounts and records.

Should South Bow fail to comply with any applicable statutes, rules, regulations or orders of such regulatory authorities, South Bow could be subject to substantial penalties and fines and potential revocation of permits. Furthermore, new laws or regulations, or different interpretations of existing laws or regulations, including unexpected policy changes, applicable to South Bow or its liquids pipelines could have a material adverse impact on the business, financial condition and results of operations of South Bow.

Risks Related to HSSE Laws and Regulations

The operations of South Bow are subject to federal, state, provincial and local laws and regulations, as well as other obligations, relating to sustainability and the protection or preservation of the environment (including with respect to climate change), natural resources and human health and safety. Such laws, regulations and obligations affect many aspects of South Bow's present and future operations, and generally require South Bow to obtain and comply with various environmental registrations, licenses, permits, inspections and other approvals. Liability under such laws and regulations may be incurred without regard to fault for the remediation of contaminated areas. Private parties, including the owners of properties through which South Bow's liquids pipelines pass, may also have the right to pursue legal actions to enforce compliance, as well as to seek damages for non-compliance with such laws and regulations or for personal injury or property damage.

Failure to comply with these laws and regulations may also expose South Bow to civil, criminal and administrative fines, penalties and/or interruptions in operations that could impact the business, financial condition and results of operations of South Bow. For example, if an accidental release of crude oil or other hazardous substances occurs at or from any of the liquids pipelines or connected facilities or systems, South Bow may experience significant operational disruptions and may be required to incur a significant amount of costs in order to clean up or otherwise respond to the leak, release or spill, pay government penalties, address natural resource damage, compensate for human exposure, property damage or economic loss, install costly pollution control equipment, operate at a reduced capacity/operating pressure or undertake a combination of these and other measures. The resulting costs and liabilities could materially adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

An environmental incident could have lasting reputational impacts to South Bow and could impact its ability to work with various stakeholders. In addition to the cost of remediation activities (to the extent not covered by insurance), environmental incidents may lead to an increased cost of operating and insuring the liquids pipelines, thereby adversely impacting South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

South Bow cannot ensure that existing HSSE laws and regulations will not be revised or that new laws or regulations (including those relating to GHG emissions) will not be adopted or become applicable to its business. There can be no assurance as to the amount or timing of future expenditures for environmental compliance or remediation, and actual future expenditures may be different from the amounts currently anticipated. Revised or additional laws or regulations that result in increased compliance costs or additional operating restrictions could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In particular, certain federal, provincial and/or state governments have made combatting climate change arising from GHG emissions a priority and have undertaken and may continue to undertake various regulatory initiatives that could curtail crude oil transportation. Potential examples include laws, rules, executive orders or regulations relating to the permitting of pipeline infrastructure and further restrictions on GHG emissions from oil and gas facilities. Any new laws, executive orders or regulations, or changes to or interpretations of existing laws or regulations, adverse to South Bow could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Decommissioning, Abandonment and Reclamation Costs

South Bow is responsible for compliance with all applicable laws and regulations regarding the decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation of South Bow's facilities and pipelines at the end of their economic life. In Canada, the CER requires pipeline companies under its jurisdiction to have a set-aside mechanism in place to adequately fund pipeline abandonment. These costs are estimated and approved by the CER, and subject to periodic changes. To meet this requirement, South Bow collects an abandonment surcharge from customers that funds a trust held exclusively for the purpose of abandonment. South Bow may, in the future, be required by applicable laws or regulations to post security or establish and fund one or more decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation reserve funds in other jurisdictions to provide for payment of future decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation costs, which among other things may impact South Bow's ability to execute its business plan.

Risks Related to Regulations Governing the Safety and Integrity of South Bow's Liquids Pipelines

South Bow and its liquids pipelines are subject to extensive laws and regulations related to pipeline safety and integrity at the federal, provincial and state levels. There are, for example, regulations issued by PHMSA for pipeline operators in the areas of design, operations, integrity testing, repairs, qualification and training, emergency response, control room management, and public awareness. South Bow expects the costs of compliance with these regulations, including integrity management rules, will be substantial. The majority of compliance costs relate to pipeline integrity testing and repairs and reconfirmation of the maximum allowable operating pressure on South Bow's liquids pipelines. South Bow plans to continue its integrity testing programs to assess and maintain the integrity of its existing and future liquids pipelines as required by PHMSA rules. Repairs or upgrades deemed necessary to address results of integrity assessments and other testing and/or ensure the continued safe and reliable operation of South Bow's liquids pipelines and related facilities could cause South Bow to incur significant and unanticipated capital and operating expenditures. Such expenditures will vary depending on the number of repairs determined to be necessary as a result of integrity assessments and other testing. South Bow also expects to increase expenditures in the future to comply with PHMSA regulations.

Further, additional laws and regulations that may be enacted in the future or a new interpretation of existing laws and regulations could significantly increase the amount of these expenditures. Pipeline safety regulations or changes to such regulations may require additional leak detection, reporting, the replacement of some of South Bow's liquids pipeline segments, the addition of monitoring equipment and more frequent monitoring and inspection or testing of its pipeline facilities. Repair, remediation, and preventative or mitigating actions may require significant capital and operating expenditures. Pipeline safety regulation has increased over time and existing obligations may increase with new proposed rules that are currently under consideration. In the U.S., the reauthorization of the U.S. Pipeline Safety Act could further expand PHMSA's current rulemaking agenda and statutory authority in certain areas, including those related to pipeline leak detection and repair and inspection and maintenance requirements for idled pipelines. There can be no assurance as to the amount or timing of future expenditures for pipeline safety and integrity regulation, and actual future expenditures may be different from the amounts South Bow currently anticipates. Revised or additional regulations that result in increased compliance costs or additional operating restrictions, particularly if those costs are not deemed by regulators to be fully recoverable from customers, could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks Relating to Expansion of Existing Assets and Construction of New Assets

South Bow may undertake construction projects to expand its existing assets and to construct new assets. New growth projects generally will be subject to, among other things: the receipt of regulatory approvals; feasibility and cost analyses; funding availability; industry, market and demand conditions; inflation; availability of labour, material and equipment; Indigenous and other stakeholder consultation; environmental considerations; performance of third parties; acts of civil disobedience, terrorism or sabotage; weather conditions; and costs of engineering and other third party services. These and a variety of other factors outside of South Bow's control, such as difficulties or delays in obtaining rights-of-way and permits or other regulatory approvals, have caused, and may continue to cause, delays in or cancellations of South Bow's construction projects. Regulatory authorities may modify their permitting policies in ways that disadvantage South Bow's construction projects and may also expand existing regulatory requirements, including through increased Indigenous and other stakeholder consultation requirements. Such factors can be exacerbated by, among other things, political and public opposition to South Bow's projects, including as a consequence of, or relating to, sustainability-related considerations and operational incidents involving energy infrastructure providers. Inclement weather, natural disasters and delays in performance and underperformance by third-party contractors have also resulted in, and may continue to result in, increased costs or delays in construction. In addition, South Bow may experience increasing costs for construction materials. Significant increases in costs of construction materials, cost overruns or delays, or South Bow's inability to obtain a required permit or right-of-way, could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's return on investment, results of operations and cash flows, and could result in project cancellations or limit South Bow's ability to pursue other growth opportunities.

The success of such assets is, to some extent, dependent on the effectiveness of the business relationship and decision-making among South Bow and other joint owners. It may not be possible for South Bow to obtain the required levels of approval from co-owners of facilities for future proposals for capital expenditures, which may adversely affect South Bow's ability to expand or improve its existing facilities. Further, if a joint owner were to become insolvent, regulators may require South Bow to assume such joint owner's obligations and South Bow may face operational challenges during any insolvency proceedings, resulting in additional costs. Such events could impact operations or cash flows of these assets or cause them to not operate as South Bow expects which could, in turn, have a negative impact on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, agreements for joint ownership often contain restrictions on transferring an interest in a facility, including consent requirements and rights of first refusal. Such provisions may restrict South Bow's ability to transfer its interests in facilities or to acquire a joint venture owner's interest in facilities, and may also restrict South Bow's ability to maximize the value of a sale of its interest. Shareholders are further advised that the consummation of the Arrangement may trigger certain rights of first refusal, rights of first offer and other pre-emptive rights of purchase in respect of South Bow's assets, rights and interests. See Risks Relating to Pre-Emptive Rights under the heading Risks Relating to the Arrangement in this Schedule F.

Risks Related to Tariffs Imposed by Regulators

South Bow's U.S. liquids pipelines are subject to regulation by various federal regulatory agencies, including the FERC under the ICA. The ICA requires that tariff rates and terms and conditions of service for liquids pipelines be just and reasonable and not unduly discriminatory. South Bow is also subject to the Pipeline Safety Regulations of the DOT.

For South Bow's liquids pipelines subject to FERC regulation under the ICA, shippers may protest South Bow's pipeline tariff filings or file complaints against its existing rates or complaints alleging that South Bow is engaging in discriminatory behaviour. The FERC can also investigate on its own initiative. Under certain circumstances, the FERC could limit South Bow's ability to set rates based on its costs, or could order South Bow to reduce its rates and could require the payment of reparations to complaining shippers for up to two years prior to the complaint.

South Bow intends to routinely monitor the public filings and proceedings of other parties with the FERC and other regulatory agencies in an effort to identify issues that could potentially impact its business. Under certain circumstances South Bow may choose to intervene in such third-party proceedings in order to express its support for, or opposition to, various issues raised by the parties to such proceedings. Despite such efforts, South Bow can provide no assurance that the FERC and other agencies that regulate its business will not issue future orders or declarations that increase its costs or otherwise adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

South Bow's Canadian liquids pipelines are subject to regulation by the CER and by provincial authorities. Under the Canadian Energy Regulator Act, the CER could investigate the tariff rates or the terms and conditions of service relating to a jurisdictional pipeline on its own initiative upon the filing of a toll or tariff application, or upon the filing of a written complaint. If the CER found the rates or terms of service relating to such pipeline to be unjust and unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory, the CER could require South Bow to change its rates, provide access to other shippers, or change its terms of service. A provincial authority such as the AER could, on the application of a customer or other interested party, investigate the tariff rates or South Bow's terms and conditions of service relating to its provincially-regulated pipelines. If it found South Bow's rates or terms of service to be contrary to statutory requirements, the AER or other applicable provincial authority could impose conditions it considers appropriate. A provincial authority could declare a pipeline to be a common carrier pipeline, and require South Bow to change its rates, provide access to other shippers, or otherwise alter its terms of service. Any reduction in South Bow's tariff rates would result in lower revenue.

Risks Related to Cross-Border Regulation

The Keystone Pipeline crosses the international border between Canada and the U.S. and is subject to cross-border regulation.

South Bow's cross border activities subject it to regulatory matters, including import and export licenses, tariffs, Canadian and U.S. customs and tax issues and toxic substance certifications. Such regulations include the Short Supply Controls of the Export Administration Act, the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement and the Toxic Substances Control Act. Violations of these licensing, tariff and tax reporting requirements could result in the imposition of significant administrative, civil and criminal penalties. Furthermore, the Presidential Permit applicable to the Keystone Pipeline that allows cross-border movements of crude oil may be revoked or terminated at any time.

Risks Related to Hedging Activities

South Bow enters into pipeline and storage terminal capacity contracts as well as crude oil purchase and sale agreements. South Bow fixes a portion of the exposure on these contracts by entering into financial instruments as a hedge to manage price volatility, interest rate and foreign exchange risks. These hedging arrangements expose South Bow to risks which may cause financial loss and there is no guarantee that such hedging arrangements will generate profits or mitigate the market risks associated with South Bow's business. Further, such hedging arrangements may limit the benefit South Bow would otherwise receive due to favourable changes in commodity prices, interest rates and foreign exchange rates.

Additionally, the FTC, the FERC and the CFTC hold statutory authority to monitor certain segments of the physical and futures energy commodities markets. These agencies have imposed broad regulations prohibiting fraud and manipulation of such markets. With regard to South Bow's physical purchases and sales of crude oil and any related hedging activities that it undertakes, South Bow is required to observe the market-related regulations enforced by these agencies, which hold substantial enforcement authority. South Bow's purchases and sales may also be subject to certain reporting and other requirements. Additionally, to the extent that South Bow enters into transportation contracts with pipelines that are subject to FERC regulation, South Bow is subject to FERC requirements related to the use of such capacity. Any failure on South Bow's part to comply with the regulations and policies of the FERC, the FTC or the CFTC could result in the imposition of civil and criminal penalties. Failure to comply with such regulations, as interpreted and enforced, could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Counterparty Credit Risk

South Bow has exposure to counterparty credit risk in a number of areas including: cash and cash equivalents; accounts receivable and certain contractual recoveries; available-for-sale assets; and fair value of derivative assets. At times, South Bow's counterparties may endure financial challenges resulting from commodity price and market volatility, economic instability and political or regulatory changes. In addition to actively monitoring these situations, there are a number of factors that reduce South Bow's counterparty credit risk exposure in the event of default, including: (a) contractual rights and remedies together with the utilization of contractually-based financial assurances; (b) the competitive position of its assets and the demand for its services; and (c) potential recovery of unpaid amounts through bankruptcy and similar proceedings. South Bow reviews financial assets carried at amortized cost for impairment using the lifetime expected loss of the financial asset at initial recognition and throughout the life of the financial asset. South Bow uses historical credit loss and recovery data, adjusted for its judgment regarding current economic and credit conditions, along with reasonable and supportable forecasts to determine any impairment, which is recognized in Plant operating costs and other. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, South Bow had no significant credit risk concentrations and no significant amounts past due or impaired. South Bow had no significant credit losses at December 31, 2023 and 2022. South Bow has significant credit and performance exposure to financial institutions that hold cash deposits. South Bow may, in the future, have significant credit and performance exposure to any financial institutions that provide committed credit lines and letters of credit to help manage South Bow's exposure to counterparties and provide liquidity in commodity, foreign exchange and interest rate derivative markets. South Bow's current portfolio of financial sector exposure consists primarily of highly-rated investment grade, systemically important financial institutions and it is expected that any future committed credit lines and letters of credit will be with financial institutions having similar characteristics.

Risks Related to Climate Change

Climate change is a systemic risk that presents both physical and transition risks. Climate change and its associated impacts may increase South Bow's exposure to, and magnitude of, other risks identified herein. South Bow's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, reputation, access to and cost of capital or insurance, business plans or strategy may all be materially adversely impacted as a result of climate change and its associated impacts.

Physical Risks

Climate-related physical risks as a result of changing and more extreme weather can damage South Bow's assets and affect the safety and reliability of its operations. Climate-related physical risks may be acute or chronic. Acute physical risks are those that are event-driven, including increased frequency and severity of extreme weather events, such as heavy snowfall, heavy rainfall, floods, landslides, fires, ice storms, and extreme temperatures. Chronic physical risks are longer-term shifts in climate patterns, such as long-term changes in precipitation patterns or sustained higher temperatures.

South Bow's liquids pipelines may be exposed to potential damage or other negative impacts from events of this nature, which could result in reduced revenue from business disruption or reduced capacity and may also lead to increased costs due to repairs and required adaptation measures. Such events may also result in loss of life or injury or damage to property and the environment.

Transition Risks

Climate-related transition risks relate to the transition to a lower-emissions economy, which may increase South Bow's cost of operations, impact its business plans, and influence stakeholder decisions about South Bow, each of which could adversely impact South Bow's reputation, strategic plan, business, financial condition and results of operations.

Foreign and domestic governments continue to evaluate and implement policy, legislation, and regulations regarding reduction of GHG emissions, adaptation to climate change, transition to a lower-carbon economy, and disclosure of climate-related matters. Such policies, laws and regulations vary at the federal, state, provincial and local levels in which South Bow operates and are continually evolving. International multilateral agreements, the obligations adopted thereunder, increasing physical impacts of climate change, changing political and public opinion and legal challenges concerning the adequacy of climate-related policy and compliance therewith brought against governments and corporations, among other factors, may accelerate the implementation of these measures. Efforts to regulate or restrict GHG emissions could negatively impact demand for the products South Bow transports on its liquids pipelines. In addition, there has been an increase in climate and related litigation and regulatory proceedings, including climate-disclosure related litigation and regulatory proceeding against governments as well as energy companies. There is no assurance that South Bow will not be impacted by such litigation. Many jurisdictions are either increasing the stringency of existing, or introducing new, legislation or public policy to address climate change and reduce GHG emissions.

Risks Relating to Credit Ratings

South Bow has not been assigned a corporate credit rating. Credit ratings are not a recommendation to buy, hold or sell securities. A rating is not a comment on the market price of a security nor is it an assessment of ownership given various investment objectives. There can be no assurance as to the credit ratings that may be assigned to South Bow or that any credit rating assigned to South Bow will remain in effect for any given period of time and ratings may be upgraded, downgraded, placed under review, confirmed and discontinued by an applicable credit ratings agency at any time. Any credit ratings assigned to South Bow and any real or anticipated changes in such credit ratings may affect the market value of its securities. In addition, any credit ratings assigned to South Bow and any real or anticipated changes in such credit ratings may affect South Bow's ability to obtain short-term and long-term financing, amounts of insurance capacity available, and the cost at which South Bow can access the capital and insurance markets.

Risks Relating to Future Dividend Payments

Payment of any future dividends by South Bow depends on its cash flows. The declaration and payment of future dividends will be at the discretion of the South Bow Board, subject to restrictions under applicable corporate laws, and may be affected by numerous factors, including South Bow's revenues, financial condition, potential acquisitions, capital investment requirements and legal, regulatory or contractual restrictions that may restrict South Bow's ability to pay dividends. South Bow may not be in a position to pay dividends in the future. A failure to pay dividends or a reduction or cessation of the payment of dividends could materially adversely affect the trading price of the South Bow Common Shares.

Risks Relating to Foreign Exchange Rates

Following the completion of the Arrangement, South Bow expects to use U.S. dollars as the reporting currency for its financial statements. Since certain of South Bow's businesses generate earnings in Canadian dollars, changes in the value of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar will directly affect South Bow's comparable EBITDA and may also impact comparable earnings. South Bow intends to actively manage a portion of its foreign exchange risk using foreign exchange derivatives and hedge a portion of its net investment in operations with Canadian dollar-denominated debt, cross-currency interest rate swaps and foreign exchange options, as appropriate.

Risks Related to Cyber Attacks

South Bow's business is dependent upon information systems and other digital technologies for controlling the liquids pipeline systems, processing transactions and summarizing and reporting the results of operations. The secure processing, maintenance and transmission of information is critical to South Bow's operations. Furthermore, South Bow and some of its counterparties collect and store sensitive data in the ordinary course of business, including personal information, as well as proprietary business information concerning South Bow and its suppliers, investors and other stakeholders.

Cybersecurity risks have increased in recent years as a result of the proliferation of new technologies and the increased sophistication of cyber attacks and data security breaches, including in connection with the increasing use of artificial intelligence, as well as due to international and domestic political factors including geopolitical tensions, armed hostilities, war, civil unrest, sabotage and terrorism. Human error can also contribute to a cyber incident, and cyber attacks can be internal as well as external and occur at any point in South Bow's supply chain. Because of the critical nature of South Bow's infrastructure and South Bow's use of information systems and other digital technologies to control the liquids pipeline systems, South Bow faces a heightened risk of cyber attacks. Cyber threat actors have attacked and threatened to attack energy infrastructure, and various government agencies have increasingly stressed that these attacks are targeting critical infrastructure, and are increasing in sophistication, magnitude, and frequency. The U.S. government has issued public warnings indicating that pipelines and other infrastructure assets might be specific targets of terrorist organizations or "cyber sabotage" events. For example, in May 2021, a ransomware attack on a major U.S. refined products pipeline forced the operator to temporarily shut down the pipeline, resulting in disruption of fuel supplies along the East Coast.

New cybersecurity legislation, regulations and orders have been recently implemented or proposed resulting in additional actual and anticipated regulatory oversight and compliance requirements, which will require significant internal and external resources. South Bow cannot predict the potential impact to its business of potential future legislation, regulations or orders relating to cybersecurity.

South Bow's information systems or those of service providers or other counterparties may become the target of cyber attacks or security breaches which could compromise its data and systems, affect its ability to correctly record, process and report transactions, result in the loss of information, or cause operational disruption or incidents, including: the improper operation of its assets, potentially resulting in delays in the delivery or availability of customers' products; contamination or degradation of the products South Bow transports, stores and distributes; damage to South Bow's liquids pipeline systems and facilities, as well as the facilities of its customers; or releases of hydrocarbon products for which South Bow could be held liable, all of which could result in personal safety incidents and materially adversely affect South Bow's reputation, business, operations or financial results. As a result of a cyber attack or security breach, South Bow could also be liable under laws that protect the privacy of personal information, be subject to regulatory action, fines or penalties, incur additional costs for remediation, litigation, breach of contract or indemnity claims, or other costs, all of which could materially adversely affect South Bow's reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, a cyber attack could occur and persist for an extended period without detection. Any investigation of a cyber attack or other security incident may be inherently unpredictable, and it would take time before the completion of any investigation and availability of full and reliable information. During such time, South Bow may not know the extent of the harm or how best to remediate it, and certain errors or actions could be repeated or compounded before they are discovered and remediated, all or any of which could further increase the costs and consequences of a cyber attack or other security incident, and South Bow's remediation efforts may not be successful. The inability to implement, maintain and upgrade adequate safeguards could materially and adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations. As cyber attacks continue to evolve, South Bow may be required to expend significant additional resources to continue to modify or enhance its protective measures or to investigate and remediate any information security vulnerabilities.

Furthermore, media reports about a cyber attack or other significant security incident affecting South Bow or its liquids pipelines, whether accurate or not, or, under certain circumstances, South Bow's failure to make adequate or timely disclosures to the public, law enforcement, other regulatory agencies or affected individuals following any such event, whether due to delayed discovery or otherwise, could negatively impact South Bow's operating results and result in other negative consequences, including damage to South Bow's reputation or competitiveness, harm to its relationships with customers, partners, suppliers and other third parties, interruption to its management, remediation or increased protection costs, significant litigation or regulatory action, fines or penalties, all of which could materially adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks Related to Insurance Coverage

South Bow's insurance program may not cover all operational risks and costs and may not provide sufficient coverage in the event of a claim. South Bow will not maintain insurance coverage against all potential losses and could suffer losses for uninsurable or uninsured risks or in amounts in excess of existing insurance coverage. Losses in excess of South Bow's insurance coverage could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Changes in the insurance markets subsequent to certain hurricanes and other natural disasters, as well as the introduction of climate-related policies, have made it more difficult and more expensive to obtain certain types of coverage. The occurrence of an event that is not fully covered by insurance, or failure by one or more of South Bow's insurers to honour its coverage commitments for an insured event, could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations. Insurance companies may reduce the insurance capacity they are willing to offer or may demand significantly higher premiums or deductibles to cover South Bow's assets. If significant changes in the number or financial solvency of insurance underwriters for the energy industry occur, South Bow may be unable to obtain and maintain adequate insurance at a reasonable cost. There is no assurance that South Bow's insurers will renew their insurance coverage on acceptable terms, if at all, or that South Bow will be able to arrange for adequate alternative coverage in the event of non-renewal. The unavailability of full insurance coverage to cover events in which South Bow suffers significant losses could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Talent Risk

The future success of South Bow will depend largely upon the performance of key officers, employees and consultants who have advanced the Liquids Pipelines business to its current stage of development and contributed to its potential for future growth. The market for qualified talent has become increasingly competitive, with shortages of qualified talent relative to the number of available opportunities being experienced in all markets where South Bow will continue its operations. The ability to remain competitive by offering higher compensation packages and programs for growth and development of personnel, with a view to retaining existing talent and attracting new talent, will become increasingly important to South Bow and its operations in the current climate. Any prolonged inability to retain key individuals, or to attract and retain new talent as South Bow grows, could have a material adverse effect upon South Bow's growth potential and prospects. The costs associated with retaining and recruiting key individuals and a skilled workforce could adversely affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks of Legal Proceedings

South Bow may be subject to regulatory investigations, claims, lawsuits and other proceedings in the ordinary course of its business, as a result of its status as a publicly-traded company and because of its liquids pipelines business. Litigation related to environmental and climate change-related matters, as well as ESG disclosure, is on the rise. TC Energy has been subject to, and South Bow may in the future be subject to, legal proceedings in Canada and the United States concerning the amount and/or nature of variable tolls charged to its customers, including in relation to the amount and apportionment of maintenance capital costs and costs associated with the use of drag reducing agents, as well as the allocation of costs between Keystone and Marketlink. The occurrence and outcome of any legal proceedings cannot be predicted with any reasonable degree of certainty due to the inherently uncertain nature of litigation, including the effects of discovery of new evidence or advancement of new legal theories, the difficulty of predicting decisions of judges and juries and the possibility that decisions may be reversed on appeal. Defense and settlement costs of legal claims can be substantial, even with respect to claims that are determined to have little or no merit.

Litigation may be costly and time-consuming, and can divert the attention of management and key personnel away from day-to-day business operations. South Bow may, from time to time, be subject to legal proceedings or the threat of legal proceedings. If South Bow were to be unsuccessful in defending any material claims against it, or unable to settle such claims on a satisfactory basis, it may be faced with significant monetary damages, injunctive relief or other negative impacts that could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business and financial condition. South Bow may also be required to change its operating practices in response to any such legal proceedings. To the extent South Bow is involved in any active litigation, the outcome of such matters may not be determinable, and it may not be possible to accurately predict the outcome or quantum of any such proceedings at a given time.

Risks Related to Indigenous Claims and Consultation Obligations

Indigenous peoples in Canada have constitutionally protected rights, and have claimed aboriginal and treaty rights to a substantial portion of lands in western Canada. The successful assertion of Indigenous title or other Indigenous rights claims may have an adverse effect on western Canadian crude oil production and may result in reduced demand for South Bow's assets and infrastructure that service those areas, which could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The interpretation of aboriginal and treaty rights is evolving and government policy (including the requirements that are imposed on industry) continues to change. In Canada, the federal and provincial governments have a duty to consult and, where appropriate, accommodate Indigenous peoples where the interests of the Indigenous peoples may be affected by a government action or decision. The consultation processes and expectations of parties involved can vary considerably from project to project (and from community to community), which can contribute to process uncertainty, increased costs, delay in receiving required approvals, and potentially, an inability to secure the required approvals for some projects. The scope of the duty to consult by federal and provincial governments is fact dependent but has been broadening in recent years and is expected to continue to increase in the future. If a government or regulatory body determines that the duty to consult has not been appropriately discharged relative to the issuance of regulatory approvals required by South Bow, the issuance of such approvals may be delayed or denied, thereby impacting South Bow's Canadian operations.

Additionally, the federal government has introduced legislation to implement the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. Certain provincial governments have enacted similar legislation. The adoption of such laws are expected to continue to add uncertainty to the ability of entities operating in the Canadian oil and gas industry to execute on major resource development and infrastructure projects, including, among other projects, pipelines.

In the United States, certain of South Bow's operations may cross land that has historically been apportioned to various Native American and First Nations tribes, who may exercise significant jurisdiction and sovereignty over their lands. Native American and First Nations tribes may also have certain treaty rights and rights to consultation on projects that may affect such lands. South Bow's operations may be impacted to the extent these tribal governments are found to have and choose to act upon such jurisdiction over lands where South Bow operates.

Risks of Loss of Foreign Private Issuer Status

It is expected that, upon the completion of the Arrangement, South Bow will be a "foreign private issuer", as such term is defined under the U.S. Exchange Act. As a foreign private issuer, South Bow will be exempt from certain of the provisions of U.S. federal securities laws. However, if South Bow were to lose its status as a foreign private issuer, South Bow would be required to comply with the same U.S. federal securities laws that apply to a U.S. company in addition to its obligations as a reporting issuer in Canada. The regulatory and compliance costs to South Bow under securities laws as a U.S. domestic issuer will be significantly more than the costs incurred as a Canadian foreign private issuer. Compliance with these additional regulatory and reporting requirements under U.S. securities laws would require South Bow's management to devote substantial time and resources to comply with new regulatory requirements. Further, if South Bow were not a foreign private issuer, it would not be eligible to use foreign issuer forms and would be required to file periodic and current reports and registration statements on U.S. domestic issuer forms with the SEC, which are generally more detailed and extensive than the forms available to a foreign private issuer using the multijurisdictional disclosure system forms and could increase the cost of accessing the capital markets compared to if South Bow continued to be a foreign private issuer. In addition, South Bow may lose the ability to rely upon exemptions from NYSE corporate governance requirements that are available to foreign private issuers, which may further increase South Bow's costs of compliance.

South Bow could lose its status as a foreign private issuer if more than 50 per cent of South Bow's outstanding voting securities are directly or indirectly held of record by U.S. holders as of the end of South Bow's second fiscal quarter and any one of the following is true: (a) the majority of South Bow's directors or executive officers are U.S. citizens or residents; (b) more than 50 per cent of South Bow's assets are located in the United States; or (c) South Bow's business is administered principally in the United States.

Risks Relating to Internal Controls over Financial Reporting

South Bow will be responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal controls over financial reporting, which is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with applicable generally accepted accounting principles. Because South Bow is a new public company and is implementing new financial control and management systems, internal controls over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. A failure to prevent or detect errors or misstatements may result in a decline in the market price of the South Bow Common Shares. If South Bow's management is unable to certify the effectiveness of its internal controls or if material weaknesses in South Bow's internal controls are identified, South Bow could be subject to regulatory scrutiny and a loss of public confidence, which could harm South Bow's business and cause a decline in the price of the South Bow Common Shares. South Bow does not expect that its disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls over financial reporting will prevent all error or fraud. A control system, no matter how well-designed and implemented, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the control system's objectives will be met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are reasonable constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Due to the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues within an organization are detected. The inherent limitations include the realities that judgements in decision making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple errors or mistakes. Controls can also be circumvented by individual acts of certain persons, by collusion of two or more people or by management override of the controls. Due to the inherent limitations in cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and may not be detected in a timely manner or at all. If South Bow cannot provide reliable financial reports or prevent fraud, South Bow's reputation and operating results could be materially adversely affected, which could also cause investors to lose confidence in South Bow's reported financial information, which in turn could result in a reduction in the trading price of the South Bow Common Shares. The foregoing risks may be heightened on account of the fact that South Bow intends to rely on the exemption contained in Section 4.5 or 5.5, as applicable, of National Instrument 52-109 – Certification of Disclosure in Issuer's Annual and Interim Filings, which will permit South Bow to file a more limited form of certificate concerning its disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls over financial reporting in respect of its first financial period following the completion of the Arrangement.

Risks Relating to Proposed and Recently Enacted Legislation in the United States and Canada

Changes to applicable tax laws (which changes may have retroactive application) could adversely affect South Bow or South Bow Shareholders.

In recent years, many changes to U.S. federal income tax laws have been proposed and made, and additional changes to U.S. federal income tax laws are likely to continue to occur in the future. The U.S. Congress is currently considering numerous items of legislation which may be enacted prospectively or with retroactive effect, which legislation could adversely impact South Bow's financial performance and the value of South Bow Common Shares. Additionally, states in which South Bow operates or owns assets may impose new or increased taxes. If enacted, most of the proposals would be effective for the current or later years. The proposed legislation remains subject to change, and its anticipated impact on South Bow and holders of South Bow Common Shares is uncertain.

On November 28, 2023, the Department of Finance (Canada) released its revised proposals to amend the Tax Act that include a two per cent corporate level tax on the net value of equity repurchases by certain publicly-traded entities in Canada (the Equity Repurchase Proposals). The application of the tax will be subject to certain exceptions and anti-avoidance provisions. While the Equity Repurchase Proposals are proposed to be effective for transactions that occur on or after January 1, 2024, it is unknown when the Equity Repurchase Proposals may be enacted and if they will be enacted in their current form proposed. South Bow will continue to assess the Equity Repurchase Proposals as they may have an adverse impact on South Bow in relation to any future share buybacks.

Additionally, on November 28, 2023, the Department of Finance (Canada) released revised proposals to amend the Tax Act that are intended, where applicable, to limit the deductibility of certain interest and financing expenses (the EIFEL Proposals). While the EIFEL Proposals are proposed to be effective for taxation years beginning on or after October 1, 2023, it is unknown when the EIFEL Proposals may be enacted and if they will be enacted in the current form proposed. South Bow will continue to assess the EIFEL Proposals as they could affect South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations of South Bow.

South Bow is subject to the examination of its tax returns and other tax matters by tax authorities. While South Bow believes that its tax filings positions are appropriate and supportable, it is possible that tax authorities may successfully challenge South Bow's interpretations of tax legislation which may result in non-compliance or re-assessment, or affect South Bow's estimate of current and future income taxes, and have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of South Bow.

Inflation

The general rate of inflation impacts the economies and business environments in which South Bow operates. Increased inflation and any economic conditions resulting from governmental attempts to reduce inflation, such as the imposition of higher interest rates or wage and price controls, may increase costs related to South Bow's business and negatively impact levels of demand for South Bow's services and cost of inputs, which could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations. Higher interest rates as a result of inflation could also negatively impact South Bow's borrowing costs, which could have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Pandemic Risks, Geopolitical Conflicts and Other Risks

The COVID-19 pandemic, the Russian war in Ukraine, the Israel-Palestine conflict in the Middle East, inflation and other factors continue to impact global markets and cause general economic uncertainty, the impact of which may have a significant adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The COVID-19 pandemic, and governmental response thereto, had extensive and far-reaching impacts on global commerce, including significant stock market volatility, volatility in commodity and foreign exchange markets, restrictions on the conduct of business in many jurisdictions and restrictions on the global movement of people. Any similar global pandemic or epidemic and the governmental responses thereto, may have a significant adverse effect on South Bow's suppliers, on South Bow's employees and on global financial markets which may have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations. These concerns, together with concerns over general global economic conditions, fluctuations in interest and foreign exchange rates, stock market volatility, geopolitical issues, the Russian war in Ukraine, the Israel-Palestine conflict in the Middle East and inflation have contributed to increased economic uncertainty and diminished expectations for the global economy. This global economic uncertainty may have a material adverse effect on South Bow's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Concerns over global economic conditions may also have the effect of heightening many of the other risks described herein, including, but not limited to, risks relating to: fluctuations in the market price of crude oil, the terms and availability of financing, cost overruns, geopolitical concerns, counterparty risk and changes in law, policies or regulatory requirements.

Risks Relating to the Securities of South Bow

Risks Relating to Incipient Trading Market for South Bow Common Shares

There will not be any public market for the South Bow Common Shares prior to the completion of the Arrangement. The extent to which investor interest will lead to the development of a trading market for South Bow Common Shares or how liquid that market might be is not currently known. Holders of South Bow Common Shares may not be able to resell their South Bow Common Shares at or above the initial trading price. Additionally, the lack of liquidity may result in wide bid-ask spreads, contribute to significant fluctuations in the market price of the South Bow Common Shares and limit the number of investors who are able to buy South Bow Common Shares.

Risks Relating to Stability of Stock Price and Availability of a Continuing Public Market

The market price of the South Bow Common Shares may in the future be subject to significant fluctuations as a result of many factors, some of which will be beyond South Bow's control. Among the factors that could in the future affect South Bow's stock price are:

- quarterly variations in South Bow's results of operations,
- changes in market valuations of similar companies and stock market price and volume fluctuations generally,
- changes in earnings estimates or the publication of research reports by analysts,
- speculation in the press or investment community about South Bow's business or the liquids pipeline industry generally,

- strategic actions by South Bow or its competitors such as acquisitions, divestitures or restructurings,
 - a thin trading market for the South Bow Common Shares may develop, which could make it somewhat illiquid,
 - regulatory developments,
 - additions or departures of key personnel,
 - the price of crude oil,
 - general market conditions, and
 - domestic and international economic, political, market and currency factors unrelated to South Bow's performance.

The stock markets have experienced extreme volatility that has sometimes been unrelated to the operating performance of individual companies. These broad market fluctuations may adversely affect the trading price of South Bow Common Shares.

Additionally, there is no guarantee of a continuing public market to resell the South Bow Common Shares. South Bow will not be able to provide assurance that an active and liquid public market for the South Bow Common Shares will develop or, if it does develop, that it will continue to exist.

Description of Capital Structure

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL

As of the date of this Circular, South Bow's authorized share capital is comprised of an unlimited number of South Bow Common Shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares, issuable in series. The articles of South Bow will undergo a series of amendments pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement in order to facilitate the transactions contemplated thereby. Upon the completion of the Arrangement, South Bow will be authorized to issue: (a) an unlimited number of South Bow Common Shares; and (b) South Bow First Preferred Shares and South Bow Second Preferred Shares in an amount not to exceed, in aggregate, 20 per cent of the number of issued and outstanding South Bow Common Shares.

Based on the number of TC Energy shares outstanding as of the date hereof, immediately following the completion of the Arrangement and before giving effect to any issuance of South Bow Common Shares underlying South Bow Stock Options issued pursuant to the Arrangement, it is anticipated that approximately 207,497,566 South Bow Common Shares will be issued and outstanding (assuming no TC Energy Stock Options are exercised between the date of this Circular and the Effective Date, and that no TC Energy shares are otherwise issued between the date of this Circular and the Effective Date). Based on the number of TC Energy shares outstanding as of the date hereof, if all of the currently outstanding TC Energy Stock Options are exercised prior to the Effective Date (but no other TC Energy shares are issued between the date of this Circular and the Effective Date) approximately 208,907,634 South Bow Common Shares will be issued and outstanding immediately following the completion of the Arrangement. The foregoing does not take into account the treatment of fractional South Bow Common Shares in accordance with the Plan of Arrangement. See The Arrangement – Details of the Arrangement – Treatment of Fractional Shares in the body of this Circular.

SOUTH BOW COMMON SHARES

The South Bow Common Shares entitle the holders thereof to one vote per share at all meetings of South Bow Shareholders, except meetings at which only holders of another specified class of shares are entitled to vote, and, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the South Bow First Preferred Shares and the South Bow Second Preferred Shares, whether as a class or a series, and to any other class or series of shares of South Bow which rank prior to the South Bow Common Shares, entitle the holders thereof to receive: (a) dividends if, as and when declared by the South Bow Board out of the assets of South Bow properly applicable to the payment of the dividends in such amount and payable at such times and at such place or places as the South Bow Board may from time to time determine; and (b) the remaining property of South Bow upon a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of South Bow.

Subject to the approval of the shareholders at the meeting, South Bow will adopt the South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan. See South Bow Shareholder Rights Plan in the body of this Circular.

SOUTH BOW FIRST PREFERRED SHARES

Subject to certain limitations, the South Bow Board may, from time to time, issue South Bow First Preferred Shares in one or more series and determine for any such series, its designation, number of shares (subject to the limit described below) and respective rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions. The South Bow First Preferred Shares as a class have, among others, the provisions described below.

The South Bow First Preferred Shares of each series rank on a parity with the South Bow First Preferred Shares of every other series, and are entitled to preference over the South Bow Common Shares, the South Bow Second Preferred Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the South Bow First Preferred Shares with respect to the payment of dividends, the repayment of capital and the distribution of assets of South Bow in the event of its liquidation, dissolution or winding up.

Except as provided by the CBCA, the holders of the South Bow First Preferred Shares will not have any voting rights nor will they be entitled to receive notice of or to attend meetings of South Bow Shareholders. The holders of any particular series of South Bow First Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the South Bow Board if South Bow fails to pay dividends on that series of preferred shares for any period as may be so determined by the South Bow Board. South Bow currently does not intend to issue any South Bow First Preferred Shares with voting rights, and any issuances of South Bow First Preferred Shares are expected to be made only in connection with corporate financings. South Bow does not intend to use South Bow First Preferred Shares or South Bow Second Preferred Shares as a defensive tactic to block a take-over bid.

The provisions attaching to the South Bow First Preferred Shares as a class may be modified, amended or varied only with the approval of the holders of the South Bow First Preferred Shares as a class. Any such approval to be given by the holders of the South Bow First Preferred Shares may be given by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the South Bow First Preferred Shares represented and voted at a meeting or adjourned meeting of such holders.

The aggregate number of South Bow First Preferred Shares and South Bow Second Preferred Shares outstanding may not exceed 20 per cent of the aggregate number of the then outstanding South Bow Common Shares.

SOUTH BOW SECOND PREFERRED SHARES

The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the South Bow Second Preferred Shares are substantially identical to those attaching to the South Bow First Preferred Shares, except that the South Bow Second Preferred Shares rank junior to the South Bow First Preferred Shares with respect to the payment of dividends, repayment of capital and the distribution of assets of South Bow in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of South Bow.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

South Bow has not paid any dividends since its incorporation. The declaration of dividends will be at the sole discretion of the South Bow Board and no dividend policy has yet been adopted by the South Bow Board. Any future payment of dividends will depend, among other things, upon South Bow's earnings, capital requirements and operating and financial condition.

It is presently anticipated that, after the Effective Date, South Bow will establish a dividend reinvestment and share purchase plan, which will permit holders of South Bow Common Shares to reinvest any cash dividends in, and make optional cash contributions to purchase, additional South Bow Common Shares. In the event that such plan is established, South Bow will issue a news release describing the plan and where additional information can be found.

PRIOR SALES

No South Bow Common Shares have been issued, or will be issued, prior to the Arrangement.

CEASE TRADE ORDERS, BANKRUPTCIES, PENALTIES OR SANCTIONS

To the knowledge of TC Energy, no proposed director or executive officer of South Bow is, as at the date of this Circular, or was, within 10 years before the date of this Circular, a director, CEO or CFO of any company (including TC Energy), that: (a) was subject to a cease trade or similar order or an order that denied the relevant company access to any exemption under the securities legislation, for a period of more than 30 consecutive days; or (b) was subject to a cease trade or similar order or an order that denied the relevant company access to any exemption under the securities legislation that was issued after the director or executive officer ceased to be a director, CEO or CFO and which resulted from an event that occurred while that person was acting in the capacity as director, CEO or CFO.

To the knowledge of TC Energy, no proposed director or executive officer of South Bow, or a shareholder holding a sufficient number of securities of TC Energy to affect materially the control of South Bow: (a) is, as at the date of this Circular, or has been within 10 years before the date of this Circular, a director or executive officer of any company (including TC Energy) that, while that person was acting in that capacity, or within a year of that person ceasing to act in that capacity, became bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or was subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold its assets; or (b) has, within 10 years before the date of this Circular, become bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or become subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors, or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold the assets of the director, executive officer or shareholder.

To the knowledge of TC Energy, no proposed director, or executive officer of South Bow, or a shareholder holding a sufficient number of securities of TC Energy to affect materially the control of South Bow, has been subject to: (a) any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to securities legislation or by a securities regulatory authority or has entered into a settlement agreement with a securities regulatory authority; or (b) any other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body that would likely be considered important to a reasonable investor in making an investment decision.

INDEBTEDNESS OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

As of the date of this Circular, to the knowledge of TC Energy, no individual who is a proposed director, executive officer or employee of South Bow, or an associate or affiliate of such an individual, will be indebted to South Bow upon completion of the Arrangement.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Certain of the proposed directors and executive officers of South Bow are officers and directors of, or are associated with, other public and private companies, including TC Energy. Such associations may give rise to conflicts of interest with South Bow from time to time.

To the extent that conflicts of interest arise, such conflicts will be resolved in accordance with the provisions of the CBCA and South Bow's policies governing directors and executive officers, as further described below under Corporate Governance – Ethical Business Conduct.

Director and Executive Compensation

To date, South Bow has not carried on any active business. No compensation has been paid by South Bow to its proposed executive officers or directors and none will be paid by South Bow until after the Arrangement is completed. Following completion of the Arrangement, it is anticipated that the directors and executive officers of South Bow will be paid compensation in an amount and format that is comparable to companies of similar size and character which, for the executive officers of South Bow, includes customary provisions for payment in the event of a change of control.

An annual retainer fee or attendance fee for the proposed directors of South Bow has not been established. However, a fee schedule similar to that in place for the TC Energy directors is expected to be adopted by South Bow initially and it is expected that all reasonable expenses incurred by directors in order to attend meetings will be reimbursed by South Bow.

Corporate Governance

THE SOUTH BOW BOARD

The South Bow Board is expected to be comprised of 11 directors upon completion of the Arrangement. By approving the Arrangement Resolution, shareholders will be deemed to have approved and elected the proposed directors of South Bow, which are formally appointed pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement.

Independence

Each of the proposed directors of South Bow, other than Bevin Wirzba, will be considered to be an “independent” director for the purposes of NI 52-110. Bevin Wirzba, who will be the President and CEO of South Bow, will not be considered independent. As such, a majority (10 of 11 or 91 per cent) of the proposed directors of South Bow will be independent.

It is anticipated that the South Bow Common Shares will be dual-listed in Canada and the U.S. The NYSE and U.S. securities laws set out different requirements for determining director independence vis-à-vis the TSX and securities laws in Canada. As an anticipated “foreign private issuer” under U.S. securities laws and for so long as South Bow maintains this status, South Bow will likely be permitted to follow Canadian requirements (as its home country) instead of certain NYSE corporate governance standards, including director independence; however, this does not apply to audit committee independence requirements under U.S. securities laws. The proposed members of the South Bow Audit Committee are expected to be Shannon Ryhorchuk (Chair), Chansoo Joung, George Lewis and Frances M. Vallejo, each of whom will satisfy the independence requirements of Rule 10A-3 under the U.S. Exchange Act and Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

Independent Chair

The roles of Chair of the South Bow Board and CEO of South Bow will be separate. Harold (Hal) N. Kvisle, who will serve as Chair of the South Bow Board, will be responsible for the management, development and effective functioning of the South Bow Board and will provide leadership in every aspect of its work. The position description for the Chair of the South Bow Board will set out the Chair's key responsibilities, which are expected to include setting the South Bow Board meeting agenda and chairing all South Bow Board meetings.

Independent Advice

The South Bow Board and each of its four standing committees can retain independent advisors to assist in carrying out their duties and responsibilities.

Serving on Other Boards

Certain of the proposed directors of South Bow are directors of other reporting issuers (or the equivalent) in Canada or foreign jurisdictions, as set out below.

Director	Name of Issuer(s)
Harold (Hal) N. Kvisle	Cenovus Energy Inc., ARC Resources Ltd. and Finning International Inc. ¹
Chansoo Joung	APA Corporation
George Lewis	Legal & General Group Plc
Leonard Mallett	Archrock, Inc.
Sonya M. Reed	DNOW Inc.
Mary Pat Salomone	TC Energy Corporation
Frances M. Vallejo	Expro Group Holdings N.V. and Coterra Energy Inc.

Note

1 Mr. Kvisle will not be standing for re-election on the board of directors of Cenovus Energy Inc.

In-Camera Sessions

The South Bow Board will meet without management and non-independent directors at the end of all meetings of the South Bow Board. The Chair of the South Bow Board will encourage open and candid discussions among the independent directors by providing them with an opportunity to express their views on key topics before decisions are made.

Board Mandate

The South Bow Board’s primary responsibility is to foster the long-term success and sustainability of South Bow consistent with the South Bow Board’s responsibility to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of South Bow. The South Bow Board will discharge this responsibility directly and through delegation of specific responsibilities to management and committees of the South Bow Board, as more particularly described in the South Bow Board Charter that will be adopted by the South Bow Board following completion of the Arrangement. The proposed South Bow Board Charter is attached as Appendix A to this Schedule F. The South Bow Board Charter will be available on South Bow’s website once adopted following the completion of the Arrangement.

Position Descriptions

The South Bow Board will have written position descriptions for the Chair and the chair of each of the committees of the South Bow Board, and the CEO of South Bow. The South Bow Board Charter and the committee charters for the South Bow Audit Committee, the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee, the South Bow Safety and Operational Excellence Committee and the South Bow Human Resources Committee will set out in writing the responsibilities of the South Bow Board and the committees, respectively, for supervising management of South Bow.

Orientation and Continuing Education

New directors will participate in an orientation program featuring sessions on corporate strategy, South Bow’s main business issues and historical and financial information about South Bow and the Liquids Pipelines business. New directors will also typically have an opportunity to visit and tour South Bow’s facilities and project sites.

South Bow will tailor the sessions for each director based on individual needs and their specific areas of interest. New directors will also meet one-on-one with the CEO and each executive vice-president for an overview of the different areas of South Bow’s business and operations and a discussion of key areas of interest. Briefing sessions will also be held for new South Bow Board committee members.

Directors will receive a reference manual with:

- details about their duties and obligations as a member of the South Bow Board,
- information about South Bow’s business and operations,
- copies of the South Bow Board and committee charters,
- copies of recent public disclosure filings,
- documents from recent South Bow Board meetings, and
- a copy of the current year’s strategic plan.

The South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will review the orientation program and reference manual every year to ensure it meets South Bow's needs and the needs of new directors. The South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will also develop the continuing education program every year based on current and emerging issues, South Bow's corporate objectives and input from other directors.

Continuing education helps strengthen a director's knowledge and understanding of the business, industry, governance and other issues. Senior management and external experts will make presentations to the South Bow Board and committees from time to time on various topics related to the business, including changes to legal, regulatory and industry requirements. Continuing education will also be conducted on an informal basis and directors will be provided with articles and publications of interest.

South Bow will also suggest seminars and education programs for directors that may be relevant, and pay the registration fee and travel expenses as appropriate. South Bow will also offer to pay annual fees for memberships with organizations that are appropriate and provide relevant publications and educational opportunities to its directors.

Ethical Business Conduct

South Bow will adopt the COBE, which will apply to all employees, officers and directors, and contractors of South Bow and its wholly-owned subsidiaries and operated entities in countries where it conducts business, with the exception of independently operated entities whose corporate governance documents meet or exceed South Bow's requirements. A copy of the COBE will, upon adoption, be found on South Bow's SEDAR+ profile at www.sedarplus.ca and on South Bow's website.

Proposed directors and officers of South Bow and its subsidiaries will be required to disclose any existing or potential conflicts of interest in accordance with South Bow's policies governing directors and officers and in accordance with the CBCA.

The COBE will cover potential conflicts of interest and will require that all employees, officers, directors and contract workers of South Bow avoid situations that may result in a potential conflict of interest.

In the event an employee, officer, director or contract worker finds themselves in a potential conflict situation, the COBE will stipulate that the conflict should be reported and the person should refrain from participation in any decision or action where there is a real or perceived conflict.

The COBE will also note that employees and officers of South Bow may not engage in outside business activities that are in conflict with or detrimental to the interests of South Bow. The CEO and the executive leadership team will be required to receive consent from the Chair of the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee for all outside business activities.

Under the COBE, directors will also be required to declare any material interest that they may have in a material contract or transaction and recuse themselves from related deliberations and approvals.

In addition to the COBE, the directors and officers of South Bow will be required to disclose any related parties and related party transactions in their annual directors' and officers' questionnaires. These questionnaires will assist South Bow in identifying and monitoring material related party transactions.

The South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will review and approve any material related party transactions prior to the transaction occurring, and will maintain oversight over material related party transactions following such approval.

Related party transactions include any transactions between South Bow (or any of its subsidiaries) and a related party that are material to South Bow or the related party or are unusual in their nature or conditions and are inconsistent with the interests of South Bow and its shareholders.

For this purpose, related parties include:

- key management personnel, such as South Bow's directors and executive leadership team and their immediate family members,
- individuals and their immediate family members who exercise significant influence over South Bow,
- entities where the individuals, including their immediate family members, noted above have substantial voting power or are able to exercise significant influence, and
- entities directly controlled by South Bow.

Board Nomination

The South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will be responsible for identifying and recommending to the South Bow Board qualified individuals for election as directors and candidates for appointment to South Bow Board committees as set out in the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee charter. The South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will recommend potential candidates based on their qualifications and independence and how these qualities balance with the skill set of the current South Bow Board, the structure and composition of the committees, board diversity and the director retirement schedule. With respect to board diversity, when selecting new members for nomination to the South Bow Board, the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will take into account the desirability of maintaining a balanced diversity of backgrounds, skills and experience, and personal characteristics such as age, gender and the geographic residence of directors. See Diversity below.

Board Assessments

The South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will oversee the assessment of the performance of the South Bow Board, the Chair of the South Bow Board, the South Bow Board committees and individual directors annually and report the results to the South Bow Board. The assessment process will involve both the Chair of the South Bow Board and Chair of the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee meeting separately with each director individually for an assessment of such director on a regular basis. The individual director assessment will include a discussion of expectations for directors serving on the South Bow Board and provide specific feedback to each director on their performance as a member of the South Bow Board. Interviews will include questions about effectiveness, communication, personal and individual peer performance and soliciting input from directors about areas for potential improvement. The interviews will be open-ended to encourage discussion and seek specific input on topics such as risk, strategy and governance.

Director Tenure

South Bow will implement guidelines that once a director turns 73 or has served more than 15 years on the South Bow Board, whichever comes first, such director will not stand for re-election at the next annual meeting. Notwithstanding age limits, a director will be eligible to serve on the South Bow Board for at least five years in order to ensure a robust level of South Bow Board continuity and to permit onboarded directors to serve a sufficient term to meaningfully contribute to the South Bow Board. The South Bow Board, upon recommendation of the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee, may apply discretion to permit a director or director nominee to stand for election outside of the terms of its retirement age or term limit if it is in the best interests of South Bow.

The South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will also review factors like changes in principal occupation, consistently poor attendance, poor performance, board interlocks and other relevant circumstances that may trigger the resignation or retirement of a director.

Diversity

It is expected that South Bow will adopt a diversity policy, which will relate to the identification and nomination of directors. The objective of the policy will be to enhance South Bow Board diversity by seeking qualified director nominees, while considering diversity criteria. The diversity criteria is expected to include skills, expertise, industry experience and personal characteristics such as age, gender, ethnicity and other distinctions of potential director nominees. More specifically, in seeking suitable director nominee candidates, it is expected that the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will: (a) consider all aspects of diversity; (b) assess the skills and backgrounds collectively represented on the South Bow Board to ensure that they reflect the diverse nature of the business environment in which South Bow operates; (c) consider candidates on merit against objective criteria having due regard to the benefits of diversity on the South Bow Board; and (d) at its discretion, engage qualified independent external advisors to identify and assess candidates that meet the South Bow Board's skills and diversity criteria.

Pursuant to its diversity policy, it is expected that the South Bow Board will set a target of at least 30 per cent women and at least one racially and/or ethnically diverse member on the South Bow Board. Further, if the South Bow Board composition falls below the target of 30 per cent women or one racially and/or ethnically diverse member on the South Bow Board, the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will commit to increasing the gender diversity and/or racial or ethnic diversity representation to the applicable target by the next annual meeting of South Bow Shareholders. In addition, it is expected that, each year, the South Bow Governance and Risk Committee will: (a) assess the effectiveness of the South Bow Board diversity policy, including receiving updates on South Bow's board diversity statistics, peer diversity policies and shareholder expectations on diversity; (b) monitor and review its progress in achieving its targets for gender diversity and racial/ethnic diversity; (c) monitor the implementation of the South Bow Board diversity policy; and (d) report to the South Bow Board and recommend any revisions to the South Bow Board diversity policy that may be necessary. Of the proposed director nominees for South Bow, four out of 11 (36 per cent) are women, and four out of 11 (36 per cent) are visible minorities representing racial and/or ethnic diversity on the South Bow Board.

With respect to members of senior management, the South Bow Board will consider the level of representation of women in executive officer positions when making executive officer appointments, as part of a broader focus on diversity in its workforce and management. South Bow has not adopted formal targets for representation of women in executive officer positions because it believes that, at this time, representation of women in such positions can be adequately addressed by management and the South

Bow Governance and Risk Committee actively monitoring applicable diversity statistics and continuing to take into consideration the level of representation of women in executive officer positions when making appointments.

SOUTH BOW AUDIT COMMITTEE

Overview

The South Bow Audit Committee will be responsible for assisting the South Bow Board in overseeing the integrity of South Bow's financial statements and South Bow's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The South Bow Audit Committee will also be responsible for overseeing and monitoring the accounting and reporting process and the process, performance and independence of South Bow's external auditors.

Composition of the Audit Committee and Independence

It is anticipated that the South Bow Audit Committee will consist of Shannon Ryhorchuk (Chair), Chansoo Joung, George Lewis and Frances M. Vallejo. NI 52-110 provides that a member of an audit committee is "independent" if the member has no direct or indirect material relationship with South Bow, which could, in the view of the South Bow Board, reasonably interfere with the exercise of the member's independent judgment. All members of the South Bow Audit Committee will be "independent" directors under the requirements of NI 52-110, Rule 10A-3 under the U.S. Exchange Act and Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

All of the proposed members of the South Bow Audit Committee are "financially literate" under the requirements of NI 52-110, and the NYSE Listed Company Manual and all of the proposed members of the South Bow Audit Committee are considered to be "audit committee financial experts" as that term is used in the U.S. Exchange Act.

The South Bow Audit Committee will maintain a pre-approval policy with respect to permitted non-audit services and audit services. For non-audit service engagements of up to $250,000, approval of the Chair of the South Bow Audit Committee is required, and the South Bow Audit Committee is to be informed of the engagement at the next scheduled South Bow Audit Committee meeting. For all non-audit service engagements of $250,000 or more, pre-approval of the South Bow Audit Committee is required.

The TSX has not conditionally approved such application and there is no assurance that the TSX will approve such application. Additionally, TC Energy has applied to list on the NYSE the South Bow Common Shares to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and issuable under the South Bow Stock Option Plan. These are the responsibilities of management and the external auditor. The Audit Committee, its Chair and any of its members who have accounting or related financial management experience or expertise, are members of the Board, appointed to the Audit Committee to provide broad oversight of the financial disclosure, financial risk and control related activities of the Company, and are specifically not accountable nor responsible for the day-to-day operation of such activities. Although designation of a member or members as an "audit committee financial expert" is based on that individual's education and experience, which that individual will bring to bear in carrying out his or her duties on the Audit Committee, designation as an "audit committee financial expert" does not impose on such person any duties, obligations or liability that are greater than the duties, obligations and liability imposed on such person as a member of the Audit Committee and Board in the absence of such designation. Rather, the role of any audit committee financial expert, like the role of all Audit Committee members, is to oversee the process and not to certify or guarantee the internal or external audit of the Company's financial information or public disclosure.

3. COMPOSITION OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee shall consist of three or more directors, a majority of whom are resident Canadians (as defined in the Canada Business Corporations Act), and all of whom are unrelated and/or independent for the purposes of applicable Canadian and United States securities law and applicable rules of any stock exchange on which the Company's securities are listed. 4. APPOINTMENT OF AUDIT COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Board from time to time on the recommendation of the Governance and Risk Committee and shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are earlier appointed or until they cease to be directors of the Company.

- (c) make suggestions and provide feedback from the Audit Committee to management regarding information that is or should be provided to the Audit Committee;
- (d) report to the Board on the activities of the Audit Committee relative to its recommendations, resolutions, actions and concerns; and
- (e) meet as necessary with the internal and external auditor.

7. ABSENCE OF AUDIT COMMITTEE CHAIR

8. SECRETARY OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Corporate Secretary shall act as Secretary to the Audit Committee.

9. MEETINGS

The Chair, or any two members of the Audit Committee, or the internal auditor, or the external auditor, may call a meeting of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall meet at least quarterly. The Audit Committee shall meet periodically with management, the internal auditor and the external auditor in separate executive sessions.

10. QUORUM

A majority of the members of the Audit Committee, present in person or by telephone or other telecommunication device that permit all persons participating in the meeting to speak to each other, shall constitute a quorum.

11. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Notice of the time and place of every meeting shall be given in writing, facsimile communication or by other electronic means to each member of the Audit Committee at least 24 hours prior to the time fixed for such meeting; provided, however, that a member may in any manner waive a notice of a meeting. Attendance of a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of the meeting, except where a member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.

12. ATTENDANCE OF COMPANY OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES AT MEETING

At the invitation of the Chair of the Audit Committee, one or more officers or employees of the Company may attend any meeting of the Audit Committee.

13. PROCEDURE, RECORDS AND REPORTING

The Audit Committee shall fix its own procedure at meetings, keep records of its proceedings and report to the Board when the Audit Committee may deem appropriate but not later than the next meeting of the Board.

14. REVIEW OF CHARTER AND EVALUATION OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee shall review its Charter annually or otherwise, as it deems appropriate and, if necessary, propose changes to the Governance and Risk Committee and the Board. The Audit Committee shall annually review the Audit Committee's own performance.

15. OUTSIDE EXPERTS AND ADVISORS

The Audit Committee is authorized, when deemed necessary or desirable, to retain and set and pay the compensation for independent counsel, outside experts and other advisors, at the Company's expense, to advise the Audit Committee or its members independently on any matter.

16. RELIANCE

Absent actual knowledge to the contrary (which shall be promptly reported to the Board), each member of the Audit Committee shall be entitled to rely on (i) the integrity of those persons or organizations within and outside the Company from which it receives information, (ii) the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Audit Committee by such persons or organizations and (iii) representations made by management and the external auditor, as to any information technology, internal audit and other non-audit services provided by the external auditor to the Company and its subsidiaries.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of South Bow Corporation

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of South Bow Corporation ("the Company"), which comprise:

- the balance sheet as of December 31, 2023;
- the statement of income for the period from incorporation on December 15, 2023 to December 31, 2023;
- the statement of changes in equity for the period from incorporation on December 15, 2023 to December 31, 2023; and
- the notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies

(hereinafter referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023, and its results of operations for the period from incorporation on December 15, 2023 to December 31, 2023 in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements" section of our auditor's report.

We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with U.S generally accepted accounting principles, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. DESCRIPTION OF SOUTH BOW CORPORATION'S BUSINESS

South Bow Corporation (South Bow or the Company) was incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act on December 15, 2023, for the purpose of spinning out TC Energy Corporation's (TC Energy) Liquids Pipelines business, along with certain related assets, into a separate publicly traded company. As a result of the proposed spin-off transaction, the Company will consolidate the financial results of TC Energy's Liquids business at a future date when the Liquids Pipelines business is contributed to the Company. South Bow's registered office is located at 450 – 1 Street SW, Calgary, Alberta, Canada, T2P 5H1. For the period from the date of incorporation to December 31, 2023, South Bow did not conduct any business activities other than those required for its formation and matters contemplated by the Plan of Arrangement.

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a going concern, which assumes that South Bow will continue for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due. In assessing whether the going concern assumption is appropriate, management takes into account all available information about the future, which is at least, but is not limited to, twelve months from the end of the reporting period.

The financial statements have been authorized for issue by the Board of Directors of TC Energy on April 10, 2024.

On July 27, 2023, TC Energy announced plans to separate into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies through the spinoff of its Liquids Pipelines business (the Transaction). The Transaction is expected to be tax free to TC Energy's Canadian and U.S. shareholders. In addition to TC Energy shareholder and court approvals, the Transaction is subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. TC Energy expects that the Transaction will be completed in the second half of 2024.

Under the proposed Transaction, TC Energy shareholders as of the Distribution Date, as defined in the management information circular dated April 10, 2024, will receive, in exchange for each TC Energy share, one new TC Energy share and 0.2 of a South Bow common share.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company's financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

3. SHARE CAPITAL

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares. The Company had no shareholders or shares outstanding as at December 31, 2023. The Company has appointed executive members of TC Energy's Liquids Pipelines business as Officers and Directors of South Bow.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors
TC Energy Corporation:

Opinion on the Combined Carve-Out Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying combined carve-out balance sheets for the Liquids Pipelines Business of TC Energy Corporation (the Company) as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the related combined carve-out statements of income, comprehensive income, cash flows, and changes in parent's net investment for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2023, and the related notes (collectively, the combined carve-out financial statements). In our opinion, the combined carve-out financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2023, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

These combined carve-out financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined carve-out financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined carve-out financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the combined carve-out financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the combined carve-out financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined carve-out financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matter

The critical audit matter communicated below is a matter arising from the audit of the combined carve-out financial statements that was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relates to accounts or disclosures that are material to the combined carve-out financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of a critical audit matter does not alter in any way our opinion on the combined carve-out financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matter below, providing a separate opinion on the critical audit matter or on the accounts or disclosures to which it relates.

The allocation of corporate expenses incurred by TC Energy Corporation to the Company

As discussed in Notes 1 and 2 to the combined carve-out financial statements, on July 27, 2023, TC Energy Corporation (TC Energy) announced plans to separate into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies through the proposed spinoff of its Liquids Pipelines business. The combined carve-out financial statements present the historical results of operations, comprehensive income and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 and the financial position as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 as if the Company had been operated on a standalone basis for the periods presented. As the Company has historically operated as part of TC Energy, the combined carve-out statement of income includes indirect costs that are attributable to the operations of the Company. Indirect costs are the costs of support functions that are provided on a centralized basis by TC Energy and its affiliates (corporate expenses). Corporate expenses have been allocated to the Company based on a specific identification basis or, when specific identification is not practicable, a proportional cost allocation method primarily based on fully burdened internal labour costs, the value of in-service gross property, plant and equipment or other allocation methods that are considered to be a reasonable reflection of the utilization of services provided or benefit received by the Company during the periods presented, depending on the nature of the underlying expenditure.

As discussed in Note 22 to the combined carve-out financial statements, allocated corporate expenses are capitalized or expensed based on the nature of the underlying expenditure. In 2023, the Company recorded $213 million of corporate expenses attributable to the Company (2022 – $217 million; 2021 – $247 million), of which $192 million was recorded to Plant operating costs and other (2022 – $182 million; 2021 – $168 million), $4 million was capitalized in Plant, property and equipment (2022 – $7 million) and $17 million was recorded to Equity investments (2022 – $28 million) of which $15 million impacted income from equity investments (2022 – $20 million; 2021 – $29 million).

We identified the assessment of the allocation of corporate expenses incurred by TC Energy to the Company as a critical audit matter. TC Energy management's determination and classification of allocated corporate expenses incurred by TC Energy to the Company involved various allocation methods to allocate costs to the Company and significant audit effort was required to address the matter.

The following are the primary procedures we performed to address this critical audit matter. We evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of certain internal controls related to the critical audit matter. This included controls related to TC Energy management's determination and classification of allocated corporate expenses incurred by TC Energy to the Company. In addition, we performed the following:

- we evaluated the approved corporate cost allocation methodologies used by TC Energy management to allocate corporate expenses incurred by TC Energy to the Company by inspecting the corporate cost allocation methodology used
- we assessed the accuracy and classification of allocated corporate expenses by:
 - comparing a selection of indirect costs provided on a centralized basis by TC Energy and affiliates to underlying source documentation
 - assessing the accuracy and classification of indirect costs allocated to the Company in accordance with the approved corporate cost allocation methodologies.

Notes to Combined Carve-Out Financial Statements

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

On July 27, 2023, TC Energy Corporation (TC Energy or the Parent) announced plans to separate into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies through the proposed spinoff of its Liquids Pipelines business (the spinoff Transaction) and on November 8, 2023 TC Energy communicated that the name of the new Liquids Pipelines business will be South Bow Corporation (South Bow). In addition to TC Energy shareholder and court approvals, the spinoff Transaction is subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. TC Energy expects that the spinoff Transaction will be completed in the second half of 2024.

Under the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy shareholders as of the record date established for the spinoff will receive, in exchange for each TC Energy share, one new TC Energy share and 0.2 of a South Bow common share. The spinoff Transaction is expected to be tax free to TC Energy's Canadian and U.S. shareholders.

These Combined carve-out financial statements primarily represent the group of liquids pipeline assets, which has been operated as a part of TC Energy and reflect the Combined carve-out balance sheets and carve-out statements of income, comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in parent's net investment in the Liquids Pipelines business (the Company).

The Liquids Pipelines assets primarily consist of the Company's investments in 4,865 km (3,024 miles) of crude oil pipeline systems currently in operation which connect Alberta and U.S. crude oil supplies to U.S. refining markets in Illinois, Oklahoma and Texas.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Company has historically operated as part of TC Energy and not as a separate entity. The Combined carve-out financial statements have been prepared for the proposed spinoff of the Company and have been derived from the consolidated financial statements and accounting records of TC Energy, including the historical cost basis of assets and liabilities comprising the Company, as well as the historical revenues, direct costs and allocations of indirect costs attributable to the operations of the Company using the historical accounting policies applied by TC Energy.

The Combined carve-out financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) and present the historical results of operations, comprehensive income and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 and the financial position as at December 31, 2023 and 2022 as if the Company had been operated on a standalone basis for the periods presented. Amounts are stated in Canadian dollars unless otherwise indicated.

All intercompany transactions and balances within the Company have been eliminated. Transactions historically settled in cash between the Company and the Parent have been reflected in the Combined carve-out balance sheet as Payable to affiliates or Long-term debt to affiliates. The aggregate net effect of transactions between the Company and the Parent that are not historically settled in cash have been reflected in the Combined carve-out balance sheet as Parent's net investment. Refer to Note 16, Parent's Net Investment and Note 22, Related Party Transactions, for additional information.

The Combined carve-out balance sheet reflects all of the assets and liabilities of TC Energy that are specifically identifiable as being directly attributable to the Company, including Parent's net investment. Parent's net investment represents TC Energy's historical investment in the Company and includes accumulated net income attributable to the Company and the net effect of transactions between TC Energy and the Company.

Cash generated from the Company's operations was generally managed by TC Energy's centralized treasury function and was automatically transferred into the Parent's bank accounts until the third quarter of 2023 when this automatic transfer was discontinued for the majority of the Company's operations. Cash and cash equivalents on the Combined carve-out balance sheet represent balances in accounts specifically identifiable to the Company that are not automatically transferred into the Parent's bank accounts. TC Energy's third-party debt and interest expense have not been attributed to the Company because the Company is not the legal obligor of the debt and the borrowings are not specifically identifiable to the Company. Derivatives that were entered into by TC Energy's centralized treasury function used to manage TC Energy's foreign exchange exposure resulting from U.S. dollar earnings and TC Energy's net investment in foreign operations, and the resulting gains and losses thereon have not been attributed to the Company.

The Combined carve-out statement of income includes revenues and expenses that management has determined are specifically identifiable to the Company, as well as direct and indirect costs that are attributable to the operations of the Company. Indirect costs are the costs of support functions that are provided on a centralized basis by TC Energy and its affiliates, which include, but are not limited to, facilities, insurance, compliance, finance, human resources, benefits administration, supply chain, information technology, legal, corporate strategy, corporate governance, and other expenses that are either specifically identifiable or clearly applicable to the Company.

Indirect costs have been allocated to the Company for the purposes of preparing the Combined carve-out financial statements based on a specific identification basis or, when specific identification is not practicable, a proportional cost allocation method primarily based on fully burdened internal labour costs, the value of in-service gross property, plant and equipment or other allocation methods that are considered to be a reasonable reflection of the utilization of services provided or benefit received by the Company during the periods presented, depending on the nature of the underlying expenditure. These allocations have been primarily done through TC Energy's corporate cost allocation methodology. Management considers that such allocations have been made on a reasonable basis consistent with benefits received but may not necessarily be indicative of the costs that would have been incurred if the Company had been operated on a standalone basis for the periods presented, nor are they indicative of the Company's future expenses.

The income tax amounts in the Combined carve-out financial statements have been calculated based on a separate return methodology and presented as if the Company's operations were reported by separate taxpayers in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates. Following the spinoff Transaction, the Company's operating footprint, as well as tax return elections and assertions are expected to be different and therefore, the Company's hypothetical income taxes as presented in the Combined carve-out financial statements are not expected to be indicative of the Company's future income taxes.

For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company incurred separation costs of $2 million with respect to the spinoff Transaction, which primarily included internal costs and external fees related to separation activities. Costs incurred by the Parent related to the spinoff Transaction have not been included in these Combined carve-out financial statements.

These Combined carve-out financial statements represent a group of liquids pipeline assets and operations of TC Energy. For operations that the Company controls but does not own 100 per cent of, the interests owned by other parties are included on non-controlling interests. The Company uses the equity method of accounting for joint ventures in which the Company is able to exercise joint control and for investments in which the Company is able to exercise significant influence.

Use of Estimates and Judgments

In preparing these Combined carve-out financial statements, the Company is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect both the amount and timing of recording assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses since the determination of these items may be dependent on future events. The Company uses the most current information available and exercises careful judgment in making these estimates and assumptions.

Significant items subject to estimates and judgments include, but are not limited to:

- valuation of Keystone XL assets and Class C liabilities (Note 6)
- recoverability and depreciation rates of plant, property and equipment (Note 8)
- assumptions used to measure the environmental remediation liability from the Keystone pipeline incident (Note 12)
- recognition of asset retirement obligations
- provisions for income taxes, including valuation allowances and releases (Note 14)
- fair value of financial instruments (Note 18)
- provisions for commitments, contingencies and guarantees (Note 20)
- allocation of costs from the Parent (Note 22).

The Company continues to assess the impact of climate change on the Combined carve-out financial statements. There are ongoing developments in the ESG frameworks and regulatory initiatives that could further impact accounting estimates and judgments including, but not limited to, assessment of asset useful lives and retirement dates, impairment of plant, property and equipment, accrued environmental costs and asset retirement obligations. The impact of these changes is continuously assessed to ensure any changes in assumptions that would impact estimates listed above are adjusted on a timely basis.

Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The total consideration for services and products to which the Company expects to be entitled can include fixed and variable amounts. The Company has variable revenue that is subject to factors outside the Company's influence, such as market prices, actions of third parties and weather conditions. The Company considers this variable revenue to be "constrained" as it cannot be reliably estimated and, therefore, recognizes variable revenue when the service is provided.

Revenues from contracts with customers are recognized net of any commodity taxes collected from customers which are subsequently remitted to governmental authorities. The Company's contracts with customers include pipeline capacity arrangements, transportation contracts and other contracts.

Revenues from the Company's pipelines are generated mainly from providing customers with firm capacity arrangements to transport crude oil. The performance obligation in these contracts is the reservation of a specified amount of capacity together with the transportation of crude oil on a monthly basis. Revenues earned from these arrangements are recognized ratably over the term of the contract regardless of the amount of crude oil that is transported. Revenues for interruptible or volumetric-based services are recognized when the service is performed. Pipeline revenues are invoiced and received on a monthly basis. The Company does not take ownership of the crude oil that it transports for customers.

The majority of income earned from marketing activities, as it relates to the purchase and sale of crude oil, is recorded on a net basis in the month of delivery. The Company currently has a contract where it is acting as the principal in the transaction and the marketing activities are not held for trading purposes. The related Commodity purchases resold under this contract are recorded on a gross basis.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents on the Combined carve-out balance sheet represent balances in accounts specifically identifiable to the Company that are not swept into the Parent's bank accounts. The Company's Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and highly liquid short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less and are recorded at cost, which approximates fair value.

Inventories

Inventories primarily consist of proprietary crude oil that is in transit or in storage, as well as materials and supplies, which include spare parts. Inventories are carried at the lower of cost, as determined on a weighted average basis, and net realizable value.

Assets Held for Sale

The Company classifies assets as held for sale when management approves and commits to a formal plan to actively market a disposal group and expects the sale to close within the next 12 months. Upon classifying an asset as held for sale, the asset is recorded at the lower of its carrying amount or its estimated fair value, net of selling costs, and any losses are recognized in net income. Gains related to the expected sale of these assets are not recognized until the transaction closes. Once an asset is classified as held for sale, depreciation expense is no longer recorded.

Plant, Property and Equipment

Plant, property and equipment is carried at cost. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis once the assets are ready for their intended use. Pipeline and pumping equipment are depreciated at annual rates ranging from two per cent to 2.5 per cent and other plant, property and equipment are depreciated at various rates reflecting their estimated useful lives. The cost of these assets includes interest capitalized during construction. When the Company retires plant, property and equipment from service, the original book cost and related accumulated depreciation are derecognized and any gain or loss is recorded in net income.

Leases

The Company determines if a contract contains a lease at inception of a contract by using judgment in assessing the following aspects: 1) the contract specifies an identified asset which is physically distinct or, if not physically distinct, represents substantially all of the capacity of the asset; 2) the contract provides the customer with the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the asset; and 3) the customer has the right to direct how and for what purpose the identified asset is used throughout the period of the contract.

The Company applies the practical expedient to not separate lease and non-lease components for all lessee contracts and liquids tank terminals for which the Company is the lessor in an operating lease.

Lessee Accounting Policy

Operating leases are recognized as right-of-use (ROU) assets and included in Plant, property and equipment while corresponding liabilities are included in Accounts payable and other and Other long-term liabilities on the Combined carve-out balance sheet.

Operating lease ROU assets and operating lease liabilities are recognized based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments over the lease term at the commencement date of the lease agreement. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. As the Company's lease contracts do not provide an implicit interest rate, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at commencement date in determining the present value of future payments. Operating lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term and included in Plant operating costs and other in the Combined carve-out statement of income.

The Company applies the practical expedient to not recognize ROU assets or lease liabilities for leases that qualify for the short-term lease recognition exemption.

Lessor Accounting Policy

The Company is the lessor for liquids tank terminals, which are accounted for as operating leases. In an operating lease, the leased asset remains capitalized in Plant, property and equipment on the Combined carve-out balance sheet and is depreciated over its useful life, while lease payments are recognized as revenue over the term of the lease on a straight-line basis. Variable lease payments are recognized as income in the period in which they occur.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company reviews long-lived assets such as plant, property and equipment and capital projects in development for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable. If the total of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for an asset within plant, property and equipment, or the estimated selling price of any long-lived asset is less than the carrying value of an asset, an impairment loss is recognized for the excess of the carrying value over the estimated fair value of the asset.

Impairment of Equity Method Investments

The Company reviews equity method investments for impairment when an event or change in circumstances has a significant adverse effect on the investment's fair value. Where the Company concludes an investment's fair value is below its carrying value, the Company then determines whether the decline in value is other-than-temporary, and if so, an impairment loss is recognized for the excess of the carrying value over the estimated fair value of the investment, not exceeding the carrying value of the investment.

Impairment of Financial Assets

The Company reviews financial assets carried at amortized cost for impairment using the lifetime expected loss of the financial asset at initial recognition and throughout the life of the financial asset. An expected credit loss (ECL) is calculated using a model and methodology based on assumptions and judgment considering historical data, current counterparty information as well as reasonable and supportable forecasts of future economic conditions. The ECL is recognized in Plant operating costs and other on the Combined carve-out statement of income, and is presented on the Combined carve-out balance sheet as a reduction to the carrying value of the related financial asset.

Restricted Investments

The Company has certain investments that are restricted as to their withdrawal and use. These restricted investments are classified as available for sale and are recorded at fair value on the Combined carve-out balance sheet. As a result of the Canada Energy Regulator's (CER) Land Matters Consultation Initiative (LMCI), the Company is required to collect funds to cover estimated future pipeline abandonment costs for larger CER-regulated Canadian pipelines. Funds collected are placed in trusts that hold and invest the funds and are accounted for as restricted investments (LMCI restricted investments). LMCI restricted investments may only be used to fund the abandonment of the CER-regulated pipeline facilities, therefore, a corresponding liability is recorded on the Combined carve-out balance sheet.

Receivables

Accounts receivable are measured at amortized cost.

Income Taxes

The income tax amounts in the Combined carve-out financial statements have been calculated based on a separate return methodology and presented as if the Company's operations were reported by separate taxpayers in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates. Following the spinoff Transaction, the Company's operating footprint as well as tax return elections and assertions are expected to be different and therefore, the Company's hypothetical income taxes, as presented in the Combined carve-out financial statements, are not expected to be indicative of the Company's future income taxes. Any differences between actual amounts paid or received by the Company and taxes accrued under the separate return method are deemed to be settled and are reflected in Parent's net investment in the Combined carve-out balance sheet.

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. This method requires the recognition of deferred income tax assets and liabilities for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates at the balance sheet date that are anticipated to apply to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are expected to be reversed or settled. Changes to these balances are recognized in net income in the period in which they occur. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current on the Combined carve-out balance sheet. The Company's exposure to uncertain tax positions is evaluated and a provision is made where it is more likely than not that this exposure will materialize.

Asset Retirement Obligations

The Company recognizes the fair value of a liability for asset retirement obligations (ARO) in the period in which it is incurred, when a legal obligation exists and a reasonable estimate of fair value can be made. The fair value is added to the carrying amount of the associated asset and the liability is accreted through charges to Plant operating costs and other in the Combined carve-out statement of income.

In determining the fair value of ARO, the following assumptions are used:

- the expected retirement date
- the scope and cost of abandonment and reclamation activities that are required
- appropriate inflation and discount rates.

The scope and timing of asset retirements related to the Company's pipelines and storage facilities are indeterminable because the Company intends to operate them as long as there is supply and demand. As a result, the Company has not recorded an amount for ARO related to these assets.

Environmental Liabilities

The Company records liabilities on an undiscounted basis for environmental remediation efforts that are likely to occur and where the cost can be reasonably estimated. These estimates, including associated legal costs, are based on available information using existing technology and enacted laws and regulations and are subject to revision in future periods based on actual costs incurred or new circumstances. The Company evaluates recoveries from insurers and other third parties separately from the liability and, when recovery is probable, it records an asset separately from the associated liability. These recoveries are presented, along with environmental remediation costs, on a net basis in Plant operating costs and other in the Combined carve-out statement of income. Variations in one or more of the categories described above could result in additional costs such as fines, penalties and/or expenditures associated with litigation and settlement of claims with respect to environmental liabilities.

Employee Post-Retirement Benefits

Certain employees, former employees, and retirees of the Company participate in pension and other post-retirement benefit plans sponsored by TC Energy. These plans are accounted for as multiemployer plans, therefore, the related assets and liabilities are not reflected in the Combined carve-out balance sheet. The Combined carve-out statement of income reflects a proportionate allocation of net periodic benefit costs for the multiemployer plans associated with the Company.

Foreign Currency Transactions and Translation

Foreign currency transactions are those transactions whose terms are denominated in a currency other than the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company or combined entity operates. This is referred to as the functional currency. Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated to the functional currency using the rate of exchange in effect at the balance sheet date whereas non-monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the historical rate of exchange in effect on the date of the transaction. Exchange gains and losses resulting from translation of monetary assets and liabilities are recorded in net income.

Gains and losses arising from translation of foreign operations' functional currencies to the Company's Canadian dollar reporting currency are reflected in other comprehensive income until the operations are sold, at which time the gains and losses are reclassified to net income. Asset and liability accounts are translated at the period-end exchange rates while revenues, expenses, gains and losses are translated at the exchange rates in effect at the time of the transaction.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

All derivative instruments are recorded on the Combined carve-out balance sheet at fair value, unless they qualify for and are designated under a normal purchase and normal sales exemption, or are considered to meet other permitted exemptions.

Derivatives are used as economic hedges and for proprietary trading strategies in the Company's marketing business. These derivatives do not meet the specific criteria for hedge accounting treatment and therefore, the changes in fair value are recorded in net income in the period of change.

Derivatives embedded in other financial instruments or contracts (host instrument) are recorded as separate derivatives. Embedded derivatives are measured at fair value if their economic characteristics are not clearly and closely related to those of the host instrument, their terms are the same as those of a stand-alone derivative and the total contract is not held for trading or accounted for at fair value. When changes in the fair value of embedded derivatives are measured separately, they are included in net income.

Guarantees

Certain guarantees issued by TC Energy that relate to specific assets or entities of the Company have been attributed to the Company in the Combined carve-out financial statements.

Upon issuance, the Company records the fair value of certain guarantees entered into by the Company on behalf of a partially-owned entity or by partially-owned entities for which contingent payments may be made. The fair value of these guarantees is estimated by discounting the cash flows that would be incurred by the Company if letters of credit were used in place of the guarantees as appropriate in the circumstances. Guarantees are recorded as an increase to Equity investments and a corresponding liability is recorded in Other long-term liabilities. The release from the obligation is recognized either over the term of the guarantee or upon expiration or settlement of the guarantee.

Variable Interest Entities

A variable interest entity (VIE) is a legal entity that does not have sufficient equity at risk to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support or is structured such that equity investors lack the ability to make significant decisions relating to the entity's operations through voting rights or do not substantively participate in the gains and losses of the entity. The assessment of whether an entity is a VIE and, if so, whether the Company is the primary beneficiary, is completed at the inception of the entity or at a reconsideration event.

Consolidated VIEs

The Company's consolidated VIEs consist of legal entities where the Company has a variable interest and for which it is considered the primary beneficiary. As the primary beneficiary, the Company has the power, through voting or similar rights, to direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact economic performance including: purchasing or selling significant assets; maintenance and operations of assets; incurring additional indebtedness; or determining the strategic operating direction of the entity. In addition, the Company has the obligation to absorb losses or the right to receive benefits from the consolidated VIE that could potentially be significant to the VIE.

Non-Consolidated VIEs

The Company's non-consolidated VIEs consist of legal entities where the Company has a variable interest but is not the primary beneficiary as it does not have the power (either explicit or implicit), through voting or similar rights, to direct the activities that most significantly impact the economic performance of these VIEs or where this power is shared with third parties. The Company contributes capital to these VIEs and receives ownership interests that provide it with residual claims on assets after liabilities are paid. Non-consolidated VIEs are accounted for as equity investments.

The Company's maximum exposure to loss is the maximum loss that could potentially be recorded through net income in future periods as a result of the Company's variable interest in a VIE.

3. ACCOUNTING CHANGES

Future Accounting Changes

Income Taxes

In December 2023, the FASB issued new guidance to enhance the transparency and decision usefulness of income tax disclosures through improvements to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid information. The guidance also includes certain other amendments to improve the effectiveness of income tax disclosures. This new guidance is effective for the annual period beginning January 1, 2025. The guidance is applied prospectively with retrospective application permitted. Early adoption is permitted for annual financial statements not yet issued. The Company does not expect this guidance to have a material impact on the Company's Combined carve-out financial statements.

Segment Reporting

In November 2023, the FASB issued new guidance to improve disclosures about a public entity's reportable segments and address requests from investors for additional, more detailed information about a reportable segment's expenses. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning January 1, 2024 and interim periods beginning January 1, 2025. Early adoption is permitted and the guidance is applied retrospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact of the standard on its Combined carve-out financial statements.

4. SEGMENTED INFORMATION

Future Revenues from Remaining Performance Obligations

As at December 31, 2023, future revenues from long-term pipeline capacity arrangements and transportation contracts extending through 2044 are approximately $9.3 billion, of which approximately $1.1 billion is expected to be recognized in 2024.

A significant portion of the Company's revenues are considered constrained and therefore not included in the future revenue amounts above as the Company uses the following practical expedients:

- variable consideration practical expedient – applied to the following variable revenues:
 - interruptible transportation service revenues as volumes cannot be estimated;
 - capacity revenues based on volumes transported;
- contracts for a duration of one year or less.

6. KEYSTONE XL

Asset Impairment Charge and Other

On March 31, 2020, TC Energy announced that it would proceed with construction of the Keystone XL pipeline. This pipeline was being built to transport crude oil from Hardisty, Alberta to Steele City, Nebraska and to expand capacity of the Keystone Pipeline System. Following the revocation of the Presidential Permit for the Keystone XL pipeline project on January 20, 2021, the Company terminated the Keystone XL pipeline project and evaluated the costs incurred for the Keystone XL investment for impairment in 2021. As a result, the Company determined that the carrying amount of these assets was no longer fully recoverable and recognized an asset impairment charge, net of expected contractual recoveries and other contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities, of $2,775 million ($2,136 million after tax) for the year ended December 31, 2021. The asset impairment charge was based on the excess of the carrying value of $3,301 million over the estimated fair value of $175 million.

year ended December 31, 2021	Estimated Fair Value of Plant, Property and Equipment	Asset impairment charge and other
(millions of Canadian $)		Pre tax	After tax

Plant and equipment	175	412	317

Contractual recoveries	n/a	(693)	(529)
Contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities	n/a	342	259
	175	2,775	2,136

The estimated fair value of $175 million at December 31, 2021 related to plant and equipment was based on the price that was expected to be received from selling these assets in their current condition and is updated as required. The initial key assumptions used in the determination of selling price included an estimated two-year disposal period and current energy market demand. The valuation considered a variety of potential selling prices based on various markets that could be used to dispose of these assets and required the use of unobservable inputs. As a result, the fair value is classified in Level III of the fair value hierarchy.

In 2023, the Company received $10 million (2022 – $571 million) towards its contractual recoveries, resulting in a remaining balance of $117 million at December 31, 2023 (December 31, 2022 – $130 million).

In 2022, the Company revised its estimate of contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities based on a review of costs and commitments incurred, which resulted in a $54 million reduction to the related obligations which was recorded in Asset impairment charge and other. No revision to the estimate was made in 2023. The Company paid $2 million in 2023 (2022 – $24 million; 2021 – $192 million) towards contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities. At December 31, 2023, the remaining balance accrued was $45 million (December 31, 2022 – $48 million).

In 2023, the Company sold plant and equipment with a carrying value of approximately $63 million (2022 – $37 million; 2021 – $20 million), resulting in a gain of $36 million (2022 – $64 million; 2021 – nil) recorded in Asset impairment charge and other in the Combined carve-out statement of income.

Redeemable Non-Controlling Interest and Long-Term Debt

As part of the funding plan for the construction of the Keystone XL pipeline, the Government of Alberta invested $1,033 million in the form of Class A Interests in the year ended December 31, 2020.

On January 4, 2021, the Company put in place a US$4.1 billion project-level credit facility to support construction of the Keystone XL pipeline, that was fully guaranteed by the Government of Alberta and non-recourse to the Company. On January 8, 2021, the Company exercised its call right with the Government of Alberta in accordance with contractual terms and paid $633 million (US$497 million) to repurchase the Government of Alberta Class A Interests in certain Keystone XL entities. This transaction was funded by draws on the project-level credit facility. For the year ended December 31, 2021, the Company made draws under the Keystone XL project-level credit facility totaling $1,028 million (US$849 million). Following the cancellation of the Keystone XL pipeline project, the Government of Alberta repaid the full outstanding balance in June 2021 in accordance with the terms of the guarantee, and the credit facility was subsequently terminated. Additionally, in June 2021, the Company repurchased the remaining Government of Alberta Class A Interests for a nominal amount, which was accounted for as an equity transaction and resulted in $394 million recognized in Parent's net investment. As part of this arrangement, the Company issued $91 million of Class C Interests in the Keystone XL entities which entitled the Government of Alberta to future liquidation proceeds from specified Keystone XL project assets. The entire $91 million was recorded (net of distributions) in Accounts payable and other on the Combined carve-out balance sheet. During 2023, it was determined that the Company would exceed the $91 million of Class C distributions and the Company increased the Class C Interests carrying value by $32 million with a corresponding increase recorded in Asset impairment charge and other in the Combined carve-out statement of income. Termination of the project-level credit facility, net of the issuance of Class C Interests, resulted in $937 million ($746 million after tax) recorded in Parent's net investment. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company made Class C distributions to the Government of Alberta of $49 million (2022 – $43 million; 2021 – $16 million).

⁴ In November 2021, the Company completed the sale of its remaining 15 per cent equity interest in Northern Courier to a third party for gross proceeds of approximately $35 million resulting in a pre-tax gain of $13 million ($10 million after tax). The pre-tax gain was included in Gain on sale of asset in the Combined carve-out statement of income.

The spinoff Transaction will trigger certain option rights to purchase the Company's ownership interest in the equity investments, which may or may not be exercised by the Company's respective partners or shareholders, as applicable. The option rights are triggered once TC Energy enters into certain spinoff agreements or upon closing of the spinoff Transaction. As at December 31, 2023, no triggering events had occurred. On April 10, 2024, the option rights for Port Neches Link LLC and HoustonLink Pipeline were triggered. As at April 10, 2024, these option rights have not been exercised.

Distributions and Contributions

Distributions received from operating activities of equity investments for the year ended December 31, 2023 were $96 million (2022 – $70 million, 2021 – $93 million).

For the year ended December 31, 2023 the Company made no contributions to equity investments (2022 – $37 million, 2021 – $83 million). 228 Contributions made in 2021 and 2022 were included in Investing activities in the Combined carve-out statement of cash flows. In addition, plant, property and equipment amounting to $22 million was contributed to the equity investments in 2021.

12. KEYSTONE ENVIRONMENTAL PROVISION

In December 2022, a pipeline incident occurred in Washington County, Kansas on the Keystone Pipeline System. At December 31, 2022, the Company accrued an environmental remediation liability of $650 million, before expected insurance recoveries and not including potential fines and penalties which continue to be indeterminable. During 2023, the cost estimate for the incident was adjusted to $794 million based on a review of costs and commitments incurred and, at December 31, 2023, remains unchanged. Amounts paid for the environmental remediation liability were $676 million in 2023 (2022 – nil). The remaining balance reflected in Accounts payable and other and Other long-term liabilities on the Company's Combined carve-out balance sheet was $122 million and $9 million, respectively at December 31, 2023 (December 31, 2022 – $650 million and nil, respectively).

The expected recovery of the remaining estimated environmental remediation costs recorded in Environmental provision recovery was $186 million, including $36 million from TC Energy's wholly-owned captive insurance subsidiary, and $33 million in Other long-term assets at December 31, 2023 (December 31, 2022 – $410 million and $240 million, respectively). During the year, the Company received $583 million, including $7 million from TC Energy's wholly-owned captive insurance subsidiary, (2022 – nil) from its insurance policies related to the costs for environmental remediation. Restoration activities are ongoing and expected to continue into 2024.

See Note 20, Commitments, Contingencies and Guarantees, for additional information related to indemnification.

The Company has Kansas state tax credits of $51 million (2022 – $54 million), which expire in 2025. The deferred tax asset attributable to the Kansas state tax credits, net of federal impact, is $40 million (2022 – $43 million). An income tax valuation allowance of $40 million and $42 million at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, was recorded against the Kansas state tax credits as the Company concluded that it is more likely than not that the tax benefit will not be realized in the future.

Income Tax Payments

Income tax payments of $44 million, net of refunds, were made in 2023 (2022 and 2021 – nil).

The Company and its entities are subject to either Canadian federal and provincial income tax, U.S. federal, state and local income tax. The Company has substantially concluded all Canadian federal and provincial income tax matters for the years through 2015. Substantially all material U.S. federal, state and local income tax matters have been concluded for years through 2015. The Company does not anticipate material adjustments as a result of audit examinations by taxing authorities and other legislative amendments during the next 12 months that would have a material impact on its Combined carve-out financial statements.

Unremitted Earnings of Foreign Investments

The Combined carve-out financial statements do not include income taxes on the unremitted earnings of foreign investments, consistent with the Parent's assertion that it does not intend to repatriate earnings in the foreseeable future.

As a result of the proposed spinoff Transaction, the Company expects it may be required to repatriate all or a portion of its unremitted foreign earnings in the future. If the Company repatriates all of the earnings and profits, it would incur a withholding tax liability at December 31, 2023 of $156 million (2022 – $136 million).

In January 2021, $1,028 million (US$849 million) was drawn, bearing interest at a floating rate. The availability of this credit facility was subsequently reduced to US$1.6 billion and all amounts outstanding were fully repaid by the Government of Alberta in June 2021. 16. PARENT'S NET INVESTMENT

TC Energy's investment in the operations of the Company is comprised of Parent's net investment and Accumulated other comprehensive income (AOCI) and is presented as Parent's net investment in the Combined carve-out financial statements. Parent's net investment represents the Company's accumulated net earnings from operations as well as the net effect of transactions between the Company and the Parent which mainly include net capital distributions and contributions to the Company, cash generated from the Company's operations and held in the Parent's consolidated centralized cash management accounts, allocation of indirect costs that are attributable to the operations of the Company and income taxes. AOCI includes accumulated foreign currency translation adjustments. In third quarter 2023, in preparation for the spinoff Transaction, the Parent completed an internal restructuring where the majority of Liquids Pipelines business entities were transferred to the Company's new holding companies, 6297782 LLC and 15142121 Canada Ltd. As a consideration for this transfer, these holding companies issued long-term debt to affiliates of $6.6 billion (Note 15) with a corresponding amount recorded in Parent's net investment in the Company's Combined carve-out financial statements.

Net financing transactions with TC Energy as presented on the Combined carve-out statement of cash flows represent the net contributions (distributions) related to funding between the Parent and the Company.

17. EMPLOYEE POST-RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Pension Benefits and Other Post-Retirement Benefits Sponsored by TC Energy

TC Energy sponsors various pension and post-retirement benefit plans for certain employees in the U.S. and Canada. These may include defined benefit plans, savings plans, and post-employment benefits other than pensions. These plans are accounted for as multiemployer plans. Specific costs related to participation in TC Energy's plans have been allocated for active employees in the Company and are included in the Combined carve-out statement of income. These costs totaled $3 million for the year ended December 31, 2023 (2022 – $6 million) and included less than $1 million (2022 – $4 million) in net benefit cost from TC Energy's pension benefit and other post-retirement benefit plan. The Company has not recorded any assets or liabilities associated with participation in these plans on the Combined carve-out balance sheet.

18. RISK MANAGEMENT AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Risk Management Overview

The Company has exposure to various financial risks and has strategies, policies and limits in place to manage the impact of these risks on its earnings and cash flows.

Risk management strategies, policies and limits are designed to ensure the Company's risks and related exposures are in line with TC Energy's business objectives and risk tolerance. The Company's risks are managed within limits that are established by TC Energy's Board, implemented by senior management and monitored by the risk management, internal audit and business segment groups. TC Energy's Board's Audit Committee oversees how management monitors compliance with risk management policies and procedures and oversees management's review of the adequacy of the risk management framework.

Market Risk

The Company constructs and invests in crude oil pipeline systems, purchases and sells commodities, issues debt to affiliates, including amounts in foreign currencies, and invests in foreign operations. Certain of these activities expose the Company to market risk from changes in commodity prices, foreign exchange rates and interest rates, which may affect the Company's earnings, cash flows and the value of its financial assets and liabilities. The Company assesses contracts used to manage market risk to determine whether all, or a portion, meets the definition of a derivative.

Derivative contracts the Company uses to assist in managing exposure to market risk may include the following:

- forwards and futures contracts – agreements to purchase or sell a specific financial instrument or liquids commodity at a specified price and date in the future
- swaps – agreements between two parties to exchange streams of payments over time according to specified terms
- options – agreements that convey the right, but not the obligation of the purchaser to buy or sell a specific amount of a financial instrument or commodity at a fixed price, either at a fixed date or at any time within a specified period.

Commodity Price Risk

The Company's liquids marketing business enters into pipeline and storage terminal capacity contracts as well as crude oil purchase and sale agreements. The Company fixes a portion of the exposure on these contracts by entering into financial instruments to manage variable price fluctuations that arise from physical commodity transactions.

Lower crude oil prices could lead to reduced investment in its development, expansion and production. A reduction in demand could negatively impact opportunities to expand the Company's asset base and/or re-contract with its shippers and customers as contractual agreements expire.

Climate change also presents a potential financial impact to commodity prices and volumes. The Company's exposure to climate change-related risk and resulting policy changes is managed by TC Energy.

The physical and transition risks related to climate change could impact commodity prices and fossil fuel supply and demand dynamics which could affect the Company's financial performance. TC Energy evaluates the financial resilience of the Company's asset portfolio against a range of future pricing and supply and demand outcomes as part of the Company's strategic planning process. The Company's exposure to climate change-related transition risks and resulting policy changes is managed through TC Energy's business model, which is based on a long-term, low-risk strategy whereby the majority of the Company's earnings are underpinned by long-term contracts. The Company factors physical and transition risks into capital planning, financial risk management and operational activities and is working towards reducing the GHG emissions intensity of existing operations.

Interest Rate Risk

The Company utilizes debt issued to affiliates to finance its operations which exposes the Company to interest rate risk, which currently bears interest at floating and fixed rates. The Company has relied on TC Energy for funding and management of its interest rate risk.

Foreign Exchange Risk

Certain of the Company's entities generate all or most of their earnings in U.S. dollars and, since the Company reports its financial results in Canadian dollars, changes in the value of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar can affect its net income. If the Company's U.S. dollar-denominated operations continue to grow, this exposure increases. A portion of this risk is offset by interest expense on U.S. dollar-denominated debt.

Counterparty Credit Risk

The Company's exposure to counterparty credit risk includes its cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, environmental provision and certain contractual recoveries, available-for-sale assets and the fair value of derivative assets.

At times, the Company's counterparties may endure financial challenges resulting from commodity price and market volatility, economic instability and political or regulatory changes. In addition to actively monitoring these situations, there are a number of factors that reduce the Company's counterparty credit risk exposure in the event of default, including:

- contractual rights and remedies together with the utilization of contractually-based financial assurances
- the competitive position of the Company's assets and the demand for the Company's services
- potential recovery of unpaid amounts through bankruptcy and similar proceedings.

The Company reviews financial assets carried at amortized cost for impairment using the lifetime expected loss of the financial asset at initial recognition and throughout the life of the financial asset. The Company uses historical credit loss and recovery data, adjusted for management's judgment regarding current economic and credit conditions, along with reasonable and supportable forecasts to determine any impairment, which is recognized in Plant operating costs and other.

The Company had no significant credit losses and no significant amounts past due or impaired at December 31, 2023 and 2022. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, there were no significant credit risk concentrations.

The Company has significant credit and performance exposure to financial institutions that hold cash. The Company's portfolio of financial sector exposure consists primarily of highly-rated investment grade, systemically important financial institutions.

The Company has relied on TC Energy for funding and management of its liquidity risk.

Non-Derivative Financial Instruments

Fair Value of Non-Derivative Financial Instruments

Available-for-sale assets are recorded at fair value which is calculated using quoted market prices where available. Certain non-derivative financial instruments included in Cash and cash equivalents, Accounts receivable, Environmental provision recovery, Contractual recoveries, Other current assets, Other long-term assets, Accounts payable and other, Payable to affiliates and Other long-term liabilities have carrying amounts that approximate their fair value due to the nature of the item or the short time to maturity. Each of these instruments are classified in Level II of the fair value hierarchy, except for the Company's LMCI equity securities which are classified in Level I.

Credit risk has been taken into consideration when calculating the fair value of non-derivative financial instruments.

Balance Sheet Presentation of Non-Derivative Financial Instruments

The following table details the fair value of non-derivative financial instruments, excluding those where carrying amounts approximate fair value, and would be classified in Level II of the fair value hierarchy:

As a result, the Company records these gains and losses within Other long-term assets and liabilities.

2 Realized gains (losses) on the sale of LMCI restricted investments are determined using the average cost basis.

Derivative Instruments

Fair Value of Derivative Instruments

The fair value of commodity derivatives has been calculated using quoted market prices where available. In the absence of quoted market prices, third-party broker quotes or other valuation techniques have been used. The fair value of options has been calculated using the Black-Scholes pricing model. Credit risk has been taken into consideration when calculating the fair value of derivative instruments. Unrealized gains and losses on derivative instruments are not necessarily representative of the amounts that will be realized on settlement.

Even though the derivatives are considered to be effective economic hedges, they do not meet the specific criteria for hedge accounting treatment or are not designated as a hedge and are accounted for at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in net income in the period of change. This may expose the Company to increased variability in reported earnings because the fair value of the derivative instruments can fluctuate significantly from period to period.

Balance Sheet Presentation of Derivative Instruments

The balance sheet classification of the fair value of held-for-trading, commodity derivative instruments was as follows:

at December 31 (millions of Canadian $)	2023	2022
Other current assets (Note 7)	696	113

Total Derivative Liabilities	(728)	(111)
Total Derivatives^{1,2}	(32)	3

1 Fair value equals carrying value.

2 Includes purchases and sales.

The majority of derivative instruments held for trading have been entered into for risk management purposes and all are subject to TC Energy's risk management strategies, policies and limits. These include derivatives that have not been designated as hedges or do not qualify for hedge accounting treatment but have been entered into as economic hedges to manage the Company's exposures to market risk.

Offsetting of Derivative Instruments

The Company enters into commodity derivative contracts with the right to offset in the normal course of business as well as in the event of default. The Company has no master netting agreements; however, similar contracts are entered into containing rights to offset.

The Company has elected to present the fair value of derivative instruments with the right to offset on a gross basis on the Combined carve-out balance sheet.

The following tables show the impact on the presentation of the fair value of derivative instrument assets and liabilities had the Company elected to present these contracts on a net basis:

at December 31, 2023 (millions of Canadian $)	Gross Derivative Instruments	Amounts Available for Offset ¹	Net Amounts
Derivative instrument assets	696	(681)	15
Derivative instrument liabilities	(728)	681	(47)

Derivative instrument assets	114	(88)	26
Derivative instrument liabilities	(111)	88	(23)

¹ Amounts available for offset do not include cash collateral pledged or received.

With respect to the derivative instruments presented above, the Company provided cash collateral of $92 million and no letters of credit at December 31, 2023 (2022 – $35 million and nil, respectively) to its counterparties. At December 31, 2023, the Company held no cash collateral and $4 million in letters of credit (2022 – nil and nil, respectively) from counterparties on asset exposures.

Credit-Risk-Related Contingent Features of Derivative Instruments

Derivative contracts entered into to manage market risk often contain financial assurance provisions that allow parties to the contracts to manage credit risk. These provisions may require collateral to be provided if a credit-risk-related contingent event occurs, such as a downgrade in the Company's credit rating to non-investment grade. The Company may also need to provide collateral if the fair value of its derivative financial instruments exceeds pre-defined exposure limits.

Based on contracts in place and market prices at December 31, 2023, the Company had derivative instruments with credit-risk-related contingent features in a net liability position that no collateral was provided of less than $1 million (2022 – nil). Should the fair value of derivative instruments exceed pre-defined contractual exposure limit thresholds collateral may need to be provided. The Company has sufficient liquidity in the form of cash and TC Energy's support to meet these contingent obligations should they arise.

Fair Value Hierarchy

The Company's financial assets and liabilities recorded at fair value have been categorized into three categories based on a fair value hierarchy.

Levels	How Fair Value Has Been Determined
Level I	Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities that the Company has the ability to access at the measurement date. An active market is a market in which frequency and volume of transactions provides pricing information on an ongoing basis.
Level II	This category includes commodity derivatives where fair value is determined using the market approach. Inputs include yield curves and broker quotes from external data service providers.
Level III	This category includes long-dated transactions in certain markets where liquidity is low and the Company uses the most observable inputs available or alternatively long-term broker quotes or negotiated commodity prices that have been contracted for under similar terms in determining an appropriate estimate of these transactions. There is uncertainty caused by using unobservable market data which may not accurately reflect possible future changes in fair value.

The fair value of the Company's derivative assets and liabilities measured on a recurring basis, including both current and non-current portions, were categorized as follows:

at December 31, 2023
(millions of Canadian $)	Quoted Prices in Active Markets (Level I)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level II) ¹	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level III) ¹	Total

Commitments

The Company has long-term crude oil transportation agreements as well as other purchase obligations, all of which are transacted at market prices and in the normal course of business. Purchases under these contracts in 2023 were $62 million (2022 – $48 million; 2021 – nil).

At December 31, 2023, the Company had capital expenditure commitments totaling approximately $6 million (2022 – $21 million).

Contingencies

The Company is subject to laws and regulations governing environmental quality and pollution control. At December 31, 2023, the Company has not accrued any amounts (2022 – nil) related to operations.

Variable Toll Disputes

In 2019 and 2020, a subset of Keystone customers initiated complaints before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) and the CER. The complaints indicated that Keystone had provided insufficient information to support its 2020 and 2021 estimated variable rates and challenged the just and reasonableness of Keystone's committed rates charged dating back to 2018 and 2020 at FERC and the CER, respectively. In addition, two Keystone customers filed a claim in 2020 in the Calgary Court of King's Bench seeking unspecified damages from Keystone for costs included in the 2018 and 2019 variable rates. This matter is currently in abeyance.

In December 2022, the CER issued a decision which resulted in an adjustment related to previously charged tolls of $38 million, which was accrued by the Company as at December 31, 2022. The CER has established a proceeding to consider Keystone's compliance filing required by the decision regarding the allocation of drag reducing agent in the variable toll.

On February 16, 2023, FERC released its initial decision in respect of the complaint which resulted in an adjustment of $57 million related to tolls previously charged between 2018 and 2022, which was accrued by the Company in 2023. A final order from FERC is expected in 2024.

TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities

Subject to the completion of the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy may indemnify South Bow for certain liabilities and costs associated with the Milepost 14 incident (Note 12) and certain existing variable toll disputes on the Keystone Pipeline System as described above (collectively, the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities). While TC Energy believes that it has strong arguments that the variable tolls in dispute were properly calculated and applied, any amounts above the current accrued amounts that may ultimately be payable in respect of these disputes are indeterminable at this time; however, such may be material. The ultimate amounts of any indemnities provided by TC Energy in respect of the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities will be determined closer to the completion of the spinoff Transaction.

Keystone XL

In 2021, TC Energy filed a Request for Arbitration to formally initiate a legacy North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) claim to recover economic damages resulting from the revocation of the Presidential Permit for the Keystone XL pipeline project. In 2022, the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) formally constituted a tribunal to hear TC Energy’s request for arbitration under NAFTA. In April 2023, the tribunal suspended the proceeding, granting a request from the U.S. Department of State to decide the jurisdictional grounds of the case as a preliminary matter. A hearing on the jurisdictional matter is set to occur in second quarter of 2024. In April 2023, the Government of Alberta filed its own request for arbitration, which will proceed separately from TC Energy’s claim. Termination activities undertaken in 2023, including asset dispositions and preservation, will continue through the first half of 2024. The Company will continue to coordinate with regulators, stakeholders and Indigenous groups to meet its environmental and regulatory commitments.

Subject to the completion of the spinoff Transaction, any amounts ultimately recoverable in respect of the claim to recover economic damages under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement relating to the legacy North American Free Trade Agreement and the revocation of the Keystone XL Presidential Permit in early 2021, will be attributable to TC Energy and South Bow on a 90 / 10 split, respectively.

Other Proceedings

In addition to proceedings in the Variable Toll Disputes section above, the Company is subject to various legal proceedings, arbitrations and actions arising in the normal course of business. The amounts involved in such proceedings are not reasonably estimable as the final outcome of such legal proceedings cannot be predicted with certainty. It is the opinion of management that the ultimate resolution of such proceedings and actions will not have a material impact on the Company’s combined financial position or results of operations.

Guarantees

The Company and its partners in certain jointly-owned entities have either: i) jointly and severally; ii) jointly or iii) severally guaranteed the financial performance of these entities. Such agreements include guarantees which are primarily related to construction services and the payment of liabilities. For certain of these entities, any payments made by the Company under these guarantees in excess of its ownership interest are to be reimbursed by its partners.

The carrying value of these guarantees has been recorded in Other long-term liabilities on the Combined carve-out balance sheet. Information regarding the Company’s guarantees were as follows:

- sold plant and equipment with carrying value of nil (2022 – $12 million, 2021 – $4 million) to affiliates
- earned interest income of $29 million (2022 – $32 million; 2021 – $3 million) from affiliates.

At December 31, 2023, $137 million was due to affiliates (December 31, 2022 – $115 million) and $4 million was receivable from a jointly-owned entity (December 31, 2022 – nil). See Note 15, Long-Term Debt to Affiliates, for discussion of long-term debt to affiliates. See Note 12, Keystone Environmental Provision, for discussion of insurance recoveries from TC Energy's wholly-owned captive insurance subsidiary.

Management’s Discussion and Analysis

April 10, 2024

On July 27, 2023, the Board of Directors of TC Energy Corporation (TC Energy or the Parent) approved a proposed reorganization of TC Energy into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies (the spinoff Transaction). Pursuant to the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy’s Liquids Pipelines business will be transferred to South Bow Corporation (South Bow) by way of a plan of arrangement under the Canada Business Corporations Act.

Under the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy shareholders will retain their current ownership in TC Energy shares and receive a pro-rata allocation of common shares in South Bow. The spinoff Transaction is described in greater detail in the body of this Circular.

This management’s discussion and analysis (MD&A) has been prepared in respect of the assets and liabilities comprising the Liquids Pipelines business. This MD&A should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of South Bow for the period from incorporation on December 15, 2023 to December 31, 2023 and the audited Combined carve-out financial statements for the Liquids Pipelines business for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021. The audited Combined carve-out financial statements for the Liquids Pipelines business have been prepared in Canadian dollars and in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP). Additional information relating to South Bow will be available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca following the completion of the spinoff Transaction.

Basis of Presentation

The audited Combined carve-out financial statements for the Liquids Pipelines business have been prepared on a carve-out basis and reflect the historical results of TC Energy’s Liquids Pipelines business. The Combined carve-out financial statements are not necessarily indicative of results that would have been realized if the Liquids Pipelines business had been operated separately as a stand-alone company during the years presented, nor will they necessarily be indicative of future results of the Liquids Pipelines business as they will exist upon completion of the spinoff Transaction.

NON-GAAP MEASURES

This MD&A references the following non-GAAP measures:

- comparable EBITDA
- comparable EBIT
- comparable earnings
- funds generated from operations
- comparable funds generated from operations.

These measures do not have any standardized meaning as prescribed by GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other entities. Discussions throughout this MD&A on the factors impacting comparable earnings are consistent with the factors that impact net income (loss) attributable to controlling interests, except where noted otherwise. Discussions throughout this MD&A on the factors impacting comparable earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (comparable EBITDA) and comparable earnings before interest and taxes (comparable EBIT) are consistent with the factors that impact earnings, except where noted otherwise.

Comparable Measures

We calculate comparable measures by adjusting certain GAAP measures for specific items we believe are significant but not reflective of our underlying operations in the period. Except as otherwise described herein, these comparable measures are calculated on a consistent basis from period to period and are adjusted for specific items in each period, as applicable.

Our decision not to adjust for a specific item in reporting comparable measures is subjective and made after careful consideration. Specific items may include:

- gains or losses on sales of assets or assets held for sale
- income tax refunds, valuation allowances and adjustments resulting from changes in legislation and enacted tax rates
- unrealized fair value adjustments related to risk management activities
- legal, contractual, bankruptcy and other settlements
- impairment of plant, property and equipment, equity investments and other assets
- acquisition, integration and restructuring costs.

We exclude from comparable measures the unrealized gains and losses from changes in the fair value of derivatives related to commodity price risk management activities. These derivatives generally provide effective economic hedges but do not meet the criteria for hedge accounting. These changes in fair value are recorded in net income. As these amounts do not accurately reflect the gains and losses that will be realized at settlement, we do not consider them reflective of our underlying operations.

In third quarter 2023, TC Energy announced plans to separate into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies through the spinoff Transaction. Separation costs related to the spinoff Transaction recognized in our results primarily include internal costs and external fees related to separation activities. These items have been excluded from comparable measures as we do not consider them reflective of our ongoing underlying operations.

The following table identifies our non-GAAP measures against their most directly comparable GAAP measures:

Comparable measure	GAAP measure
comparable EBITDA	earnings (losses)
comparable EBIT	earnings (losses)
comparable earnings	net income attributable to controlling interests
funds generated from operations	net cash provided by operations
comparable funds generated from operations	net cash provided by operations

Comparable EBITDA and Comparable EBIT

Comparable EBITDA represents earnings (losses) adjusted for certain specific items, excluding charges for depreciation and amortization. We use comparable EBITDA as a measure of our earnings from ongoing operations as it is a useful indicator of our performance. Comparable EBIT represents earnings (losses) adjusted for specific items and is an effective tool for evaluating trends. Refer to the About Our Business – Financial Results section of this MD&A for a reconciliation to earnings (losses).

Comparable Earnings

Comparable earnings represents Net income attributable to controlling interests, adjusted for specific items. Comparable earnings is comprised of earnings (losses), Interest expense, Interest income and other, Income tax (expense) recovery and Net (income) loss attributable to redeemable non-controlling interest, adjusted for specific items. Refer to the About Our Business – 2023 Financial Highlights section of this MD&A for reconciliations to Net income attributable to controlling interests.

Funds Generated from Operations and Comparable Funds Generated from Operations

Funds generated from operations reflects net cash provided by operations before changes in operating working capital. The components of changes in working capital are disclosed in Note 19, Changes in operating working capital, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements. We believe funds generated from operations is a useful measure of our operating cash flows because it excludes fluctuations from working capital balances, which do not necessarily reflect underlying operations in the same period, and is used to provide a consistent measure of the cash-generating ability of our business. Comparable funds generated from operations is adjusted for the cash impact of specific items noted above. Refer to the Financial Condition – Cash Provided by Operating Activities section of this MD&A for a reconciliation to Net cash provided by operations.

UNDERSTANDING OUR BUSINESS

Spanning over 4,900-km (3,045-miles), our network of pipelines is uniquely and strategically positioned, connecting stable oil production in the WCSB to world-class refineries in the Midwest (PADD 2) & Gulf Coast (PADD 3) markets.

Our business consists of crude oil pipeline and terminal assets that safely transport crude oil primarily from the WCSB and the Cushing market hub to key refining and trading markets where it can be refined or marketed into other domestic or international markets. To increase the competitive position of our assets, we also offer ancillary services, including storage at terminals, which provides customers with increased receipt and delivery optionality. In addition to our crude oil pipeline and terminal assets, we conduct marketing activities through a non-regulated marketing entity.

We provide pipeline transportation services to customers predominantly supported by long-term contracts with fixed monthly payments that are linked to contracted throughput volumes, providing certainty and generating stable earnings over the contract term irrespective of commodity prices. These long-term contracts provide for the recovery of development costs, with operating and maintenance costs primarily recovered through a variable flow-through toll. Uncontracted pipeline capacity is offered to the market on a monthly uncommitted basis and also through periodic open seasons, in accordance with regulatory requirements, which provides opportunities for us to generate incremental earnings. Crude oil storage at terminals is offered to customers under fixed fee, term contracts.

In Canada, our pipeline systems and associated facilities are regulated by either the CER or AER, and in the U.S., by PHMSA and FERC, as well as various state authorities. Combined, these entities regulate the construction, operation and abandonment of our pipeline infrastructure, as well as oversee the reasonableness of our tolls.

Keystone Pipeline System

Keystone Pipeline

The Keystone Pipeline (Keystone) is a 4,327-km (2,689-mile), 30 to 36-inch crude oil pipeline system, traversing three Canadian provinces and eight U.S. states. Keystone safely transports crude oil exported from Western Canada to various delivery points in the U.S. Midwest and Gulf Coast. Keystone is able to transport over 600,000 Bbl/d of crude oil. Keystone operates in Canada and the U.S., and is therefore subject to the common carrier obligations imposed by the CER and the FERC, respectively.

Keystone has negotiated a fixed/variable rate toll structure with its shippers, providing us with long-term certainty of cash flow. Recovery of the initial capital investment was fixed on a long-term committed basis, while actual operating and maintenance costs are recovered through the variable toll. Keystone is required through its common carrier obligations to reserve six per cent of its nominal capacity to uncommitted spot shippers. Spot tolls are adjusted based on market indicators to maintain competitiveness and offered on a monthly basis.

Keystone was built out over four phases as follows:

- Phase 1: 2,988-km (1,857-mile) section from Hardisty, Alberta, to Steele City, Nebraska, and onward to Wood River and Patoka, Illinois (Wood River / Patoka Leg) where it delivers to Mid Continent refineries and the Patoka trading hub
- Phase 2 (Cushing Extension): 479-km (298-mile) section from Steele City, Nebraska, to Cushing, Oklahoma, for delivery into the Cushing trading hub
- Phase 3 (Gulf Coast Extension): 782-km (486-mile) section from Cushing, Oklahoma, to Nederland, Port Arthur, and Sour Lake, Texas
- Phase 4 (Houston Lateral): 78-km (48-mile) Houston Lateral to Houston, Texas, enabling deliveries to the Houston Tank Terminal, refineries, trading hubs and export terminals.

Marketlink

Marketlink provides crude oil transportation services from Cushing, Oklahoma to the U.S. Gulf Coast, through its lease of capacity on the U.S. Gulf Coast segment of Keystone. Marketlink's lease payments are calculated in accordance with the lease and based on its proportional share of U.S. Gulf Coast capacity.

We believe Marketlink to be complimentary to Keystone as it enables increased utilization of U.S. Gulf Coast segment capacity while ensuring Keystone customers maintain their right to capacity, and through the lease, reduces the operating costs for all Keystone customers, enabling a more competitive toll. Marketlink operates as a common carrier pipeline and is regulated by the FERC.

Port Neches Link

We own a 74.9 per cent interest in Port Neches Link, a joint-venture with Motiva Enterprises LLC (Motiva). The 6-km (4-mile), 36-inch, Port Neches Link pipeline is strategically located in a heavily congested area of energy infrastructure enabling last-mile connectivity for Keystone and Marketlink shippers to Motiva's 630,000 Bbl/d Port Arthur refinery, which is North America's largest refinery. The Port Neches Link pipeline also includes facilities that connect additional liquids terminals in the Port Arthur area to Motiva's refinery. The Port Neches Link pipeline is a common carrier pipeline regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas.

HoustonLink

We own a 50 per cent interest in HoustonLink, a joint venture with Magellan Midstream Partners L.P. (Magellan), an affiliate of ONEOK, Inc. (ONEOK). The 15-km (9.4-mile), 24-inch, HoustonLink pipeline provides a connection between our Keystone Pipeline System and ONEOK's East Houston terminal. HoustonLink is a common carrier pipeline regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas. ONEOK is the operator of HoustonLink.

Terminals

To facilitate the delivery of customers' products to key markets, we own and operate over 7.5 million barrels of crude oil storage at facilities located in Alberta, Oklahoma and Texas. These assets play an important role in the operation and competitiveness of our pipelines network and provide us with the opportunity to generate incremental revenue by leasing tank space to customers, which provides them with market optionality. Contractual arrangements associated with storage are typically fixed fee, term contracts.

Liquids Marketing

Our liquids marketing business provides customers with a variety of crude oil marketing services, including transportation, storage and logistics, primarily through the purchase and sale of physical crude oil. This business contracts for capacity on our assets as well as third-party owned pipelines and tank terminals. The Liquids Marketing team engages in hedging activities to minimize commodity risk exposure by utilizing financial instruments and derivative contracts.

Intra-Alberta Pipeline Systems

We own and operate two intra-Alberta pipelines, which are regulated by the AER.

Grand Rapids

The 460-km (287-mile), 20-inch Grand Rapids Pipeline System plays a key role in connecting oil sands production to terminals in the Edmonton and Heartland refining and trading hubs. Grand Rapids is jointly owned with PetroChina Canada Ltd.

White Spruce

The 72-km (45-mile), 20-inch White Spruce Pipeline provides safe transportation and market access for growing volumes of crude oil produced in Alberta's oil sands region. White Spruce is designed to transport crude oil produced at Canadian Natural Resources Limited's Horizon Oil Sands Facility in northeast Alberta to Grand Rapids.

Blackrod Connection Project

The Blackrod Connection Project is designed to provide both liquids and natural gas transportation infrastructure to support IPC's proposed Blackrod Steam Assisted Gravity Drainage facility (the Blackrod Project). We are proposing to develop and build a 25-km (16-mile), 12-inch crude oil pipeline and a 25-km (16-mile), 16-inch natural gas pipeline from the Blackrod Project to the existing Grand Rapids Pipeline System.

Business Environment

Dynamic shifts in geopolitical events, government policy changes and various macroeconomic factors continue to impact global crude oil supply and demand balances. While the upstream sector remains focused on balancing capital discipline and growth, we expect crude oil demand to continue to increase this decade. Over a longer time horizon, we expect global demand to grow, before slowly declining in later decades; however, crude oil is expected to remain a critical source in helping the world meet its energy needs for decades to come. North America's crude oil supply, inclusive of the WCSB, will remain critical in supporting long term demand.

Supply Outlook

Canada has the world's third largest crude oil reserves with over 160 billion barrels of proven and economically recoverable oil. Production from the WCSB, which is the main supply source for our assets, was approximately 4.7 million Bbl/d in 2023 and is expected to grow by over 600,000 Bbl/d by 2030. The oil sands, which are located within the WCSB and connect to our intra-Alberta assets, make up the majority of Canadian crude oil supply. The oil sands are considered a world class supply source given their decades-long reserve life, low base production decline and continuously improving cost and environmental performance. We believe that our assets are well-positioned to capture such production growth from the WCSB.

The U.S. is one of the largest crude oil producing countries in the world, with production exceeding 12.9 million Bbl/d in 2023. The majority of continental U.S. crude oil production is in the form of light tight oil from the Permian, Williston, Eagle Ford and Niobrara basins. U.S. refineries have been optimized through significant capital investments to refine a mix of light and heavy crude oils to produce an optimized refined products slate. With our Keystone Pipeline System's connection to key refining and export markets, we believe our assets are well positioned to attract barrels from major U.S. tight oil basins, which themselves are expected to grow through the end of the decade.

Demand

The U.S. is the primary source of crude oil demand in North America with refining capacity exceeding 18 million Bbl/d. Our assets serve the U.S. Midwest and U.S. Gulf Coast refining markets, PADD 2 and PADD 3, respectively. PADD 2 represents 23 per cent and PADD 3 represents 54 per cent of U.S. refining throughput, or in aggregate 77 per cent. Many PADD 2 and PADD 3 refineries are large-scale, complex facilities, with deep conversion capacity for heavy crude oil. These markets are expected to remain globally competitive for decades to come due to their access to low-cost Canadian heavy and U.S. light crude oil, as well as their proximity to abundant low-cost natural gas supply, positioning them to be among the most profitable refineries in the world.

While domestic consumption makes up the predominance of current North American crude oil demand, exports are expected to grow, increasing their proportion of North American crude oil demand out past the end of the decade, driven by growth in emerging markets. Crude oil export from the U.S. Gulf Coast, a market served by our pipelines, is expected to grow from 3.3 million Bbl/d to 4.7 million Bbl/d by the early 2030s.

Strategic Priorities

Our assets strategically position our business to provide competitive transportation solutions for growing supplies of Alberta and U.S. crude oil to the U.S. Midwest and the U.S. Gulf Coast.

Within our established risk preferences, we remain committed to:

- optimizing the operational performance and commercial value of our existing assets
- expanding and leveraging our existing infrastructure for growth expansions
- progressing system operational improvements.

The long-term contract profile supporting our business model provides stable tolls for our customers and stable revenues for our business. As we continually augment our connectivity to resilient supply and premium markets, we believe that our business is situated to compete for further growth.

We believe that our assets are well-positioned to capture production growth from the stable and resilient WCSB, which is needed to meet the growing U.S. Gulf Coast demand for secure Canadian heavy crude oil, as traditional offshore imports decline. With the continued growth of U.S. light tight oil production and expected growth in U.S. Gulf Coast export demand, we will examine opportunities to expand our transportation services and extend our pipeline platform to increase last-mile delivery connectivity to refineries and terminals with storage and marine export capabilities. We will also focus on leveraging our existing assets and development of projects to provide increased optionality for our customers.

We continually work with existing and potential customers to enhance their customer experience and provide pipeline transportation and terminal services to meet their needs. The combination of the scale and strategic location of our assets assists us in attracting additional volumes and in growing our business.

We closely monitor the marketplace for strategic asset acquisitions as well as joint venture or joint tolling opportunities to enhance our system connectivity or expand our footprint within North America. We remain disciplined in our approach and will position our business development activities strategically to capture opportunities within our risk preferences.

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

Milepost 14 Incident

In December 2022, a pipeline incident occurred in Washington County, Kansas on the Keystone Pipeline System, releasing 12,937 barrels of crude oil. In June 2023, we completed the recovery of all released volumes and in October 2023, we completed creek restoration, restoring natural flows to Mill Creek. We will maintain our commitment to long-term reclamation and environmental monitoring activities.

A Corrective Action Order (CAO) was issued by PHMSA in December 2022, and later amended in March 2023. The pipeline is operating subject to the Amended Corrective Action Order (ACAO), which includes certain operating pressure restrictions. There are two operating pressure restrictions: one extending across the entirety of the U.S. portion of the Keystone Pipeline, and the other, a further restriction along a 96-mile contiguous section traversing certain counties within Nebraska and Kansas. We have been able to mitigate certain capacity impacts as a result of the pressure restrictions through strong operational performance and have continued to deliver on our contractual requirements. We expect to continue to fulfill our Keystone contract commitments while the ACAO remains in effect. The ACAO will remain in effect until its requirements have been met and approved by PHMSA. The requirements of the ACAO include certain assessments and the implementation of a remedial workplan. We have developed and begun implementing a comprehensive remedial workplan, which includes inline investigation of over 3,000 kilometers of pipeline, to enhance the pipeline integrity and safety performance of the system.

A Root Cause Failure Analysis (RCFA) was conducted by an independent third party and was released on April 21, 2023. The RCFA revealed that a unique set of circumstances occurred at the rupture location, which likely originated during construction, with the primary cause of the rupture being a fatigue crack. The findings from the RCFA have been incorporated into our remedial work plan and learnings from it and our ongoing pipeline integrity programs, are, and will continue to be, incorporated into future programs to enhance the safety and reliability of the system. As at the end of the first quarter 2024, we have completed 100 per cent of planned system inline inspections as per the remedial work plan and 68 integrity verification digs with no material concerns identified.

At December 31, 2022, we accrued an environmental remediation liability of $650 million, before expected insurance recoveries and not including potential fines and penalties, which was revised at June 30, 2023 to $794 million based on a review of costs and commitments incurred. The additional environmental remediation costs recognized in second quarter 2023 included $36 million that we estimate to be recoverable from TC Energy's wholly-owned captive insurance subsidiary. At December 31, 2023, the remediation cost estimate remains unchanged. Appropriate insurance policies are in place and we believe that it remains probable that the majority of environmental remediation costs will be eligible for recovery under our existing insurance coverage. As of December 31, 2023, we have received $583 million (2022 – nil), including $7 million from TC Energy's wholly-owned captive insurance subsidiary, from insurance proceeds related to the environmental remediation.

Subject to the completion of the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy may indemnify South Bow for certain liabilities and costs associated with the Milepost 14 incident on Keystone. See the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities section of this MD&A below.

Blackrod Connection Project

We are developing the Blackrod Connection Project, which will consist of a 25-km crude oil pipeline and a 25-km natural gas lateral; and associated facilities to provide crude oil transportation from IPC's Blackrod project to our Grand Rapids Pipeline System. The expected total capital cost of the project is approximately $250 million with a targeted in-service date in late 2025. The Blackrod Connection Project would be supported by long-term committed contracts.

CER and FERC Proceedings

In 2019 and 2020, a subset of Keystone customers initiated complaints before the FERC and the CER regarding certain costs within the variable toll calculation. In December 2022, the CER issued a decision in respect of the complaint that resulted in an adjustment to previously charged tolls of $38 million. The CER has established a proceeding to consider Keystone's compliance filing required by the decision regarding the allocation of costs for drag reducing agent in the variable toll.

In February 2023, the FERC released its initial decision in respect of the complaint. As a result, we have recorded a one-time pre-tax charge of $57 million reflective of previously charged tolls between 2018 and 2022. This amount has been excluded from comparable measures. A final order from the commission of the FERC is expected in 2024.

Subject to the completion of the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy may indemnify South Bow for certain liabilities associated with certain existing variable toll disputes on Keystone. See the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities section of this MD&A below.

Port Neches

In March 2023, the Port Neches Link Pipeline System was placed in service, connecting the Keystone Pipeline System to Motiva's Port Neches Terminal, enabling last-mile connectivity to Motiva's 630,000 Bbl/d refinery.

In December 2023, Motiva, our partner in Port Neches LLC, exercised their option to increase their equity interest in the company. As a result, our ownership interest has decreased from 95 per cent to 74.9 per cent.

Keystone XL

Following the revocation of the 2019 Presidential Permit for the Keystone XL pipeline project in January 2021, and after a comprehensive review of options, in June 2021, the Keystone XL pipeline project was terminated. In November 2021, a Request for Arbitration to formally initiate a legacy North American Free Trade Agreement claim was filed, seeking economic damages resulting from the revocation of the 2019 Presidential Permit.

Right-of-way clean up and restoration is substantially complete while termination activities will continue through the first half of 2024. We and TC Energy, as applicable, will continue to coordinate with regulators, stakeholders, landowners and Indigenous groups to meet their respective environmental and regulatory commitments.

In September 2022, the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes formally constituted a tribunal to hear TC Energy's request for arbitration under the legacy North American Free Trade Agreement. In April 2023, the tribunal suspended the proceeding, granting a request from the U.S. Department of State to decide the jurisdictional grounds of the case as a preliminary matter. A hearing on the jurisdictional matter is set to occur in the second quarter of 2024. In April 2023, the Government of Alberta filed its own request for arbitration, which will proceed separately from our claim.

Subject to the completion of the spinoff Transaction, any amounts ultimately recoverable in respect of the claim to recover economic damages under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement relating to the legacy North American Free Trade Agreement and the revocation of the Keystone XL Presidential Permit in early 2021, will be attributable to TC Energy and South Bow on a 90 / 10 split, respectively.

TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities

Subject to the completion of the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy may indemnify South Bow for certain liabilities and costs associated with the Milepost 14 incident and certain existing variable toll disputes on the Keystone Pipeline as described above (collectively, the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities).

The variable toll disputes on Keystone are currently before applicable regulatory bodies and, while TC Energy believes that it has strong arguments that the variable tolls in dispute were properly calculated and applied, any amounts above the current accrued amounts that may ultimately be payable in respect of these disputes are indeterminable at this time, however such may be material. It is expected that the ultimate amounts of any indemnities provided by TC Energy in respect of the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities will be determined closer to the completion of the spinoff Transaction when more information about the potential liabilities are known and that the amounts will be set with a view to ensuring that South Bow and TC Energy satisfy the Investment Grade Rating Condition set forth in the Arrangement Agreement as defined in the body of this Circular. Any arrangements with respect to the TC Energy Indemnified Liquids Liabilities will not apply to any impact the resolution of the variable toll disputes has on post spinoff tolls or South Bow revenues.

2023 FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

We use certain financial measures that do not have a standardized meaning under GAAP because we believe they improve our ability to compare results between reporting periods and enhance understanding of our operating performance. Known as non-GAAP measures, they may not be comparable to similar measures provided by other companies.

Comparable EBITDA, comparable earnings and comparable funds generated from operations are all non-GAAP measures. Refer to About This Document – Non-GAAP Measures at page H-34 for more information about the non-GAAP measures we use and About This Document – Non-GAAP Measures – Comparable Measures at page H-35 as well as the Financial Results section at page H-45 for reconciliations to the most directly comparable GAAP measures.

Net income (loss) attributable to controlling interests in 2023 was $595 million (2022 – income of $808 million; 2021 – loss of $1,293 million), a decrease of $213 million compared to 2022. The decrease for the year ended December 31, 2023 compared to 2022 and significant increase in Net income attributable to controlling interests of $2.1 billion in 2022 compared to 2021 are primarily due to the net effect of specific items mentioned below and an increase in interest expense in 2023 compared to 2022.

The following specific items were recognized in Net income (loss) attributable to controlling interests and were excluded from comparable earnings:

2023

- $52 million after-tax charge as a result of the FERC Administrative Law Judge initial decision on Keystone issued in February 2023 in respect of a tolling-related complaint pertaining to amounts recognized from 2018 to 2022, which consists of a one-time pre-tax charge of $57 million and included accrued pre-tax carrying charges of $10 million
- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $14 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge
- $4 million after-tax gain on the sale of Keystone XL project assets and adjustment to the estimate for contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities. Refer to Note 6, Keystone XL, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for additional information
- $1 million after-tax charge related to Focus Project costs. The Focus Project was launched by TC Energy to identify opportunities to improve safety, productivity and cost-effectiveness
- $2 million after-tax expense due to separation costs related to the spinoff Transaction.

- $20 million after-tax charge due to the CER decision on Keystone issued in December 2022 in respect of a tolling-related complaint pertaining to amounts reflected in 2021 and 2020
- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $19 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge
- $90 million after-tax gain on the sale of Keystone XL project assets and reduction to the estimate for contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities. Refer to Note 6, Keystone XL, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for additional information.

- $2.1 billion after-tax asset impairment charge, net of expected contractual recoveries and other contractual and legal obligations, related to the termination of the Keystone XL pipeline project following the January 2021 revocation of the Presidential Permit. Refer to Note 6, Keystone XL, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for additional information
- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $37 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge, as well as interest expense on the Keystone XL project-level credit facility prior to its termination
- an after-tax gain of $10 million related to the sale of the remaining 15 per cent interest in Northern Courier
- $2 million after-tax expense with respect to transition payments incurred as part of the Voluntary Retirement Program (VRP). In mid-2021, TC Energy offered a one-time VRP to eligible employees. Participants in the program retired by December 31, 2021 and received a transition payment along with existing retirement benefits.

Comparable Earnings – 2023 Versus 2022

Comparable earnings in 2023 were $56 million lower than in 2022, and were primarily the net result of:

- changes in comparable EBITDA described in the Financial Results section of this MD&A
- higher interest expense due to long-term debt issuances to affiliates and higher interest rates on our long-term debt to affiliates
- lower income tax expense included in comparable earnings mainly due to lower earnings subject to tax.

Comparable Earnings – 2022 Versus 2021

Comparable earnings in 2022 were $132 million lower than in 2021, and were primarily the net result of:

- changes in comparable EBITDA described in the Financial Results section of this MD&A
- higher interest income and other mainly due to higher interest rates on cash held in TC Energy's centralized cash management accounts in 2022 compared to 2021
- lower income tax expense included in comparable earnings mainly due to lower earnings subject to tax in 2022 compared to 2021.

Cash Flows

Net cash provided by operations of $1,030 million in 2023 was fifteen per cent higher than 2022 primarily due to the amount and timing of working capital changes, partially offset by lower funds generated from operations. Comparable funds generated from operations in 2023 and 2022 were $1,168 million and $1,246 million, respectively. Refer to the Financial Condition section of this MD&A for additional information.

Balance Sheet

We continue to maintain a solid financial position. Refer to the Financial Condition section of this MD&A for more information about our capital structure.

¹ Intra-Alberta pipelines include Grand Rapids, White Spruce and Northern Courier. In November 2021, we sold our remaining 15 per cent interest in Northern Courier.

Earnings decreased by $100 million in 2023 compared to 2022 and increased by $2,714 million in 2022 compared to 2021 and included the above specified items which have been excluded from our calculation of comparable EBITDA and EBIT. Refer to the 2023 Financial Highlights section for additional information on specific items.

A stronger U.S. dollar in 2023 and 2022 had a positive impact on the Canadian dollar equivalent earnings from our U.S. operations compared to 2022 and 2021, respectively. Refer to the Depreciation and Amortization – Foreign Exchange section of this MD&A for additional information.

Comparable EBITDA was $103 million higher in 2023 compared to 2022 primarily due to the net effect of:

- higher contracted and uncontracted volumes across the Keystone Pipeline System
- higher contributions from the Port Neches Link Pipeline System which began operations in March 2023
- a stronger U.S. dollar as described above.

Comparable EBITDA was $171 million lower in 2022 compared to 2021 primarily due to the net effect of:

- lower rates and volumes on the U.S. Gulf Coast section of the Keystone Pipeline System, partially offset by higher long-haul contracted volumes and approximately 20,000 Bbl/d of long-term contracts from the 2019 Open Season that were commercialized in April 2022 with an additional 10,000 Bbl/d in September 2022
- liquids marketing earnings for 2022 decreased relative to 2021 due to lower margins and volumes
- the CER decision on the tolling-related complaint in respect of amounts invoiced in 2022
- a stronger U.S. dollar as described above.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization was $8 million higher in 2023 compared to 2022 and $11 million higher in 2022 compared to 2021 primarily as a result of a stronger U.S. dollar.

Foreign Exchange

Certain of our entities generate all or most of their earnings in U.S. dollars and, since we report our financial results in Canadian dollars, changes in the value of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar directly affect our comparable EBITDA and may also impact comparable earnings. If our U.S. operations continue to grow, this exposure would increase. A portion of the U.S. dollar-denominated comparable EBITDA exposure is naturally offset by U.S. dollar-denominated amounts below comparable EBITDA within Depreciation and amortization, Interest expense and other income statement line items.

The components of our financial results denominated in U.S. dollars are set out in the table below. Comparable EBITDA is a non-GAAP measure.

Interest expense	(298)	(81)	(91)

Interest expense increased by $217 million in 2023 compared to 2022 and decreased $10 million in 2022 compared to 2021. The following specific items have been removed from our calculation of interest expense included in comparable earnings:

- carrying charges of $10 million in 2023 as a result of a pre-tax charge related to the FERC Administrative Law Judge initial decision on Keystone. This decision was issued in February 2023 in respect of a tolling-related complaint pertaining to amounts recognized from 2018 to 2022
- a $6 million charge in 2021 related to the Keystone XL project-level credit facility for the period following the revocation of the Presidential Permit for the Keystone XL pipeline project.

Interest expense included in comparable earnings in 2023 increased by $207 million compared to 2022 primarily due to the net effect of:

- issuances of long-term debt to affiliates, net of maturities. Refer to the Financial Condition – Long-Term Debt to Affiliates section of this MD&A for additional information
- higher effective interest rates in 2023 compared to 2022
- the foreign exchange impact from a stronger U.S. dollar on translation of U.S. dollar-denominated interest expense in 2023 compared to 2022.

Interest expense included in comparable earnings in 2022 decreased by $4 million compared to 2021 primarily due to the net effect of:

- long-term debt to affiliates issuances, net of maturities. Refer to the Financial Condition – Long-Term Debt to Affiliates section of this MD&A for additional information
- higher effective interest rates in 2022 compared to 2021
- the foreign exchange impact from a stronger U.S. dollar on translation of U.S. dollar-denominated interest expense in 2022 compared to 2021.

It was determined that we should maintain the same debt to capitalization ratio as TC Energy after the spinoff Transaction. In third quarter 2023, we issued debt to affiliates as a consideration for internal restructuring representing the expected debt to capitalization ratio. For illustrative interest expense calculation purposes, a notional value of $7.9 billion of long-term debt and short-term debt was assumed for calculation of interest from January 1, 2023 to July 31, 2023 (for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 – $7.9 billion) to ensure consistency with this ratio. As such, the interest expense assuming this ratio for January 1, 2023 to July 31, 2023 would have been $236 million (for the year ended December 31, 2022 – $373 million and 2021 – $347 million).

Following the spinoff Transaction, our capital and debt structure will change from our historical practices, therefore our current interest expense may not necessarily be indicative of our future interest expense.

Interest Income and Other

Interest income and other in 2023 was $43 million (2022 – $43 million, 2021 – $5 million). Interest income and other in 2023 was consistent with 2022 and it increased by $38 million in 2022 compared to 2021 primarily due to higher interest rates earned on cash balances.

Income Tax Expense

Income tax (expense) recovery in 2023 decreased by $104 million compared to 2022 and increased by $662 million in 2022 compared to 2021.

Income tax expense included in comparable earnings in 2023 decreased by $56 million compared to 2022 and decreased by $7 million in 2022 compared to 2021, primarily due to lower comparable earnings subject to tax.

OUTLOOK

Comparable EBITDA

We expect our 2024 comparable EBITDA to be consistent with 2023.

We continue to monitor developments in energy markets, our construction projects and regulatory proceedings for any potential impacts on the above outlook.

Capital Spending and Equity Investments

We incurred a total of $44 million in 2023 primarily related to capital projects in the U.S. Gulf Coast and on our operating pipelines and expect to spend approximately $170 million in 2024. The 2024 capital program is focused on normal course maintenance capital expenditures.

CAPITAL PROGRAM

Our capital program consists of long-life infrastructure assets supported by long-term commercial arrangements with creditworthy counterparties and/or regulated business models.

Our capital program consists of approximately $390 million of secured projects that represent commercially supported, committed projects that are either under construction or are preparing to commence the permitting stage.

Three years of maintenance capital expenditures for our businesses are included in the secured projects table. Maintenance capital expenditures include projects which are routine and non-routine in nature, including pipeline integrity projects and system enhancements. The commercial contract structure of our Canadian and U.S. liquids pipelines permits the recovery of these expenditures through our tolling arrangements.

During 2023, approximately $40 million of maintenance capital expenditures were incurred.

All projects are subject to cost and timing adjustments due to factors including weather, market conditions, route refinement, land acquisition, permitting conditions, scheduling and timing of regulatory permits, as well as other potential restrictions and uncertainties, including inflationary pressures on labour and materials. Amounts exclude capitalized interest, where applicable.

Secured Projects

Estimated and incurred project costs referred to in the following table include 100 per cent of the capital expenditures related to our wholly-owned projects and our share of equity contributions to fund projects within our equity investments.

(millions of $)	Expected in-service date	Estimated project cost	Project costs incurred at December 31, 2023
Recoverable maintenance capital expenditures	2024-2026	391	38
Non-recoverable maintenance capital expenditures	2024-2026	2	1
Total secured projects		393	39

Projects Under Development

In addition to our secured projects, we have a portfolio of projects that we are currently pursuing that are in varying stages of development. Projects under development have greater uncertainty with respect to timing and estimated project costs and are subject to corporate and regulatory approvals, unless otherwise noted.

We are developing the Blackrod Connection project, which will consist of a 25-km (16-mile) crude oil pipeline, a 25-km (16-mile) natural gas lateral and associated facilities. The expected total capital cost of the project is approximately $250 million with a targeted in-service date in late 2025.

We remain focused on maximizing the value of our assets by finding solutions to enable flexible and tailored solutions for our customers. We continue to seek ways of optimizing our existing assets by extending connectivity between supply and delivery markets. We are pursuing selective growth opportunities to add incremental value to our business and expansions that leverage latent capacity on our existing infrastructure. We remain disciplined in our approach and will position our business development activities strategically to capture opportunities within our risk preferences.

Financial Condition

Historically, our business has generated positive cash flows from operations. Cash generated from our operations was generally managed by TC Energy’s centralized treasury function and was operated under a pooling mechanism until the third quarter of 2023 when this automatic transfer was discontinued for a majority of our operations. Following the spinoff Transaction, our capital structure and sources of liquidity will change from our historical practices. Our ability to fund our operating needs will depend on our ability to continue to generate positive cash flow from operations, and on our ability to obtain debt financing on acceptable terms or to issue equity. Based upon our history of generating positive cash flows, we believe our existing cash and cash generated from operations will be sufficient to service our current obligations. Management believes that our cash balances and funds provided by operating activities, along with expected borrowing capacity and access to capital markets, taken as a whole, provide adequate liquidity to meet all of our current and long-term obligations when due, including third-party debt that we expect to incur in connection with the spinoff Transaction to refinance our long-term debt to affiliates and to fund capital expenditures.

Balance Sheet Analysis

At December 31, 2023, our current assets totaled $3.5 billion and current liabilities amounted to $2.7 billion, leaving us with a working capital surplus of $0.8 billion compared to a working capital deficit of $0.4 billion at December 31, 2022, which is considered to be in the normal course of business.

Our total assets at December 31, 2023 were $15.9 billion compared to $15.6 billion at December 31, 2022 with the increase primarily due to increased liquids marketing accrued receivables and fair value of liquids marketing derivative contracts presented on a gross basis, partially offset by a weaker U.S. dollar at December 31, 2023 compared to December 31, 2022 on translation of our U.S. dollar-denominated assets.

At December 31, 2023 our total liabilities were $12.1 billion, compared to $5.4 billion at December 31, 2022 due to the net effect of increased debt to affiliates, working capital and foreign exchange rates as discussed above.

Our Parent’s net investment at December 31, 2023 was $3.8 billion compared to $10.2 billion at December 31, 2022 with the decrease primarily reflecting net distributions to the Parent in exchange for increase in debt to affiliates and foreign exchange rates as discussed above partially offset by our 2023 net income. In third quarter 2023, in preparation for the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy completed an internal restructuring where the majority of Liquids Pipelines business entities were transferred to our new holding companies, 6297782 LLC and 15142121 Canada Ltd. As a consideration for this transfer, these holding companies issued long-term debt to affiliates of $6.6 billion.

Comparable Funds Generated from Operations

Comparable funds generated from operations, a non-GAAP measure, helps us assess the cash generating ability of our business by excluding the timing effects of working capital changes as well as the cash impact of our specific items.

Comparable funds generated from operations decreased by $78 million in 2023 compared to 2022 primarily due to higher interest expense included in comparable earnings, partially offset by higher comparable EBITDA.

Comparable funds generated from operations increased by $1 million in 2022 compared to 2021 primarily due to lower current income taxes included in comparable earnings, partially offset by lower comparable EBITDA and lower distributions from equity investments.

Net cash (used in) provided by investing activities decreased by $438 million in 2023 compared to 2022 largely as a result of contractual recoveries received in 2022 with respect to the Keystone XL pipeline project termination and lower capital spending in 2023.

Net cash (used in) provided by investing activities increased by $1,030 million in 2022 compared to 2021 largely as a result of contractual recoveries received in 2022 with respect to the Keystone XL pipeline project termination and lower capital spending in 2022.

Capital expenditures in 2023 were primarily related to maintenance capital. Lower capital expenditures in 2022 compared to 2021 are due to the termination of the Keystone XL pipeline project following the revocation of the Presidential Permit in January 2021.

Contributions to equity investments

Contributions to equity investments decreased in 2023 compared to 2022 mainly due to lower equity contributions to Port Neches Link as a result of it being placed in service in 2023.

Contributions to equity investments decreased in 2022 compared to 2021 mainly due to lower equity contributions to Port Neches Link.

Keystone XL Contractual Recoveries

In 2023, we received $10 million (2022 – $571 million, 2021 – nil) of contractual recoveries with respect to the Keystone XL pipeline project termination in 2021. Refer to Note 6, Keystone XL, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for additional information.

Proceeds from Sales of Assets

In 2023, 2022 and 2021 proceeds from sales of assets primarily relate to sales of the Keystone XL pipeline project assets and the sale of a 20.1 per cent equity interest in Port Neches Link LLC in 2023 and 15 per cent equity interest in Northern Courier in 2021.

The principal transactions reflected in our financing activities are discussed in further detail below.

In January 2021, $1,028 million (US$849 million) was drawn, bearing interest at a floating rate. Redeemable Non-Controlling Interest Repurchased

On January 8, 2021, we exercised our call right in accordance with contractual terms and paid US$497 million ($633 million) to repurchase the Government of Alberta Class A Interests. This transaction was funded by draws on the Keystone XL project-level credit facility. Refer to Note 6, Keystone XL, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for additional information.

Credit Facilities

At December 31, 2023, total revolving and non-revolving credit facilities were $100 million (2022 – $677 million) with an outstanding balance of nil (2022 – nil). When drawn, interest on these credit facilities is charged at negotiated floating rates. The credit facilities are used for general purposes and include the following:

Contractual Obligations

Our contractual obligations include our long-term debt to affiliates, operating leases, purchase obligations and other liabilities incurred in our business.

¹ We have purchase obligations that are transacted at market prices and in the normal course of business, including long-term crude oil transportation and purchase arrangements.

² Demand rates are subject to change. The contractual obligations in the table are based on demand volumes only and exclude variable charges incurred when volumes flow.

³ Amounts are primarily for capital expenditures and contributions to equity investments for capital projects. Amounts are estimates and are subject to variability based on timing of construction and project requirements. Capital expenditure commitments include obligations related to the construction of growth projects and are based on the projects proceeding as planned. Changes to these projects, including cancellation, would reduce or possibly eliminate these commitments as a result of cost of mitigation efforts.

Interest payments

At December 31, 2023, scheduled interest payments related to our long-term debt to affiliates were as follows:

at December 31, 2023
(millions of $)	Total	< 1 year	1 - 3 years	4 - 5 years	> 5 years
Long-term debt to affiliates	3,470	492	776	621	1,581

GUARANTEES

We and our partners in certain jointly-owned entities have guaranteed (jointly, severally, jointly and severally, or exclusively) the financial performance of these entities. Such agreements include guarantees which are primarily related to construction services including purchase agreements and the payment of liabilities. The guarantees have terms ranging to 2043.

Our share of the potential exposure under these assurances was estimated at December 31, 2023 to be approximately $56 million with a carrying amount of $2 million. In certain cases, if we make a payment that exceeds our ownership interest, the additional amount must be reimbursed by our partners.

Other Information

RISK MANAGEMENT

Risk management is integral to the successful operation of our business. Our strategy is to ensure that our risks and related exposures are aligned with our business objectives and risk tolerance. We have managed risk through TC Energy's centralized enterprise risk management program, which identifies enterprise risks that could materially impact the achievement of our strategic objectives. We will continue to manage risk at South Bow by establishing our own enterprise risk management program.

Please refer to Schedule F of this Circular for the description of Business and other risks.

Financial Risks

We are exposed to various financial risks and have strategies, policies and limits in place to manage the impact of these risks on our earnings and cash flows and, ultimately, shareholder value.

Risk management strategies, policies and limits are designed to ensure our risks and related exposures are in line with our business objectives and risk tolerance. Our risks have been managed within limits established by TC Energy's Board of Directors, and will be within limits set by South Bow's Board of Directors, have been and will be implemented by senior management and monitored by risk management, internal audit and business groups. The Board of Directors' Audit Committee will oversee how management monitors compliance with risk management policies and procedures and oversees management's review of the adequacy of the risk management framework.

Market Risk

We construct and invest in crude oil pipeline systems, purchase and sell commodities, issue debt to affiliates, including amounts in foreign currencies, and invest in foreign operations. Certain of these activities expose us to market risk from changes in commodity prices, foreign exchange rates and interest rates, which may affect our earnings, cash flows and the value of our financial assets and liabilities. We assess contracts used to manage market risk to determine whether all, or a portion, meet the definition of a derivative.

Derivative contracts used to assist in managing exposure to market risk may include the following:

- forwards and futures contracts – agreements to purchase or sell a specific financial instrument or commodity at a specified price and date in the future
- swaps – agreements between two parties to exchange streams of payments over time according to specified terms
- options – agreements that convey the right, but not the obligation of the purchaser, to buy or sell a specific amount of a financial instrument or commodity at a fixed price, either at a fixed date or at any time within a specified period.

Commodity Price Risk

Our marketing business enters into pipeline and storage terminal capacity contracts as well as crude oil purchase and sale agreements. We fix a portion of the exposure on these contracts by entering into financial instruments to manage variable price fluctuations that arise from physical commodity transactions.

Interest Rate Risk

We utilize debt issued to affiliates to finance our operations which exposes us to interest rate risk. We rely on TC Energy for funding and management of our interest rate risk.

Foreign Exchange Risk

Certain of our entities generate all or most of their earnings in U.S. dollars and, since we report our financial results in Canadian dollars, changes in the value of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar can affect our comparable EBITDA and comparable earnings. If our U.S. dollar-denominated operations continue to grow, this exposure increases. A portion of this risk is offset by interest expense on our U.S. dollar-denominated debt.

Counterparty Credit Risk

Our exposure to counterparty credit risk includes cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, environmental provision and certain contractual recoveries, available-for-sale assets and the fair value of derivative assets.

At times, our counterparties may endure financial challenges resulting from commodity price and market volatility, economic instability and political or regulatory changes. In addition to actively monitoring these situations, there are a number of factors that reduce our counterparty credit risk exposure in the event of default, including:

- contractual rights and remedies together with the utilization of contractually-based financial assurances
- the competitive position of our assets and the demand for our services
- potential recovery of unpaid amounts through bankruptcy and similar proceedings.

We review financial assets carried at amortized cost for impairment using the lifetime expected loss of the financial asset at initial recognition and throughout the life of the financial asset. We use historical credit loss and recovery data, adjusted for our judgment regarding current economic and credit conditions, along with reasonable and supportable forecasts to determine any impairment, which is recognized in Plant operating costs and other. We had no significant credit losses and no significant amounts past due or impaired at December 31, 2023 and 2022. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, we had no significant credit risk concentrations.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that we will not be able to meet our financial obligations as they come due. We have relied on TC Energy for funding and management of our liquidity risk; however, South Bow will be responsible to manage liquidity risk following completion of the spinoff Transaction.

Our ability to fund future capital projects and carry out the business plan is dependent on our ability to generate cash flows, as well as raise capital in a timely manner under favourable terms and conditions and will be impacted by our credit ratings and the condition of the capital and credit markets. Changes in credit ratings may affect the ability to enter and maintain certain contracts and could adversely impact our position. Management of liquidity risk requires us to maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents, along with other sources of capital consisting of cash flows from operating activities, available credit facilities, commercial paper, and access to debt capital markets, to meet our obligations as they become due.

Legal Proceedings

We are subject to various legal proceedings, arbitrations and actions arising in the normal course of business. We assess all legal matters on an ongoing basis, including those of our equity investments. With the potential exception of matters discussed in Note 20, Commitments contingencies and guarantees, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements, it is the opinion of management that the ultimate resolution of such proceedings and actions will not have a material impact on our financial position or results of operations.

CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Following the spinoff Transaction, South Bow, under the supervision and oversight of its CEO, CFO and the Audit Committee, will be responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal controls over financial reporting, which is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with applicable generally accepted accounting principles.

As a cross-listed issuer on the TSX and NYSE, South Bow will comply with applicable Canadian and U.S. regulatory requirements for disclosure controls and procedures, internal control over financial reporting and related CEO and CFO certifications, including National Instrument 52-109 – Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings (NI 52-109) and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

In preparing our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements, we are required to make estimates and assumptions that affect both the amount and timing of recording assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses since the determination of these items may be dependent on future events. We use the most current information available and exercise careful judgment in making these estimates and assumptions.

Certain estimates and judgments have a material impact where the assumptions underlying these accounting estimates relate to matters that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate or judgment is made or are subjective. Refer to Note 2, Accounting policies, of our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for additional information.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

We review long-lived assets, such as plant, property and equipment, and capital projects in development, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances lead us to believe we might not be able to recover an asset's carrying value. Factors we consider in our assessment of the recoverability of long-lived assets include, but are not limited to, macroeconomic conditions, changes in the industries and markets in which we operate, our ability to renew contracts, and the financial performance and prospects of our assets. If the total of the undiscounted future cash flows that we estimate for an asset within Plant, property and equipment, or the estimated selling price of any long-lived asset is less than its carrying value, we consider its fair value to be less than its carrying value and record an impairment loss to recognize this.

In 2021 we recorded a $2.8 billion pre-tax asset impairment charge, net of expected contractual recoveries and other contractual and legal obligations, related to the termination of the Keystone XL pipeline project ($2.1 billion after tax).

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

With the exception of Long-term debt to affiliates, our derivative and non-derivative financial instruments are recorded on the Combined carve-out balance sheet at fair value or amounts that approximate fair value. In addition, fair value accounting is not required for other financial instruments that qualify for certain accounting exemptions.

Derivative Instruments

We use derivative instruments to reduce volatility associated with fluctuations in commodity prices. Derivative instruments are recorded at fair value.

The majority of derivative instruments have been entered into as economic hedges to manage our exposure to market risk and are classified as held-for-trading. Changes in the fair value of held-for-trading derivative instruments are recorded in net income in the period of change. This may expose us to increased variability in reported operating results since the fair value of the held-for-trading derivative instruments can fluctuate significantly from period to period.

Balance Sheet Presentation of Derivative Instruments

The balance sheet presentation of the fair value of derivative instruments is as follows:

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

TC Energy has been responsible for providing certain administrative and operating services (corporate expenses) necessary to operate our business. As such, the allocation of corporate expenses attributable to us are considered related party transactions. Allocated corporate expenses are capitalized or expensed based on the nature of the underlying expenditure. In 2023, we:

- were allocated $213 million of corporate expenses (2022 – $217 million, 2021 – $247 million), of which $192 million was recorded to Plant operating costs and other (2022 – $182 million, 2021 – $168 million), $4 million was capitalized in Plant, property and equipment (2022 – $7 million) and $17 million was allocated to Equity investments (2022 – $28 million), of which $15 million impacted Income from equity investments (2022 – $20 million, 2021 – $29 million)
- incurred operating costs of $166 million (2022 – $141 million, 2021 – $110 million) with TC Energy subsidiaries for costs that are not allocated but are direct costs to us, as well as $5 million of direct costs that were capitalized in Plant, property and equipment (2022 – $4 million), and $8 million that was recorded to Equity investments (2022 – $9 million) of which $7 million impacted Income from equity investments (2022 – $8 million, 2021 – $6 million)
- sold plant and equipment with carrying value of nil (2022 – $12 million, 2021 – $4 million) to affiliates
- earned interest income of $29 million (2022 – $32 million, 2021 – $3 million) from affiliates.

At December 31, 2023, $137 million was due to affiliates (December 31, 2022 – $115 million) and $4 million was receivable from our equity investments (December 31, 2022 – nil).

The Long-term debt to affiliates presented in our Combined carve-out financial statements represents interaffiliate balances between TC Energy and us. Long-term debt to affiliates at December 31, 2023 was $7,879 million (December 31, 2022 – $1,793 million including current portion). Interest expense on the long-term debt to affiliates was $286 million for the year ended December 31, 2023 (2022 – $81 million, 2021 – $83 million). Refer to Note 15, Long-Term Debt to Affiliates, in our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for additional information. Also refer to Note 12, Keystone Environmental Provision, in our 2023 Combined carve-out financial statements for discussion of insurance recoveries from TC Energy's wholly-owned captive insurance subsidiary.

If the spinoff Transaction is approved, TC Energy and South Bow will enter into a Transition Services Agreement as defined in the Glossary of this Circular that will take effect upon closing of the spinoff. It is expected that the Transition Services Agreement will include detailed schedules regarding the terms for each scope of services provided between the entities, and the related costs payable by TC Energy to South Bow, and South Bow to TC Energy. Refer to the accompanying management information circular for greater detail.

Factors Affecting Quarterly Financial Information

Annual revenues and earnings are based on contracted and uncontracted spot transportation, as well as marketing activities. Quarter-over-quarter revenues and earnings are affected by:

- regulatory decisions
- newly constructed assets being placed in service
- acquisitions and divestitures
- demand for uncontracted transportation services
- marketing activities and commodity prices
- developments outside of the normal course of operations
- certain fair value adjustments.

Factors Affecting Financial Information by Quarter

We calculate comparable measures by adjusting certain GAAP measures for specific items we believe are significant but not reflective of our underlying operations in the period. Except as otherwise described herein, these comparable measures are calculated on a consistent basis from period to period and are adjusted for specific items in each period, as applicable.

We exclude from comparable measures the unrealized gains and losses from changes in the fair value of derivatives related to commodity price risk management activities. These derivatives generally provide effective economic hedges but do not meet the criteria for hedge accounting.

In fourth quarter 2023, comparable earnings also excluded:

- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $4 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge
- a $4 million after-tax gain on the sale of Keystone XL project assets and adjustment to the estimate for contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities
- a $3 million after-tax charge for accrued carrying charges related to the FERC Administrative Law Judge initial decision on Keystone
- a $2 million after-tax charge for separation costs incurred related to the spinoff Transaction.

In third quarter 2023, comparable earnings also excluded:

- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $3 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge.

In second quarter 2023, comparable earnings also excluded:

- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $3 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge
- a $1 million after-tax charge related to Focus Project costs.

In first quarter 2023, comparable earnings also excluded:

- a $49 million after-tax charge as a result of the FERC Administrative Law Judge initial decision issued in February 2023 in respect of a tolling-related complaint pertaining to amounts recognized from 2018 to 2022
- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $4 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge.

In fourth quarter 2022, comparable earnings also excluded:

- $20 million after-tax charge due to the CER decision on Keystone issued in December 2022 in respect of a tolling-related complaint pertaining to amounts reflected in 2021 and 2020
- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $8 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge
- a $90 million after-tax gain on the sale of Keystone XL project assets and reduction to the estimate for contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities.

In third quarter 2022, comparable earnings also excluded:

- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $3 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge.

In second quarter 2022, comparable earnings also excluded:

- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $3 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge.

In first quarter 2022, comparable earnings also excluded:

- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $5 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge.

FOURTH QUARTER 2023 HIGHLIGHTS

three months ended December 31
(millions of $)	2023	2022
Total earnings	310	311
Interest expense	(142)	(23)
Interest income and other	9	24
Income (loss) before income taxes	177	312
Income tax (expense) recovery	(37)	(74)
Net income (loss)	140	238

Net income (loss) decreased by $98 million for the three months ended December 31, 2023 compared to the same period in 2022. The significant decrease for the three months ended December 31, 2023 is primarily due to higher interest expense due to long-term debt issuances and the net effect of specific items mentioned below.

The following specific items were recognized in Net income (loss) and were excluded from comparable earnings:

Fourth Quarter 2023 Results Included:

- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $4 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge
- a $4 million after-tax gain on the sale of Keystone XL project assets and adjustment to the estimate for contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities
- $3 million after-tax charge for accrued carrying charges related to the FERC Administrative Law Judge initial decision on Keystone
- a $2 million after-tax charge for separation costs incurred related to the spinoff Transaction.

Fourth Quarter 2022 Results Included:

- $20 million after-tax charge due to the CER decision on Keystone issued in December 2022 in respect of a tolling-related complaint pertaining to amounts reflected in 2021 and 2020
- preservation and other costs for Keystone XL pipeline project assets of $8 million after tax, which could not be accrued as part of the Keystone XL asset impairment charge
- a $90 million after-tax gain on the sale of Keystone XL project assets and reduction to the estimate for contractual and legal obligations related to termination activities.

Net income in all years included unrealized gains and losses from changes in our risk management activities which we exclude along with the above noted items, to arrive at comparable earnings. A reconciliation of Net income to comparable earnings is shown in the following table.

Reconciliation of Net Income (Loss) to Comparable Earnings

Comparable EBITDA to Comparable Earnings

Comparable EBITDA represents earnings adjusted for the specific items described above and excludes non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization.

Income tax expense included in comparable earnings	(36)	(63)
Comparable earnings	129	206

Comparable EBITDA – 2023 Versus 2022

Comparable EBITDA increased by $26 million for the three months ended December 31, 2023 compared to the same period in 2022 primarily due to the net effect of the following:

- higher contracted volumes on the U.S. Gulf Coast section of the Keystone Pipeline System
- higher uncontracted volumes on the Keystone Pipeline System
- the negative impact of the CER decision issued in December 2022 in respect of a tolling-related complaint pertaining to amounts invoiced in 2022.

Comparable Earnings – 2023 Versus 2022

Comparable earnings decreased by $77 million for the three months ended December 31, 2023 compared to the same period in 2022 and was primarily the net effect of:

- changes in comparable EBITDA described above
- higher interest expense due to more debt incurred during 2023
- lower income tax expense primarily due to lower comparable earnings subject to tax.

Foreign Exchange

Certain parts of our business generate all or most of their earnings in U.S. dollars and, since we report our financial results in Canadian dollars, changes in the value of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar directly affect our comparable EBITDA and may also impact comparable earnings. If our U.S. operations were to grow, this exposure would increase. A portion of the U.S. dollar-denominated comparable EBITDA exposure is naturally offset by U.S. dollar-denominated amounts below comparable EBITDA within Depreciation and amortization, Interest expense and other income statement line items.

The components of our financial results denominated in U.S. dollars are set out in the table below. Comparable EBITDA is a non-GAAP measure.

Notes to Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

On July 27, 2023, TC Energy Corporation (TC Energy) announced plans to separate into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies through the proposed spinoff of its Liquids Pipelines business (the spinoff Transaction or Arrangement) and on November 8, 2023 TC Energy communicated that the name of the new Liquids Pipelines business will be South Bow Corporation (South Bow). In addition to TC Energy shareholder and court approvals the spinoff Transaction is subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. TC Energy expects that the spinoff Transaction will be completed in the second half of 2024.

On December 15, 2023, South Bow was formed under the CBCA in order to carry out the Arrangement. Until the Arrangement is effected, South Bow will have no assets or liabilities, will conduct no operations and will not issue any shares in its capital stock.

Under the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy shareholders will retain their current ownership in TC Energy shares and receive a pro-rata allocation of common shares in South Bow. The spinoff Transaction is described in greater detail in the body of this Circular.

The Liquids Pipelines Business primarily represent the group of liquids pipeline assets, which has been operated as a part of TC Energy and primarily consists of TC Energy's investments in 4,865 km (3,024 miles) of crude oil pipeline systems currently in operation which connect Alberta and U.S. crude oil supplies to U.S. refining markets in Illinois, Oklahoma and Texas.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE ARRANGEMENT

The purpose of the Arrangement and the related transactions is to separate TC Energy into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies: (a) TC Energy, a low-risk, diversified, growth-oriented natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions company, uniquely positioned to meet growing industry and consumer demand for reliable, lower-carbon energy sources, including natural gas; and (b) South Bow, a critical energy infrastructure company, with an unrivalled market position to connect resilient, safe and secure liquids supply to the highest demand markets with incremental growth and value creation opportunities. The Arrangement effects a series of transactions resulting in the transfer of the assets and liabilities comprising the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy to South Bow and the distribution to shareholders of all of the South Bow common shares. Shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date, as defined in the Glossary of this Circular, will receive, in exchange for each TC Energy share, one new TC Energy share and 0.2 of a South Bow common share. Accordingly, immediately after giving effect to the Arrangement, shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date will hold all of the outstanding new TC Energy shares and South Bow common shares.

3. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements of South Bow have been prepared for inclusion in this Circular. These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements have been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the audited combined carve-out financial statements of the Liquids Pipelines Business for the year ended December 31, 2023 and the audited financial statements of South Bow Corporation for the period of incorporation on December 15, 2023 to December 31, 2023.

South Bow has not had any operations and has no assets or liabilities at December 31, 2023; thus, all amounts presented in the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements related to South Bow are nil.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are prepared to give effect to and reflect the Arrangement as described in Note 2 as if:

- the Arrangement occurred on January 1, 2023 for the purposes of the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2023; and
- the Arrangement occurred on December 31, 2023 for the purpose of the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet as at December 31, 2023.

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements follow the same accounting policies and methods of application as those used in the audited combined carve-out financial statements of the Liquids Pipelines business for the year ended December 31, 2023.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are based on estimates, accounting judgments and currently available information and assumptions that management believes are reasonable. The pro forma consolidated financial statements are prepared for informational purposes only and do not include, among other things, adjustments related to incremental costs associated with setting up a publicly traded company, the transfer of certain additional assets and liabilities that are expected to be specified in the separation agreement and other Arrangement agreements and transitional support agreement fees paid. The pro forma information presented is not necessarily indicative of what South Bow's actual financial position and results of operations would have been had the Arrangement been completed on the dates indicated, nor does it purport to project South Bow's future financial position or results of operations for any future period or as of any future date. Readers are urged to consider these factors carefully in evaluating the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements.

All dollar amounts are presented in Canadian dollars unless otherwise specified.

4. ADJUSTMENTS TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF INCOME

- a) The Arrangement contemplates that South Bow will maintain the same debt to capitalization ratio as TC Energy after the spinoff. In third quarter 2023, the Liquids Pipelines business issued debt to affiliates as a consideration for internal restructuring representing the expected debt to capitalization ratio. The Liquids Pipelines business estimates that if the debt had been in place since the beginning of the year, an incremental $206 million of interest expense would have been incurred. The incremental interest expense would have decreased current income tax expense by approximately $47 million. South Bow expects to issue long-term debt and junior subordinated notes prior to closing of the spinoff Transaction. The split between these instruments has not yet been determined and will be dependent on market conditions at the time of offering. Funds from these issuances will be used to repay a portion of the long-term debt to affiliates balance at the time of closing the spinoff Transaction. The remaining outstanding portion of the long-term debt to affiliates is expected to be remarketed to external creditors. No pro forma adjustments have been made to reflect the interest rate, discount/premium and transaction costs of the future long-term debt issuance as these amounts are not objectively determinable.
- b) South Bow expects to repatriate earnings from the United States to Canada to fund debt and dividend payments. South Bow may incur a five per cent withholding tax on foreign earnings that are repatriated to Canada in the form of dividend payments. In 2023, $1,096 million (US $820 million) of cash distributions were made from U.S. Liquids Pipelines business entities to TC Energy's U.S. parent company. Had these distributions been made to South Bow's Canadian parent company after the completion of the Arrangement, withholding taxes of $55 million would have been incurred.

5. ADJUSTMENTS TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEET

- a) Cash of $137 million is paid to TC Energy to settle due to affiliate payable balances owing to TC Energy.
- b) On February 28, 2024, South Bow entered into a lease agreement for its Canadian headquarters in Calgary, Alberta. The agreement is expected to be recorded as an operating lease and the present value of future lease payments has been estimated to be $13 million using a 4.81 per cent discount rate.
- c) In third quarter 2023, the Liquids Pipelines business issued debt to affiliates as a consideration for internal restructuring representing the expected debt to capitalization ratio. South Bow expects to issue long-term debt and junior subordinated notes prior to closing of the spinoff Transaction. The split between these instruments has not yet been determined and will be dependent on market conditions at the time of offering. Funds from these issuances will be used to repay a portion of the long-term debt to affiliates balance at the time of closing the spinoff Transaction. The remaining outstanding portion of the long-term debt to affiliates is expected to be remarketed to external creditors. No pro forma adjustments have been made to reflect the interest rate, discount/premium and transaction costs of the future long-term debt issuance as these amounts are not objectively determinable.
- d) To eliminate Parent's net investment attributable to the Liquids Pipelines business and reflect the net assets of South Bow as Additional paid-in capital.

6. OTHER CONTRACTUAL MATTERS AND COSTS

The separation agreement will set forth the agreement between TC Energy and South Bow with respect to the separation of the Liquids Pipelines business in connection with the Arrangement, including the transfer of certain assets related to the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy to South Bow and the allocation of certain liabilities and obligations related to the Liquids Pipelines business between TC Energy and South Bow. In addition, TC Energy may indemnify South Bow for certain liabilities and costs associated with the Milepost 14 incident and certain existing variable toll disputes on the Keystone Pipeline System. See the Arrangement – Separation Agreements and Other Arrangements section in the body of this Circular for additional information.

TC Energy will assign employees and transfer certain employee benefit plan assets and liabilities, to South Bow. South Bow will establish benefit plans and arrangements for the transferred employees.

No pro forma adjustments have been made to reflect the transfer of additional assets and liabilities not included in the audited combined carve-out financial statements of the Liquids Pipelines business, including employee benefit plan assets and liabilities, other compensation liabilities and other shared corporate assets because the Separation Agreement and other agreements have not yet been finalized, and amounts are not objectively determinable.

Historically, TC Energy has charged its operating subsidiaries for various corporate costs incurred in the operation of the business. These costs may not be representative, either positively or negatively, of the future costs South Bow will incur as an independent, public company. Effective with the separation, South Bow will assume responsibility for all its corporate functions and related costs. Certain of these activities will continue to be performed by TC Energy under a transition services agreement for a limited period of time. South Bow will incur costs as an independent public company, including costs to replace services previously provided by TC Energy, as well as other stand-alone costs. South Bow, as a stand-alone company, is expected to incur additional recurring costs, including:

- personnel and third party costs, including salaries, benefits, pension, potential bonuses and/or share-based compensation awards for staff additions to replace corporate and other services currently shared across all businesses;
- corporate governance costs, including board of director compensation and expenses, audit and other professional services fees, transfer agent fees, consulting and legal fees;
- costs to perform financial reporting and regulatory compliance, costs associated with information technology, marketing, logistics, investor relations, treasury and other general and administrative related functions;
- additional insurance premiums; and
- costs related to sustainability and external affairs.

No pro forma adjustments have been made to reflect the additional costs described above because they are projected amounts based on estimates and would not be objectively determinable.

7. COMMON SHARES

South Bow is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares. Prior to the Arrangement, South Bow had no shareholders or shares outstanding. Pursuant to the Arrangement, shareholders of TC Energy as of the Distribution Record Date will receive, in exchange for each TC Energy share, one new TC Energy share and 0.2 of a South Bow common share.

TC Energy stock options held by transferred employees will be exchanged for a number of South Bow stock options.

8. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Pro forma basic and diluted earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2023 are calculated based on the weighted average number of South Bow common shares that would have been outstanding, assuming that any shares issued under the Arrangement would have been issued and outstanding for the period presented and assuming that no other dilutive equity instruments are outstanding. The weighted average number of shares outstanding for the basic and diluted earnings per share calculations is assumed to be 207 million for the year ended December 31, 2023, representing a 0.2-for-one ratio to TC Energy shares. Stock options issued by South Bow as a result of the Arrangement are not anticipated to have a significant impact on diluted earnings per share.

Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized words and phrases used in this Schedule J have the meanings given to such words and phrases in the Glossary in the body of this Circular.

Corporate Structure

TC Energy’s head office and registered office are located at 450 – 1 Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 5H1. TC Energy was incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the CBCA on February 25, 2003 in connection with a plan of arrangement with TCPL (TCPL Arrangement), which established TC Energy as the parent company of TCPL. The TCPL Arrangement was approved by TCPL common shareholders on April 25, 2003 and, following court approval and the filing of Articles of Arrangement, the TCPL Arrangement became effective on May 15, 2003. TCPL continues to carry on business as the principal operating subsidiary of TC Energy. TC Energy does not hold any material assets directly other than the common shares of TCPL and receivables from certain of TC Energy’s subsidiaries.

The following diagram presents the name and jurisdiction of incorporation, continuance or formation of the principal subsidiaries of TC Energy upon completion of the Arrangement. Other than as indicated, each of the subsidiaries shown is expected to have total assets that exceed 10 per cent of the consolidated assets of TC Energy or revenues that exceed 10 per cent of the consolidated revenues of TC Energy, in each case, at the time the Arrangement is completed. Unless otherwise indicated, TC Energy will beneficially own, control or direct, directly or indirectly, 100 per cent of the voting shares or units in each of these subsidiaries.

Notes

- 1 701671 Alberta Ltd.’s assets and revenues are not expected to exceed 10 per cent of the total consolidated assets or revenues of TC Energy at the time the Arrangement is completed, but has been included to meet the total expected consolidated assets and revenues criteria of excluded subsidiaries threshold of less than 20 per cent of the consolidated assets or revenues, respectively, of TC Energy at the time the Arrangement is completed.
- 2 TC Energy beneficially owns, controls or directs, directly or indirectly, 60 per cent of the voting shares or units in Columbia Pipelines Holding Company, LLC, Columbia Pipelines Operating Company, LLC and Columbia Gas Transmission, LLC.
- 3 Based on the TC Energy Annual Financial Statements, NOVA Gas Transmission Ltd. has been included in the above chart as a subsidiary expected to have total assets that exceed 10 per cent of the consolidated assets of TC Energy or revenues that exceed 10 per cent of the consolidated revenues of TC Energy. However, following a reorganization effective April 1, 2024, NOVA Gas Transmission Ltd. transferred the NGTL System assets to NGTL Limited Partnership, an Alberta limited partnership. NGTL GP Ltd., an Alberta corporation, acts as the general partner to NGTL Limited Partnership. As such, at the Effective Time, it is expected that each of NGTL Limited Partnership and NGTL GP Ltd. will be subsidiaries expected to have total assets that exceed 10 per cent of the consolidated assets of TC Energy or revenues that exceed 10 per cent of the consolidated revenues of TC Energy. Following such transaction, NOVA Gas Transmission Ltd. will no longer meet such threshold.
- 4 The above has been calculated on the basis of the TC Energy Annual Financial Statements.

Description of the Business

OVERVIEW

With over 70 years of experience, TC Energy is a leader in the responsible development and reliable operation of North American energy infrastructure. Upon completion of the Arrangement, TC Energy will operate in two core businesses: the Natural Gas Pipelines business and Power and Energy Solutions.

NATURAL GAS PIPELINES BUSINESS

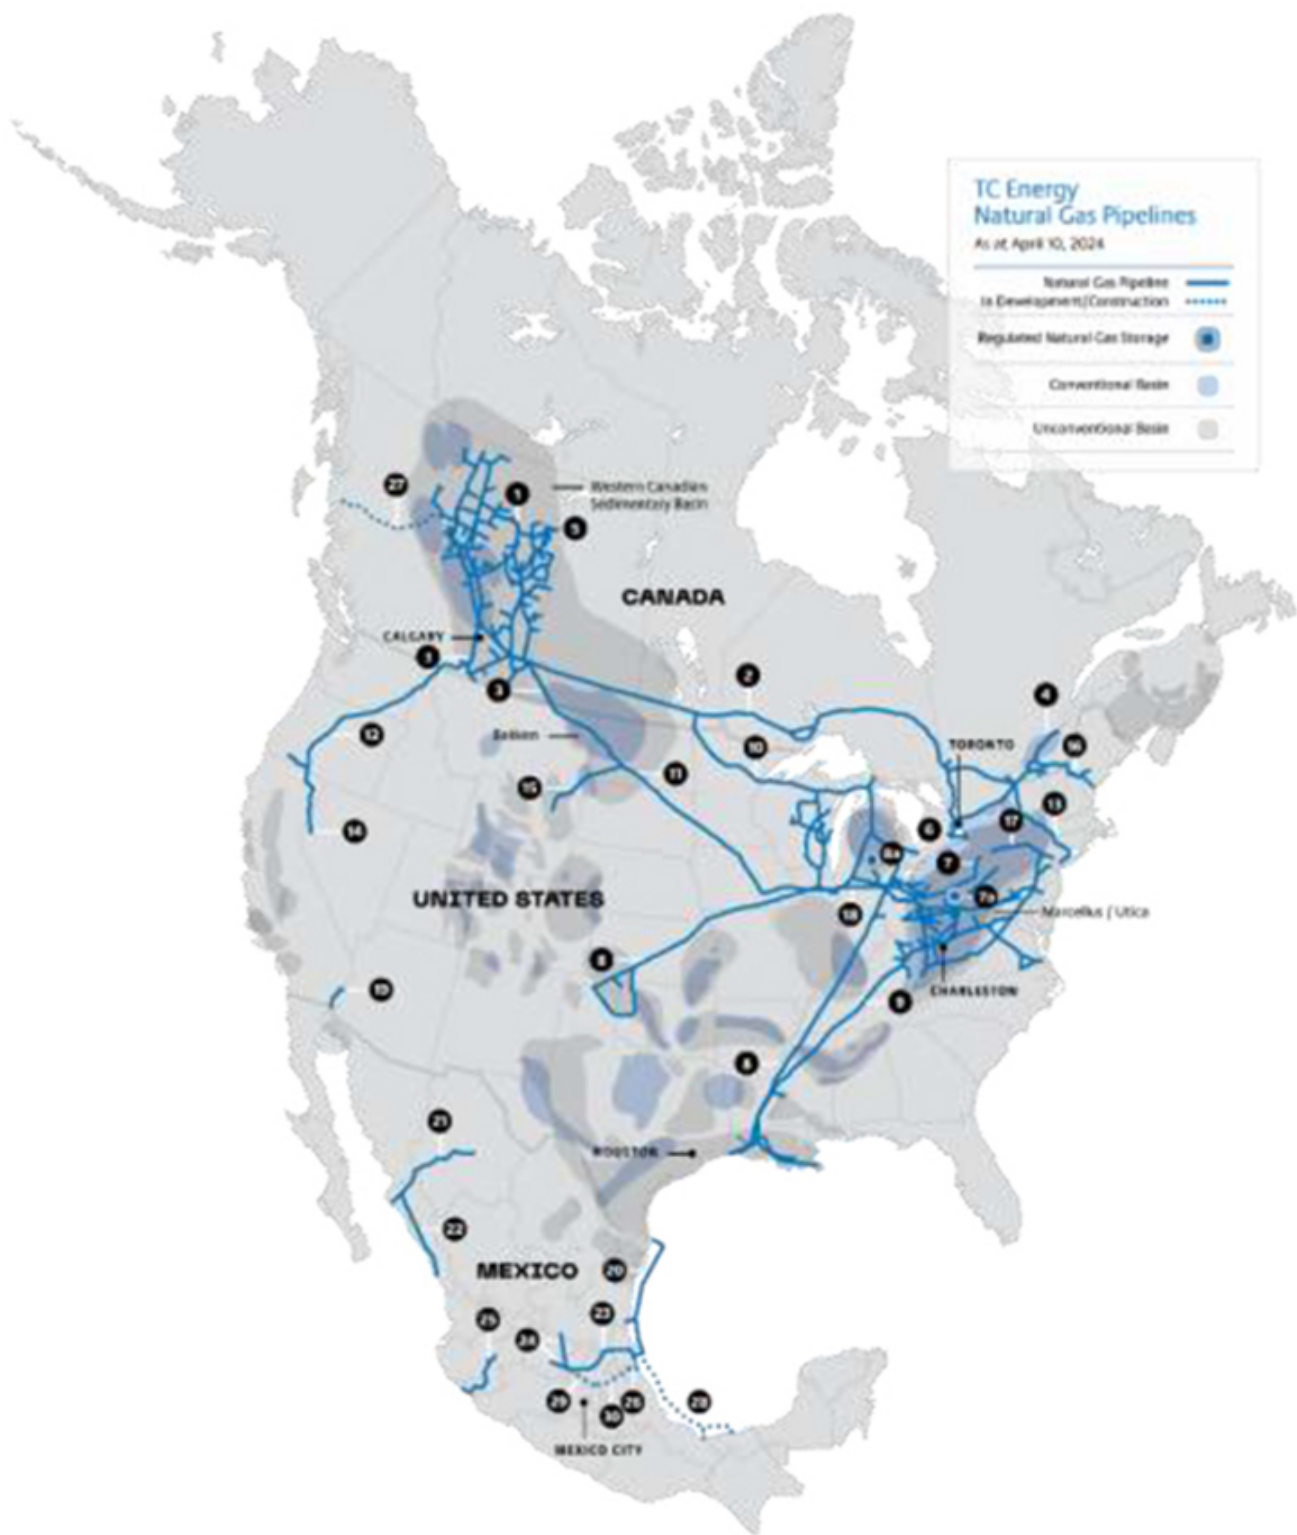

TC Energy's natural gas pipeline network transports natural gas from supply basins to local distribution companies, power generation plants, industrial facilities, interconnecting pipelines, LNG export terminals and other businesses across Canada, the U.S. and Mexico. The Natural Gas Pipelines business builds, owns and operates a network of natural gas pipelines across North America that connects gas production to interconnected, end-use markets and LNG export terminals. The network includes underground pipelines that transport natural gas predominantly under high pressure, compressor stations that act like pumps to move large volumes of natural gas along the pipeline and meter stations that record the amount of natural gas coming on the network at receipt locations and leaving the network at delivery locations.

In addition to natural gas pipelines, the Natural Gas Pipelines business includes regulated natural gas storage facilities in the U.S. that provide services to customers and help maintain the overall balance of the pipeline systems. With a total working gas capacity of 532 Bcf, TC Energy is one of the largest providers of natural gas storage and related services to key markets in North America.

The Natural Gas Pipelines business is split into three operating segments representing its geographic diversity: Canadian Natural Gas Pipelines, U.S. Natural Gas Pipelines and Mexico Natural Gas Pipelines.

Canadian Natural Gas Pipelines

- NGTL and Foothills System:* The NGTL and Foothills System is TC Energy’s natural gas gathering and transportation system for the WCSB, connecting most of the natural gas production in western Canada to domestic and export markets. TC Energy is well positioned to connect growing supply in northeast British Columbia and northwest Alberta. TC Energy’s capital program for new pipeline facilities is driven by these two supply areas, along with growing demand for intra-Alberta firm transportation for electric power generation conversion from coal, oil sands development and petro-chemical feedstock, as well as to its major export points at the Empress and Alberta/British Columbia delivery locations. The NGTL System is also well positioned to connect WCSB supply to LNG export facilities on the Canadian west coast, through future extensions or expansions of the system or future connections to other pipelines serving that area.
- Canadian Mainline:* This pipeline supplies markets in the Canadian Prairies, Ontario, Québec, the Canadian Maritimes as well as to the U.S. markets including Great Lakes, Midwest, Gulf Coast and Northeast from the WCSB and, through interconnects, from the Appalachian basin.

U.S. Natural Gas Pipelines

- Columbia Gas:* Columbia Gas is TC Energy’s natural gas transportation system for the Appalachian basin, which contains the Marcellus and Utica shale plays, two of the largest natural gas shale plays in North America. Similar to TC Energy’s footprint in the WCSB, the Columbia Gas assets are well positioned to connect growing supply to markets in this area. This system also interconnects with other pipelines that provide access to key markets in the U.S. Northeast, the Midwest, the Atlantic coast and south to the Gulf of Mexico and its growing demand for natural gas to serve LNG exports. TC Energy owns a 60 per cent equity interest and is the operator of this pipeline.

- ANR: This pipeline system connects supply basins and markets throughout the U.S. Midwest and south to the Gulf of Mexico. This includes connecting supply in Texas, Oklahoma, the Appalachian basin and the Gulf of Mexico to markets in Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Ohio. In addition, ANR has bidirectional capability on its Southeast Mainline and delivers gas produced from the Appalachian basin to customers throughout the U.S. Gulf Coast region.
- Columbia Gulf: This pipeline system transports growing Appalachian basin supplies to various U.S. Gulf Coast markets and LNG export terminals from its interconnections with Columbia Gas and other pipelines. TC Energy owns a 60 per cent equity interest and is the operator of this pipeline.
- Other U.S. Natural Gas Pipelines: TC Energy has ownership interests in ten wholly-owned or partially-owned natural gas pipelines serving major markets in the U.S.

Mexico Natural Gas Pipelines

- Sur de Texas: This offshore pipeline transports natural gas from Texas to power and industrial markets in the eastern and central regions of Mexico. The average volumes transported by this pipeline in 2023 supplied approximately 17 per cent of Mexico's total natural gas imports via pipelines. TC Energy owns a 60 per cent equity interest and is the operator of this pipeline.
- Northwest System: The Topolobampo and Mazatlán pipelines make up TC Energy's Mexico northwest system. The system runs through the states of Chihuahua and Sinaloa, supplying power plants and industrial facilities, bringing natural gas to a region of the country that previously did not have access to it.
- TGNH System: This system is located in the central region of Mexico and is comprised of the existing Tamazunchale pipeline, the Tula, Villa de Reyes and Southeast Gateway pipelines with sections that are either in-service or currently under construction. This system supplies, or will supply, several power plants and industrial facilities in Veracruz, Tabasco, San Luis Potosí, Querétaro and Hidalgo. It has interconnects with upstream pipelines that bring in supply from the Agua Dulce and Waha hubs in Texas.
- Guadalajara: This bidirectional pipeline connects imported LNG supply near Manzanillo and continental gas supply near Guadalajara to power plants and industrial customers in the states of Colima and Jalisco.

Canadian Power

Canadian Power Generation & Marketing

TC Energy owns and operates approximately 1,200 MW of power supply in Canada, excluding its investment in Bruce Power. In Alberta, TC Energy owns five facilities: four natural gas-fired cogeneration and one solar. TC Energy exercises a disciplined operating strategy to maximize revenues. TC Energy's marketing group sells uncommitted power while also buying and selling power and natural gas to maximize earnings. To reduce commodity price exposure associated with uncontracted power, TC Energy sells a portion of this output in forward sales markets when acceptable contract terms are available while the remainder is retained to be sold in the spot market or under short-term forward arrangements. The objective of this strategy is to maintain adequate power supply to fulfill TC Energy's sales obligations if it has unexpected plant outages and enable TC Energy to capture opportunities to increase earnings in periods of high spot prices. TC Energy's two eastern Canadian natural gas-fired cogeneration assets, Bécancour and Grandview, are fully contracted.

Bruce Power

Bruce Power is a nuclear power generation facility located near Tiverton, Ontario and is comprised of eight nuclear units with a combined capacity of approximately 6,560 MW. Bruce Power leases the facilities from Ontario Power Generation, has no spent fuel risk and will return the facilities to Ontario Power Generation for decommissioning at the end of the lease. TC Energy holds a 48.3 per cent ownership interest in Bruce Power.

Results from Bruce Power will fluctuate primarily due to units being offline for the Major Component Replacement (MCR) program and the frequency, scope and duration of planned and unplanned maintenance outages.

Through a long-term agreement with the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO), Bruce Power has begun to progress a series of incremental life-extension investments to extend the operating life of the facility to 2064. This agreement represents an extension and material amendment to the earlier agreement that led to the refurbishment of Units 1 and 2 at the site. Under the amended agreement, which took economic effect in 2016, Bruce Power began investing in life extension activities for Units 3 through 8 to support the long-term refurbishment programs. Investment in the asset management program is designed to result in near-term life extensions of each of the six units up to the planned major refurbishment outages and beyond. The asset management program includes the one-time refurbishment or replacement of systems, structures or components that are not within the scope of the MCR program, which focuses on the actual replacement of the key, life-limiting reactor components. The MCR Program is designed to add 30 years of operational life to each of the six units.

The Unit 6 MCR is the first of the six-unit MCR life extension program, commenced in January 2020 and was placed back into commercial operation in third quarter 2023. The Unit 3 MCR, the second unit in the MCR program, commenced in first quarter 2023 and has an expected completion in 2026. In the fourth quarter 2023, the Unit 4 MCR final cost and schedule estimate was submitted to the IESO and approved on February 8, 2024. TC Energy expects the Unit 4 MCR to commence in first quarter 2025 with expected completion in 2028. Investments in the remaining three units' MCR programs are expected to continue through 2033. Future MCR program investments will be subject to discrete decisions for each unit with specified off-ramps available for Bruce Power and the IESO.

As part of the life extension and refurbishment agreement, Bruce Power receives a uniform contract price for all units which includes certain flow-through items such as fuel and lease expense recovery. The contract also provides for payment if the IESO requests a reduction in Bruce Power's generation to balance the supply of, and demand for, electricity and/or manage other operating conditions of the Ontario power grid. The amount of the reduction is considered deemed generation, for which Bruce Power is paid the contract price.

The contract price is subject to adjustments for the return of and on capital invested at Bruce Power under the asset management and MCR programs, along with various other pricing adjustments that allow for a better matching of revenues and costs over the long term. As part of the amended agreement, Bruce Power is also required to share operating cost efficiencies with the IESO for better than planned performance. These efficiencies are reviewed every three years and paid out on a monthly basis over the subsequent three-year period.

Power Purchase Agreements – Canada

TC Energy has approximately 400 MW of wind and solar generation power purchase agreements and associated environmental attributes in Alberta. These power purchase agreements allow TC Energy to generate incremental earnings by offering renewable power products to its customers.

U.S. Power

Power Generation & Marketing – U.S.

TC Energy owns approximately 300 MW of wind generation located in Texas which operate in the Electric Reliability Council of Texas and Southwest Power Pool markets. A portion of this power generation is sold under a long-term, fixed price contract.

TC Energy's U.S. Power and emissions commercial trading and marketing business optimizes the value of its assets and leverages physical and financial products in the power and environmental markets with a focus on risk management.

Power Purchase Agreements – U.S.

TC Energy has approximately 400 MW of wind generation power purchase agreements and associated environmental attributes in the U.S. These power purchase agreements allow TC Energy to generate incremental earnings by offering renewable power products to customers.

Other Energy Solutions

Canadian Natural Gas Storage

TC Energy owns and operates 118 Bcf of non-regulated natural gas storage capacity in Alberta. This business operates independently from TC Energy's regulated natural gas transmission and U.S. storage businesses.

TC Energy's Canadian natural gas storage business helps balance seasonal and short-term supply and demand while also adding flexibility to the delivery of natural gas to markets in Alberta and the rest of North America. Market volatility creates arbitrage opportunities and TC Energy's natural gas storage facilities also give it and its customers the ability to capture value from short-term price movements. The natural gas storage business is affected by changes in seasonal natural gas price spreads which are generally determined by the differential in natural gas prices between the traditional summer injection and winter withdrawal seasons. In addition, the business may be affected by pipeline restrictions in Alberta which limit the ability to capture price differentials.

TC Energy's natural gas storage business contracts with third parties, typically participants in the Alberta and interconnected gas markets, for a fixed fee to provide natural gas storage services on a short, medium and/or long-term basis.

TC Energy also enters into proprietary natural gas storage transactions which include a forward purchase of its own natural gas to be injected into storage and a simultaneous forward sale of natural gas for withdrawal at a later period, typically during the winter withdrawal season. By matching purchase and sales volumes on a back-to-back basis, TC Energy locks in future positive margins, effectively eliminating its exposure to changes in natural gas prices for these transactions.

For information regarding TC Energy's Power and Energy Solutions business, including holdings, developments, opportunities, regulation and competitive position, refer to the Power and Energy Solutions section of the TC Energy Annual MD&A, which is incorporated by reference herein.

Upon the completion of the Arrangement, it is expected that TC Energy's principal operating subsidiary, TCPL, will have a total of approximately 6,700 employees, substantially all of whom will be employed in Canada, the U.S. and Mexico.

Each right becomes exercisable 10 trading days after a person has acquired, or commences a take-over bid to acquire, 20 per cent or more of the New TC Energy Common Shares, other than by an acquisition pursuant to a take-over bid permitted under the terms of the TC Energy Shareholder Rights Plan. Prior to a flip-in event (as described below), each right permits registered holders to purchase from TC Energy New TC Energy Common Shares at an exercise price equal to three times the market price of such shares, subject to adjustments and anti-dilution provisions. The beneficial acquisition by any person of 20 per cent or more of the New TC Energy Common Shares, other than by way of a permitted bid, is referred to as a “flip-in event”. Ten trading days after a flip-in event, each right will permit registered holders other than an acquiring person to receive, upon payment of the exercise price, the number of New TC Energy Common Shares with an aggregate market price equal to twice the exercise price. The TC Energy Shareholder Rights Plan was reconfirmed at the 2022 annual meeting of shareholders and must be reconfirmed at every third annual meeting thereafter. Reconfirmation of the TC Energy Shareholder Rights Plan will be voted on at the 2025 annual meeting of shareholders.

FIRST PREFERRED SHARES

Subject to certain limitations, the Board may, from time to time, issue First Preferred Shares in one or more series and determine for any such series, its designation, number of shares and respective rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions. The First Preferred Shares as a class have, among others, the provisions described below.

The First Preferred Shares of each series rank on a parity with the First Preferred Shares of every other series, and are entitled to preference over the New TC Energy Common Shares, the Second Preferred Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to the payment of dividends, the repayment of capital and the distribution of assets of TC Energy in the event of its liquidation, dissolution or winding up.

Except as provided by the CBCA, the holders of the First Preferred Shares will not have any voting rights nor will they be entitled to receive notice of or to attend shareholders’ meetings. The holders of any particular series of First Preferred Shares will, if the directors so determine prior to the issuance of such series, be entitled to such voting rights as may be determined by the Board if TC Energy fails to pay dividends on that series of preferred shares for any period as may be so determined by the Board. TC Energy currently does not intend to issue any First Preferred Shares with voting rights, and any issuances of First Preferred Shares are expected to be made only in connection with corporate financings.

The provisions attaching to the First Preferred Shares as a class may be modified, amended or varied only with the approval of the holders of the First Preferred Shares as a class. Any such approval to be given by the holders of the First Preferred Shares may be given by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3 per cent of the First Preferred Shares represented and voted at a meeting or adjourned meeting of such holders.

The holders of Series 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 and 11 First Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive quarterly fixed rate cumulative preferential cash dividends, as and when declared by the Board, to be reset periodically on prescribed dates to an annualized rate equal to the sum of the then five-year Government of Canada bond yield, calculated at the start of the applicable five-year period, and a spread as set forth in the table below and have the right to convert their shares into cumulative redeemable Series 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 First Preferred Shares, respectively, subject to certain conditions, on such conversion dates as set forth in the table below. The Series 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 and 11 First Preferred Shares are redeemable by TC Energy in whole or in part on such redemption dates as set forth in the table below, by the payment of an amount in cash for each share to be redeemed equal to $25.00 plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon.

The holders of Series 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 First Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive quarterly floating rate cumulative preferential cash dividends, as and when declared by the Board, at an annualized rate equal to the sum of the then 90-day Government of Canada treasury bill rate, recalculated quarterly, and a spread as set forth in the table below and have the right to convert their shares into Series 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 and 11 First Preferred Shares, respectively, subject to certain conditions, on such conversion dates as set forth in the table below. The Series 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 First Preferred Shares are redeemable by TC Energy in whole or in part after their respective initial redemption date as set forth in the table below, by the payment of an amount in cash for each share to be redeemed equal to: (a) $25.00 in the case of redemptions on such redemption dates as set out in the table below; or (b) $25.50 in the case of redemptions on any other date, in each case plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon.

In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of TC Energy, the holders of Series 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 First Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive $25.00 per TC Energy Preferred Share plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon in preference over the New TC Energy Common Shares or any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares.

Series of First Preferred Shares	Initial redemption/ conversion date	Redemption/conversion dates	Spread (%)

Series 12 preferred shares	—	November 28, 2025 and every fifth year thereafter	2.96

Except as provided by the CBCA, the respective holders of the First Preferred Shares of each outstanding series are not entitled to receive notice of, attend at, nor vote at any meeting of shareholders unless and until TC Energy shall have failed to pay eight quarterly dividends on such series of preferred shares, whether or not consecutive, in which case the holders of the First Preferred Shares of such series shall have the right to receive notice of and to attend each meeting of shareholders at which directors are to be elected and which take place more than 60 days after the date on which the failure first occurs, and to one vote with respect to resolutions to elect directors for each of the First Preferred Shares of such series, until all arrears of dividends have been paid. Subject to the CBCA, the series provisions attaching to the First Preferred Shares may be amended with the written approval of all the holders of such series of shares outstanding or by at least two thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of the holders of such shares duly called for that purpose and at which a quorum is present.

SECOND PREFERRED SHARES

The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Second Preferred Shares are substantially identical to those attaching to the First Preferred Shares, except that the Second Preferred Shares rank junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to the payment of dividends, repayment of capital and the distribution of assets of TC Energy in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of TC Energy.

DIVIDENDS

The Board has not adopted a formal dividend policy. Following the Arrangement, the Board will review the financial performance of TC Energy quarterly and make a determination of the appropriate level of dividends to be declared in the following quarter. TC Energy's payment of dividends is primarily funded from dividends TC Energy receives as the sole common shareholder of TCPL.

Provisions of various trust indentures and credit arrangements with certain of TC Energy’s subsidiaries can restrict those subsidiaries’ ability and, in certain cases, TC Energy’s ability to declare and pay dividends or make distributions under certain circumstances. In the opinion of management, these provisions do not currently, and following the Arrangement are not expected to, restrict TC Energy’s ability to declare or pay dividends.

Additionally, pursuant to the terms of the trust notes issued by TransCanada Trust (a financing trust subsidiary wholly-owned by TCPL) and related agreements, in certain circumstances, including where holders of the trust notes receive deferral preferred shares of TCPL in lieu of cash interest payments and where exchange preferred shares of TCPL are issued to holders of the trust notes as a result of certain bankruptcy related events, TC Energy and TCPL would be prohibited from declaring or paying dividends on or redeeming their outstanding preferred shares (or, if none are outstanding, their respective common shares) until all such exchange or deferral preferred shares are redeemed by TCPL. No deferral preferred shares or exchange preferred shares of TCPL have ever been issued.

Dividends on TC Energy Preferred Shares are payable quarterly, as and when declared by the Board. The dividends declared on TC Energy shares and TC Energy Preferred Shares during the past three completed financial years are set out in the TC Energy Annual MD&A under the heading About our business – 2023 Financial highlights – Dividends.

Notes to Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

TC Energy Corporation (TC Energy) is a leading North American energy infrastructure company which operates in five business segments: Canadian Natural Gas Pipelines, U.S. Natural Gas Pipelines, Mexico Natural Gas Pipelines, Liquids Pipelines and Power and Energy Solutions. These segments offer different products and services, including certain natural gas, crude oil and electricity marketing and storage services. TC Energy also has a Corporate segment, consisting of corporate and administrative functions that provide governance, financing and other support to TC Energy's business segments.

On July 27, 2023, TC Energy announced plans to separate into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies through the proposed spinoff of its Liquids Pipelines business (the spinoff Transaction or Arrangement) and on November 8, 2023 TC Energy communicated that the name of the new Liquids Pipelines business will be South Bow Corporation (South Bow). In addition to TC Energy shareholder and court approvals, the spinoff Transaction is subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. TC Energy expects that the spinoff Transaction will be completed in the second half of 2024.

Under the spinoff Transaction, TC Energy shareholders will retain their current ownership in TC Energy shares and receive a pro-rata allocation of common shares in South Bow. The spinoff Transaction is described in greater detail in the body of this Circular.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE ARRANGEMENT

The purpose of the Arrangement and the related transactions is to separate TC Energy into two independent, investment-grade, publicly listed companies:

(a) TC Energy, a low-risk, diversified, growth-oriented natural gas infrastructure and energy solutions company, uniquely positioned to meet growing industry and consumer demand for reliable, lower-carbon energy sources, including natural gas; and (b) South Bow, a critical energy infrastructure company, with an unrivalled market position to connect resilient, safe and secure liquids supply to the highest demand markets with incremental growth and value creation opportunities. The Arrangement effects a series of transactions resulting in the transfer of the assets and liabilities comprising the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy to South Bow and the distribution to shareholders of all of the South Bow common shares. Shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date, as defined in the Glossary of this Circular, will receive, in exchange for each TC Energy share, one new TC Energy share and 0.2 of a South Bow common share. Accordingly, immediately after giving effect to the Arrangement, shareholders as of the Distribution Record Date will hold all of the outstanding new TC Energy shares and South Bow common shares.

3. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements of TC Energy have been prepared for inclusion in this Circular. These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements have been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of TC Energy for the year ended December 31, 2023, the audited combined carve-out financial statements of the Liquids Pipelines business for the year ended December 31, 2023 and the audited financial statements of South Bow for the period from incorporation on December 15, 2023 to December 31, 2023.

South Bow has not had any operations and has no assets or liabilities as at December 31, 2023; thus, it is not presented in the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are prepared to give effect to and reflect the Arrangement as described in Note 2 as if:

- the Arrangement occurred on January 1, 2023 for the purposes of the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2023; and
- the Arrangement occurred on December 31, 2023 for the purpose of the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet as at December 31, 2023.

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements follow the same accounting policies and methods of application as those used in the audited consolidated financial statements of TC Energy for the year ended December 31, 2023.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are based on estimates, accounting judgments and currently available information and assumptions that management believes are reasonable. The pro forma consolidated financial statements are prepared for informational purposes only and do not include, among other things, the transfer of certain additional assets and liabilities that are expected to be specified in the separation agreement and other Arrangement agreements, costs related to separation and transitional support agreement fees earned. The pro forma information presented is not necessarily indicative of what TC Energy's actual financial position and results of operations would have been had the Arrangement been completed on the dates indicated, nor does it purport to project TC Energy's future financial position or results of operations for any future period or as of any future date. Readers are urged to consider these factors carefully in evaluating the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements.

All dollar amounts are presented in Canadian dollars unless otherwise specified.

4. ADJUSTMENTS TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF INCOME

- a) An adjustment to conform income statement presentation of the combined carve-out income statement with TC Energy.
- b) As a result of the completion of the Arrangement, TC Energy expects to receive cash proceeds of approximately $7,879 million relating to the repayment and remarketing of inter-affiliate loan balances with South Bow. TC Energy expects to use some or all of the proceeds to repay long-term debt balances. If the $7,879 million in loan repayment proceeds was used to reduce long-term debt balances, an incremental reduction in interest expense of $206 million above the interest expense of the combined carve-out income statement would be realized using TC Energy's weighted average interest rate on long-term debt. The reduction in interest expense increased current income tax expense by approximately $47 million.
- c) Estimated transaction costs to be incurred upon completion of the Arrangement of $100 million pre-tax ($86 million after-tax) have been included in the pro forma consolidated statement of income.

5. ADJUSTMENTS TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEET

- a) An adjustment to conform balance sheet presentation of the combined carve-out balance sheet with TC Energy.
- b) Cash of $137 million will be received from South Bow to settle due to affiliate payable balances owing from South Bow.
- c) TC Energy expects South Bow to repay a portion of debt due to affiliates with proceeds from the issuance of third-party long-term debt and junior subordinated notes. The remaining portion of debt due to affiliates is expected to be exchanged for an equivalent principal amount of TC Energy's indebtedness. TC Energy intends to utilize all or a portion of the proceeds to repay long-term debt balances. The reduction of the long-term debt balance is estimated to be dollar-for-dollar with the proceeds received. Actual debt reduction may be larger or smaller, if debt trading at a discount or premium is repurchased and retired.
- d) To eliminate Parent's net investment attributable to the Liquids Pipelines business.
- e) Additional transaction costs related to the Arrangement are anticipated to be incurred as described in Note 4c) above for which pro forma adjustments have been made.

6. OTHER CONTRACTUAL MATTERS AND COSTS

The separation agreement will set forth the agreement between TC Energy and South Bow with respect to the separation of the Liquids Pipelines business in connection with the Arrangement, including the transfer of certain assets related to the Liquids Pipelines business from TC Energy to South Bow and the allocation of certain liabilities and obligations related to the Liquids Pipelines business between TC Energy and South Bow, including responsibility and liability for certain legal actions.

TC Energy will assign employees and transfer certain employee benefit plan assets and liabilities to South Bow. South Bow will establish benefit plans and arrangements for the transferred employees.

No pro forma adjustments have been made to reflect the transfer of additional assets and liabilities not included in the audited combined carve-out financial statements of the Liquids Pipelines business, including employee benefit plan assets and liabilities, other compensation liabilities and other shared corporate assets because the separation agreement and other agreements have not yet been finalized, and amounts are not objectively determinable.

Historically, TC Energy has charged its operating subsidiaries for various corporate costs incurred in the operation of the business. These costs may not be representative, either positively or negatively, of the future costs South Bow will incur as an independent, public company. Effective with the separation, South Bow will assume responsibility for all its corporate functions and related costs. Certain of these activities will continue to be performed by TC Energy under a transition services agreement for a limited period of time. South Bow will incur incremental costs as an independent public company, including costs to replace services previously provided by TC Energy, as well as other stand-alone costs.

No pro forma adjustments have been made to reflect the above because they are projected amounts based on estimates and would not be objectively determinable.

7. EARNINGS PER SHARE

The Arrangement does not result in the issuance of additional shares of TC Energy or instruments that are convertible to shares. The weighted average shares outstanding are therefore the same as those in the audited consolidated financial statements of TC Energy. The Arrangement is not expected to have a dilutive impact on earnings per share.

2.1 Issue of Rights: Legend on Common Share Certificates

- (a) One Right shall be issued, effective as of the Record Time, in respect of each Common Share outstanding as of the Record Time and one Right shall be issued in respect of each Common Share of the Corporation issued after the Record Time and prior to the earlier of the Separation Time and the Expiration Time.
- (b) Certificates representing Common Shares which are issued after the Record Time but prior to the earlier of the Separation Time and the Expiration Time shall evidence, in addition to Common Shares, one Right for each Common Share represented thereby and shall have impressed on, printed on, written on or otherwise affixed to them the following legend:

Under certain circumstances set out in the Shareholder Rights Agreement, the rights may be amended, redeemed, may expire, may become null and void or may be evidenced by separate certificates and no longer evidenced by this certificate. The Corporation will mail or arrange for the mailing of a copy of the Shareholder Rights Agreement to the holder of this certificate without charge as soon as practicable after receipt of a written request therefor.

- (c) Certificates representing Common Shares that are issued and outstanding at the Record Time shall also evidence one Right for each Common Share represented thereby, notwithstanding the absence of the foregoing legend, until the earlier of the Separation Time and the Expiration Time.

2.2 Initial Exercise Price; Exercise of Rights; Detachment of Rights

- (a) Subject to adjustment as herein set forth, each Right will entitle the holder thereof, from and after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time, to purchase one Common Share for the Exercise Price. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any Rights held by the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries shall be void.
- (b) Until the Separation Time,
 - (i) the Rights shall not be exercisable and no Right may be exercised; and
 - (ii) each Right will be evidenced by the certificate for the associated Common Share registered in the name of the holder thereof (which certificate shall also be deemed to represent a Rights Certificate) and will be transferable only together with, and will be transferred by a transfer of, such associated Common Share.
- (c) From and after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time:
 - (i) the Rights shall be exercisable; and
 - (ii) the registration and transfer of Rights shall be separate from and independent of Common Shares.

Promptly following the Separation Time, the Corporation will prepare (or cause to be prepared) and the Rights Agent will mail to each holder of record of Common Shares as of the Separation Time and, in respect of each convertible security converted into Common Shares after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time, promptly after such conversion, the Corporation will prepare (or cause to be prepared) and the Rights Agent will mail to the holder so converting (other than an Acquiring Person and, in respect of any Rights Beneficially Owned by such Acquiring Person which are not held of record by such Acquiring Person, the holder of record of such Rights (a "Nominee")), at such holder's address as shown by the records of the Corporation (the Corporation hereby agreeing to furnish copies of such records to the Rights Agent for this purpose):

- (x) a Rights Certificate appropriately completed, representing the number of Rights held by such holder at the Separation Time and having such marks of identification or designation and such legends, summaries or endorsements printed thereon as the Corporation may deem appropriate and as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, or as may be required to comply with any law, rule or regulation or with any rule or regulation of any self regulatory organization, stock exchange or quotation system on which the Rights may from time to time be listed or traded, or to conform to usage; and
- (y) a disclosure statement prepared by the Corporation describing the Rights, provided that a Nominee shall be sent the materials provided for in (x) and (y) in respect of all Common Shares held of record by it which are not Beneficially Owned by an Acquiring Person.

- (d) Rights may be exercised, in whole or in part, on any Business Day after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time by submitting to the Rights Agent:
 - (i) the Rights Certificate evidencing such Rights;
 - (ii) an election to exercise such Rights (an “Election to Exercise”) substantially in the form attached to the Rights Certificate appropriately completed and executed by the holder or his executors or administrators or other personal representatives or his or their legal attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and executed in a manner satisfactory to the Rights Agent; and
 - (iii) payment by certified cheque, banker’s draft or money order payable to the order of the Rights Agent, of a sum equal to the Exercise Price multiplied by the number of Rights being exercised and a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or charge which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the transfer or delivery of Rights Certificates or the issuance or delivery of certificates for Common Shares in a name other than that of the holder of the Rights being exercised.
- (e) Upon receipt of a Rights Certificate, together with a completed Election to Exercise executed in accordance with Subsection 2.2(d)(ii), which does not indicate that such Right is null and void as provided by Subsection 3.1(b), and payment as set forth in Subsection 2.2(d)(iii), the Rights Agent (unless otherwise instructed by the Corporation in the event that the Corporation is of the opinion that the Rights cannot be exercised in accordance with this Agreement) will thereupon promptly:
 - (i) requisition from the transfer agent certificates representing the number of such Common Shares to be purchased (the Corporation hereby irrevocably authorizing its transfer agent to comply with all such requisitions);
 - (ii) when appropriate, requisition from the Corporation the amount of cash to be paid in lieu of issuing fractional Common Shares;
 - (iii) after receipt of the certificates referred to in Subsection 2.2(e)(i), deliver the same to or upon the order of the registered holder of such Rights Certificates, registered in such name or names as may be designated by such holder;
 - (iv) when appropriate, after receipt, deliver the cash referred to in Subsection 2.2(e)(ii) to or to the order of the registered holder of such Rights Certificate; and
 - (v) remit to the Corporation all payments received on exercise of the Rights.
- (f) In case the holder of any Rights shall exercise less than all the Rights evidenced by such holder’s Rights Certificate, a new Rights Certificate evidencing the Rights remaining unexercised (subject to the provisions of Subsection 5.5(a)) will be issued by the Rights Agent to such holder or to such holder’s duly authorized assigns.
- (g) The Corporation covenants and agrees that it will:
 - (i) take all such action as may be necessary and within its power to ensure that all Common Shares issued upon exercise of Rights shall, at the time of issuance of such Common Shares (subject to payment of the Exercise Price), be duly and validly authorized, issued and delivered as fully paid and non-assessable;
 - (ii) take all such action as may be necessary and within its power to comply with the requirements of the Canada Business Corporations Act, the Securities Act, the U.S. Exchange Act, the U.S. Securities Act and the securities laws or comparable legislation of each of the provinces of Canada and of the United States and each of the states thereof and any other applicable law, rule or regulation, in connection with the issuance of the Rights and delivery of the Rights Certificates and the issuance of any Common Shares upon exercise of Rights;
 - (iii) use reasonable efforts to cause all Common Shares issued upon exercise of Rights to be listed on the principal stock exchanges on which such Common Shares were traded immediately prior to the Stock Acquisition Date;
 - (iv) cause to be reserved and kept available out of the authorized and unissued Common Shares, the number of Common Shares that, as provided in this Agreement, will from time to time be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of all outstanding Rights;

- (v) pay when due and payable, if applicable, any and all Canadian and U.S. federal, provincial and state transfer taxes and charges (not including any income or capital taxes of the holder or exercising holder or any liability of the Corporation to withhold tax) which may be payable in respect of the original issuance or delivery of the Rights Certificates, or certificates for Common Shares to be issued upon exercise of any Rights, provided that the Corporation shall not be required to pay any transfer tax or charge which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the transfer or delivery of Rights Certificates or the issuance or delivery of certificates for Common Shares in a name other than that of the holder of the Rights being transferred or exercised; and
- (vi) after the Separation Time, except as permitted by Section 5.1, not take (or permit any Subsidiary to take) any action if at the time such action is taken it is reasonably foreseeable that such action will diminish substantially or otherwise eliminate the benefits intended to be afforded by the Rights.

2.3 Adjustments to Exercise Price; Number of Rights

The Exercise Price, the number and kind of securities subject to purchase upon exercise of each Right and the number of Rights outstanding are subject to adjustment from time to time as provided in this Section 2.3.

- (a) In the event the Corporation shall at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Expiration Time:
 - (i) declare or pay a dividend on Common Shares payable in Common Shares (or other securities exchangeable for or convertible into or giving a right to acquire Common Shares or other securities of the Corporation) other than pursuant to any optional stock dividend program or Dividend Reinvestment Plan;
 - (ii) subdivide or change the then outstanding Common Shares into a greater number of Common Shares;
 - (iii) consolidate or change the then outstanding Common Shares into a smaller number of Common Shares; or
 - (iv) issue any Common Shares (or other securities exchangeable for or convertible into or giving a right to acquire Common Shares or other securities of the Corporation) in respect of, in lieu of or in exchange for existing Common Shares except as otherwise provided in this Section 2.3, the Exercise Price and the number of Rights outstanding, or, if the payment or effective date therefor shall occur after the Separation Time, the securities purchasable upon exercise of Rights shall be adjusted as of the payment or effective date in the manner set forth below.

If the Exercise Price and number of Rights outstanding are to be adjusted:

- (x) the Exercise Price in effect after such adjustment will be equal to the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment divided by the number of Common Shares (or other securities of the Corporation) (the “Expansion Factor”) that a holder of one Common Share immediately prior to such dividend, subdivision, change, consolidation or issuance would hold thereafter as a result thereof; and
- (y) each Right held prior to such adjustment will become that number of Rights equal to the Expansion Factor, and the adjusted number of Rights will be deemed to be distributed among the Common Shares with respect to which the original Rights were associated (if they remain outstanding) and the shares issued in respect of such dividend, subdivision, change, consolidation or issuance, so that each such Common Share (or other security of the Corporation) will have exactly one Right associated with it.

For greater certainty, if the securities purchasable upon exercise of Rights are to be adjusted, the securities purchasable upon exercise of each Right after such adjustment will be the securities that a holder of the securities purchasable upon exercise of one Right immediately prior to such dividend, subdivision, change, consolidation or issuance would hold thereafter after giving full effect to such dividend, subdivision, change, consolidation or issuance.

If, after the Record Time and prior to the Expiration Time, the Corporation shall issue any securities other than Common Shares in a transaction of a type described in Subsection 2.3(a)(i) or 2.3(a)(iv), such securities shall be treated herein as nearly equivalent to Common Shares as may be practicable and appropriate under the circumstances and the Corporation and the Rights Agent agree to amend this Agreement in order to effect such treatment.

If an event occurs which would require an adjustment under both this Section 2.3 and Section 3.1, the adjustment provided for in this Section 2.3 shall be in addition to, and shall be made prior to, any adjustment required under Section 3.1. Adjustments pursuant to this Section 2.3(a) shall be made successively, whenever an event referred to in this Subsection 2.3(a) occurs.

In the event the Corporation shall at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Separation Time issue any Common Shares otherwise than in a transaction referred to in this Subsection 2.3(a), each such Common Share so issued shall automatically have one new Right associated with it, which Right shall be evidenced by the certificate representing such associated Common Share.

- (b) In the event the Corporation shall at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Separation Time fix a record date for the issuance of rights, options or warrants to all holders of Common Shares entitling them (for a period expiring within 45 calendar days after such record date) to subscribe for or purchase Common Shares (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for or carrying a right to purchase Common Shares) at a price per Common Share (or, if a security convertible into or exchangeable for or carrying a right to purchase or subscribe for Common Shares, having a conversion, exchange or exercise price, including the price required to be paid to purchase such convertible or exchangeable security or right per share) less than the Market Price per Common Share on such record date, the Exercise Price to be in effect after such record date shall be determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such record date by a fraction:
- (i) the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Shares outstanding on such record date, plus the number of Common Shares that the aggregate offering price of the total number of Common Shares so to be offered (and/or the aggregate initial conversion, exchange or exercise price of the convertible or exchangeable securities or rights so to be offered, including the price required to be paid to purchase such convertible or exchangeable securities or rights) would purchase at such Market Price per Common Share; and
 - (ii) the denominator of which shall be the number of Common Shares outstanding on such record date, plus the number of additional Common Shares to be offered for subscription or purchase (or into which the convertible or exchangeable securities or rights so to be offered are initially convertible, exchangeable or exercisable).

In case such subscription price may be paid by delivery of consideration, part or all of which may be in a form other than cash, the value of such consideration shall be as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be described in a statement filed with the Rights Agent and shall be binding on the Rights Agent and the holders of Rights. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed, and in the event that such rights, options or warrants are not so issued, or if issued, are not exercised prior to the expiration thereof, the Exercise Price shall be readjusted to the Exercise Price which would then be in effect if such record date had not been fixed, or to the Exercise Price which would be in effect based upon the number of Common Shares (or securities convertible into, or exchangeable or exercisable for Common Shares) actually issued upon the exercise of such rights, options or warrants, as the case may be.

For purposes of this Agreement, the granting of the right to purchase Common Shares (whether from treasury or otherwise) pursuant to a Dividend Reinvestment Plan or any employee benefit, stock option or similar plans shall be deemed not to constitute an issue of rights, options or warrants by the Corporation; provided, however, that, in all such cases, the right to purchase Common Shares is at a price per share of not less than 90% of the current market price per share (determined as provided in such plans) of the Common Shares.

- (c) In the event the Corporation shall at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Separation Time fix a record date for the making of a distribution to all holders of Common Shares (including any such distribution made in connection with a merger or amalgamation) of evidences of indebtedness, cash (other than a regular cash dividend or a dividend paid in Common Shares, but including any dividend payable in securities other than Common Shares), assets or rights, options or warrants (excluding those referred to in Subsection 2.3(b)), the Exercise Price to be in effect after such record date shall be determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such record date by a fraction:
- (i) the numerator of which shall be the Market Price per Common Share on such record date, less the fair market value (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be described in a statement filed with the Rights Agent and shall be binding on the Rights Agent and the holders of Rights), on a per share basis, of the portion of the cash, assets, evidences of indebtedness, rights, options or warrants so to be distributed; and
 - (ii) the denominator of which shall be such Market Price per Common Share.

Such adjustments shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed, and in the event that such a distribution is not so made, the Exercise Price shall be adjusted to be the Exercise Price which would have been in effect if such record date had not been fixed.

- (d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no adjustment in the Exercise Price shall be required unless such adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least one per cent in the Exercise Price; provided, however, that any adjustments which by reason of this Subsection 2.3(d) are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. All calculations under Section 2.3 shall be made to the nearest cent or to the nearest ten thousandth of a share. Notwithstanding the first sentence of this Subsection 2.3(d), any adjustment required by Section 2.3 shall be made no later than the earlier of:
- (i) three years from the date of the transaction which gives rise to such adjustment; or
 - (ii) the Expiration Time.
- (e) In the event the Corporation shall at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Separation Time issue any securities (other than Common Shares), or rights, options or warrants to subscribe for or purchase any such securities, or securities convertible into or exchangeable for any such securities, in a transaction referred to in Subsection 2.3(a)(i) or (iv) or Subsection 2.3(b) or 2.3(c), if the Board of Directors acting in good faith determines that the adjustments contemplated by Subsections 2.3(a), 2.3(b) and 2.3(c) in connection with such transaction will not appropriately protect the interests of the holders of Rights, the Board of Directors may determine what other adjustments to the Exercise Price, number of Rights and/or securities purchasable upon exercise of Rights would be appropriate and, notwithstanding Subsections 2.3(a), 2.3(b) and 2.3(c), such adjustments, rather than the adjustments contemplated by Subsections 2.3(a), 2.3(b) and 2.3(c), shall be made. Subject to the prior consent of the holders of the Voting Shares or the Rights obtained as set forth in Subsection 5.4(b) or 5.4(c), the Corporation and the Rights Agent shall have authority to amend this Agreement as appropriate to provide for such adjustments.
- (f) Each Right originally issued by the Corporation subsequent to any adjustment made to the Exercise Price hereunder shall evidence the right to purchase, at the adjusted Exercise Price, the number of Common Shares purchasable from time to time hereunder upon exercise of a Right immediately prior to such issue, all subject to further adjustment as provided herein.
- (g) Irrespective of any adjustment or change in the Exercise Price or the number of Common Shares issuable upon the exercise of the Rights, the Rights Certificates theretofore and thereafter issued may continue to express the Exercise Price per Common Share and the number of Common Shares which were expressed in the initial Rights Certificates issued hereunder.
- (h) In any case in which this Section 2.3 shall require that an adjustment in the Exercise Price be made effective as of a record date for a specified event, the Corporation may elect to defer until the occurrence of such event the issuance to the holder of any Right exercised after such record date the number of Common Shares and other securities of the Corporation, if any, issuable upon such exercise over and above the number of Common Shares and other securities of the Corporation, if any, issuable upon such exercise on the basis of the Exercise Price in effect prior to such adjustment; provided, however, that the Corporation shall deliver to such holder an appropriate instrument evidencing such holder's right to receive such additional shares (fractional or otherwise) or other securities upon the occurrence of the event requiring such adjustment.
- (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 2.3 to the contrary, the Corporation shall be entitled to make such reductions in the Exercise Price, in addition to those adjustments expressly required by this Section 2.3, as and to the extent that in their good faith judgment the Board of Directors shall determine to be advisable, in order that any:
- (i) consolidation or subdivision of Common Shares;
 - (ii) issuance (wholly or in part for cash) of Common Shares or securities that by their terms are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares;
 - (iii) dividends of securities; or
 - (iv) issuance of rights, options or warrants referred to in this Section 2.3, hereafter made by the Corporation to holders of its Common Shares, shall not be taxable to such shareholders.

- (j) Whenever an adjustment to the Exercise Price or a change in the securities purchasable upon the exercise of Rights is made pursuant to this Section 2.3, the Corporation shall promptly:
- (i) prepare a certificate setting forth such adjustment and a brief statement of the facts accounting for such adjustment;
 - (ii) file with the Rights Agent and with each transfer agent for the Common Shares a copy of such certificate; and
 - (iii) mail a summary of the particulars of such adjustment or change to each holder of Rights who requests a copy.
- Failure to file such certificate or to cause such notice to be given as aforesaid, or any defect therein, shall not affect the validity of any such adjustment or change.

2.4 Date on Which Exercise Is Effective

Each Person in whose name any certificate for Common Shares or other securities, if applicable, is issued upon the exercise of Rights shall for all purposes be deemed to have become the holder of record of the Common Shares or other securities, if applicable, represented thereon, and such certificate shall be dated the date upon which the Rights Certificate evidencing such Rights was duly surrendered in accordance with Subsection 2.2(d) (together with a duly completed Election to Exercise) and payment of the Exercise Price for such Rights (and any applicable transfer taxes and other governmental charges payable by the exercising holder hereunder) was made; provided, however, that if the date of such surrender and payment is a date upon which the Common Share transfer books of the Corporation are closed, such Person shall be deemed to have become the record holder of such Common Shares on, and such certificate shall be dated, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Common Share transfer books of the Corporation are open.

2.5 Execution, Authentication, Delivery and Dating of Rights Certificates

- (a) The Rights Certificates shall be executed on behalf of the Corporation by any two directors or officers of the Corporation. The signature of any of these directors or officers on the Rights Certificates may be manual, facsimile or electronic. Rights Certificates bearing the manual, facsimile or electronic signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper directors or officers of the Corporation shall bind the Corporation, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices either before or after the countersignature and delivery of such Rights Certificates.
- (b) Promptly after the Corporation learns of the Separation Time, the Corporation will notify the Rights Agent of such Separation Time and will deliver Rights Certificates executed by the Corporation to the Rights Agent for countersignature, and the Rights Agent shall countersign (manually, electronically or by facsimile signature in a manner satisfactory to the Corporation) and send such Rights Certificates to the holders of the Rights pursuant to Subsection 2.2(c) hereof. No Rights Certificate shall be valid for any purpose until countersigned by the Rights Agent as aforesaid.
- (c) Each Rights Certificate shall be dated the date of countersignature thereof.

2.6 Registration, Transfer and Exchange

- (a) The Corporation will cause to be kept a register (the “Rights Register”) in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Corporation will provide for the registration and transfer of Rights. The Rights Agent is hereby appointed registrar for the Rights (the “Rights Registrar”) for the purpose of maintaining the Rights Register for the Corporation and registering Rights and transfers of Rights as herein provided and the Rights Agent hereby accepts such appointment. In the event that the Rights Agent shall cease to be the Rights Registrar, the Rights Agent will have the right to examine the Rights Register at all reasonable times.

After the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time, upon surrender for registration of transfer or exchange of any Rights Certificate, and subject to the provisions of Subsection 2.6(c), the Corporation will execute, and the Rights Agent will countersign and deliver, in the name of the holder or the designated transferee or transferees, as required pursuant to the holder’s instructions, one or more new Rights Certificates evidencing the same aggregate number of Rights as did the Rights Certificates so surrendered.

- (b) All Rights issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Rights Certificates shall be the valid obligations of the Corporation, and such Rights shall be entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement as the Rights surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.
- (c) Every Rights Certificate surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Corporation or the Rights Agent, as the case may be, duly executed by the holder thereof or such holder's attorney duly authorized in writing. As a condition to the issuance of any new Rights Certificate under this Section 2.6, the Corporation may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of the Rights Agent) connected therewith.

2.7 Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Rights Certificates

- (a) If any mutilated Rights Certificate is surrendered to the Rights Agent prior to the Expiration Time, the Corporation shall execute and the Rights Agent shall countersign and deliver in exchange therefor a new Rights Certificate evidencing the same number of Rights as did the Rights Certificate so surrendered.
- (b) If there shall be delivered to the Corporation and the Rights Agent prior to the Expiration Time:
 - (i) evidence to their reasonable satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Rights Certificate; and
 - (ii) such security or indemnity as may be reasonably required by them to save each of them and any of their agents harmless;then, in the absence of notice to the Corporation or the Rights Agent that such Rights Certificate has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Corporation shall execute and upon the Corporation's request the Rights Agent shall countersign and deliver, in lieu of any such destroyed, lost or stolen Rights Certificate, a new Rights Certificate evidencing the same number of Rights as did the Rights Certificate so destroyed, lost or stolen.
- (c) As a condition to the issuance of any new Rights Certificate under this Section 2.7, the Corporation may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of the Rights Agent) connected therewith.
- (d) Every new Rights Certificate issued pursuant to this Section 2.7 in lieu of any destroyed, lost or stolen Rights Certificate shall evidence the contractual obligation of the Corporation, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Rights Certificate shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Rights duly issued hereunder.

2.8 Persons Deemed Owners of Rights

The Corporation, the Rights Agent and any agent of the Corporation or the Rights Agent may deem and treat the Person in whose name a Rights Certificate (or, prior to the Separation Time, the associated Common Share certificate) is registered as the absolute owner thereof and of the Rights evidenced thereby for all purposes whatsoever.

2.9 Delivery and Cancellation of Certificates

All Rights Certificates surrendered upon exercise or for redemption, registration of transfer or exchange shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Rights Agent, be delivered to the Rights Agent and, in any case, shall be promptly cancelled by the Rights Agent. The Corporation may at any time deliver to the Rights Agent for cancellation any Rights Certificates previously countersigned and delivered hereunder which the Corporation may have acquired in any manner whatsoever, and all Rights Certificates so delivered shall be promptly cancelled by the Rights Agent. No Rights Certificate shall be countersigned in lieu of or in exchange for any Rights Certificates cancelled as provided in this Section 2.9, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement. The Rights Agent shall, subject to applicable laws, destroy all cancelled Rights Certificates and deliver a certificate of destruction to the Corporation.

2.10 Agreement of Rights Holders

Every holder of Rights, by accepting the same, consents and agrees with the Corporation and the Rights Agent and with every other holder of Rights:

- (a) to be bound by and subject to the provisions of this Agreement, as amended from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof, in respect of all Rights held;
- (b) that prior to the Separation Time, each Right will be transferable only together with, and will be transferred by a transfer of, the associated Common Share certificate representing such Right;
- (c) that after the Separation Time, the Rights Certificates will be transferable only on the Rights Register as provided herein;
- (d) that prior to due presentment of a Rights Certificate (or, prior to the Separation Time, the associated Common Share certificate) for registration of transfer, the Corporation, the Rights Agent and any agent of the Corporation or the Rights Agent may deem and treat the Person in whose name the Rights Certificate (or, prior to the Separation Time, the associated Common Share certificate) is registered as the absolute owner thereof and of the Rights evidenced thereby (notwithstanding any notations of ownership or writing on such Rights Certificate or the associated Common Share certificate made by anyone other than the Corporation or the Rights Agent) for all purposes whatsoever, and neither the Corporation nor the Rights Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary;

- (e) that such holder of Rights has waived his right to receive any fractional Rights or any fractional Common Shares or other securities upon exercise of a Right (except as provided herein);
- (f) that notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, neither the Corporation nor the Rights Agent shall have any liability to any holder of a Right or any other Person as a result of its inability to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement by reason of any preliminary or permanent injunction or other order, decree or ruling issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or by a governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or commission, or any statute, rule, regulation or executive order promulgated or enacted by any governmental authority, prohibiting or otherwise restraining performance of such obligation; and
- (g) that, subject to the provisions of Section 5.4, without the approval of any holder of Rights or Voting Shares and upon the sole authority of the Board of Directors, acting in good faith, this Agreement may be supplemented or amended pursuant to and as provided herein.

2.11 Rights Certificate Holder Not Deemed a Shareholder

No holder, as such, of any Rights or Rights Certificate shall be entitled to vote, receive dividends or be deemed for any purpose whatsoever the holder of any Common Share or any other share or security of the Corporation which may at any time be issuable on the exercise of the Rights represented thereby, nor shall anything contained herein or in any Rights Certificate be construed or deemed or confer upon the holder of any Right or Rights Certificate, as such, any right, title, benefit or privilege of a holder of Common Shares or any other securities of the Corporation or any right to vote at any meeting of shareholders of the Corporation whether for the election of directors or otherwise or upon any matter submitted to holders of Common Shares or any other securities of the Corporation at any meeting thereof, or to give or withhold consent to any action of the Corporation, or to receive notice of any meeting or other action affecting any holder of Common Shares or any other securities of the Corporation except as expressly provided herein, or to receive dividends, distributions or subscription rights, or otherwise, until the Right or Rights evidenced by Rights Certificates shall have been duly exercised in accordance with the terms and provisions hereof.

ARTICLE 3 – ADJUSTMENTS TO THE RIGHTS

3.1 Flip-in Event

- (a) Subject to Subsection 3.1(b) and Section 5.1, in the event that prior to the Expiration Time a Flip-in Event shall occur, each Right shall constitute, effective at the close of business on the tenth Trading Day after the Stock Acquisition Date (or such longer period as may be required to satisfy the requirements of the Securities Act and any comparable legislation of any other applicable jurisdiction), the right to purchase from the Corporation, upon exercise thereof in accordance with the terms hereof, that number of Common Shares having an aggregate Market Price on the date of consummation or occurrence of such Flip-in Event equal to twice the Exercise Price for an amount in cash equal to the Exercise Price (such right to be appropriately adjusted in a manner analogous to the applicable adjustment provided for in Section 2.3 in the event that after such consummation or occurrence, an event of a type analogous to any of the events described in Section 2.3 shall have occurred).
- (b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, upon the occurrence of any Flip-in Event, any Rights that are or were Beneficially Owned on or after the earlier of the Separation Time or the Stock Acquisition Date by:
 - (i) an Acquiring Person (or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person or any Person acting jointly or in concert with an Acquiring Person or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person); or
 - (ii) a transferee or other successor in title of Rights, directly or indirectly, from an Acquiring Person (or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person or any Person acting jointly or in concert with an Acquiring Person or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person), where such transferee or successor in title becomes a transferee or successor in title concurrently with or subsequent to the Acquiring Person becoming such in a transfer that the Board of Directors has determined is part of a plan, arrangement or scheme of an Acquiring Person (or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person or any Person acting jointly or in concert with an Acquiring Person or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person), that has the purpose or effect of avoiding Subsection 3.1(b)(i), shall become null and void without any further action, and any holder of such Rights (including transferees and successors in title) shall thereafter have no right to exercise such Rights under any provision of this Agreement and further shall thereafter not have any other rights whatsoever with respect to such Rights, whether under any provision of this Agreement or otherwise.

- (c) From and after the Separation Time, the Corporation shall do all such acts and things as shall be necessary and within its power to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Section 3.1, including without limitation, all such acts and things as may be required to satisfy the requirements of the Canada Business Corporations Act, the Securities Act and the securities laws or comparable legislation of each of the provinces of Canada and of the United States and each of the states thereof in respect of the issue of Common Shares upon the exercise of Rights in accordance with this Agreement.
- (d) Any Rights Certificate that would represent Rights Beneficially Owned by a Person described in either Subsection 3.1(b)(i) or 3.1(b)(ii) or transferred to any nominee or successor in title of any such Person, and any Rights Certificate issued upon transfer, exchange, replacement or adjustment of any other Rights Certificate referred to in this sentence, shall either not be issued upon the instruction of the Corporation in writing to the Rights Agent or contain the following legend:

The Rights represented by this Rights Certificate were issued to a Person who was an Acquiring Person or an Affiliate or an Associate of an Acquiring Person (as such terms are defined in the Shareholder Rights Agreement) or a Person who was acting jointly or in concert with an Acquiring Person or an Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person. This Rights Certificate and the Rights represented hereby are void or shall become void in the circumstances specified in Subsection 3.1(b) of the Shareholder Rights Agreement.

provided, however, that the Rights Agent shall not be under any responsibility to ascertain the existence of facts that would require the imposition of such legend but shall impose such legend only if instructed to do so by the Corporation in writing or if a holder fails to certify upon transfer or exchange in the space provided on the Rights Certificate that such holder is not a Person described in such legend and provided further that the fact that such legend does not appear on a certificate is not determinative of whether any Rights represented thereby are void or shall become void in the circumstances specified in Subsection 3.1(b).

ARTICLE 4 – THE RIGHTS AGENT

4.1 General

- (a) The Corporation hereby appoints the Rights Agent to act as agent for the Corporation and the holders of the Rights in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof, and the Rights Agent hereby accepts such appointment. The Corporation may from time to time appoint such co-Rights Agents (“Co-Rights Agents”) as it may deem necessary or desirable. In the event the Corporation appoints one or more Co-Rights Agents, the respective duties of the Rights Agent and Co-Rights Agents shall be as the Corporation may determine. The Corporation agrees to pay all reasonable fees and expenses of the Rights Agent in respect of the performance of its duties under this Agreement. The Corporation also agrees to indemnify the Rights Agent for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability, or expense, incurred without negligence, bad faith or wilful misconduct on the part of the Rights Agent, for anything done or omitted by the Rights Agent in connection with the acceptance and administration of this Agreement, including the costs and expenses of defending against any claim of liability, which right to indemnification will survive the termination of this Agreement.
- (b) The Rights Agent shall be protected and shall incur no liability for or in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in connection with its administration of this Agreement in reliance upon any certificate for Common Shares, Rights Certificate, certificate for other securities of the Corporation, instrument of assignment or transfer, power of attorney, endorsement, affidavit, letter, notice, direction, consent, certificate, statement, or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to be signed, executed and, where necessary, verified or acknowledged, by the proper Person or Persons.

4.2 Merger, Amalgamation or Consolidation or Change of Name of Rights Agent

- (a) Any corporation into which the Rights Agent or any successor Rights Agent may be merged or amalgamated or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, amalgamation, statutory arrangement or consolidation to which the Rights Agent or any successor Rights Agent is a party, or any corporation succeeding to the shareholder or stockholder services business of the Rights Agent or any successor Rights Agent, will be the successor to the Rights Agent under this Agreement without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, provided that such corporation would be eligible for appointment as a successor Rights Agent under the provisions of Section 4.4 hereof. In case at the time such successor Rights Agent succeeds to the agency created by this Agreement any of the Rights Certificates have been countersigned but not delivered, any successor Rights Agent may adopt the countersignature of the predecessor Rights Agent and deliver such Rights Certificates so countersigned; and in case at that time any of the Rights have not been countersigned, any successor Rights Agent may countersign such Rights Certificates in the name of the predecessor Rights Agent or in the name of the successor Rights Agent; and in all such cases such Rights Certificates will have the full force provided in the Rights Certificates and in this Agreement.

- (b) In case at any time the name of the Rights Agent is changed and at such time any of the Rights Certificates shall have been countersigned but not delivered, the Rights Agent may adopt the countersignature under its prior name and deliver Rights Certificates so countersigned; and in case at that time any of the Rights Certificates shall not have been countersigned, the Rights Agent may countersign such Rights Certificates either in its prior name or in its changed name; and in all such cases such Rights Certificates shall have the full force provided in the Rights Certificates and in this Agreement.

4.3 Duties of Rights Agent

The Rights Agent undertakes the duties and obligations imposed by this Agreement upon the following terms and conditions, all of which the Corporation and the holders of certificates for Common Shares and the holders of Rights Certificates, by their acceptance thereof, shall be bound:

- (a) the Rights Agent may consult with and retain legal counsel (who may be legal counsel for the Corporation) and the opinion of such counsel will be full and complete authorization and protection to the Rights Agent as to any action taken or omitted by it in good faith and in accordance with such opinion;
- (b) whenever in the performance of its duties under this Agreement, the Rights Agent deems it necessary or desirable that any fact or matter be proved or established by the Corporation prior to taking or suffering any action hereunder, such fact or matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) may be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate signed by a Person believed by the Rights Agent to be a director or officer of the Corporation and delivered to the Rights Agent; and such certificate will be full authorization to the Rights Agent for any action taken or suffered in good faith by it under the provisions of this Agreement in reliance upon such certificate;
- (c) the Rights Agent will be liable hereunder for any loss arising from its own negligence, bad faith or wilful misconduct;
- (d) the Rights Agent will not be liable for or by reason of any of the statements of fact or recitals contained in this Agreement, or in the certificates for Common Shares or in the Rights Certificates (except its countersignature thereof) or be required to verify the same, but all such statements and recitals are and will be deemed to have been made by the Corporation only;
- (e) the Rights Agent will not be under any responsibility in respect of the validity of this Agreement or the execution and delivery hereof (except the due authorization, execution and delivery hereof by the Rights Agent) or in respect of the validity or execution of any certificate for a Common Share or Rights Certificate (except its countersignature thereof); nor will it be responsible for any breach by the Corporation of any covenant or condition contained in this Agreement or in any Rights Certificate; nor will it be responsible for any change in the exercisability of the Rights (including the Rights becoming void pursuant to Subsection 3.1(b) hereof) or any adjustment required under the provisions of Section 2.3 hereof or responsible for the manner, method or amount of any such adjustment or the ascertaining of the existence of facts that would require any such adjustment (except with respect to the exercise of Rights after receipt of the certificate contemplated by Section 2.3 describing any such adjustment); nor will it by any act hereunder be deemed to make any representation or warranty as to the authorization of any Common Shares to be issued pursuant to this Agreement or any Rights or as to whether any Common Shares will, when issued, be duly and validly authorized, executed, issued and delivered and fully paid and non-assessable;
- (f) the Corporation agrees that it will perform, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further and other acts, instruments and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Rights Agent for the carrying out or performing by the Rights Agent of the provisions of this Agreement;
- (g) the Rights Agent is hereby authorized and directed to accept instructions in writing with respect to the performance of its duties hereunder from any individual believed by the Rights Agent to be a director or officer of the Corporation, and to apply to such individuals for advice or instructions in connection with its duties, and it shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered by it in good faith in accordance with instructions of any such individual;

- (h) the Rights Agent and any shareholder or stockholder, director, officer or employee of the Rights Agent may buy, sell or deal in Common Shares, Rights or other securities of the Corporation or become pecuniarily interested in any transaction in which the Corporation may be interested, or contract with or lend money to the Corporation or otherwise act as fully and freely as though it were not Rights Agent under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall preclude the Rights Agent from acting in any other capacity for the Corporation or for any other legal entity provided such actions would not place the Rights Agent in a position of conflict of interest with respect to its duties under this Agreement; and
- (i) the Rights Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights or powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys or agents, and the Rights Agent will not be answerable or accountable for any act, default, neglect or misconduct of any such attorneys or agents or for any loss to the Corporation resulting from any such act, default, neglect or misconduct, provided reasonable care was exercised in the selection and continued employment thereof.

4.4 Change of Rights Agent

The Rights Agent may resign and be discharged from its duties under this Agreement upon 60 days' notice (or such lesser notice as is acceptable to the Corporation) in writing mailed to the Corporation and to each transfer agent of Common Shares by registered or certified mail. The Corporation may remove the Rights Agent upon 30 days' notice in writing, mailed to the Rights Agent and to each transfer agent of the Common Shares by registered or certified mail. If the Rights Agent should resign or be removed or otherwise become incapable of acting, the Corporation will appoint a successor to the Rights Agent. If the Corporation fails to make such appointment within a period of 30 days after such removal or after it has been notified in writing of such resignation or incapacity by the resigning or incapacitated Rights Agent, then by prior written notice to the Corporation the resigning Rights Agent or the holder of any Rights (which holder shall, with such notice, submit such holder's Rights Certificate, if any, for inspection by the Corporation), may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a new Rights Agent. Any successor Rights Agent, whether appointed by the Corporation or by such a court, shall be a corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada or a province thereof authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in the Province of Alberta. After appointment, the successor Rights Agent will be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named as Rights Agent without further act or deed; but the predecessor Rights Agent shall deliver and transfer to the successor Rights Agent any property at the time held by it hereunder, and execute and deliver any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed necessary for the purpose. Not later than the effective date of any such appointment, the Corporation will file notice thereof in writing with the predecessor Rights Agent and each transfer agent of the Common Shares and mail a notice thereof in writing to the holders of the Rights in accordance with Section 5.9. Failure to give any notice provided for in this Section 4.4, however, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of the resignation or removal of the Rights Agent or the appointment of any successor Rights Agent, as the case may be.

4.5 Compliance with Money Laundering Legislation

The Rights Agent shall retain the right to not take any action and shall not be liable for refusing to take any action if the Rights Agent reasonably determines that such an action might cause it to be in non-compliance with any applicable anti-money laundering or anti-terrorist legislation, regulation or guideline. Further, should the Rights Agent reasonably determine at any time that its acting under this Agreement has resulted in it being in non-compliance with any applicable anti-money laundering or anti-terrorist legislation, regulation, or guideline, then it shall have the right to resign on 30 days' prior written notice to the Corporation, provided: (a) that the Rights Agent's written notice shall describe the circumstances of such non-compliance; and (b) that if such circumstances are rectified to the Rights Agent's satisfaction within such 30-day period, then such resignation shall not be effective.

ARTICLE 5 – MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Redemption and Waiver

- (a) The Board of Directors acting in good faith may, with the prior consent of the holders of Voting Shares obtained as set forth in Subsection 5.1(i), determine, at any time prior to the occurrence of a Flip-in Event as to which the application of Section 3.1 has not been waived pursuant to this Section 5.1, if such Flip-in Event would occur by reason of an acquisition of Voting Shares otherwise than pursuant to a Take-over Bid made by means of a take-over bid circular to all registered holders of Voting Shares and otherwise than in the circumstances set forth in Subsection 5.1(h), to waive the application of Section 3.1 to such Flip-in Event. In the event that the Board of Directors proposes such a waiver, the Board of Directors shall extend the Separation Time to a date subsequent to and not more than ten Business Days following the meeting of shareholders called to approve such waiver.
- (b) The Board of Directors acting in good faith may, until the occurrence of a Flip-in Event, upon prior written notice delivered to the Rights Agent, determine to waive the application of Section 3.1 to a particular Flip-in Event that would result from a Take-over Bid made by way of take-over bid circular to all registered holders of Voting Shares

(which for greater certainty shall not include the circumstances described in Subsection 5.1(h)); provided that if the Board of Directors waives the application of Section 3.1 to a particular Flip-in Event pursuant to this Subsection 5.1(b), the Board of Directors shall be deemed to have waived the application of Section 3.1 to any other Flip-in Event occurring by reason of any Take-over Bid which is made by means of a take-over bid circular to all holders of Voting Shares prior to the expiry of any Take-over Bid (as the same may be extended from time to time) in respect of which a waiver is, or is deemed to have been, granted under this Subsection 5.1(b).

- (c) Subject to the prior consent of the holders of Voting Shares or the holders of Rights, as applicable, obtained as set forth in Subsection 5.1(i) or 5.1(j), the Board of Directors acting in good faith may, at its option, at any time prior to the occurrence of a Flip-in Event as to which the application of Section 3.1 has not been waived pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.1, elect to redeem all but not less than all of the outstanding Rights at a redemption price of $0.00001 per Right appropriately adjusted in a manner analogous to the applicable adjustment provided for in Section 2.3 if an event of the type analogous to any of the events described in Section 2.3 shall have occurred (such redemption price being herein referred to as the “Redemption Price”).
- (d) Where pursuant to a Permitted Bid, a Competing Permitted Bid or a Take-over Bid in respect of which the Board of Directors has waived, or is deemed to have waived, pursuant to Subsection 5.1(b), the application of Section 3.1 a Person acquires outstanding Voting Shares, then the Board of Directors shall immediately upon the consummation of such acquisition without further formality and without any approval under Subsection 5.1(i) or 5.1(j) be deemed to have elected to redeem the Rights at the Redemption Price.
- (e) Where a Take-over Bid that is not a Permitted Bid Acquisition is withdrawn or otherwise terminated after the Separation Time has occurred and prior to the occurrence of a Flip-in Event, the Board of Directors may elect to redeem all the outstanding Rights at the Redemption Price. Upon the Rights being redeemed pursuant to this Subsection 5.1(e), all of the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply as if the Separation Time had not occurred and Rights Certificates representing the number of Rights held by each holder of record of Common Shares at the Separation Time had not been mailed to each such holder and for all purposes of this Agreement the Separation Time shall be deemed not to have occurred and the Corporation shall be deemed to have issued replacement Rights to the holders of its then outstanding Common Shares.
- (f) If the Board of Directors elects or is deemed to have elected to redeem the Rights, and, in circumstances in which Subsection 5.1(c) is applicable, such redemption is approved by the holders of Voting Shares or the holders of Rights in accordance with Subsection 5.1(i) or 5.1(j), as the case may be, the right to exercise the Rights will thereupon, without further action and without notice, terminate and the only right thereafter of the holders of Rights shall be to receive the Redemption Price.
- (g) Within ten Business Days after the Board of Directors elects, or is deemed to have elected, to redeem the Rights or if Subsection 5.1(c) is applicable within ten Business Days after the holders of Common Shares or the holders of Rights have approved a redemption of Rights in accordance with Subsection 5.1(i) or 5.1(j), as the case may be, the Corporation shall give notice of redemption to the holders of the then outstanding Rights by mailing such notice to each such holder at his last address as it appears upon the registry books of the Rights Agent or, prior to the Separation Time, on the registry books of the transfer agent for the Voting Shares. Any notice which is mailed in the manner herein provided shall be deemed given, whether or not the holder receives the notice. Each such notice of redemption will state the method by which the payment of the Redemption Price will be made. The Corporation may not redeem, acquire or purchase for value any Rights at any time in any manner other than specifically set forth in this Section 5.1 or in connection with the purchase of Common Shares prior to the Separation Time.
- (h) The Board of Directors may waive the application of Section 3.1 in respect of the occurrence of any Flip-in Event if the Board of Directors has determined within ten Trading Days following a Stock Acquisition Date that a Person became an Acquiring Person by inadvertence and without any intention to become, or knowledge that it would become, an Acquiring Person under this Agreement and, in the event that such a waiver is granted by the Board of Directors, such Stock Acquisition Date shall be deemed not to have occurred. Any such waiver pursuant to this Subsection 5.1(i) must be on the condition that such Person, within 14 days after the foregoing determination by the Board of Directors or such earlier or later date as the Board of Directors may determine (the “Disposition Date”), has reduced its Beneficial Ownership of Voting Shares such that the Person is no longer an Acquiring Person. If the Person remains an Acquiring Person at the close of business on the Disposition Date, the Disposition Date shall be deemed to be the date of occurrence of a further Stock Acquisition Date and Section 3.1 shall apply thereto.
- (i) If a redemption of Rights pursuant to Subsection 5.1(c) or a waiver of a Flip-in Event pursuant to Subsection 5.1(a) is proposed at any time prior to the Separation Time, such redemption or waiver shall be submitted for approval to the holders of Voting Shares. Such approval shall be deemed to have been given if the redemption or waiver is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by Independent Shareholders represented in person or by proxy at a meeting of such holders duly held in accordance with applicable laws and the articles and by-laws of the Corporation.

- (j) If a redemption of Rights pursuant to Subsection 5.1(c) is proposed at any time after the Separation Time, such redemption shall be submitted for approval to the holders of Rights. Such approval shall be deemed to have been given if the redemption is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Rights represented in person or by proxy at and entitled to vote at a meeting of such holders. For the purposes hereof, each outstanding Right (other than Rights which are Beneficially Owned by any Person referred to in clauses (i) to (v) inclusive of the definition of Independent Shareholders) shall be entitled to one vote, and the procedures for the calling, holding and conduct of the meeting shall be those, as nearly as may be, which are provided in the Corporation's articles and by-laws and the Canada Business Corporations Act, with respect to meetings of shareholders of the Corporation.

5.2 Expiration

No Person shall have any rights whatsoever pursuant to this Agreement or in respect of any Right after the Expiration Time, except the Rights Agent as specified in Subsection 4.1(a) of this Agreement.

5.3 Issuance of New Rights Certificates

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Rights to the contrary, the Corporation may, at its option, issue new Rights Certificates evidencing Rights in such form as may be approved by the Board of Directors to reflect any adjustment or change in the number or kind or class of securities purchasable upon exercise of Rights made in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

5.4 Supplements and Amendments

- (a) The Corporation may make amendments to this Agreement to correct any clerical or typographical error or, subject to Subsection 5.4(d), which are required to maintain the validity or intent of this Agreement as a result of any change in any applicable legislation, rules or regulations thereunder. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.4 to the contrary, no such supplement or amendment shall be made to the provisions of Article 4 except with the written concurrence of the Rights Agent to such supplement or amendment.
- (b) Subject to Subsection 5.4(a), the Corporation may, with the prior consent of the holders of Voting Shares obtained as set forth below, at any time prior to the Separation Time, amend, vary or rescind any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Rights (whether or not such action would materially adversely affect the interests of the holders of Rights generally). Such consent shall be deemed to have been given if such amendment, variation or deletion is authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by Independent Shareholders present or represented at and entitled to be voted at a meeting of the holders of Voting Shares duly called and held in compliance with applicable laws and the articles and by-laws of the Corporation.
- (c) Subject to Subsection 5.4(a), the Corporation may, with the prior consent of the holders of Rights obtained as set forth below, at any time on or after the Separation Time, amend, vary or delete any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Rights (whether or not such action would materially adversely affect the interests of the holders of Rights generally), provided that no such amendment, variation or deletion shall be made to the provisions of Article 4 except with the written concurrence of the Rights Agent thereto. Such consent shall be deemed to have been given if such amendment, variation or deletion is authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Rights (other than Rights which are void pursuant to the provisions hereof) present or represented at and entitled to vote at a meeting of the holders of Rights. For the purposes hereof, the procedures for the calling, holding and conduct of the meeting shall be those, as nearly as may be, which are provided in the Corporation's articles and by-laws and the Canada Business Corporations Act with respect to meetings of shareholders of the Corporation and each Right (other than Rights which are void pursuant to the provisions hereof) shall be entitled to one vote at any such meeting.
- (d) Any amendments, variations or deletions made by the Corporation to this Agreement pursuant to Subsection 5.4(a) which are required to maintain the validity or intent of this Agreement as a result of any change in any applicable legislation, rule or regulation thereunder shall:
- (i) if made before the Separation Time, be submitted to the shareholders of the Corporation at the next meeting of shareholders and the shareholders may, by the majority referred to in Subsection 5.4(b), confirm or reject such amendment;

- (ii) if made after the Separation Time, be submitted to the holders of Rights at a meeting to be called for on a date not later than immediately following the next meeting of shareholders of the Corporation and the holders of Rights may, by resolution passed by the majority referred to in Subsection 5.4(c), confirm or reject such amendment.

Any such amendment shall be effective from the date of the resolution of the Board of Directors adopting such amendment, until it is confirmed or rejected or until it ceases to be effective (as described in the next sentence) and, where such amendment is confirmed, it continues in effect in the form so confirmed. If such amendment is rejected by the shareholders or the holders of Rights or is not submitted to the shareholders or holders of Rights as required, then such amendment shall cease to be effective from and after the termination of the meeting at which it was rejected or to which it should have been but was not submitted or from and after the date of the meeting of holders of Rights that should have been but was not held, and no subsequent resolution of the Board of Directors to amend this Agreement to substantially the same effect shall be effective until confirmed by the shareholders or holders of Rights as the case may be.

5.5 Fractional Rights and Fractional Shares

- (a) The Corporation shall not be required to issue fractions of Rights or to distribute Rights Certificates which evidence fractional Rights. After the Separation Time, in lieu of issuing fractional Rights, the Corporation shall pay to the holders of record of the Rights Certificates (provided the Rights represented by such Rights Certificates are not void pursuant to the provisions of Subsection 3.1(b), at the time such fractional Rights would otherwise be issuable), an amount in cash equal to the fraction of the Market Price of one whole Right that the fraction of a Right that would otherwise be issuable is of one whole Right.
- (b) The Corporation shall not be required to issue fractions of Common Shares upon exercise of Rights or to distribute certificates which evidence fractional Common Shares. In lieu of issuing fractional Common Shares, the Corporation shall pay to the registered holders of Rights Certificates, at the time such Rights are exercised as herein provided, an amount in cash equal to the fraction of the Market Price of one Common Share that the fraction of a Common Share that would otherwise be issuable upon the exercise of such Right is of one whole Common Share at the date of such exercise.

5.6 Rights of Action

Subject to the terms of this Agreement, all rights of action in respect of this Agreement, other than rights of action vested solely in the Rights Agent, are vested in the respective holders of the Rights. Any holder of Rights, without the consent of the Rights Agent or of the holder of any other Rights, may, on such holder's own behalf and for such holder's own benefit and the benefit of other holders of Rights enforce, and may institute and maintain any suit, action or proceeding against the Corporation to enforce such holder's right to exercise such holder's Rights, or Rights to which such holder is entitled, in the manner provided in such holder's Rights Certificate and in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing or any remedies available to the holders of Rights it is specifically acknowledged that the holders of Rights would not have an adequate remedy at law for any breach of this Agreement and will be entitled to specific performance of the obligations under, and injunctive relief against actual or threatened violations of the obligations of any Person subject to, this Agreement.

5.7 Regulatory Approvals

Any obligation of the Corporation or action or event contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the receipt of any requisite approval or consent from any governmental or regulatory authority. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any issuance or delivery of debt or equity securities (other than non-convertible debt securities) of the Corporation upon the exercise of Rights and any amendment or supplement to this Agreement shall be subject to the prior consent of the Toronto Stock Exchange or any other exchange upon which the Common Shares may be listed.

5.8 Declaration as to Non-Canadian or Non-U.S. Holders

If in the opinion of the Board of Directors (who may rely upon the advice of counsel) any action or event contemplated by this Agreement would require compliance by the Corporation with the securities laws or comparable legislation of a jurisdiction outside Canada, the Board of Directors acting in good faith shall take such actions as it may deem appropriate to ensure such compliance. In no event shall the Corporation or the Rights Agent be required to issue or deliver Rights or securities issuable on exercise of Rights to persons who are citizens, residents or nationals of any jurisdiction other than Canada or the United States, in which such issue or delivery would be unlawful without registration of the relevant Persons or securities for such purposes.

5.9 Notices

- (a) Notices or demands authorized or required by this Agreement to be given or made by the Rights Agent or by the holder of any Rights to or on the Corporation shall be sufficiently given or made if delivered, sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid (until another address is filed in writing with the Rights Agent), or sent by facsimile or other form of recorded electronic communication, charges prepaid and confirmed in writing, as follows:

Any notice which is mailed or sent in the manner herein provided shall be deemed given, whether or not the holder receives the notice.
- (d) Any notice given or made in accordance with this Section 5.9 shall be deemed to have been given and to have been received on the day of delivery, if so delivered, on the third Business Day (excluding each day during which there exists any general interruption of postal service due to strike, lockout or other cause) following the mailing thereof, if so mailed, and on the day of telegraphing, telecopying or sending of the same by other means of recorded electronic communication (provided such sending is during the normal business hours of the addressee on a Business Day and if not, on the first Business Day thereafter). Each of the Corporation and the Rights Agent may from time to time change its address for notice by notice to the other given in the manner aforesaid.

5.10 Costs of Enforcement

The Corporation agrees that if the Corporation fails to fulfil any of its obligations pursuant to this Agreement, then the Corporation will reimburse the holder of any Rights for the reasonable costs and expenses (including legal fees) incurred by such holder to enforce his rights pursuant to any Rights or this Agreement.

5.11 Successors

All the covenants and provisions of this Agreement by or for the benefit of the Corporation or the Rights Agent shall bind and enure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns hereunder.

5.12 Benefits of this Agreement

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to give to any Person other than the Corporation, the Rights Agent and the holders of the Rights any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Agreement; further, this Agreement shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Corporation, the Rights Agent and the holders of the Rights.

5.13 Governing Law

This Agreement and each Right issued hereunder shall be deemed to be a contract made under the laws of the Province of Alberta and for all purposes shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of such Province applicable to contracts to be made and performed entirely within such Province.

5.14 Severability

If any term or provision hereof or the application thereof to any circumstance shall, in any jurisdiction and to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, such term or provision shall be ineffective only as to such jurisdiction and to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability in such jurisdiction without invalidating or rendering unenforceable or ineffective the remaining terms and provisions hereof in such jurisdiction or the application of such term or provision in any other jurisdiction or to circumstances other than those as to which it is specifically held invalid or unenforceable.

5.15 Effective Date

This Agreement shall be effective and in full force and effect in accordance with its terms from and after the Effective Date.

5.16 Reconfirmation and Approval

This Agreement must be reconfirmed and approved by a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast by Independent Shareholders who vote in respect of such reconfirmation and approval at a meeting of holders of Voting Shares to be held not later than the date on which the 2027 annual meeting of holders of Voting Shares terminates and thereafter at such a meeting to be held, mutatis mutandis, every three years thereafter. If this Agreement is not so reconfirmed and approved or is not presented for reconfirmation and approval at any such meeting, this Agreement and all outstanding Rights shall terminate and be void and of no further force and effect on and from the close of business on that date which is the earlier of the date of termination of the meeting called to consider the reconfirmation and approval of this Agreement and the date of termination of the annual meeting of holders of Voting Shares in the applicable year; provided, that termination shall not occur if a Flip-in Event has occurred (other than a Flip-in Event which has been waived pursuant to this Agreement), prior to the date upon which this Agreement would otherwise terminate pursuant to this Section 5.16.

5.17 Privacy Legislation

The Corporation and the Rights Agent acknowledge that federal and/or provincial legislation that addresses the protection of individual's personal information (collectively, "Privacy Laws") may apply to obligations and activities under this Agreement. Despite any other provision of this Agreement, neither the Corporation nor the Rights Agent will take or direct any action that would contravene, or cause the other to contravene, applicable Privacy Laws. The Corporation will, prior to transferring or causing to be transferred personal information to the Rights Agent, obtain and retain required consents of the relevant individuals to the collection, use and disclosure of their personal information, or will have determined that such consents either have previously been given upon which the parties can rely or are not required under applicable Privacy Laws.

5.18 Notice of Proposed Actions

In case the Corporation shall propose after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time: (a) to effect or permit (in cases where the Corporation's permission is required) any Flip-in Event; or (b) to effect the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the Corporation's assets, then, in each such case, the Corporation shall give to each holder of a Right, in accordance with Section 5.9 hereof, a notice of such proposed action, which shall specify the date on which such Flip-in Event, liquidation, dissolution, or winding up is to take place, and such notice shall be so given at least 10 Business Days prior to the date of taking of such proposed action by the Corporation.

5.19 Determinations and Actions by the Board of Directors

All actions, calculations and determinations (including all omissions with respect to the foregoing) which are done or made by the Board of Directors in good faith for the purposes hereof shall not subject the Board of Directors or any director of the Corporation to any liability to the holders of the Rights.

5.20 Fiduciary Duties of Directors

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be considered to affect the obligations of the members of the Board of Directors to exercise their fiduciary duties. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be construed to suggest or imply that the Board of Directors shall not be entitled to recommend that holders of Voting Shares reject or accept any Take-over Bid or take any other action including, without limitation, the commencement, prosecution, defense or settlement of any litigation and the solicitation of additional or alternative Take-over Bids or other proposals to holders of Common Shares that the Board of Directors believes is necessary or appropriate in the exercise of their fiduciary duties.

5.21 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence in this Agreement.

5.22 Execution in Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and each of such counterparts shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original, and all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

Schedule M – Shareholder Proposal

The following proposal and supporting statement were submitted by the Salal Foundation, which is represented in this matter by Chief Na’Moks (John Ridsdale), Wet’suwet’en hereditary chief, and Molly Wickham of the Gidimt’en Checkpoint.

Shareholder Proposal

RESOLVED: that the Board commission an independent assessment of the financial, time, reputation and goodwill damage TC Energy has incurred from failing to obtain Free, Prior and Informed Consent for its projects. Shareholders request that the review be disclosed by December 31, 2024. It should be prepared at reasonable cost and omit confidential information.

Shareholder Supporting Statement

The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) stipulates that States shall consult in good faith with Indigenous peoples in order to obtain their free, prior and informed consent (FPIC) before implementing measures that may affect them.¹ The federal UNDRIP Act affirms that UNDRIP has legal effect in Canada as an international human rights instrument.²

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission’s Call to Action #92 calls upon the corporate sector to adopt and implement UNDRIP “as a reconciliation framework and to apply its principles, norms, and standards to corporate policy and core operational activities involving Indigenous peoples and their lands and resources.”³

Free, Prior and Informed Consent (FPIC) is central to the UNDRIP because it recognizes the rights that Indigenous and equivalent peoples have to make their own decisions to say “yes” or “no” to proposals that could impact their lives, lands and futures.

Unfortunately, shareholders need only look to TC Energy’s Coastal Gas Link project, the Tuxpan Tula gas pipeline, and the Southeast Gateway pipeline projects to observe how TC Energy has failed to obtain FPIC, resulting in human rights violations, delayed or more costly projects, and increased political, reputational, and financial risks for the company.

Amnesty International concluded there was a years-long campaign of criminalization and unlawful surveillance against Wet’suwet’en peoples⁴ exercising their Indigenous rights as confirmed by the Canadian Supreme court.⁵

It is concerning that conflict with the Wet’suwet’en, repeated environmental violations⁶ and resulting stop work orders⁷ has damaged TC Energy’s reputation as it works on the Prince Rupert Gas Transmission pipeline, also in northern BC.

In Mexico, TC Energy’s failure to obtain FPIC was central to the controversy, delays, and conflict with the Tuxpan Tula gas pipeline.⁸ By failing to obtain FPIC with the Otomi, Nahuatl, Totonaco and Tepehua peoples, TC Energy violated their Indigenous rights in their traditional territories on land and sea.⁹

With the Southeast Gateway project, TC Energy is repeating the same failures by not obtaining FPIC from the Nahuatl and Nuntajiyi peoples.

Our request for this independent review is prudent, reasonable and proportionate to the growing risks that the company has exposed itself to. We urge shareholders to vote in favour of this proposal to protect TC Energy’s reputation and economic interests.

TC Energy’s Board and Management Response and Voting Recommendation:

The Board and management strongly recommend that shareholders vote AGAINST the Proposal. TC Energy disagrees with the proponent’s position of the need for, or value of, an independent assessment for the reasons below.

For decades, TC Energy has engaged and worked with Indigenous peoples, valuing each community’s unique connection to the land and acknowledging their distinct rights. We prioritize early and honest engagement to apply traditional knowledge in our project planning, reducing impacts and maximizing benefits for Indigenous communities. Through consistent engagement, we aim to understand concerns, share information and open avenues for meaningful participation, striving to build mutual respect and trust with Indigenous peoples across our North American footprint.

Meaningful Engagement and Consultation

We are committed to respecting Indigenous peoples' rights and the principles of FPIC, striving to achieve consent among Indigenous groups potentially affected by our work. We have built strong relationships and gained support from most communities we work with; however, to achieve unanimous alignment and support from every constituent across any long, linear infrastructure project is not reasonable nor feasible. We strive for consensus by identifying and resolving issues collaboratively and sharing benefits. We adhere to the engagement and consultation processes in the jurisdictions where we work and seek to meet or exceed requirements while prioritizing respectful engagement and building partnerships. For example, in Canada, we engage early and often on new projects offering capacity funding for traditional knowledge and land use studies and have created construction and post-construction Indigenous monitoring programs to increase Indigenous participation and knowledge in the planning and execution of our work.

For the Coastal GasLink pipeline project, we spent over a decade engaging with Indigenous communities, building relationships, listening to feedback and adapting our project plans to address community interests and concerns, including 3,100 in-person meetings and over 50,000 communications and interactions. We signed long-term agreements with all 20 elected Indigenous Nations, which provide consent to the project and share benefits over the project's lifecycle. Through construction, over $1.8 billion in contracts were awarded to Indigenous and local businesses and 699 Indigenous people were employed at the peak in 2022. Coastal GasLink's Construction Monitoring and Community Liaison Program and Community Workforce Accommodation Programs employed 79 Indigenous advisors representing 20 Indigenous communities, as well as six Wet'suwet'en Hereditary House groups to promote cultural exchange and traditional knowledge sharing with the workforce. In response to Indigenous communities expressing a desire to become owners in Coastal GasLink, we signed option agreements with 17 First Nations to sell a 10 per cent equity interest in the Coastal GasLink Pipeline Limited Partnership to Indigenous communities across the project corridor. Many local and Indigenous communities have publicly shared their strong support for the project and desire to work with TC Energy. Testimonials and letters of support can be found on the Coastal GasLink website (coastalgaslink.com/supporters).

In the U.S. and Mexico (where Indigenous consultation is led by the federal governments), we work with government bodies to comply with effective Indigenous consultation processes in structure and in practice and to foster community relationships through various social responsibility initiatives including:

- Successful negotiations for right-of-way easements and annual operations meetings with Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe, Fond du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa and Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa.
- Mitigated regulatory risks on the Virginia Reliability Project by building a relationship with the Chief of the Nansemond Indian Nation and engaging in effective negotiations. TC Energy successfully addressed the concerns of the Nation and local stakeholders through supporting ethnographic studies.
- Engaged in Mexico's first Indigenous consultation process led by the federal government on our El Encino-Topolobampo pipeline project. Between November 2014 and February 2015, approximately 75 meetings were held, representing 67 communities. Additionally, from March 2015 to May 2016, 876 communication activities were documented with the communities participating in the consultation. In response to feedback received, we modified the route of the pipeline, addressing the requests of the consulted Indigenous communities.
- Engaged in two consultation processes led by the federal government along the Tuxpan-Tula pipeline project. The outcome was a re-route of the pipeline to accommodate Indigenous communities' request, which resulted in all consulted Indigenous communities agreeing to the project.

Putting our Learnings into Practice

In response to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Call to Action #92, TC Energy developed a Reconciliation Action Plan (tcenergy.com/RAP) and established an Indigenous Advisory Council comprised of six Indigenous leaders across Canada. We have progressed key deliverables in how we work with, and learn from, Indigenous peoples in North America. Notably the implementation of Canadian- and U.S.-specific mandatory cultural awareness training and the introduction of our Canadian Indigenous Equity Framework (tcenergy.com/Indigenousequityframework), which outlines our approach to working with communities to develop shared equity ownership and long-term revenue sources.

In 2023 alone, we engaged with over 300 Indigenous communities across North America, focusing on building relationships and identifying areas for improvement. In addition, we:

- Invested over $7 million across North America toward Indigenous communities and community-led initiatives, focusing on education, safety, emergency preparedness and cultural preservation. For example, we have supported Youth Education and Career Pathways developed with Montana First Nation, funded Sunchild First Nation daycare, provided significant capacity funding to the Morice Watershed Monitoring Trust and supported food security in Ejido Panalachi, a region with over 50 per cent Indigenous population and little access to basic health and education services.

- Provided 305 Indigenous Legacy scholarships across Canada, the U.S. and Mexico.
- Established over 66 unique relationship agreements designed to provide financial support for community-led activities and enable the development of strong, long-lasting relationships.
- Hired regional engagement leads who live in the communities in which we operate in Canada, to ensure that our team is thoroughly informed and genuinely responsive to the local nuances and specific needs of each area.

Beyond this, we are building on our existing $1.44 billion Indigenous contracting spend in 2023 by enhancing our hiring and contracting processes. Our team is developing a comprehensive framework to increase the participation of Indigenous peoples and businesses in the execution of our projects and operational activities for 2024 and beyond.

Commitment to Continuous Learning and Improvement

Our journey has underscored the value of fostering relationships and engaging in meaningful dialogues. We recognize authentic connection requires a genuine openness to feedback and we're committed to continually learning from Indigenous peoples. We're grateful for the guidance from Indigenous partners and the TC Energy Indigenous Advisory Council, who have provided us wisdom and guidance as we aim to continuously improve. In response, we've integrated our engagement strategies across North America to enhance knowledge sharing and consistently apply our practices. This approach strengthens our relationships with Indigenous communities and reflects our dedication to meaningful, community-focused engagement.

Summary

We are committed to working collaboratively with Indigenous groups by sharing project information early and understanding concerns. We strive for transparency and partnership that not only meets but exceeds standards. Informed by UNDRIP, our Indigenous Relations policy (tcenergy.com/IRpolicy), strategy (tcenergy.com/IRstrategy) and guiding principles (tcenergy.com/IRguidingprinciples) embody our dedication to engaging meaningfully to build lasting relationships and trust.

Through ongoing dialogue, creative approaches and regular updates on our progress—which includes progressing our Reconciliation Action Plan goals—we are proud of the relationships we've built. We are committed to continuing to provide ongoing reporting as our initiatives and strategies are supplemented or updated through our annual reporting, including our Report on Sustainability (tcenergy.com/RoS2023) and designated webpage.

TC Energy takes shareholder engagement seriously. We were advised as part of its submission that the Salal Foundation holds 45 shares of TC Energy. We reached out to the designated representative of the Salal Foundation – a person who has repeatedly opposed CGL and resource development – to discuss this shareholder proposal and make ourselves available for a meeting. However, no response has been received from the representative. For these reasons, we do not believe this proposal was submitted with the intent to positively affect shareholder value.

TC Energy disagrees with the proponent's position of the need for, or value of, an independent assessment. This would impose a significant administrative burden and incur unnecessary cost to shareholder value without providing material benefits or new information to management or our shareholders. Therefore, the Board and management strongly recommend that shareholders vote AGAINST this proposal.

WITHDRAWN SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL

The following proposal and supporting statement were submitted by British Columbia Investment Management Corporation (BCI). Following a series of meetings with BCI at which we listened to their concerns and explained the extent of our efforts to build a foundation toward increasingly rigorous levels of Scope 1 and 2 GHG assurance, focus on methane and differences between assurance over midstream industry operations versus the peers that BCI listed, as well as the impact of their proposal to our near-term strategic priorities, BCI has withdrawn their proposal. In response to their concerns, we have agreed that, by the end of July 2025, we will publish a Roadmap to Reasonable Assurance on GHG Reporting and reassess Oil & Gas Methane Partnership 2.0 membership and publish a summary of our reassessment.

Accordingly, shareholders are not being asked to vote on this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal

RESOLVED: Shareholders of TC Energy Corporation request the Board of Directors of the Corporation to commission an independent assurance statement from a recognized audit firm on its climate-related metrics. The statement should provide reasonable assurance on annual metrics for total Scope 1 and 2 emissions, absolute and intensities, including methane metrics for its natural gas business unit.

Furthermore, the company's methane emissions measurement and disclosure should be consistent with a widely recognized framework such as the Oil & Gas Methane Partnership 2.0 (OGMP), which would further anchor the company's reporting methodology against which the reasonable assurance would be provided.

Shareholders request that the Corporation provide an independent reasonable assurance statement by August 2025.

Shareholder Supporting Statement

Shareholders require reliable, objective, consistent, comparable, and timely data to make informed investment decisions and understand the potential impacts of climate-related risks and opportunities on investee companies and investment portfolios. External assurance is commonly used to ensure quality sustainability reporting. Climate-related metrics and risk considerations should be an essential part of the audit process to ensure the integrity of financial markets¹. Seeking reasonable assurance would bring the Corporation's reporting in line with energy peers such as Canadian Natural Resources, Cenovus Energy, Chevron, Eni, Equinor, Exxon, MEG Energy and Total and prepare the Corporation for securities regulations such as the expected U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission proposal to implement mandatory assurance over GHG emissions.

The accuracy of methane emissions reporting continues to be a source of uncertainty and potential risk. The comprehensiveness of OGMP's unique measurement-based reporting framework allows investors to track and compare progress and performance against companies, and it amplifies the effectiveness of companies' abatement activities. OGMP is the best existing vehicle for improving measurement, reporting and verification capability in the energy sector². Over 120 companies with operations in more than 70 countries have joined or committed to OGMP, such as North American companies Cheniere, Chesapeake Energy, ConocoPhillips, Devon Energy, EOG Resources, ExxonMobil, Occidental Petroleum Corporation, Pioneer Natural Resources, and Williams. Member companies represent nearly 25% of global natural gas transmission and distribution pipelines.³

Considering heightened regulatory pressure, these requested actions would strengthen the company's Report on Reliability of Methane Disclosure including its self-assessed performance against OGMP.

Canada and the United States have joined the Global Methane Pledge, committing to using best available inventory methodologies to quantify methane emissions and to achieving at least a 30% reduction by 2030. Direct measurement and third-party validation and assurance can assist companies to anticipate and meet upcoming regulations such as the proposed amendments to the Canadian federal Regulations Respecting Reduction in the Release of Methane and the US Environmental Protection Agency's more stringent proposed standards for monitoring and mitigating methane.
